Peckin' On The Keyboard

by Bob Wunderlin

"Modern Saint Nicholas takes to the air might be an appropriate title for this bit:

Fritz Wedemeyer, Hilltop bowling maestro ordered two bowling ball bags as Christmas gifts from the Burke Co. in Newark, O., about a month ago.

Came the day before Christmas and they hadn't arrived yet. Fritz got the Newark outfit on the phone.

They told him that they hadn't sent them out as yet because they "didn't have the color" he had ordered.

"Get me any color," the roly-poly localite shouted over the phone. "And have them at the Newark airport. I'll be over there in half an hour."

A startled "oh" was all he got as he hung up the receiver, raced over to the airport, clambered into a plane, pointed the nose eastward, by south, and took to the air.

Fifteen minutes later he taxied up the Newark runway, reached out for the bowling bags, waited a minute while news photographers snapped his picture and then back towards the Sullivant airport with his Christmas shopping done.

Janet Declines Car Ride; Cruiser Is OK

Eleven-year-old Janet Gunning doesn't want "to ride those old street cars any more" so she got a free trip in a police cruiser last Saturday when the W. Broad-st car she was riding turned right into Broad-st and was struck by a northbound Parsons-av trolley.

Frightened but uninjured, Janet jobbed out her reluctance to continue her trip on the street cars so the police car took her to her home at 39 Dana-av.

Conductor Loses $17 To Sneak Thieves

Thomas W. Griffin, 46 S. Princeton-av, operator of a W. Broad-st street car, became the first victim of sneak thieves in 1939 when someone pulled the trolley of his car shortly after midnight Sunday and then stole his money changer containing $16.60 in cash and $1 in street car tickets.

Mystery Phone Call Puzzles Investigators

Although preliminary investigation into the double death of Mr. and Mrs. Moses R. Gee, 106 S. Burgess-av, led Coroner E. E. Smith and Columbus police to render a verdict of murder and suicide, several new angles have crept into the case that have led officials to retrace some of the steps in the investigation.

One is the fact that a mysterious phone call was made to Mrs. Wilbur Paullin, 160 S. Burgess-av, about the time the bodies were found.

The voice, described as a youthful feminine voice, told Mrs. Paullin that "Mr. Gee has just shot his wife."

Refusing to disclose her name, the caller said she was phoning from a pay-station and would probably call back later. She never did.

Coroner Smith called after a granddaughter, Barbara Everingham, 14, a West Junior high student, had found the bodies, fully dressed stretched across the bed, said the shooting apparently occurred shortly before noon Wednesday.

There were no notes found.

In Ill Health

Escaped Maniac Sought In Hilltop Chase

Hilltop residents thrilled to the screaming sirens and re echoing gunshots of Columbus police Tuesday afternoon as they chased in vain for a Negro, thought to be Marion Pierce of Indianapolis, criminally insane convict who escaped the Lima State hospital Sunday.

Search for the Hilltop "visitor" began early Tuesday morning when Patrolman Bernard Shoaf and Clayt Borden sighted a car, reported stolen from Bradford, O., on W. Broad-st near Schultz-av, and pursued it north on Central-av and east to McKinley-av where the Negro forced his car into the side of the police cruiser and jumped.

Within an hour 100 cruisermen, motorcycle men, two state patrol cruisers from the sheriff's office, township cruisers and officers from police departments of surrounding villages of Grandview and Upper Arlington took up the search throughout the Hilltop district to no avail.

BRICKER CHOICE

SCOTT E. HAMBLETON
Gets liquor offices

Appointment of Scott Elwood Hambleton, 34 W. Weisheimer-rd, a graduate of West high school, as assistant director of liquor control and supervisor of stores and agencies was announced Tuesday by Governor-elect John W. Bricker.

Hambleton, who was appointed to the position by Liquor Director-designate Jacob B. Taylor, will assume office next Monday when Bricker is inaugurated.

Has Had Experience

The new appointee, 34 years old, served in various capacities in the state auditor's office from 1926 to 1936.

About three years ago Hambleton became associated with the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. He holds the degree of bachelor of science in accounting from Ohio State university.

Miss Linda Myers Wins 1939 Stork Derby

Haldy-av Resident Wins Baby Derby

Presenting—the winnah and new champion—tiny Linda Myers, who, ten seconds after the year 1939 came into being, herself entered this world, a small bundle of feminine humanity.

And as her cries blended with the whistles and horns that were still greeting the New Year outside Grant Hospital, where she was born, she clinched the second annual First Baby of the Year contest sponsored by the Hilltop Record and Hilltop merchants.

The contest was limited to residents in the community served by the Hilltop Record.

Linda, six pounds, nine ounces at birth, is the daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Donald R. Myers, 117 Haldy-av. They have one other child, Davis, 7. Myers is a sheet metal worker at the Columbus Heating and Ventilating Co.

The first Hilltop baby of 1939, who incidently was also the first baby born in the city of Columbus in the New Year, is shown here as the proud papa. Myers, a former Hilltop Record carrier-boy, explained to her that the Citizen photographer was all set to snap her picture for the RECORD.

Dr. E. J. Simms said the baby's arrival occured between the first time the whistles started blowing and the time they ended their first blast.

Apparently no other babies "were close" to the winner since no other claimants appeared before the 5 p. m. deadline yesterday.

In addition to the previously announced list of prizes Mrs. Cora Sheron, 105 N. Westmoor-av, is presenting her Dainty Maid Health service to Mrs. Myers.

Other officers to be installed include A. C. Nafzger, first vice president; John Riepenhoff, second vice president; C. H. Campbell, secretary, and C. G. Wilcox, treasurer.

The board of directors to be "seated" at this meeting include Dr. J. H. Czatt, L. E. Saunders,

Jitterbugs Swing and Sway At Alumni New Year Party

With cousins Helen and John [illegible] proving themselves worthy members of that great genus of Jitterbugs to cop the grand prize of eight dollars. Members and friends of the West High Alumni association turned out in full regalia to dance to the music of Paul Cook's orchestra and to enjoy the association's initial New Year's eve party held in the gym at West high.

There were horns, confetti, crazy hats and plenty of noise, with the jitterbug contest featuring the evening. Running a close second in the primary event were Andrey Leitz and Jimmy Ham, and although they didn't exactly profess to be jitterbugs, Ruth Hessennuer and Bill Ferguson cut some PRETTY fancy capers. The other contestants were Jane Kinmarty and Henry Strickland. They were awarded third prize.

George Hardy presided over refreshments.

Events of the evening were jotted down somewhat in this fashion: Music by Paul Cook . . . Mary Ann Dunner looking very petite in bright red escorted by steady Ralph Deems . . . distinguished Cora Ferguson and Mrs. Clyde Moore, the latter in yellow satin, practicing up on the Lambeth Walk . . . Betty Ham, George "Beefsteak") Milley and Mary Ruth Huffman and Frank Blackstone enjoying the party—and each other . . . pretty songstress with the orchestra creating much ado among jitterbugs . . . Les Western, West high broncho, singing just like Bing Crosby . . . Olive Liddick and Phyllis Knepp truckin' on down . . . Mary Louise Kinney (in rose taffeta formal) and Mary Alice Lauer (in yellow) escorted by Art and Earnest Pettison. Mary, we learn, cracked an "A" in nursing at OSU last quarter, and is being a jitterbug for relaxation.

Long towards the middle of the evening, Bob Ferguson and cousin Jim Ogden were quite the most popular fellows, as they distributed horns, hats etc. . . . Chaperons C. O. Hartley and H. G. Deems quite generously offered to get the somewhat shy young ladies into the swing of things . . . suggestion vetoed by wives . . . Jim Sweeney and Norma Belts quite engaged in each other, as were Marjorie Ferris and Walter Hiser, sitting one out . . . finally learned the name of attractive Betty Lou Anderson who was wearing aqua and was squired by Jack Cell.

Ann Brether was there in cream colored taffeta armed by John Watkins . . . Broncho Paul Rogers arrived late but not too late to [illegible] some dances . . . Elmo Kunz accompanied by a little lady in red (name unknown) . . . Floyd "Doc" Brown explaining that companion Ethel Smith had it all over on Ginger Rogers . . . Betty Smith (no relation to Ethel) was accompanied by Leonard McGonigal . . . Cridders Bill Conn, Bill Mack, Henry Highful, Ned Bell were present with Marylin Meyers, Jean Haines, Elizabeth Beord and Dot Kimmel, the current heart interests. Prexy Jack Sherrick doing his usually fine job of mastering of ceremonies.

Among others present were Ruth Dunnet and Ben Varner, Martha Mitchel and Gayle Williams, Elma Waddington, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watts, Cap Hoover, Caryol Austin and "Pod" Jones, Choice Titus and Kaylor Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark . . . Ed Ferguson on the door . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haunts and Clyde Moore also chaperoning.

ENTERTAIN WITH WATCH PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Friend entertained with a New Year's eve watch party at their home, 693 Richardson-av. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bah, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bettinger, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Miller, Miss Alice Flick and Ted Kirkland, both of Galion.

Home-made Mush

IT IS about time something was done about the fancy packaging and synthetic nature of some of the staple foods of life. We refer in this case to the matter of mush—Yes, corn meal mush.

All autumn and during the holiday season we have known there was something missing. It was mush—particularly fried mush. We could not locate hominy in any other receptacle but a can—when it was opened it looked like hominy—tasted like hominy, but some how we remembered the can, and the tang and zest of the food was gone, but the last straw came when we asked for mush at a restaurant—the waitress said she had it, and when we asked whether it was made from yellow or white meal, freshly ground—the blank look told us that mush to her was just mush. We asked to see the mush. Instead of bringing in a bowl or a kettle it was a neat package all done up in waxed paper, which she explained came with the baked goods.

Now there are some things which can not be imitated—some things which ought not be imitated, and in our view corn meal mush is one of them. Why, for a younger generation it was the staple supper for countless youngsters. And it was mush from fresh meal from the grist mill, cooked in the proper way, with right attention given to the sifting of the meal into the boiling water, so that when the meal had thickened into a homegenous mass it was as smooth as a piece of marble, without a lump or piece of grit to mar its looks or spoil its flavor.

Great gobs of this pioneer food ladled into bowls of milk nourished the youth of a nation at supper time in an earlier day and gave him a breakfast of the same food, with the mush fried into sizzling brown slaps.

Mush from the baker—wrapped in cellophane—well, it seems impossible, and while the only thing we can do about it is to write this piece—we certainly recommend that some restaurants feature home-made fried mush.

We know of one steady customer who would respond.

Letters To The Editor

Editor
Hilltop Record:

I would like to submit the name of a good man who in the opinion of many persons I have talked to would be outstanding as the mayor of a business-like administration for the city of Columbus. His name is Fred Dunn of the Dunn Taft Co.

Mr. Dunn has shown keen business judgment in the operation of his store in the last few years when every business has been stymied.

Through his acts we shall know him. Thus a survey of his store shows you he has no love for shoddy things whether store stock or personnel, also you see he is not inclined to the extreme of prohibitive luxuries. Instead he has struck a stable, medium priced good quality of merchandise, which in my opinion shows a trend of his mind toward that sort of thought which would cause him to be moderate in all things.

His honesty in above reproach, his behavior is very rational.

Next, his political affiliations. Were he politically minded and a pawn of the political rings, we would have heard of him in this connection in the past.

He is a man whom wealthy or poor can talk to, because he talks both languages.

Now as to my own thought in regard to a man for mayor, may I say that the people of Columbus want a $25,000 a year man as mayor on a salary of $6,000. We get what we pay for, is it not true? Would each or any of you same people quit a job of the higher salary to take over the mayor's job at $6,000?

The operation of any four or five million dollar business will support a head at a salary of $10,000 to $50,000 per year, and yet we as voters want an honest, efficient head for our city government at a salary that will not command that type man.

A movement was on foot several years ago to put over the City Manager Plan of Civic Government. I wonder how many people in favor of this realized the operation of same; a good City Manager's salary for a municipality the size of Columbus would be $20,000 to $30,000 per year and this same man would be chosen by a board of city fathers (elected as are the councilmen of today) who would meet behind closed doors and finally decide on the man who could do, not necessarily the city, but to them, the most good.

So as a parting word let us realize that we get what we pay for—and no more.

A believer in Columbus

Sir:

I am informed that a group representing a part of the substantial citizenry of Columbus is interested in the candidacy of a reliable, non-political, honest and industrious man for Mayor.

Such a candidate might be Ray G. Hauntz. And I do not favor him over others because of "political" experience or contacts. I have known Mr. Hauntz long enough to be rather certain that his efforts in living have had "quality" their aim, not power, money, personal glory or political influence. If Ray Haunts couldn't handle a job because of the worth of the job itself, he would be the first to turn it over to those who could.

But of still more importance, he, as Mayor, would be guided by advice from qualified advisors. His cabinet—or board of advisors—would be non-political and business-like. Ray Hauntz could be expected to operate in that manner. He has been business-like in private life and his work on the school board met with such fine public approval that he polled more votes than any other single candidate for any office when he was last elected.

If we judge Ray Hauntz on past performance, on his personal pleasure in doing things the "better" way, we can be rather certain that the operation of the public business would be done with interest, enthusiasm, honest effort and a sincere desire to give Columbus better quality in municipal government.

I personally have faith that Ray Hauntz would seek for the best; that he would be guided by the judgment of competent advisors selected carefully, independently of political debts.

Respectfully,
A Columbus Citizen

Dear Sirs:

Please allow me to congratulate you on your editorial in the Hilltop Record yesterday, The Kind of a Man We Should Have For Mayor.

I agree with the qualities you pointed out in your article and as a citizen of the City of Columbus I appreciate your stand in the matter.

Being familiar as I was with the financial affairs of the city government from 1930 to 1936 inclusive, the very darkest days of the history of Columbus, the time when bonds were sold for poor relief, when notes were sold in the anticipation of the collection of taxes, and eight millions of dollars of P. W. A. bonds were sold to give work to the unemployed, which resulted in the erection of the east wing of the city hall, our fine Main Street bridge, sewer disposal plant and best of all, our much needed sanitary sewer that did away with the muck that had been in many basements of Hilltop homes in the past.

Perhaps this experience which I had during that time prompted me, more so, to praise your stand.

There are two places which I trust will never again be closed and the windows boarded up, that is, schools and firehouses.

Respectfully yours,
Samuel J. Willis

Editor of the Record:

We thought that you might like to publish this little poem written by one of our talented Hilltop girls —Jacqueline Pfeifer.

Miss Pfeifer wrote the poem about five years ago when she graduated from John Burroughs to go to West junior high.

As she says: "I had not the nerve to send it to any of the teachers at the time but the longer I kept it the more I am convinced that it belongs to the school."

We received this poem this Christmas and we would appreciate it very much if you could publish this poem.

Sincerely yours,
Stella Chart.

The poem:

MY ALMA MATER

Though the last song has ended
And echoed through Burrough's Hall,
Though from its portals I've wended
To heed maturity's call,
Your song will never be muted
In farewell or final refrain
But remains in my heart computed
As it drifts through memory lane.

You have played upon the heart strings
Of my impressionable youth
The time spent there has sped on wings
In memory and in truth.
Those happy days within your walls
Now passed into eternity
Cannot be imprisoned within its halls
For they're part of my life's symphony.

As the ivy clings to your stout wall
So the memories cling to me
'Til the last leaf falls beyond recall
'Til death ends all severity.

—Jacqueline Louise Pfeifer

Before the meeting, the strongly anti-Semitic Kuhn sent Dickstein a telegram wishing him a "Happy New Year," the Jewish New Year celebration having begun the day before.

Shots Fail To Save Local Cab Drivers Machine

By playing a "hunch" and trailing a taxicab for nearly three miles, Motorcycle Patrolman Edward Mundy last night captured a robbery suspect in a Hilltop driver's taxi and fired four shots at the suspect's companion, who escaped in the cab, probably wounded.

The suspect Curtis Hampton was arrested by Patrolman Mundy at Fifth-av and Olentangy-blvd as he got out of a cab which Mundy had trailed through Grandview.

Edward Elliott, 20, of 213 Cypress-ave, driver of the cab, said Hampton was one of two men he picked up at Russell and High streets and was taking to Grandview when Mundy started trailing the cab because he thought the two men in the back seat were "hunched over" suspiciously.

At Virginia and Fifth-aves, the men put a revolver against Elliott's neck, then robbed him. Elliott stopped the cab at Fifth and Olentangy-blvd, and jumped out, yelling for help. Mundy handcuffed Hampton, left him in Elliott's care, and tried to catch the cab which was driven away by the other man.

Murder, Suicide

Coroner Smith said he believed Gee shot his wife in the right temple, then fired a bullet into his heart. He fell across the bed with the rifle beneath him.

None of the neighbors heard an outcry—nor a shot.

Gee was 66, his wife 56.

A powder burn on the bed clothing indicated, Smith said, that Gee may have missed the first time he fired at his wife. Gee's wrists were unbound and Mrs. Gee apparently had been hit over the head, probably with the rifle.

Two Alive

Dr. E. W. Arnold, 1384 Sullivant-ave, family physician, was first called. He notified police.

In addition to the two daughters, the son and granddaughter, Gee is survived by two brothers, W. H. Gee and D. H. Gee, both of Columbus; his mother, Mrs. Jacob Gee, and a sister, Mrs. Grace Cristwell.

Mrs. Gee is survived by a sister, Nellie G. Martin.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m., Saturday at the Leach Funeral home, 1453 E. Main-st, burial in Memorial burial park.

Never Ending

"Can debt collecting be called a profession?" asks a correspondent.

"No, a pursuit."

Sulzberger, Cramer Hosts At Turkey Feed

Dr. C. O. Cramer and Dr. Fred Sulzberger played the role of hosts at the latter's home, 2948 Crescent-dr, Monday evening when a group of men were served up a turkey dinner. The feast was the outcome of one of "Pop" Waymer's turkey raffles. Cramer, the winner, volunteered the prize to the group and Sulzberger offered the basement of his home for the dining room.

Clarence Story, 208 N. Terrace-rd, roasted the bird to a turn. Trimmings galore were supplied by Mrs. Sulzberger. Those attending were Curtis Wilcox, Story, Dr. A. E. Breese, Paul Wichterman, Dr. W. M. Baker, C. C. Hartley, Sulzberger, E. O. Melvin, Cramer, Waymer, Dr. Chester Brady, C. J. Kohn, Tom Davis, Donald Smith, H. G. Deems, Dr. J. H. Cratt and George Robinson.

Due to the completeness of the meal serving of the dessert was deferred until 10:30 in the evening.

SPORTS by Woody Owens

The boys' 1939 West Church league basketball season opened Tuesday night in a very impressive fashion, with St. Aloysius, Hoge Memorial, West Park M. E. No. 1 and Highland Avenue Friends chalking up victories.

The feature game of the evening saw the St. Aloysius Blue Streaks completely manhandle Holy Family, the defending champions, by the score of 22-11, thus throwing this year's race into a wide open affair.

The Blue Streaks' victory was due largely to the great work of Paschal on both defense and offense. Morgan and R. Brannigan led the scoring with 10 and 8 points respectively.

Hoge Memorial, another favorite, displayed great offensive strength in running up an early lead of 19-0, then coasting to an easy 36-10 triumph over hapless Briggsdale M. E.

P. Fulton and Curtiss led the Presbyterians' offense with 16 and 11 points, respectively, as McFadden and Schneider stood out on defense.

West Park M. E. appears to be a dark horse in this year's race as it looked very impressive in handing Glenwood M. E. the short end of a 32-12 score.

Nader and Gray led the Methodist offensive with 9 and 7 points, respectively, as Hale played a fine floor game.

Led by Hoskins, who put on a one-man offensive in scoring 12 points, Highland Avenue Friends, the league's new entry, handed West Park M. E. No. 2 a 22-15 setback.

Morrison tallied 8 points for the losers.

The girls' schedule for Monday is as follows:

Hilltop C. of C., the pre-season favorite, will open the season when they clash with Hilltonia U. B. at 7:15 p. m.

St. Aloysius and Hoge Memorial, defending champions, clash at 7:45 in what should be one of the best games of the season. Westgate Evangelical and Burgess U. B. clash at 8:15 p. m. Should an eighth team enter by Monday they will play Avondale U. B. at 8:45 p. m.

THANKS, Mr. Mike Desmond, of the Citizen for them kind words in your Sunday sheet which refers to us as a liberal and plain talker . . . and also thanks for carrying the gist of our editorial of the week before.

We take it that you are interested in learning who we believe might make a good mayor for "good old Columbus-town." If so we'd say the power of suggestion doesn't carry much weight with us after looking over the long list of prospective candidates that you present for inspection.

In the first place you will recall our editorial stated we want a man who will not play politics for the purpose of reelection . . . one that had some old fashioned gumption and forethought . . . a man resolved to do a fine job, regardless of whether the machine politicians withdrew their support from him.

In other words . . . we don't think an out and out politician would fit the picture.

NOW Mr. Desmond, we think you have batted out some pretty fair prospects for the job . . . that is, some men who'd like to have the job . . . But aren't they all politicians? Let's review your list . . . You batted 'em out . . . now We'll toss them back to you . . .

Mr Walter Heer, you suggest . . . he's the man to . . . Dons the Democrats around this county, isn't he? He has four votes in city council already . . . and frankly, Mr. Desmond, we like Mr. Art Lamneck very much . . . We think he's . . . But for Bill Lehman, you certainly don't think he's timber for the job of mayor . . . Dave Shade, possibly stingy enough with the taxpayer's money, but is that enough? . . . as for color . . . we don't think we need a colorful man necessarily . . . what we want is a man who is capable of running the largest business of the city . . . Give Don Wiper a little more time, he may be good material in years to come . . . Bob Beatty, certainly not just because he is willing . . . even he is like Barcus—why not run Barcus?

Ray Schaeffer, Henry Frank . . . two more men who have been active for years in politics . . . but would they clean house if it needed cleaning? We don't know enough about Fred Bennett to say what he might do with the job. At least we think he is perhaps too little known to tally the necessary number of votes to get elected. And that last surprise, you say we might do worse than William Schneider, the Republican chairman . . . and how? And too, you must remember, if we pick an out and out party man for the job either Mr. Heer or Mr. Schneider may be mayor anyway . . . and that's what we don't like about staying too close to party lines when we pick an executive for Columbus' largest business. A private corporation with such large amounts of money to spend and so many services to be provided accomplishes many times over what a municipality can accomplish with such a political set-up.

YES SIR, this job of selecting a candidate for mayor . . . a man who fills the bill . . . is certainly a hard one. But, you know, Mr. Desmond, we believe the people of Columbus are ready to back such a man and such a movement. You know, we're predicting some big changes in the affairs of politics in this city and county in the next few years. Possibly this is the year to start the wheel rolling. We believe there are many, many more THINKING people in Columbus than our politicians think there possibly could be.

We've been told that politics can't be honest . . . that you can't get honest men into public office . . . that public offices are just naturally always run by patronage giving politicians . . . that there can be up efficiency in public administration. We've been in-

Irish Take Hoge In Season Opener

Girls' Games Draw Capacity Crowds In Church League

By Woody Owens

The girls' 1939 West Church league basketball season took its bow Monday evening before a capacity crowd which witnessed some of the finest games ever played in the local league.

The feature game of the evening saw the Irish of St. Aloysius completely tame Hoge Memorial's wildcats, the 1938 champions, by the score of 32-29.

The game in itself was the most thrilling and hardest fought in the league's history.

The Irish led from the opening whistle but with two minutes to play the Wildcats brought the large crowd to their feet by scoring eight consecutive points to tie the count at 27-27 only to see their hopes fade when M. Colburn and Meyers tossed in field goals to clinch the victory. The former tallied 15 points as Myers and Stewart scored 8 points each.

Defending Champs

The defending champions students were E. Johnston, B. Johnston and Corcoran on offense with 12, 9 and 7 points respectively and the fine defensive play of Kline.

Hilltop C of C, long the finest defensive team in the league, took Hilltonia U. B. in stride by the score of 16-9. Wilhelm and F. Palmer led the Christians' attack with 7 and 4 points respectively.

The fine defensive play of Alkire, Bumgarner, Wright, Goodhue, Bumgarner and Wright featured Westgate Evangelical game every evidence of being a title threat by completely submerging Burgess U. B. by the score of 34 to 5. High, Cullman and Thornton led the winners' offensive with 9, 8 and 5 points respectively as Scoles and Williams stood out defensively.

Second Week

The completion of the second week of play in the boys' West Church league finds Hoge Memorial, St. Aloysius and West Park No. 1 leading the pack with unscathed records.

Hoge Memorial breezed to a 24-13 triumph over Highland-av Friends. P. Fulton and Curtiss divided scoring honors with 8 points each as McFadden stood out on defense. Hoskins again led the losers' attack with 6 points.

St. Aloysius encountered little trouble in defeating a much improved Briggsdale M. E. quintet 34-16. Morgan Paschal and D. Brannigan led the Blue Streaks' attack with 12, 11 and 6 points respectively.

West Park M. E. No. 1 nosed out Burgess U. B. 22-19 in a well played encounter. Mitchel and Gray led the Methodists' attack with 9 points each as Whetstone tallied 10 points for the losers.

Led by forwards Dorcy and Bendetti with 22 and 10 points respectively, Holy Family, the defending champions, struck back with vengeance after last week's defeat at the hands of St. Aloysius, to run rough shod over a very weak West Park No. 2 team by the count of 46-10.

Birthday Ball Planned Jan. 30

The campaign to raise funds for the fight against infantile paralysis is receiving the cooperation of leading citizens from every section of the state. This was exemplified at a meeting last week attended by more than 200 persons including various county chairmen and their co-workers.

Climax of the campaign will come on the night of Jan. 30 when the president's birthday celebration will be observed at dances in both the Neil house and Deshler Wallick hotel.

Another plan to raise funds this year is "The March of Dimes," whereby every man, woman and child can contribute their bit in the fight against the dreaded disease.

Bucks Meet East Tonight

The West High Buckaroos, conquerers of the Aquinas Terriers by a 25-20 count in their opening City league tussle last Friday, will strive for their second straight league win today when the East High Bengals visit the Cowboy stronghold. East walloped South in its league opener and will be the pregame favorite.

Although the Terrier game was roughly contested and numerous fouls were called on both outfits, only two players were ejected from the game via the foul route. The West scoring was evenly divided with Rogers leading the locals with six points, and six other Cowboys contributing to the point total. West grabbed a 6-3 advantage as the first period ended and led 13-8 at the half and 20-14 at the three-quarter mark.

Immediately following the East-West basketball contest tonight the Triangle club will sponsor a dance in the gym with Paul Cook's orchestra furnishing the music. Tickets will be on sale at the door or may be purchased from members of the Triangle club. The dance is open to the public.

Last Saturday evening the Bucks trekked to Mt. Vernon where the mighty Yellow Jackets of that city gave them a 46-37 beating. West led at the first quarter, 10-7, but a third period spurt left them too far in arrears ever to catch up again. The contest the previous evening had its toll on the Buckaroos and slowed them up considerably during the second half.

Hilltop Veterinarian Retires From O. S. U.

Emerson Clements, technician in the college of veterinary medicine at Ohio State university, has retired, and with him goes the memory of 34 years of service in the field of the veterinarian profession.

Clements, who resides at 423½ S. Hague-av, has been associated with the university since 1905, at which time only 3000 persons were then enrolled. Lanterns, he says, were used as a source of light in a few of the buildings. Now, it holds the title of the highest rating veterinary college in the world. He recommends this profession to boys and girls, although there has always been a scarcity of girls.

Born in Ross county, just south of Chillicothe, he attended schools in that district. He later entered a normal school in Indiana for two summers. His pastime is gardening which he pursues during the summers.

Clements will be given an official service certificate from the president of the board of trustees, thus expressing their appreciation for his long-time contributions behind the scenes of the university campus.

The Hilltop Record
Columbus, Ohio

Gentlemen:

When a person has dealings with a firm for many years and after each transaction, he has a feeling of complete satisfaction there is established confidence and trust. This has been my experience with the Jones Lumber Co.

To me the Jones Lumber Co. stands for:
(1) Highest quality of lumber.
(2) First class millwork.
(3) Courteous treatment.
(4) Friendly relations.
(5) Fair dealings.
(6) Prompt and efficient delivery.

The above qualities enable me to feel free to talk with my customers in a very enthusiastic and confidential manner regarding materials to be used. And I am sure that due to this I in turn am much better able to please my customers and build them houses of which they can justly be proud to own. The Jones Lumber Co. has made for me all satisfied customers.

Round About The Hilltop

Last week concluded a series of columns by Bob Wunderlin who has been with The Record for several months. Beginning this week Bob takes up his new duties with the Owens-Illinois Glass Co. . . . We want to take this opportunity to say "Thanks" to Bob for his fine cooperation while a member of the Record staff and to wish him well in his new job. We'll be mighty glad to hear from him at all times.

Now that ripe tomatoes are out of season, I'll let you in on a few of our choice facts and fancies seen and heard about the Hilltop. So here goes.

"Take it Easy Dick Gilger" of the Charlie Kent tribe goes about looking for lettuce on the shelf of canned goods—but maybe that's where it belongs, who knows? . . . Gee! Were Ed Weaver and Fred Perkins surprised when they called on two girls the other evening and learned they had gone to bed . . . Scott Rose was seen strutting his stuff Sat. evening—where were the girls "Scottie?" . . .

Recently chatting with an old, old resident of the Hilltop, she mentioned the time when the school board was the laughing stock of the Hilltoppers—they were constructing West Broad-st school in a retired cornfield . . .

What were Throckmorton and Roberts fighting over that alcohol "jug" for? . . . Warren Berry, who some time ago acted as bridesmaid at a wedding, received a "Betsy Wetsy" doll at Christmas time . . . The bundle of joy delivered to the Murphy's around Christmas has certainly made them proud—his name is Jackie . . . Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sapp left Sunday noon for "good ole" Florida. Some people have all the luck . . .

Congratulations to 11-year-old George "Bud" Cline who really "mowed 'em down" for a very nice 200, the highest possible number of points in bowling. The only other perfect score marked up since the local alleys changed hands was made by Art Bishop.

Those few extra pounds Sue Cleveland has acquired have sure got her guessing . . . The George Robinson at the Sulzberger-Cramer turkey feed turned out to be Ray . . . Jim Whitehead of the Jacques Furniture Co. is in Chicago at the furniture market . . . "Edythe" of the Broad Warren market unexpectedly arrived home and found her housekeeper asleep. Our solution is that she either works too hard or not hard enough . . . The three sales ladies eating at Tom's restaurant Monday were sure hitting a new high . . .

Bill Conrad, the young gentleman with the small colored sox, is maybe dreaming over Mona Webb . . . Reports have it that they spent part of a Sunday afternoon playing a marble game . . .

The Women Singers minstrel show to be given at John Burroughs has been put on the must list of Mrs. Kline . . . What's become of Matin Sheldon? . . . In case you might be interested—By putting in an extra nickel, the Broad Hague bus will move right along . . . The West band is planning a S W E L L concert Feb. 23 and 24, under the direction of H. E. Hutchinson . . . Maxine Rogers it is reported has a prominent hangout—it's none other than Murphy's . . .

Looks like Al Allbrando, athletic Aquinas alumnus, is wearing Claire MacGregoire, the bewitching West Hi warbler, on his arm as an almost steady fixture . . .

John Wolfe—former Record editor—thinks being a university instructor is swell stuff . . . To whom it may concern—Ann Kirkpatrick makes the cutest saleswoman—or I mean salesgirl . . . Eleanor Brannigan and Peggy Hobbs, senior inseparables, turned out to be two sleepy people the night of the 12A hop—just sore feet . . .

To many of the midterm graduates who have pictured in their minds how triumphantly they would turn in their books: Counting the hours till graduation they don't weigh so heavy now—do they? . . .

When asking a young man what his ambition was he replied, "To see Sullivant-av paved as good as Broad-st." That's not a bad idea is it? . . . Bill Bell is back from Detroit to spend a few months before the wander bug hits him again . . . Who is this girl Flaugen we hear so much about? . . . Charlie Kent's famous last words in a speech given at the Business Men's Association Tuesday night were, "Just watch my smoke." It is rumored that Virginia Haley is wearing Fred's "frat" pin . . . And by the way, Fred Underman was home for a 10 days visit from Carnegie Tech in Pittsburgh, Pa. . . .

Letters To The Editor

Hilltop Record
Dear Editor:

While reading your paper of last week we were glad to note that we have a business enterprise on the Hilltop that is interested enough in our city government to make the move that you have by asking the people to name a suitable candidate for Mayor of Columbus.

We like your idea of trying to find some one who would be the choice of the general public and not one who is thrust upon us by one party or the other.

I feel that we are very fortunate in having just such a person as you have described on our Hilltop, and he is no other than our Genial Jim Cooper.

Mr. Cooper is a man who could not be persuaded to do anything that is not strictly honorable and if you have heard his broadcasts you will know that he is not afraid to let the world know what kind of a man he is. You could not meet Mr. Cooper and not know that he is not only a fine man but one who possesses an unusual amount of good sense and business ability, and is highly capable of holding such an office.

Mr. Cooper has hosts of friends and would be strongly supported and I do not believe could be defeated regardless of his party or political machinery.

Feeling sure that Mr. Cooper's name as a candidate for Mayor of Columbus will meet with your approval and again complimenting you on your move in the interest of the people of Columbus, I am

Yours very truly,
Mr. H. G. Allen
162 N. Ogden Ave.

Mr. Hartley
Care of Hilltop Record:

I hereby propose Mr. William Schneider, 156 S. Roys Ave., as definitely the best man for a candidate for Mayor of Columbus in the year of 1939.

He was an immediate neighbor of mine for 25 years on S. Fifth St., Columbus, O.

Also he and his parents were Christian members of our church, St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church, 61 E. Mound St., more than 25 years, and therefore I consider him an appropriate man to fill this office.

Respectfully,
Mrs. Oswald Worderman
212 S. Burgess Ave.
Columbus, Ohio.

February Grads Have Gala Party

The February graduating class of West high school gave their annual party Friday and with it came a gala affair to all that attended. Every color of the rainbow was displayed together with corsages and various kinds of accessories. The music was furnished by Howard Schubert and his orchestra from 8 o'clock to 12.

Among those present and who contributed to the colorful array were Eleanor Schultz in white lace, and Peggy Hobbs, outstanding in red velvet. Catherine Penn, escorted by Ernie Amrine, looked lovely as bride like white net. Frances Winklehouser in royal blue satin and gold accessories wore a corsage of Johanna Hill roses. Those appearing in taffeta were Ruth Wendall in pink, Frances Engleheard in sky blue, Faye Henry in peach and Lillian Boyer in aqua.

Mary Rector, who spent the evening with Bob Tong, wore blue green chiffon. Virginia Sudbury in variegated purple taffeta looked very becoming. Steel blue satin was Ruth Belmont's attire with wine accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

All boys wore dark suits, making quite a contrast to the bright colors worn by the girls. Miss Blanche Kern and Dr. H. H. Reighley assisted in making the party a success.

TRUE enough, it seems that at present writing it's hard to find many examples of efficiency, honesty, and honest-to-goodness intelligence in the administration of public offices. Regardless of how rotten the American system gets at times, we believe that for the most part there are enough good, simplicity loving common people in this country that we're not going to allow an inferior system to replace the many fine things we are able to enjoy in this country today that other nations never have had or never will have. And house cleaning in public administration and efficiency therein, like charity, begins at home. There's why we're interested in this coming campaign for mayor. We think some interesting things are going to happen!

Scout Troop 45 Has Successful Sale

Scout Troop No. 45, of West junior high school expressed their appreciation to the public in helping to make their Christmas tree sale a success; also, to Mr. Voll for the use of the building in storing the trees.

On Jan. 19, the troop will have a tenderfoot investiture service. The boys who will be installed to become scouts are Don Good, Don Crosley, Jim Brown, Stanley Taylor, Tom Sulkberger, Robert Kenworth, Richard Frank, Bob Trickle and Kempy Allen.

Good Lighting Available By Many Methods

Proper lighting for the closets in a home may be solved through selection from many available methods.

A ceiling light in a closet may have a pull chain or wall switch. There is always the danger, however, that this light may be forgotten and burn needlessly for hours. A switch outside the closet door may be equipped with a pilot light which glows red when the light in the closet is on.

A door switch which automatically turns on the light in the closet when the door is opened and turns it off when the door is closed is satisfactory.

Another arrangement is a light which burns for a stated time and then automatically turns off. This guards against wasted electricity.

All Wants Can Be Solved By A Few Lines in our Want Ads.

About A Mayor

Considerable comment has been forthcoming on our interest in the coming mayoralty campaign. The immediate question in each instance seems to be, "Who do you think would make a good mayor?"

Our interest in this campaign or any other is not our desire to forward the political ambitions of any individual. Neither are we merely interested in thrusting a thorn into the side of either of the political parties.

From the outset it can be truthfully stated that we believe in the necessity of parties. They have their rightful place in the selection of public officials. We do not, however, believe in political parties going into office on the coat tails of their candidate.

Therein lies our interest in selecting a candidate who is popular enough to pull the necessary number of votes but at the same time a man who can assure us he will not be guided directly in all his decisions by the party head.

Our interest is in finding such a man. We believe we know of this type of man. It will remain to be seen if he can be influenced to enter such a race at this time. We sincerely believe he would be worthy of support by citizens of Columbus. We believe this would be the start of a program that could be far reaching in giving to this community the best type of municipal government.

Year Of Salesmanship

W. G. Cameron of the Ford Motor Co. recently pointed out in one of his radio talks that 70 percent of the goods sold in this country annually are sold by 30 percent of the salesmen.

He believes this is a year for salesmanship. This is a year of opportunities that have been present for many, many years but as yet have not been developed.

But most important is the thing he terms salesmanship . . . It is that business of being of service to the buyer . . . not just merely dragging in a bunch or orders like a belt full of scalps. Customers who are scalped can be scalped but once. The best of salesmanship consists of creating intelligent buyership. In our eagerness to sell we must take time to help our customers to buy.

Back To School

Long anticipated and now realized is our opportunity to return for special work at Ohio State university.

Four years in college classrooms and a degree award at the conclusion of that period is not enough to cause a person to realize the true value of the opportunities presented by the state university. If you do not believe it go through with plans for entry in the graduate school. See for yourself the changed attitude you have toward 'seeking' rather than having certain educational requirements thrust at you. See also the friendly cooperative feeling so evident on the part of those men who are giving their time to assist you in this business of finding out things for your own benefit.

Already with but a few hours spent in the classrooms at Ohio State this quarter we can think of no more pleasant and balancing effects than to be able to again combine our practical day by day work with study.

Worth Repeating

Emerson has long been our favorite of American authors. He has given us many things to live by. This week a leather bound volume of his essays gives us lasting pleasure on the occasion of a birthday.

And worth repeating is this favorite passage: "I must be myself. I will not hide my tastes or aversions. I will so trust that what is deep is holy, that I will do strongly before the sun and moon whatever inly rejoices me and the heart appoints."

Merchants Leading; Bucks Drop Lead

Basketball Claims Attention of Fans; Bucks Meet Central

Interest in basketball ran high on the Hilltop this week as local entries engaged in three crucial games. The Hilltop Merchants retained their league leading position while West high's Buckaroos won and lost to drop from their top position in the City league.

West high basketeers, recuperating slowly from a 32-23 setback at the hands of North's Polar Bears last Tuesday, will attempt to regain their winning ways in the City league this evening when the Central High Pirates invade the local stronghold.

Despite the defeat by North, current league leaders, the Cowboys remained in the thick of a topsy-turvy league race with a record of two wins and one defeat. The Bucks earned a split in the two league encounters of the past week with a decisive 38-18 win over East High Tigers last Friday. In the Bengal fray the Cowboys handled the ball deftly, shot with deadly accuracy, and held the two Tiger scoring threats, Williams and Simpson, to a total of six points. To pick an individual star of this game would be doing an injustice to the rest of the team. Ned Bell, Gentry, Stinson and Rogers each had a large hand in the scoring column.

At the Polar Bears' court last Tuesday it was an altogether different story. The ball handling of the Bucks was extremely ragged, numerous shots were missed in the rough fracas, and the Cowboys spent a bad evening vainly trying to pierce the vaunted North zone defense.

North Leads

From the opening whistle to the closing gun the Bucks were in arrears in the scoring. North led at the end of the opening quarter by a 9-2 count, the lone tallies for West coming on foul shots by Stinson and Rogers. The second period was fast and furious with the Cowboys reducing the lead to a 19-13 count at the half. At one point in the second canto West trailed 19-7, but three quick baskets by Bell, Stinson and Rogers with a minute to play reduced the margin to six points.

In the third period the Bucks made a belated bid for victory and twice trailed by four points but the first half lead of the Bears was too much to overcome. As the final minutes passed is the final quarter Gentry left the contest via the foul route and North piled up its winning margin.

A display of scoring on the part of Warren Whitlinger brought the Hilltop Merchants through to another victory over Morray Jewelers in Monday night's encounter. The 32-28 victory thus claimed retained the top rating in the loop for the Hilltoppers.

Whitlinger tallied 19 points, 16 of which were made in the first half. Stellar work at the guard positions was responsible for holding the opposition to 12 points in the first half while the locals piled up 21 points.

The Merchants are thus assured of a tie in the first round of the Columbus league. Monday night they will meet Model Dairies, their last opponent in the first series of play.

Seiller to Open Store Addition

Work was started on the excavation of a basement under Seiller's store, 2404 W. Broad-st, to be made into a basement store, almost doubling the floor space of the present business. The new department will add more than 2500 square feet of space.

The basement store will feature domestic needs such as curtains, drapes, bedding, art goods, shades, notions and floor coverings and will make possible more convenience in displaying merchandise.

Entrance will be by a wide stairway leading down from near the front of the store. It is expected to be ready for occupancy by April 1. M. M. Schirtzinger has the contract for the excavating work. Among the jobs he has handled in Columbus is that at Memorial hall where a complete excavation was made after the hall was constructed.

Hoge Pastor To Leave

12 Year Pastorate Will End Mar. 31

Resignation of Rev. Harry C. Hutchison, pastor of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian church, will be read in a special congregational meeting to be held immediately following the morning church services Sunday, it was learned by The Hilltop Record this week. The retirement from active ministerial duty, known to church officials for some time, was necessitated by order of physicians following continued ill health.

Rev. Hutchison will remain at his pulpit until March 31 when he will have completed 30 years as an ordained minister of his church. The past 12 years of that time were spent at Hoge.

Officially the resignation will not be effective until acted upon by the Presbytery as this is the only body with authority to dissolve a contract between a pastor and his church. This action is almost assured at a meeting to be held in Columbus Tuesday. A. W. Jordan, clerk of the session at Hoge, will read the resignation to the congregation following a special communion service Sunday morning.

"Happiest Years"

"Of course Mrs. Hutchison and I are sorry to give up the work," Rev. Hutchison told the RECORD, "but 12 of the happiest years of my life were spent on the Hilltop."

Immediate plans for the future [illegible] not be learned.

During his 12 years' ministry here, more than 700 members were received into the church which is now fourth largest in membership in the Columbus Presbytery. The Sunday school is the largest in this area.

Third Pastor

Rev. Hutchison is the third minister in the 38 year history of the congregation. The first pastor was Dr. John H. Hatfield. Rev. Richard Shields was the second minister in charge.

It is expected that the services of Mrs. Hutchinson will be greatly missed as she was instrumental in building up the four Christian Endeavor societies now active at the church and was a constant worker with the young people.

Rev. Hutchison was a past president and always active in the Hilltop Ministerial association. He was previously pastor of the church at Mt. Pleasant, Pa., Hazelwood church in Pittsburgh, and the Presbyterian church at Shelby, O.

A nominating committee to select a successor to the retiring pastor will be named in the congregational meeting Sunday morning but a permanent appointment is not expected for several weeks, officials of the church said.

The Hutchisons have one son, Joseph, now an art professor at Ohio Wesleyan university. He is well known on the Hilltop for his part in choral singing both with his church choir and the Hilltop Business Men's chorus.

Scout Work On Hilltop Shows Growth

Scouting activities on the Hilltop have more than doubled from the standpoint of number of boys enrolled during the past three years, according to a survey of the central office here in Columbus. At present 278 boys are actively enrolled in troops on the Hilltop and Rome. Troops at Grove City and the west side, also in the southwest area, were not included in the survey.

This figure compared with the enrollment in 1936 of 186 shows a gain of 192 boys in the three year period.

The objective of scouting officials at present is to organize another senior scouting unit in the explorer work. Edgar Wolfe, scout worker, speaking before the Hilltop Business Men's association last week, pointed out that of least 36 boys who are past the regular scouting ages could be enrolled in such a movement. The explorer work involving as it does the more rugged and advanced activity in the outdoors would supplement the one senior unit, Sea Scout Ship No. 12, skippered by Noble L. Allen. This ship has an enrollment of 37 members and like the proposed explorer troop deals with boys ranging from 15 years in age up to manhood.

Not only is the Hilltop the center of rapidly growing scouting work but it is the home of several persons vitally interested in the executive administration of the boys.

Riggs Is Chairman

Charles M. Riggs, 172 Guernsey-av, has been interested in scouting for several years. At present he is district chairman of the southwest district and a member of the council board.

Howard G. Miller, a district commissioner at the present time, resides at 239 Binns-blvd. He has had a great deal of experience in working with boys both in Columbus and Rome.

Perl "Pop" Campbell, 44 Whitethorne-av, is at present organization chairman of the southwest district. C. Carlton Hartley, 356 S. Roys-av, recently named advancement chairman, was formerly active in scouting activities at Hoge Memorial church and in Greenfield.

At present the problem of scouting officials in launching the proposed explorer unit on the Hilltop is that of selecting a responsible organization to sponsor the work. Such a proposal was presented to the Hilltop Business Men's association by Wolfe last week but action was not taken at the meeting. At present most of the troops are sponsored by church organizations with Camp Chase post of the American Legion acting as sponsor for one active group and West Junior high school another.

"Mama, that man's here again," said jitterbugs at the West High Triangle Club shindig last Friday night, when West High's most popular king of swing took over his old position at the drums of the Paul Cook orchestra . . . Or it might have been any other orchestra for that matter—he's welcomed by all, "Wild Bill Hottinger, class of '38, arrived from Athens, Ohio, just in time for the dance following the East game, and as usual was exalted to his coveted position for a few numbers while West High jitterbugs, past and present, formed a circle around the orchestra, climbed upon the rafters, or stood on tip toes in the bleachers for a better view.

Among the many old grads who were present we may include Betty Burns and escort, Johnny Zahn; Howard VaWters and partner, Rosalie Yates, Bob Ainsworth, Paul Schlosser, Floyd "Doc" Brown and friend, Joyce Watson.

Mel Swanson, just recently returned from the west, was present escorting Shirley Minehart; Dick Curtiss and Rosabell Hipp were seen together; and Bob Ucker, Nick Cannel, Bill Allen and Bob Self were noticed here and there.

Bill Blatz of the Citizen stayed on for the dance. He was escorting Betty Hobbs. Chuck Clark and Helen Hill were really "goin to town" as it were. Bob Ebright and the future Mrs.—Dot Boyd—were present. Earl Thomas, Chet Rinehart, Al Zeisler, Melvin Raab, Don Baker, Herb Allen, Ruth Mitchell, Don Callandine and Carl Wissen, who was just back from Utah, were all having an enjoyable time.

Seen among the faculty present were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar House, Dr. H. H. Reighley, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, C. S. Kennedy, C. B. Marquand and Coach Williams.

Ned Bell, after leading his quintet to victory, was present with steady Dot Kimmel, as were Bill Mack and Jean Haines, Ray Stinson and Theda Dalton, Henry Highfill and Elizabeth Boord, Jack Distelhorst and Betty Bull.

Among West High students present were George Millay and Betty Ham, Irma Calland and Janice Davis, Faye Henry, escorted by Bob Miller, Olan Hilditch, Mary Ruth Huffman and Frank Blackstone, Andrew Martin Jack Fisher and Betty Hoover, Dave Hart, Doris "Peanuts" Minehart and Lee Walters, Russ Alban, Russ Street, Jacquelyn Cleveland.

Leonore Mathes escorted by John McLain, Don Bachman and Mary Jean, George Triangle and Prexy Bob Tong.

"Tommy" Corcoran minus ring but plus Bob Carpenter was there as was her sister, Edna, and escort.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Hilltop Record:

Mrs. Ethel Wright McClish passed away at her home, 118 N. Powell-av, Thursday afternoon, Jan 18.

Mrs. McClish, who for a number of years, was a teacher at West Broad school, left behind her a record of splendid achievements the value of which may only be truly reckoned in eternity.

Kindly and unassuming in manner, always she was the possessor of talents of the first degree. She was what might be termed a perfectionist, for in everything she did perfection was her goal. She was an inspiration to pupils and teachers alike. Tirelessly, understandingly and unselfishly, she labored, not only for the intellectual development of those under her care, but for that which is of vastly greater importance, their character development as well.

Each life that touched her own was made richer by the contact. The influence of her inspiring personality and splendid example will go on and on in the lives of those who called her wife, mother, friend or teacher. In years to come, hers will be the golden harvest, reaped from the deeds of those who in youthful days received her counsel. Truly may the words of Sacred Scripture be applied to her—"Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Round About The Hilltop

Here we are once again wound up to give you a few of our choice "whereabouts" ... so, throwing all cares to the wind, let's begin.

C. C. Hartley has been registered at Ohio State University this semester, studying some special work . . . Some of the jitterbug swingers at the West-East game last Friday really got off with a big start . . . Rosie Hipp is now attending Office Training school—she's decided to be a steno.

Did you know Nobel Allen was in the first band West High ever had? He plays the saxophone.

FLASH! FLASH! Would appreciate any information concerning a pair of red mittens belonging to "Chet" Rinehart . . . A Believe it or Not! Marjorie Purcell from Tampa, Florida, sure did have some fun in the snow Friday. It's her first snow . . . By the way, have you seen the look in Walter Davis' eyes when the words "vegetable soup" are mentioned . . . The daze "Dreamy Dickie's" been in has lasted for quite a while now.

When Dr. C. H. Lose isn't pulling teeth, he plays the piano, at which many say he's very good. His favorite piece is "Melody in F," by Rubenstein.

If you really want a treat, we suggest taking a look at the prized antiques belonging to Mrs. Karl Webber. Her collection consists of many things from abroad. She can also tell some very interesting stories about the Hilltop when it was first being settled.

The Stroup twins, those two inseparables, do not see as much of one another as they are accustomed to, for one works at the new Westgate Electric shop and the other goes to business school . . . While walking down Broad-st the other day a queer sight met my eyes—someone had a pocketbook tied to a string, and when one of those so-called suckers came along and tried to pick it up, it was quietly snatched away—it's an old joke, but there is always someone to fall for it.

Albert Pindell says that he ought to get a medal for being a champ on skis, since he did a few ground loops and flip flops that haven't been done before!! York Country club was the scene of the amazing exhibition . . . Call W8RVG, West high's only amateur, Phil Dunson, who has a sending station at his home at 191 Binns-blvd . . . We hear that Bob Hall is a wow as Eliza in that super colossal production "Eliza Goes to Town." The The initial performance will come off this p. m. at exactly 3:58 . . . The West high library has added some new shelves to the periodical room . . . Wilbur Thompson, it has been rumored, taught history in a CCC camp last fall. Surprised?

Doris Schubert is now being escorted around about by a gentleman who is to inherit quite a LARGE fortune. Gosh! . . . Why did Mick McGuire insist on being a freshman at OSU when he could have been a sophomore? . . . Byron Farewell is jerking sodas at Todd's Drug store on Broad-st. Ate a boy Ry!! Is there a method in Rudy Medlick's choice of transportation? It seems that he usually picks on coal trucks . . . 220 pound Paul Mosiers advice on reducing is to dance he lost 70 pounds that way and he's got an oversize vest to prove it.

The Triangle club dance held last week after the East-West game was a success as was the basketball game. The Triangle lads cleared $68, half of which will go to the Athletic association and the other half to be invested in the club treasury.

How did Helen Johnston acquire that name "Toodles"?

Dr. Miller Adds New Equipment

Dr. C. O. Miller, optometrist, 2484 W. Broad-st, refurnished his office last week by purchasing new optical instruments for his fitting room. Among them was a new additive Phoroptor, the latest invention in this particular field of work.

Dr. Miller has spent four years at Ohio State university studying his profession, also four years of post graduation.

Last week he celebrated his fourteenth year as an optometrist on the Hilltop at his present location.

KAMER NAMED COMMANDER

C. D. Kamer, 515 Ryan-av, was elected consul commander of White Oak camp, No. 34, Woodmen of America. Gerald Starkey was elected watchman.

White Oak Camp No. 34, Woodmen of the World, has just been reorganized and they will open their new quarters at 1961 W. Broad-st, next Friday with a fish fry for members and their friends.

We can always be depended upon to render helpful assistance.

SCOUT WORK

charter has not yet been obtained. It lists a membership of 16.

A meeting was held at St. John's Lutheran church Monday night for the purpose of forming a regular troop there. Robb U. Harper will act as scoutmaster.

Cub Pack No. 19, sponsored by Hillcrest Baptist church, is the largest junior group on the Hilltop. It lists an enrollment of 43 boys under the leadership of Sherman Jantzen. Burgess Avenue United Brethren sponsored Pack No. 23 lists 29 cubs under Scoutmaster Charles Martin.

Largest group of regularly sworn is Troop No. 79, likewise sponsored by the Burgess Avenue church. O. O. Tope has charge of the 56 boys.

School Sponsors Troop

Glenwood Methodist church is sponsor for Troop No. 18 with its 36 members under the direction of Clayton Stickel. Sam H. Morrison, a teacher at West junior high school, is scoutmaster for Troop No. 46 with its 37 members. The junior high school is sponsor for the troop.

Troop No. 131 with 28 boys is located in Rome and is directed by Clarence Jones. Camp Chase post of the American Legion fosters the work of 37 members under Kenneth Babbs.

Ever active are the 40 boys of Troop No. 173 at Hope Memorial Presbyterian church. Lee Beaumont is the scoutmaster. Hillcrest Baptist also sponsors Troop No. 181 with its 44 members, second largest local troop. Clark Reese directs the work.

Of the 378 enrolled scouts on the Hilltop 88 are cubs while 290 are of regular or advanced ages. The growth in membership has been consistent during the past three years. The 126 listed in 1936 had grown to 248 by the end of 1937 and thus to the present number.

Adult School Has Large Enrollment

With an enrollment of over 1300 students, the week of "open house" at the OSU-WPA adult school closed with a considerable increase in enrollment over that of the same quarter last year, and with the prospects of 200 or 300 more expected to enter during the remainder of the quarter. The largest enrollments have been in English, current events, human geography and psychology classes.

Due to such an increase, and also to popular demand, new courses are being scheduled. Classes in beginning Italian, drama in modern literature, psychology of personality and radio repair have been added to this schedule.

The classes are open without charge to all adults. It is conducted by the university and several federal, state and local agencies for the purpose of a unique cooperative education adventure.

The Spectator By C. C. Hartley

On Jay Walkers

Traffic officer stationed at Broad and High during the shopping day reports that Hilltop people are particularly careless about jay walking. Says he, "Half of the people I reprimand for jay walking on this corner tell me they live on the Hilltop and West Side."

He can give no reason why localities are so particularly fearless of onrushing autos. He does believe that a little caution on the part of local walkers will possibly result in the saving of lives.

CITY ELECTRICITY

Papers of the past week-end carried a story that came out of a letter between Mayor Gessaman and one of his department heads in which it was pointed out that insufficient electric current was being supplied the new sewage disposal plant to properly take care of needs of the plant and consequently waters south of the disposal plant in the Scioto river were again being polluted.

In view of the fact that the municipal light plant belongs to all the people of Columbus and only a small portion of Columbus people profit by the low rate it has to offer, it appears to us that the most sensible plan would be to use the city current for city needs such as the sewage disposal plant rather than have the city do without such power or be forced to buy it from the utilities.

It appears that if Columbus citizens are to be taxed for the operation of the sewage disposal plant they should not have to go to the utility to buy power when they are selling their own electric power to private consumers, many of which are large business firms, in business for a profit to themselves.

TAX TIMES

These are the days when the average business man is beginning to wonder why there should be any unemployment in the ranks of the white collar workers. These are tax return times.

After disposing of numerous government reports under the light of the midnight oils one begins to wonder how much time it would take for the government to compile all the statistics asked for in order to be of any earthly value.

Questionnaires and reports sent out monthly by various governmental departments are so numerous that they have not only necessitated the addition of thousands of government employees to send out such reports and compile statistics but American businesses have also been forced to add like thousands to their payrolls to answer the large number of fool questions asked.

Phillips, Cook On Dance Committee

Detectives Leo. Phillips, 617 Ogden-av, and Robert Cooke, 458 Nashoba-av, are on the reception committee for the annual Policemen's ball, Feb. 8 and 9, to be held in the Greystone ballroom. The purpose of the ball is to obtain $10,000 to augment the police widows' and orphans' fund.

Tickets, which have been on sale, have already reached the $2500 mark.

Hilltop Students Win Honors

Chester D. Beem, 328 N. Warren-av, and Chester R. Hill, 289 S. Powell-av, made an average of 3.5 out of a possible four points for the quarter. This has won for them a membership in Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honorary scholastic society for men.

Honor Student

Donald E. Nolan, 617 Whitethorne-av, was among the students at Ohio State who made the honor roll in the college of education.

Occident Staff Starts Work

Work on the Occident West high yearbook was begun shortly after the Christmas holidays. No definite staff appointments have been made and all the work that has been done has been by a temporary makeup committee under the direction of co-editors, Aileen Brown and Betty Jean Price.

Bucks To Play South

Will Attempt To Score Win Over Bulldogs

The West high Buckaroos, victims of a 34-24 defeat by Central's Pirates last Friday night, will attempt to regain their winning ways tonight when the collar-dwelling South Bulldogs invaden the local stronghold.

A strong defense, at present the best in the league, will be the main hope of the Cowboys to top the pesky Bulldogs. Leading the South attack will be Ollie Milner, veteran South center, and Miller, a fine forward of the visitors. These two boys are at present numbered among the first five in the individual scoring department of the league. Stinson, West center, is sixth with 84 markers, including 14 free throws and 10 goals.

Last Friday evening the Bulldogs won a thrilling overtime battle from the Aquinas Terriers when Milner dropped in a follow up shot for the winning markers. The final score was 40-38. West had previously defeated the Terriers by a 35-20 count in the opposing league fray for the proteges of Coach George Williams.

Lose To Central

"When they're hot they're hot and when they're cold they're cold," was one way of summing up the showing to date of the Buckaroos by one of the rabid West fans. This statement has proved to be correct in every way. Friday night every opportunity available was presented to the Cowpunchers, but fate intervened and the Cowboys lost their second successive league encounter to the Pirates.

As in the North-West contest, the Bucks were belted by a strong zone defense. West took nearly twice as many shots as did the Riversiders and missed connections on 18 foul shot attempts. However, all things must come to an end some time, and the Buckaroos should gain the verdict over the Bulldogs this evening.

The Hilltop Merchants won the first-round honors in the Columbus league at the K. of C. gymnasium Monday evening, but only after Morrey Jewelers had walloped the second place Medick Fords five. Model Dairy upset the Hilltoppers in the opening contest by a 36-35 margin, a last minute basket spelling defeat for the locals.

Medick Fords muffed a chance to gain a tie with the Merchants when the Jewelers emerged the victors by a 27-20 count. Warren Whitlinger, former Ohio State star, and high-scoring forward for the locals, continued his tactics by tossing 13 points through the net.

Martin Winner In Service Contests

Floyd Martin, 1970 Sullivant-av, has been named winner in three recent radio service contests. Prizes awarded consisted of radio service equipment given for understanding and accurate use of test equipment.

The contests were all nationwide and were sponsored by the RCA corporation, Weston Electrical Instrument Corp. and the Triplett Electrical Instrument Co.

The equipment awarded would amount to several hundred dollars on the retail market and is of especial value to Martin in better equipping him for radio repair work.

Austin Named Post Adjutant

M. H. Austin, attorney, of 47 Richard-rd, has been appointed as adjutant for the Camp Chase Post No. 98 of the American Legion. He replaces Frank Heft, 8½ Wayne-av, who has resigned. The appointment was announced by Commander Arthur Bellar at their regular meeting last week.

Wilcox To Tell World Of 10th Annual Ministrel

Curtis Wilcox, manager of the Hilltop branch of the Ohio National bank, will again serve as publicity chairman for the tenth annual Hilltop Minstrel to be presented at West high school auditorium on March 15, 16 and 17. He will supervise all publicity releases to newspapers, radio broadcasts and organizations.

Wilcox, born and raised on the West Side, started as bookkeeper in 1924 at the bank he now manages. He went to Highland Avenue school and then graduated from West high where he played football and was active in W association activities.

He studied banking at the American Institute of Banking and has worked his way up in the business to his present position which he has filled for eight years. He has been an active member of the Hilltop Business Men's association, serving the past years as its treasurer. Record All Dressed Up In New Excelsior Type Civilized man required 5,000 years to produce a form of printing in which legibility does not interfere with the complete transfer of complex thought. The Hilltop RECORD today presents to its readers the latest and most satisfactory product of that procession of centuries.

Excelsior body type, the font in which the RECORD presents its news and features today for the first time, is as new as tomorrow, as crisp and clear as church chimes across the snow.

Story of Human Progress

The story of writing and printing is the story of the progress of the human race. The parallel applies also to the kinds of writing and the kinds of civilization that followed each other into the obscurity of history. The ancient Egyptians, probably the first to make writing an efficient method of recording thought, reflected their marked practical nature in their system of using pictures of objects existing in nature as an alphabet.

The ancient Greeks, who were noted for doing everything well, put writing on a high plane with a flexible and dignified form of lettering.

The mysticism of the early Germanic races of northern Europe creeps through their "runes," the strange, almost fantastic symbols found on their monuments.

Spirit Lives in Writings

Cuneiform writing, made on clay tablets with sticks having wedge-shaped writing edges, seems to express the spirit of those early Persians and Assyrians who used it.

The ancient Romans were a sophisticated people who paid attention to pomp and poise. Their sophisticated alphabet, marked by crisp, carefully delineated letters, preserves the spiritual essence of their golden age.

The illuminated sacred writings of medieval Christian monks cast the flames of their burning zeal into their priceless books. Old English letters, born of an age of conflict between old superstitions and new knowledge, are as complex as the clash of mixed emotions.

Modern Craft Manifold

Modern printing makes use of the developments of those labored centuries. It has become a manifold craft in which the production of letter-symbols is almost as rapid as the production of thought itself. The twentieth century has multiplied and refined forms of printing until there is a type for every use and for every mood.

Recent years have cast printing technicians into an intense study of speed and ease in reading. They have worked on the principle that type is made first of all to be read. Devotion to this principle has resulted in a succession of new varieties of type for general use, each new step bringing a better combination of legibility with grace and beauty.

Excelsior type, a product of the Mergenthaler Linotype Co., which is exemplified throughout these columns today, is widely regarded as a masterpiece of the printing craft. The RECORD readers will find that it makes their reading easier, more rapid and more pleasant.

The improvement in the RECORD new type is not alone in the increased size. It is in the design that the greatest improvement has been made. Well fitted letters that flow into one another, uniform distribution of white space within and around each letter, all add greatly to the ease of reading.

There are no confusing shadings in the thick and thin strokes of the new letters, and the deep depressions between the lines of the face—they're called "counters"—give clean, sharp impressions.

Township Seeks Fire Protection

Much needed fire protection for Franklin township is being sought, it was learned this week, with a committee of local residents directing the campaign to secure such aid.

Al. Boyer, 3568 Grace-st, George Gussler and Jonas Derrer head the committee. It is believed representatives of the Hilltop Business Men's association will give their support to the movement.

At present homes and businesses in Franklin township do not have fire protection. For some time past the city of Columbus has cooperated with the township in providing some protection.

Township Trustees Alkire, Haines and Cornell have agreed that the township will provide 50% of the necessary funds if the residents of the community will match this amount to secure a contract with the city whereby the city will be paid on a mileage-equipment-time basis. At present $600 has been subscribed by Franklin township citizens.

Due to the heavy burden of local relief in the township, trustees have been unable to provide the full amount necessary to secure this protection.

It has been pointed out that fire losses are inevitable without some form of protection. Huge losses were suffered recently by the Columbus Rendering Co. because their plant was just outside the city limits and Columbus fire departments did not respond to their call.

Merchants Get 4 Players

Marshal Allen, manager of the Hilltop Merchants, local entrant in the Central Ohio football league, announced today the acquisition of four veteran players to the locals roster.

The following players were signed: Fred Crow, former Ohio State football star; Robert Swan, 6 ft. 4 in. tall and weighing 225 pounds, played with Akron university Zippers for one season and was lost to the Ohio State squad early in the season due to an injury; Tom Dimettrie, all-state forward from Bridgeport, Conn., high school, 6 ft. 4 in. tall; and Clyde Sanders, Trenton high school star, 6 ft. 1 in. tall and member of the all-conference team of the southeastern league.

Added to this group will be Whitlinger, Hunt, Plank, Todd and Prewitt, the present team. This team won the first-round honors in the league and with the signing of the above quartet will be heavy favorites to cop the second round title. The Merchants will tangle with Medick Fords, first-round runners-up, in the feature game Monday evening.

Jack P. Burch, 2069 W. Broad-st, and Robert L. Huffman, 579 S. Terrace-av, were recently promoted to second lieutenants in the Reserve Officers Training corps at Ohio State university.

Druggists Start Group Advertising

Special emphasis will be placed on encouraging drug buyers to patronize their neighborhood druggists. As a means of better acquainting the public of the Hilltop with their druggists, a series of personality sketches will start next week, introducing one merchant each week thereafter.

Cooperating in the movement are Todd's drug stores at 2467 W. Broad-st and 2572 Sullivant-av; Campbell's pharmacy, 2766 W. Broad-st; Essex pharmacy, 363-65 S. Central-av; Murphy's pharmacy, 3752 Sullivant-av.

Shelter House Has Full Schedule

The 1939 classes at the Glenwood shelter house are now under way, producing one of the best and most complete schedules ever to be presented to the Hilltop people.

The recreational directors, Lucille Thorn, Evelyn Braden, Richard Murray and Ray Cook, are putting forth every effort this year to enlarge the classes, clubs and sports. Their aim is to make all boys, girls and adults conscious of the activities going on at the shelter house, and to have them participating, not only in sports, but social affairs as well.

The shelter house erected in 1913, recently refurnished and redecorated, provides a place for plane modeling for the boys and also for various club meetings of the girls. Everyone is invited to the club room activities. The schedule is as follows:

Letters To The Editor

Open letter to Athletic Association of West high school.

You are probably proud of your boys who engage in competitive sports and it is perfectly right that you should be. School spirit is a fine thing. The desire to win is a natural instinct, and win or lose, loyalty is a trait of character that is most desirable and necessary.

It sometimes happens that in our desire to win or excel in one field of effort, we sacrifice other things of importance, and others. In your desire to build a good football team or a good basketball team, are you not negligent of your supporting cast? I like football, but a football game would be a lot less exciting and interesting if there were no band. You probably agree that a band lends color and attraction to an athletic event, and West high has a good band.

This fine group of boys and girls, who practice long, day in and day out the whole year through, and who for the most part furnish their own equipment to do it on, do not come in for many of the gate receipts they help create, instead they have to find some way to support themselves, even to the extent of paying their own bus fares to out of town events. By begging, borrowing, giving parties and etc., the band through the band parents organization seem always hard pressed for the necessary cash to do things for the band. A concert is now being arranged by the band, and these band youngsters are being asked to go out and sell to their families or friends, 20 or more tickets each to their own entertainment to get money to buy necessary things with which to act as a supporting cast to the athletic department.

It is unfair and unsportsmanlike to put these band boys and girls in this position. They are entitled to a share of the gate receipts to all athletic events where they are asked to furnish the music. And it is unfair to the boys who happen to be members of the football squad or the basket ball team or any other athletic group, to have them believe they are entitled to a preferred position in school life. They are entitled to all the credit they deserve for being good scholars and good sports, but they are only a part of a school life pattern.

The band group has been too modest about tooting it's own horn.

85,710 Books Used At Library

During the past year the Hilltop branch library, 31 N. Hague-av, issued 85,710 books to borrowers on the Hilltop and, despite the rush of the holiday season, 7350 books were borrowed from the library during the month of December.

The names of 1227 new applications for cards were received from January, 1938, to January, 1939, which show that the library is being utilized by more people every day. In addition to the 85,710 books issued, more than 40 000 magazines were read and reference problems answered.

The library is open daily from 1 o'clock until 9 p. m. and invites every one to make use of its facilities.

SPORTS by Woody Owens

West Park M. E. No. 1 and Hoge Memorial continued their neck and neck race for the possession of first place in the boys west church league this week, as each chalked up well-earned victories they remain in a tie for the winning spot.

Hoge Memorial for the first time in many a season handed Holy Family, its jinx, a defeat by the count of 23-13, which dropped the Irish farther out of this season's title picture.

West Park No. 1 handed their West Park No. 2 team a humiliating 32-10 lacing. Alford and Kale with seven points each, Kennedy and Mitchell with six points each led the winners attack.

St. Aloysius continued on the heels of the league leaders with a 22-16 win over Glenwood M. E. Thornton and Paschal led the Irish attack with 10 and five points respectively. Miller led the Methodists with seven points. Burgess U. B., playing with but four players, trounced Highland avenue Friends 39-24. Whetstone, Banker and Williams led the Brethren attack with 16, 10 and nine points respectively.

ST. ALOYSIUS LEADS

St. Aloysius assumed sole possession of fir sptlace in the girls west church league last Monday evening.

The saints taking over the top spot was due to their own 23-4 win over Avondale U. B. and Hilltop C. of C.'s 25-10 triumph over the previously unbeaten Westgate Evangelical sextet.

M. Colburn tallied 15 points to assume the scoring leadership of the league and largely responsible for the Irish victory.

In the most cleanly played game of the season Hilltop C. of C.'s great sextet clicked with the precision of a clock both offensively and defensively to hand Westgate Evangelical its initial defeat of the season and drop them from a tie for the league leadership.

Hoge Memorial's Wildcats, looking like the champions of last year, held hapless Hilltonia U. B. without a field goal to run up a 42-2 triumph.

Corcoran and B. Johnston tallied 15 points each while E. Johnston scored 13 points.

Next Monday's schedule is as follows: 7:15 p. m. Hilltonia UB and Avondale will clash for the cellar spot; 7:45 p. m. St. Aloysius should remain in first place by defeating Burgess UB; 8:15 Hoge Memorial and Hilltop C. of C. will clash in the feature game which will put the Wildcats great offense against the Christians fine defense.

MR. AND MRS. E. O. MELVIN will soon be flying to Florida and Havana, Cuba, in that four-wheel super colossal Cadillac—Boy! Oh Boy! . . . There's talk a goin' around that yar LUNCHEON CLUB of the minstrel show will soon start. We expect the old meetin' place will be none other than "Tom's" restaurant . . . MR. AND MRS. RAY PERCY are in Cleveland where Mr. Percy is attending the Johns-Manville school.

Here's a bit of news. When it comes to courtin' some people just don't take second place, for example: That peppy, vigorous and ever-ready DICK G. went calling on his gal the other evening and when he was about to arrive at the door, along comes another gentleman but from the other direction. Just because of Dick's steady head and quick thinking he cut across the lawn and arrived there first—and by y-a-r-d-s to . . . WILMA McDONALD, ace waitress at Tom's can really carry a cup of coffee to a table in the morning without spilling some in the saucer. The proof was displayed last week . .

Then came the "Dawn," DON BAILEY, the flutter of many feminine hearts, received a letter last week addressed to Miss DAWN BAILEY — something's wrong, or is it?

Proof: HERB DEEMS of the First Federal Savings is one man who has his mind on his work. One bright morning he awoke dressed and arrived at the office to begin work when he suddenly realized he had not eaten his breakfast . . . The West high grade of '38 might be interested to know that Josephine Reed will be walking up the aisle Feb. 18. She's going to live in Springfield. . . SHIRLEY PARKER can really tell a yarn when it comes to being tired. The only trouble is it happens to be the real thing . . . And speaking of Shirleys—SHIRLEY MINEHART is attending Office Training school to learn to take her lectures down fast at OSU.

What girl named "LOU" was sniffing over the week-end—yep, we mean some sniffing . . . the dinner given by the Townsend club last Friday turned out to be quite a success from the standpoint of the chicken itself . . . N. T. MILLER, chiropractor, believes in saying his favorite expression "horsefeathers," and that isn't all, he likes steak good and juicy . . . DR. C. O. CRAMER really knows his pork dressing. . .

DOROTHY CAPRETTI, baker at Capretti's Market, is back on the job again now that she is fully recovered from her recent illness.

Invisible Government

As was expected, the invisible government went into session immediately after the funeral services were held for Councilman Westlake and again the Democratic chairman, Mr. Hoey, spoke his piece and his puppets, looking toward their re-election, tossed all considerations for the public out the window and allowed the chairman to select the new city councilman.

We've often spoken of the things we do not like about party politics being taken into office with an elected official. Now for the second time within a few months the Democratic majority has given way before the dictates of a man who is perhaps doing more to govern Columbus his way than any elected official, and without the consent of the people.

A Republican group of councilmen might have done the same thing. This is no excuse, however, for continued toleration of this manner of conducting the public's business.

Furthermore, four councilmen have been branded with the Hoey mark and we believe we speak the public's mind when we say we want no part of their kind in public office. Evidently they either have no minds of their own or are willing to subjugate their own minds to the will of a self appointed master, whose interests as far as we can see are not the public's.

Vision

It has long been our belief that a newspaper's first duty is to the community it serves. Likewise have we thought that the type of service given by that newspaper will in large measure be responsible for the success of the institution publishing the organ.

And comes the question, just wherein can the newspaper be of service?

Best answer we believe is to be found in the 29th chapter of Proverbs of the Bible . . . "Where there is no vision the people perish."

First and foremost it has been our objective in the publishing of community newspapers to provide the information necessary to that vision for the people of these respective communities. Our editorial comments have been centered around our desires to better the welfare of these communities and the people therein.

Community and small town newspapers independently operated and managed can best be of service by aiming at all times to enlarge the vision of their peoples. Likewise a community can suffer at the hands of a newspaper that attempts to throttle that vision and do only those things that profit the newspaper most.

We like that quotation . . . even to the extent that we are placing it in the masthead of our papers . . . ahd are pledging ourselves to support it.

"Where there is no vision the people perish."

The American Way

And then there was the American who decided to do things the American way. He believed in the Frenchman's "Everyday in every way I'm getting better and better," and shortened the phrase to "Hell, I'm well."

Vs. Roosevelt

No part of Franklin Delano Roosevelt is wanted by that former WPA worker who was recently let out of a job and went to court to have the names of his children changed. They had been named Franklin and Eleanor.

But appreciation for Mr. Roosevelt was always shown by the old lady in northern Ohio who signed her monthly pension check and inscribed across the front of it, "God bless Mr. Roosevelt."

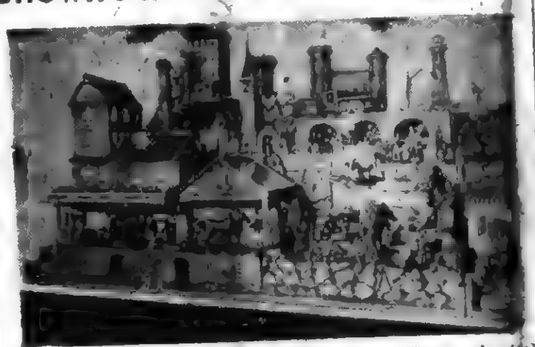
Driver Is Killed At Crossing

Truck Crashes Into Train; Body Is Badly Burned

An eastbound passenger train at the Hague-av crossing marked another tragedy Sunday evening when a truck crashed into the train causing the death of Samuel Schoeller, 45, of near Powell, driver for Wards Baking company.



The truck was carried 80 feet down the tracks and the wreckage was hurled another 50 feet. It then burst into flames. Dr. Edward E. Smith, coroner, said that Schoeller's body was burned to "a crisp." A preliminary examination of the body did not reveal any bone fractures, he said.

G. R. Willcox, 585 N. Hague-av, and Charles Mathews, 2407 Harrison-av, were standing in the door of the station when the truck hit the train. Both said it looked as if it was thrown around so that the rear end hit the train and the gas tank was smashed. They could see his body in the truck but couldn't get close to it. The body was removed after they extinguished the flames and cooled the charred wreckage.

Schoeller, who had been employed by the Ward Baking Co. for the past five years to make special deliveries for the company, had just pulled out of a filling station 50 feet north of the railroad crossing and started south on Hague-av when the truck ran into the side of the train.

His body was taken to the Floyd Born Funeral home, 1441 W. Broad-st.

"Mechanical City" To Be Shown At First Federal Mon.

The First Federal Savings & Loan Association, 2363 W. Broad-st, has secured an unusual exhibit to be displayed in their office lobby, beginning Monday and extending through Feb. 11, to which the public is invited.

It will be open daily from 9 to 5 p. m. except on Wednesday which is from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

The exhibit, known as the "Mechanical City," has been pronounced the greatest characteristic mechanical production ever shown. Engineers and mechanics have marveled at the accurate proportion of its design. Educators have endorsed it for its educational and entertainment value for old and young alike.

It is the masterpiece of Henry Pallison of Denmark; it is all hand carved of wood, having required eight years for completion. It consists of 30,000 pieces within 100 working mechanical characters depicting activities in various trades, occupations and pastimes. There are 25 different scenes portrayed by miniature subjects featuring various activities of life; these are in continuous operation and make a complete harmonious design.

The total weight of the exhibit is 1163 pounds of which there is only 114 pounds of metal, six pounds of this being German silver wire. It is completely operated and controlled by a single one horse power motor. If the working parts were laid end to end they would cover a distance of four miles. When set up for operation it is 18 feet long, six feet wide and five feet high.

Fords Defeat Merchants

Hilltop's contribution to the Columbus basketball league, the Hilltop Merchants, lost a close 43-41 decision to the Medick Fords Monday evening at the K. of C. gymnasium.

Manager Marshal Allen inserted his new players into the fray late in the second period but to no great avail. The superior teamwork of the Fords was too much for the locals.

Outstanding among the new players to join the squad was Tom Swan. Whitlinger played his usual high-scoring game and accounted for 11 markers.

The Merchants tied the count at 23-23 late in the third canto after trailing 21-12 at halftime, but a desperate late minute rally in the fourth quarter fell short.

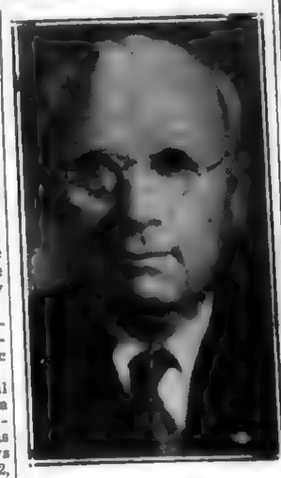
Councilman Dies, After Long Career

City Hall Closes Tues. For Services



The city hall closed last Tuesday for the funeral services of City Councilman Milton W. Westlake held at the Glenwood M. E. church. Dr. O. L. Seward officated at the service. Burial was at the Green Lawn cemetery by Floyd Born.

Mr. Westlake died last Saturday night, ending his long impressive public career as a civic leader to all Columbus.

In poor health for several months, Mr. Westlake suffered a recurrence of a gall bladder ailment, Friday, Jan. 20, and was removed to the hospital five days later. He would have been 72, March 1.

He entered politics in 1912 but lost his first race as city councilman. Two years later he was successful and served a two year term. In 1916 he was elected to a four year term and again in 1920. He served as a county commissioner in 1923.

Mr. Westlake's election to city council in November of 1937 followed the editorial suggestion of the Hilltop RECORD of a few months before, at which time he consented to be a candidate. After his entry into the race the Gessaman administration claimed him as their candidate.

M. W. Westlake

In the 1937 election, after coming from politcial retirement he led the city council ticket by more than 1,000 votes over his nearest competitor. He was particularly well pleased with the vote received from his home precinct where 175 out of a possible 182 votes cost were for him.

He has been elected solely through his records and since then has taken an active role in sponsoring the flood control program that grew out of the 1913 flood. He was author of the

Survey Is Begun On Route 40

Work on New Road To Start July 1

First steps were taken this week toward construction of the super highway on U. S. route 40 west of Columbus when a survey was started by Col. Robert S. Beightler, state highway director. Actual construction, originally scheduled for 1940, is expected to get under way between Columbus and Alton shortly after July 1, 1939 when $400,000 is expected to be available on the new fiscal budget.

Construction will likely be effected on the Columbus-Alton section before funds are made available for the entire Columbus-West Jefferson project. Bids will likely be accepted on the new viaduct-bridge spanning Darby creek within three months, according to state officials.

Tentative plans discussed with federal highway men would call for two 24-foot lanes divided by parkways ranging in width from 20 to 30 feet. Officials are expected to recommend concrete. The survey will be rushed to completion and specifications drafted as soon as possible in hope that the contract can be undertaken by midsummer when funds are made available. The project heads the list of proposals submitted to the federal bureau of public roads by state highway officials for 1940.

Work To Start At Westgate

Plans have been made for the enlargement of the lake in Westgate park for which papers have been obtained from Washington to begin construction on the project at once.

The dimensions for the lake will be 700 feet long and from 50 to 200 feet wide, varying in different places. There will be a stone dam and revetment work. Fountains are to be built to supply the necessary water, and a sewer will be made for the outlet.

Robert V. Hessenaur, superintendent of parks and forestry, will have general supervision of the project. He said, "I am putting forth every effort to make Westgate park one of the most beautiful spots in Columbus. Mayor Gessaman and I are going to fulfill our promise made to the Hilltop Business Men's association last summer at their bean festival."

A date for possible completion of the improvements could not be learned. The project is one of several submitted by Mayor Myron Gessman as a solution to Columbus' unemployed in the event relief appropriations are cut.

Their Tenth Year Of Minstrelsy

Jones, Nichols, Miller Active In Annual Event

Bob Nichols

Never missing a performance of the Hilltop Minstrel show in the Business Men's chorus, Bob Nichols, 121 Highland-av, Henry Jones, 27 S. Terrace-st, and Dr. C. O. Miller ,2484 W. Broad-st, will once again participate when the curtain goes up March 15, 16 and 17.

They can recall the first minstrel, at which time the chorus had not been organized, when Harry Freeman directed them with only the words to songs. No music of any kind was furnished, and the whole show was one continuous act.

Bob Nichols, who sings bass, was only 15 years old when he registered for a tryout with the show, but was soon given a permanent place after being heard. While a student at West high school he took part in every musical production given there. It was said that "he sung his way through school." He has been a member of Hoge Memorial choir and active in young people's work there for several years.

Henry Jones, who sings baritone, has been a resident on the Hilltop for 12 years singing with various choruses before the Hilltop chorus was organized. He be[came] Hayden Jones one of [the] musical instructors.

[Dr.] C. O. Miller, [a] more or less during his [life]. He was in his high [school] chorus in Sandusky, and [was] quartet in the First Bap[tist] church. He has been on the Hilltop for 14 years practicing his profession as an optometrist. He has been with this vocation since 1925.

Dr. C. O. Miller

Started in 1931

On Oct. 26, 1931, the first meeting of the Business Men's chorus was held, under the direction of Harry Freeman, in the small choir room of the Hillcrest Baptist church. Eight men was the total quota which was thought of at that time as quite a fair chorus. Now there is an enrollment of from 40 to 45 men singers.

After its second year of organization, W. Hayden Jones directed the chorus and has been doing so for seven years. Money was furnished by the Hilltop Business Men's association to start the first chorus.

Bucks To Meet Terriers

Hostilities will be resumed in the city league tonight as the second round of play gets under way. Conquerors of the South Bulldogs by a 25-18 margin in an exciting but rough contest last Friday, West's Buckaroos will seek to make it two straight in league competition when the Aquinas Terriers visit the local court tonight.

In their opening league encounter with the Terriers West emerged on the long end of a 25-20 score, but Aquinas has shown considerable improvement and the Bucks are in for a hard evening of basketball with Clifford, Green, Fowler and Co.

Also docketed on the schedule for the Cowboys this week are games with Galion and Columbus academy. Tomorrow evening the Galion Orangemen will blow into town and the Bucks will be seeking revenge for a 32-30 setback received in Galion shortly after Christmas.

Then Tuesday the Bucks will trek across town to tangle with the Prepsters. Weakened by the loss of Faught, star center, Academy was no match for the Cowboys in a previous battle. However, Faught will again show his wares Tuesday and the locals must stop this youngster if they expect to duplicate the 24-16 win scored on the Nelson Rd. quintet.

The shining light in the Buckaroos' win over the Bulldogs was Ned Bell, captain and star guard of the West five. Bell not only played a magnificent defensive game but tossed in five baskets from long range to lead both teams in scoring with 10 markers. "Duck" Ickes unable to score consistently since the league games started, took advantage of the South zone defense to toss in four buckets.

Mrs. Vuchnich Describes Holidays In Johannesburg, South Africa

More interesting news comes this week from Mrs. Michael Vuchnich, the former Edith Myers of 3034 Fairmont-av, who is making her home in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Christmas in Africa is a far different thing from our Christmas here. Mrs. Vuchnich describes the weather there during the holidays as "full of sunshine and hot." She also tells us that the day following Christmas is always observed as a holiday, regardless of what day Christmas may fall on, and is known as "boxing day." This year with Christmas on Sunday, Monday was observed as the legal holiday and Tuesday was then celebrated as "boxing day."

There are no cedar or fir trees there of course, and consequently Christmas decorations are the unusual rather than the usual sight at Christmas time. The Vuchnichs had a little artificial tree and in a few of the other American homes artificial trees were used to bring a little of their former Christmas custom to their homes there.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

The Vuchnichs and friends of theirs had Christmas dinner together. Their Christmas dinner is an interesting combination of our mid-summer menu and holiday dinner. Turkey with dressing was served and plum pudding in the true English fashion. So much is like our traditional winter feast, but the vegetables served were fresh from the garden, corn on the cob and new peas, for it's summer weather there. A salad course is never served with dinners in that country. Custom there is to serve relishes with the dinner in place of a salad course, consequently Mrs. Vuchnich's potassitia salad was received with great delight.

Our delightful custom of singing Christmas carols is another thing greatly missed by Americans there. Mrs. Vuchnich tells us that the only carol she heard during the entire Christmas holiday (with the exception of the cathedral service she attended Christmas eve) was a phonograph record of "Silent Night" she heard playing as she was wandering through the ten cent store.

She writes, "No matter how long Americans stay here or how much they take on the ways of the country, there are two seasons they miss very much: the Christmas season with the beautiful decorations, the Christmas trees and carols, and the football season. All the Americans here would no doubt like to trade one hot, sunshiny November afternoon for a cold, blowy one, and be wrapped in a blanket, munching a hot dog and watching that barbaric spectacle known to the localites as "American Rugby."

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

One of the Christmas gifts Mrs. Vuchnich sent her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Myers, was a box of African cut flowers. These flowers are called "chiacarinches," resemble paper white narcissus, and are grown in Capetown. For shipping, a portion of the stems are treated with wax. After reaching their destination, the wax portion is cut off, the flowers are put in tepid water and set in a dark place for several days. When brought out into the light they come out beautifully and will last for a month or more.

Another gift Mr. and Mrs. Myers received from the Vuchnichs was two interesting rolls of movie films taken by Mr. and Mrs. Vuchnich while on a visit to Kruger National park. The films show a view of the "Hippo Pool" with a number of the animals in the pool, giraffes chewing leaves from the tops of tall shrubs and lions crossing leisurely in front of the cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers are anxiously awaiting next autumn when their daughter and son-in-law expect to come home for a short visit.

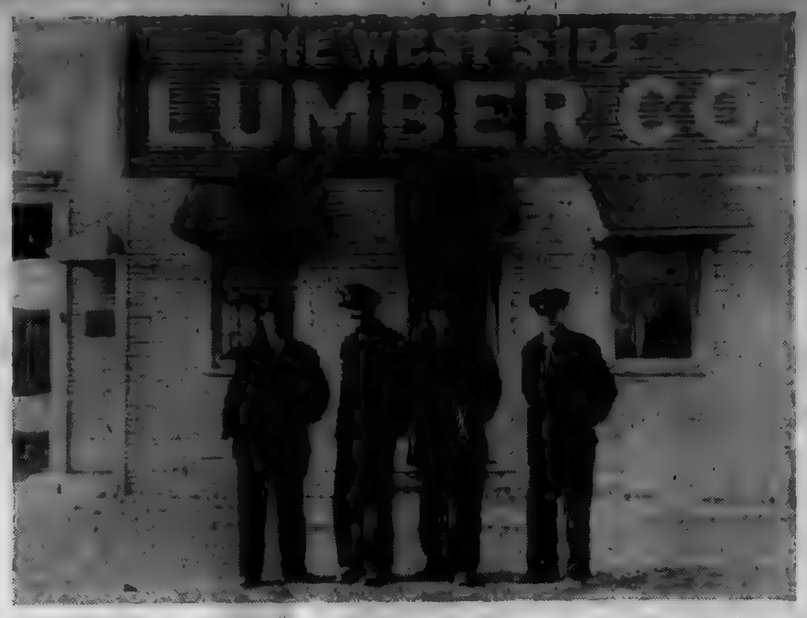
Letters To The Editor

Mr. C. Carlton Hartley,
Editor, Hilltop Record,
Columbus, Ohio.
Dear Mr. Hartley:

First of all, I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Record for the stand it is taking, on insisting that the candidate for Mayor of the City of Columbus must have certain qualifications. It is surprising that this manner of selecting a worthwhile candidate has not been tried in recent years. The qualifications referred to are sure to benefit the citizens of this city because they spell efficiency in large letters and efficiency means economy to the voting public.

Permit me to suggest the name of a man possessing all the qualifications set forth in your editorial; a man not only well-known to the Hilltop vicinity, but to every other part of the city as well. He has a splendid record but is probably better known for his untiring work with the Board of Education. He is a man of high morals and character. In many ways and for many years he has been an asset to the community as well as the city in which he lives. Above all, and this particularly appeals to me, he is a highly successful business man and no person or persons would ever think of classifying him as a "politician." The name of the man I refer to is Ray Hauntz.



I have no selfish motive in making this suggestion, other than the fact I would profit along with every other citizen of Columbus with an efficient man at the helm. I have been in business many years myself and in that time have learned to respect and admire the manner in which Mr. Hauntz has conducted his business activities.

I sincerely believe I am suggesting a candidate, possesing all the qualifications you recommend a candidate should have, and I feel Mr. Hauntz is deserving of your support in the selection of a candidate for the office of Mayor of the City of Columbus.

With kind personal regards, allow me to remain

Yours very truly,
Vernon C. Frederick

Round About The Hilltop

Did You Know

The Hilltop always manages to produce one prominent person every week and this time it's none other than SCOTT ROSE—he has a contract to sing in the Ionion room in the Deshler-Wallick.

That ever ready CHARLIE KENT is certainly proud of those crocheted bootes of his—we sorta like'm too . . . The Hilltop is getting to be quite a paradise for all the jitterbugs, a dance after every game at West high and the American Legion sponsoring a dance every now and then, which is aces high with all the bugs . . . Does basketballer PAUL ROGERS always take his chewing gum out if his mouth during a recitation and park it back of his ear, then replace it afterwards, someone reported he did. . . .

All Mysterious

By the way there's something going on here at the Record, it's the second time one of our rare male employees have received a letter addressed to Mrs. something or other. The victim this time was BOB KENT—the excuses sure did fly. . .

Although we know that "CHET" RHINEHART didn't go in for big fishing he had us guessing when he spent all his vacation last summer trying to catch little fish. The answer may be found at the Cleveland residence—where approximately 85 can be found . . . We are wondering whether or not all gals like to guess who they are talking to over the phone, FRANKIE NEWLON talked for 15 minutes the other day then suddenly said, "say who is this anyway?"

Disgusted

Ding aling aling went the alarm clock at the ALLEN home. Time to get up so Mrs. Frank Allen hops out of bed ready to begin her morning task which was getting her son, CURTIS off to school. But—the awful tragedy occurred when she happened to glance at the clock and see it was only 3 o'clock in the morning, and the worse part of it was her son had not retired until 1 o'clock of the same morning—boy what a let down.

Just Stuff and Stuff

We see that quite a few sophs and juniors at West high frequent the GLASS BOWL out east, the seniors hanker to the varicolored lights of the LOOK OUT HOUSE and the MALTED MILK SHOP.

MARIE COLBURN is sure buzzing around on the basketball floor at the Glenwood Shelter house this season . . . The entire cast, including all the technical committees of "Eliza Goes To Town" that stream line version of Uncle Tom's Cabin, are planning a large party some time in the near future—provided there are sufficient funds after all debts are paid . . . If you want to know a place in which to spend a good evening we suggest the minstrel show sponsored by the "JOHN BURROUGHS MOTHERSINGERS. It was quite a success last night we heard. The concluding performance will be given tonight . . .

Purely Personal Pish Posh and Piffle: "POP" WAYMER who never fails to come through, has already initiated the new tablecloth at "Tom's" restaurant, how about it "Pop".

Here are a few ifs and ands: BILL BOYD left last week for New York . . . H. C. SHETRONE is expected to be home this Saturday from the University hospital where he was taken several weeks ago . . . LOU LOUDEN has sure been missed this last week—your puss are enjoyed after all . . . Who is this guy "BUTCH" BRUNNER that crashes red lights so early in the morning? . . .

What has it got that gets you? Exotic colors . . . crafty paper . . . gay tropical atmosphere . . . whatever it is RYTEX RIO Printed Stationery will delight you. You'll want boxes and boxes at this low price . . . $1 . . . for 50 double sheets and 50 envelopes . . . printed with your name and address. Special at The Hilltop RECORD for January and February only! RA. 1125.

SERVICES CONTINUED

The Highland Avenue Friends church will continue its revival services over the week-end closing Sunday night, Feb. 5.

Rev. Russel Boaz will be in charge, assisted by Rev. John Bartow. Meetings will be on Friday and Saturday nights and two will be given Sunday.

STOP THAT FUEL THIEF!
WITH AN AUTOMATIC GAS WATER HEATER

One Lump In Five Goes To Heat The Water In A Furnace Coil

There is no such thing as free hot water from a furnace coil. In fact, it is reliably estimated that one-fifth of all the fuel burned in a furnace goes to heat the hot water in the furnace coil. Eliminate this waste by installing an automatic storage gas water heater — the most economical method of supplying modern 24-hour domestic hot water service. The 24-gallon size can now be installed at a $14.00 saving during sale. Convenient payments.

SUZ SAYS:

Hilltop folks aren't the only ones who think Hilltop girls are beautiful, for last year Dorothy Hauntz, prominent Hilltopper and West high grad, was elected campus queen at Ohio State university and on Feb. 24 of this year, although she has been on the Hilltop but a short time, Imogene Gable, 1657 Sullivant-av, will reign as queen of the Junior prom.

Imogene is a freshman in the college of education and will be escorted by Henry G. Cleaveland, president of the junior class, to the affair which will be held in the boys gym. She is a native of Portsmouth, 17 years old, and lives with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gibbs.

During the vacation of changing semesters, members of the Girl's Athletic Association of West high school honored their retiring officers with a luncheon at the State restaurant. Those officers who graduated from the club last week were Helen Cullinan, president; Virginia Bonn, secretary, and Faye Henery, treasurer.

Plans have been made for a dinner party and show, to be enjoyed this evening by various members of the class of '36 of West high. Miss Helen McCormack, girl's physical education instructor, and Mrs. Helen Secour, former clerk at the school, have been invited. Those planning to attend are Edna Corcoran, Mary Turner, Janet Familton, Joan Shields, Martha Rustemeyer and Alice Smith.

Just heard that Dorothy Clark is wearing a new frat pin and that Dotty Hauntz has been sporting a sparkler on that certain finger.

Alice Zeisler, Anna Louise Jones, Frances Yors, Dorothy Schutz, Alice Smith and Margaret Stabs are presenting the play "A Good Girl In The Kitchen" which will be given at the Festival of Hearts, to be sponsored by the St. Matthew Luther league. The festival will take place at the church on Friday evening, Feb. 10.

"Do you think a man ought to try to forgive his enemies?"

"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum. "He ought to try. But sometimes he'll have more self-respect if he doesn't succeed."

Do you "fly all to pieces" when the children are noisy, or when the vegetables burn, or when the jelly won't "jell?" Some mothers are just naturally cranky. Some mothers are cross and impatient because they are nervous.

If you are a natural crank, DR. MILES NERVINE won't do much for you. If you are irritable because your nerves are overtaxed, DR. MILES NERVINE will do a lot for you.

Do you suffer from Sleeplessness, Restlessness, Nervous Irritability, Nervous Headache, or Nervous Indigestion? Do you worry over trifles, start at sudden noises? Overtaxed nerves will cause all these troubles, and DR. MILES NERVINE will help you to relax those overtaxed nerves.

Why don't you give it a trial on our guarantee of satisfaction or your money back? Your druggist can tell you about DR. MILES NERVINE. He has been selling it ever since he started clerking in a drug store. Dr. Miles Nervine comes in two forms—Liquid and Effervescent Tablets.

Todd Likes Mexican Dishes; Speaks German

Gene Todd, 40 S. Richardson-av, well-known druggist on the Hilltop, not only craves a Mexican diet but speaks and writes German as well.

Born in Columbus, he attended the Fenton Avenue school, later graduating from East high in 1916. He attended Ohio State university four years studying pharmacy, and since then has never engaged in any other vocation.

His first store was started in 1923 at 2467 W. Broad-st, which is one of his present locations. His second store, 2572 Sullivant-av, was begun three years later in 1926 with Alice Burton as manager. She has been with the store ever since.

He was with Camp Sherman during the war in 1918 at which time a flu epidemic occurred. Todd is proud to say he filled 67 prescriptions not counting the refills.

His hobby is his work, but he enjoys football, baseball and horse racing. He has traveled to New York state and in various parts of Canada.

Todd has studied German for four years and recalls an incident in his high school days that he will never forget. He says, "I played hookey from school for two weeks and was warned by my German teacher that I would fail. I had to take a test, and I made the highest grade in the room."

Todd is a member of the Masonic lodge and is also a member of the American Legion and the Hilltop Business Men's association.

Although a native of Belmont county, he has been a resident on the Hilltop for 45 years. He worked in a glass factory as a boy, and at the age of 10 drove a mule in a coal mine. He established a glass business a year before he came to Columbus in 1892. He operated the Westlake Ruby Glass Works, 3294 W. Broad-st, with his son for many years. He was a 33rd degree Mason, a member of the Westgate Blue lodge, Aladdin Shrine and was a member of Glenwood M. E. church.

tion of your head, states that the government of Ohio is in good hands for the next two years. This he concluded after pointing out that Governor Bricker has a good head . . . his high head is indicative of moral stamina, that because of the greater width of his head at the top than around the ears he would make a poor military general, but he has faculties of kindness, insight, keen logic and the ability to judge human nature.

We've never been much bothered over the shape of a man's head so much as we have over the shape it sometimes takes after he has been in the public eye for a short period. And how the head has been used has always seemed more important still.

At any rate we're glad to know that the head has it that Mr. Bricker will serve Ohio well.

Reveal Interesting Items Accounts of Early Pioneer

Memoirs of the business dealings of one of Ohio's early pioneers are revealed in an account book dating back over a hundred years. The book is the property of Sebastian Story, Hilltop watch maker, who resides at 308 N. Terrace-st, and it reveals the daily transactions in the life of his grandfather, Job Story, who migrated to Ohio from the state of New Hampshire about 1812.

Still in good state of preservation despite the fact the book is written in a legible hand with the ink remaining in good condition throughout.

Clarence Story, who operates a dry cleaning establishment in the same building with his father's watch repair shop at 2414 W. Broad-st, is a great-grandson of the author of the book.

Job Story, one of a family of 12 children, walked to Ohio from his New Hampshire home in quest of a place to establish a new home for his family in the Ohio wilderness. But for a queer turn of fate he might have settled near Columbus, the goal he had in mind. The danger of malaria fever in the level country in this part of the state turned him south into Meigs county where the mosquitoes were not so numerous in the hill country. There he purchased 80 acres of land at the rate of $1.50 per acre.

Walks Home

Returning to his old home by foot he brought his family through in a wagon some months later and immediately built a cabin for their new home. The Story homestead is located on the Athens-Pomeroy road about 18 miles north of Pomeroy.

Despite the hardships of a life in the backwoods, Story lived to 91 years of age and retained an active mind until his death. At the age of 45 he decided he no longer needed tobacco so he gave it up and never touched it again.

Excerpts from the daily account book such as the following reveal the simple manner in which pioneers lived, deprived of all the luxuries of the modern day.

April 1, 1834, borrowed of John Story 40 rough shingles. Jan. 5, 1835, paid to John Story 40 rough shingles.

Rye, Sept. 1, 1837, 9¼ bushels 6 cts. Mar. 17, 1830, lost one of my ten sheep by an ulser in the brain. Apr. 24, 1830, David Chest, cr. by one bushel corn due me on settlement Jan. 9, 1830.

A half pound of tobacco could be had at 10c, according to one entry on the ledger. A full days work harrowing with one ox netted only 50c. A gallon of maple molasses was worth 50c while the purchase of one-fourth pound of tea cost 25c. At the same time a mug of new cider cost six cents.

Settled In Full

The back-breaking task of digging potatoes was worth only 50c per day in cash wages. An item dated Oct. 19, 1830, read: Reckoned and settled with Amos Morse and found due to him 75c to be paid in work. Signed Job Story and Amos Morse.

A dozen of eggs brought in 12c. A bushel of salt cost $1.17. A pair of home made boots cost Story 50c. Another item showed where 239 pounds of beef were bought for $6.32. The price paid in one instance for the delivery of a letter was 12½c. A pair of shoes were half soled and heeled for a quarter.

On March 1, 1832, he agreed to pay Abigal H. Gilpey school tax for the year in the amount of $1.02. Later in the same year he sold for cash in hand, two calves for $7.

Such were just a few of the many entries in the personal account book of one of Ohio's pioneers. Despite his having lived in the 19th century Job Story predicted the advent of the automobile and other modern conveniences although they did not make their appearances until many years after his death.

Good Design Aid to Home Economy

Good design and the elimination of costly and unnecessary construction factors effect important economies in small home building, according to Federal Housing Administration officials.

Honesty in small home architecture, as a desire for symmetry frequently produces complicated construction problems which add considerably to the total cost.

Simplicity should be the governing factor in small home planning, as excess maintenance costs caused by bad design add additional burdens. Moreover simplicity in design tends to keep the mortgage sound and the buyer satisfied with his investment.

"Building obsolescence into homes" is the manner in which FHA officials describe poor design. The small home, of all dwelling types, must be protected from faulty construction and bad design due to the limited funds for maintenance at the disposal of owners of such properties.

SHORT, SHORT STORY

By Adrian Fuller

The scene is the basin of the Dead Sea, lying some 1290 feet below the level of the sea in ancient Palestine, and the time, the months immediately following the armistice, when the speaker was in command of troops at the Dead Sea post, at the northern end of the saltiest body of water in the world.

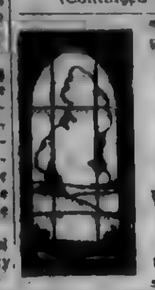
By day the basin is a place of ill omen, with temperatures frequently reaching 130 degrees at noon, but if it is a place of terror in the day light hours it is the scene of haunting beauty by night under the spell of a moon at its fullness, while the mosquitoes make a sort of a buzzing symphony in the nocturnal hour.

In those days, Europeans sought opportunity to spend a night in the basin when the moon rode high, while we of the military were happy to secure leave to visit Cairo.

One night on one of these interludes, in the Egyptian capital, we came onto the terrace outside Shepherd's hotel, after dinner, and observed a group of people having liquers at a small table.

We inquired of our drugoman whom they might be. He said they are of the English nobility, but the young man is an American singer, who is making his debut here in concert before the King and his court.

Gaining admission later in the evening, we listened to one whom we believed to be a budding genius, singing the melodic compositions of the masters as well as lesser known composers with an (illegible) which earned for (illegible) unstinted applause in old Cairo.



Ten days later, our leave being over, we were back at our desolate post at the Dead Sea, when a dispatch rider from corps headquarters on the Mount of Olives, brought direction to proceed to Jerusalem, there to be a guest of the military who desired to spend the night under the full moon in the basin.

We wound our way up the old Roman road to the ancient city, somewhat disturbed over our duty, for there had been others when we had been ordered to entertain who had been extremely uninteresting people.

Imagine our surprise and gratification when we found our guest was to be the singer, whom we had heard only a short time before in Cairo.

Thinking to provide something better than was available at our

Girl Scouts Study First Aid Work

Mrs. R. D. Powless, former resident of the Hilltop, is sponsoring regular first aid courses at the St. John's Lutheran church for Girl Scouts and also for other girls over 12 years of age. The courses are held every Thursday night from 7:30 p. m. to 9:00 p. m., and will continue for a period of 10 weeks.

Senior Scout Troop 4, which meets at the home of Mrs. George Tiller, 196 N. Chase-av, is making a quilt to enter in the junior state fair this year. The girls range from the ages of 15 to 16 years. During the past week they prepared a luncheon at the home of their leader, Mrs. G. Tiller.

Mrs. W. W. Smelker, chairman of the program committee for the Girl Scouts, will give a talk Feb. 3, at 3:45 p. m., at 196 N. Chase-av. Her subject will be "Home Making Field."

Mrs. Smelker, who has been a scout for seven years, resides at 464 E. Como-av.

"What wonderful performers there are in that orchestra!" exclaimed Mrs. Cumrox.

"Wonderful isn't the word," replied Mr. Cumrox. "They're all—just Super-human. Why, they sound to me as if they could take a tune and play it backward as easily as they could forward."

"Rafferty," said Mr. Dolan, "are you one of those people that never knows when he's whipped?"

"I am not. But I take nobody's word for it except the doctor's after I come to."

Tom: "So your wife plays bridge? What kind does she play?"

Jack: "Well, when she keeps asking me for money, I think it must be tell bridge."

SHORT STORY

modest mess on the Dead Sea, we took the visitor to Jericho, a few miles north of the post.

There was an old Arab woman there whom we knew could give us a good dinner, and the retreating Turks and Germans had left some wines of excellent vintage.

The dinner being over, our guest said he would like to walk out into the moonlight for a moment—to enjoy the scene as the orb came over the hills of Moab to the east.

Returning after a while, he said, "You know there is a song I should like to sing on the banks of the Jordan tonight."

This fired our imagination, and so, there being an old battered piano which the German officers had left, we loaded it on a truck, and drove the seven miles to the banks of the river through dust to the hubs of the car.

And there with no other human auditors, save a skulking Bedouin or two, the truck drivers and myself, he sang that gorgeous song from Victor Herbert's Naughty Marietta "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" before all in a setting of ancient mystery and haunting beauty.

We left our visitor in Jerusalem the next morning.

Fourteen hours later in a midwest city in America, we read that the singer, now quite famous was to sing there that night.

A telephone call, and the bridge of the years was quickly passed, and that night an unprogrammed song was sung to the unsuspecting audience, all in the setting of the previous numbers, but for the singer, and his companion of a memorable night halfway round the world, it was the rushing waters of the Jordan which again played the accompaniment.

Library News

Development of good reading habits in juvenile readers is most important, and to supplement the foundation laid at school, the public library endeavors to select for the younger readers, books that will be beneficial to character development.

The Hilltop branch library, 31 N. Hague-av. has recently added a number of new books to the juvenile collection.

Older girls may enjoy career and school stories such as the "Sue Barton" nursing series by Helen Boyeston; "The Great Tradition" by Marjorie Alles; "Singing Wood" by Florence Means; "Private Prope" by Gertrude Malotte.

YOUR WORLD AND MINE

By MILDRED MCHANCE

Said the groundhog to his frow,
"I think it's time I should stir out,
It surely must be spring, by now:"
She said, "Yes dear, without a doubt!"
So he meandered from his den—
His shadow met him at the door;
He shouted ducking in again,
"My land! Lady, there's six weeks more!"

Personally, we have never figured out a logical reason why anything as innocent looking as hogs which play up and down township ditch banks, should control the weather. We are almost as skeptical about one having anything to do with it, as we are about The New Deal being able to do anything but make blunders.

If as is generally supposed, the groundhog does control the six weeks following February second, it seems like it would be a practical idea to organize a national groundhog club, that members might watch holes and keep groundhogs in their dens on the day they do the damage;

Then it would make little difference if the sun did shine, for they could not parade above ground, casting shadows to look at, which tradition tells will cause an additional six weeks of winter weather.

Valley Moon—

Pale in the valley, rises the moon,
Pale in the valley, white on the lake—
Stirring my heart to an old, heart's tune
And dreams of you, that valley moons make!

Youth—

"Rarely is it given in the story of life, to those who work greatly or love greatly, to gather the fruit of their toil or passion. But it is given those others, perhaps—those for whom it could not be—to know a happiness greater, it may be, than the joy of possession."

This closing paragraph of a favorite novel presented to us on our eighteenth birthday, and firmly pencil marked at that time, as reading of the book was completed, is one of the quotations from fiction that has been remembered through the years. Often those words have when puzzling circumstances arose concerning secret most-hoped-for things, come into the foreground of thought to be studied anew.

Youth builds high ideals, dreams passionately of love, yearns for unreached goals, with all the unclouded optimism characteristic of youth.

Experience teaches lessons that dim the glamour of over-radiant dreams, bringing more practical views of things than early interests hold.

Time teaches so much! But how beautiful are the undimmed dreams of youth! Individuals and the world are better for them, even if air castles are built too beautiful, too frail and too high to last.

On a fly-leaf of the book from which the above quotation is taken, we wrote one of our early poems long ago; The poem "Somewhere," reads as follows;

Somewhere out of the silence
A voice is calling to me,
Sweet and high as the heavens,
Strong and deep as the sea.
Somewhere out of the future
A wondrous day shall dawn,
Clouds of doubt will be lifted,
Life's darkness over and gone.
Lights shall rise from the shadows
To bear me up and away,
Following my protector,
I shall find life's perfect day.

Typical of youth are the words, hope for the future's secrets, withheld in the inexperience of young years!

It would be only natural for readers to wonder whether the young poet found "life's perfect day;" Whether idealized fruits of labor and love were gathered; to answer this, would be a matter too personal to discuss, but we can say that whether love's young dreams and ambitions are fulfilled or not, time substitutes ideals and interests satisfying to thought, for all things that cannot be.

Faith—

Today I face with calm reserve
The things of life that may not be;
And know the things that I deserve,
Will come in proper time to me.
I would not have things otherwise
If God has planned them so to be;
My secret of contentment lies
In faith in plans He has for me!

Like fried mush with potato and beef hash nicely browned, for breakfast?—So do we!

The "spring togs" we talked about last week, haven't looked quite so good, since Pan skipped out and left us with Old Man Winter!

Farmers' Institute—

Attended Farmer's Institute two days and an evening of last week; As usual, there was some discussion that was uninteresting, much that was. The outstanding thought (as thoughts appeal to us,) was unconsciously spoken by the speaker for the last afternoon's session; —"To discover for ourselves the beauty of living, is one of the finest goals we ever have."

Everyone has the right to discover "The Beauty of living," and one who can discover it, will find life worth while in whatever circumstance of fortune fate places him.

Search for the beauty of living is a search through a beautiful valley of adventure, for when one has once learned to live with that aim in mind, there is always a road that leads ahead to explore.

We wish if there be those who have not learned, that they might discover for themselves, "the beauty of living," for in appreciation of it, is the heart's happiness found!

Point of View—

When one is in a cozily heated room looking out on the smooth whiteness of midwinter landscapes, "The Snow is beautiful!" But when one has worked with a frozen pump for an hour or so, with a north wind blowing snow in one's face and down one's neck, it is only human to "wonder if this beastly weather will ever let up!"

Organists on the Hilltop are delighted with Our New Everett Organ.

Sled Ride Ends In Tragedy

Rome Girl Is Victim Of Crash When Sled Hits Tree

Tragedy marked the end of a sled ride for 14-year-old Johanne Craft, 59 Maple-dr, Rome, Sunday afternoon when the sled on which she was riding behind an automobile crashed into a tree. Services were held Wednesday afternoon from Hillcrest Baptist church, where she was a member. Interment was in Memorial burial park by Jerry Spears.

Three other children riding on sleds behind the car, Orin Toy, 11, 42 S. Hague-av, Hugh Cox jr., 11, 36 Buenavista-dr, Rome, and Charles Mossman, 12, Dayton, visiting a Baker family in Rome, were uninjured. The car was driven by John Brewer, 111 Campbell-av. Harley Ashley, 633 W. Mound-st, was a passenger in the car.

Details of the tragedy were somewhat confused since only the three children were eye witnesses to the accident. The incident occurred at about 2 in the afternoon immediately in front of the home of Homer George, 228 Maple-dr.

Occupants of the car in reporting to sheriff's deputies denied that they knew the children were riding behind the car but in an earlier conversation with Ruskin Richards, Rome constable, they had admitted that they knew the children were riding but "had told them to get off." Richards drove the victim to Mt. Carmel hospital where doctors pronounced her dead upon arrival.

In conversation with a RECORD representative Richards said "I asked Brewer at the hospital if he knew the girl was riding behind the car. He said that he did."

O. H. Craft, well known Hilltop real estate man and father of the girl, told the RECORD: "I disagree with facts surrounding the accident as reported in the papers thus far."

No Crossing Near

Reports that the car was slowing down for an intersection proved incorrect when it was pointed out by Homer George that there is no crossing nor intersection for at least 500 yards from the place where the tragedy occurred.

Coroner Dr. Edward E. Smith said: "We will begin an inqury into the accident as soon as I can arrange a time suitable to the prosecutor's office." An official report will not be made until that investigation is concluded.

The girl is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Craft, and five sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Swicegood, 307 S. Warren-av, Mrs. Virginia Toy, 42 S. Hague-av, and Miss Margaret Craft, Miss Harriett Craft and Miss Louise Craft, all living at home.

Ticket Seller

Jack Shank

Tickets for the tenth annual showing of the Hilltop Minstrel on Mar. 15, 16 and 17 will go on sale Wednesday, according to Jack Shank, chairman of ticket sales for this year's show. All members of the Hilltop Business Men's association will have the ducats for sale at 25c for general admission. Tickets may be exchanged for reserve seats by paying a dime extra.

In view of the interest shown in previous shows Shank predicts an early demand for seats for the three performances. Reservations will be handled on Mar. 13 and 14 in advance of the first showing. General admission tickets will be exchanged at Shank and Saunders, 2459 W. Broad-st.

Shank has had some part in practically every minstrel presented by the association in past years. He has been an active member of the organization for several years serving on numerous committees from year to year. He and his partner, L. E. Saunders, are engaged in the real estate and insurance business. Their business includes general insurance coverage, bonds, sale and management of Hilltop properties.

Work Is Under Way On Improvements

100 Men Start Task Of Enlarging Lake At Westgate

Work on the enlargement of the lake in Westgate park got under way Wednesday when 75 men were put to work on the project. At least 100 men are expected to be on the job before the end of this week.

The project will cost approximately $5000 when construction is completed. Dimensions for the lake are 750 feet long and from 50 to 200 feet wide, varying in different places.

The project consists of revetment work with a stone dam. Fountains are to be built to supply the necessary water, and a sewer will be made for the outlet.

R. V. Hessenaur, superintendent of parks and forestry, states he is making every effort to rush the project through in order to have its construction done as soon as possible.

A date for possible completion of the improvements could not be learned due to the varying number of workmen.

The Spectator

By C. C. Hartley

A GREAT LOSS

We'll always remember Milton W. Westlake walking up and down the streets of the Hilltop and stopping to chat with first this person and that one.

And more recently those conversations were for the most part about the job Westlake held as a public official. He considered it an honor to have been elected as a public servant and he made himself just that. No problem was too small and the large ones never baffled him because he had a fine manner of subjecting them to good common sense in order to find the answers.

Those many many little things that Mr. Westlake and his friends talked about concerned the street light on the corner that failed to come on last night, or the alley in back of Mr. Jones' house that needed a spot repaired, or some excess rubbish that had accumulated through failure of the collectors to make the rounds regularly. And it could be depended upon that all these things would get Mr. Westlake's most careful attention at once and the job would be done as it should be.

He had nothing to gain by these actions, except friends . . . and it goes without saying that a multitude of Hilltoppers have suffered a great loss . . . they have lost this friend.

These were the reasons The RECORD suggested Mr. Westlake as a candidate for council in the last election. Truly, he was the type that was a representative of the people. The city needs more of his kind.

PITTING TRIBUTE

Foremost among the fine things that Mr. Westlake sought for this community were the improvements at Westgate park. It was his belief that this community deserved one of the finest outdoor recreation spots in the city. It was also his belief that Westgate park had all the natural beauty that could easily be developed into a wonderland for the Hilltop.

We believe the Hilltop and the city as a whole should pay fitting tribute to the memory of one of the finest public servants the community has ever had.

We suggest that a movement be started today to have the name of this park he loved so much changed to "Westlake park".

Jokes Wanted

Again, jokes are at a premium. Or at least that's the case as end men start to work on the tenth edition of the Hilltop minstrel, March 15, 16 and 17. New jokes or old jokes, all are requested.

For the best jokes submitted five pairs of tickets good for any night of the show will be given. Entries may be addressed to the Joke Editor, the Hilltop Record, 14 S. Oakley-av.

Marshall To Speak To HBMA

Association To Meet Tuesday Night For Regular Business

C. T. Marshall, former chief justice of the Ohio supreme court, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the Hilltop Business Men's association at the Schmelzer restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st, next Tuesday evening. Music will be supplied by the Calborn school of Hawaiinn Music.

Mrs. Harriet Huff is program chairman for the evening. Plans for the coming minstrel show will be discussed in more detail.

Judge Marshall will use as his topic, "Mexico."

Tourney To Start Today

A series of sweepstake tourney events starts at the Hilltop Recreation alleys today as Fred Wedemeyer, manager, introduces an inovation in bowling competition. The play will continue through Sunday, Feb. 19.

Sharpshooters will be confined to an A class and the less able tenpinners, those with averages of 174 and below, will be bracketed in a B division. Top prize in each division will be $25 in cash. Other lesser prizes will be awarded.

The tourney will be a three-game event to be rolled on one alley only two of which may be rolled in one day.

$10,000 ESTATE

An estate estimated at $10,000 was left to the widow of the late Councilman Milton W. Westlake, 2499 W. Broad-st. The information was contained in a brief 21-word will filed in probate court Tuesday.

West High School Band Prepares For Concert

The West high band will present its initial concert Feb. 23 and 24, under the supervision of the school's music instructor, Herbert E. Hutchinson.

Chosen selections will comprise the program which includes solos by Jack Swinehart, Bob Gulcher, Les Westerman, Dick Blayney, Lois Brown, Racy McVay, Libby Lee Czatt, Carl Speckman, Elouise Rucker, Jack Keidel, Alban Gulcher and Gerald Johnson. Distinctive novelty numbers will be presented by the band itself.

Tickets are being distributed from various sources here on the Hilltop. They may be obtained from members of the Band Parents club, sponsor of the event, students participating in the concert and at various Hilltop stores.

The proceeds of the concert will be used to supply members of the band with new uniforms. This occasion has been widely publicized and a full house is expected for both nights.

Annual Banquet Is Being Planned

The annual banquet of "The Fairfielders" is being planned by Mrs. R. H. Treffinger, to be held early in March at one of the local hotels.

The organization is composed of persons who formerly lived in Fairfield county now residing in Franklin county. It is estimated that between four and five thousand former Fairfield county people now live in Franklin county.

Mrs. Treffinger and her committee are planning for a large attendance as the banquet last year was the largest ever held.

A typical safety program in action is that shown by the pictures of John Burroughs pupils carrying out various phases of the work as a part of their regular schedule. Today Hilltop public and parochial schools are laying greater stress on safety than at any other time previously.

Evidence of the dividends it pays can only be reckoned in the small number of playground and crossing accidents that have been recorded here in recent years in view of heavily traveled thoroughfares on both Broad-st and Sullivant-av.

Safety is stressed not only as an extra precaution for the child's welfare but has become a regular part of the school curricula in many institutions. Well trained "safety patrols" direct the movement of youngsters at every school and both children and motorists alike have come to respect and obey the "stop" flag when it is turned to check traffic.

Combined Efforts

Teachers in the schools point out that the combined efforts of various organizations have made possible the efficient program now in effect. Parent-Teacher groups have contributed money to pay subscriptions to literature on

APPOINTED

Dr. E. R. Shaffer, 299 S. Richardson-av, received notice of his appointment as provisional health director of Summit county. The appointment was made last week.

Hockey Fans Seek To Schedule Special Car

Are there 70 hockeyminded individuals, with $5.90 to spend on an all-expense trip to Cleveland, living on the Hilltop? That is a problem that is concering Curt Wilcox, Hilltop Bank manager, and other sports loving men in the community.

If there are 70 such duly qualified persons so inclined a deluxe all-expense trip to the lake city may be made in a privately chartered car on the Saturday of March 18 when Cleveland plays Pittsburgh in the National Hockey league. If sufficient interest is shown the car may be sponsored by the Hilltop Business Men's association as a "community party."

The charges would include train fare to and from Cleveland, bus transportation from the train to the arena, admission to the match with a special reserved section for the party and a regular full course meal on the diner en route to Cleveland. The train would leave Columbus at 4 p. m. and return about 3 a. m.

Reservations can be made by calling Wilcox at the bank, RA. 3400, or the Hilltop Record office, RA. 1125.

Scout Troop 79 Sponsors Show

Boy Scout Troop 79, headed by Scoutmaster O. O. Tope, is sponsoring a double feature picture program at the Rivoli theatre on Feb. 22 and 23. Proceeds of the ticket sales will go to the troop to buy equipment and supplies.

"The Duke of West Point" and "The Black Bandit" are the features scheduled for the two day showing.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the troop.

DEMONSTRATION PLANNED

C. V. Meyers of the Goodyear service station at Eureka and Broad is giving free demonstrations this week on the new Goodyear lifeguard safety tube.

Dr. W. G. Clippinger Is Burgess Speaker

Dr. W. G. Clippinger, president of Otterbein college for the past 30 years, will be the speaker at the morning service of the Burgess Avenue United Brethren church. He will speak on the topic, "The Church's Concern for Higher Education."

The service will start at 10:30 a. m.

Honor Student

William L. Ingals, 111 S. Richardson-av, was listed among those on the honor roll in the college of veterinary medicine at Ohio state university. There were only 39 in all in the city.

V. F. W. Post Celebrates 3rd Anniversary Here

By Dolores Lawyer

The Hilltop Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post No. 3441, located at 2383½ W. Broad-st, will celebrate not only their third anniversary on the Hilltop Feb. 15 at the post club room, but also a national forty-first anniversary of the destruction of the battleship "Maine." There will be a coast to coast broadcast on the blue network of the NBC studios from 11:30 p. m. to 12:30 a. m.

Organized 1935

The VFW, organized in 1935, started with an enrollment of 50 members. Now the membership has reached 125. A 10 per cent increase in membership has been made over last year's record.

All persons in the organization must have had foreign service in the war before they can become a member. It is also a secret fraternal organization.

The first year of the club George Chambers served as commander, George Ell as senior vice commander and Frank Wolfe as quartermaster. The second year the officers were Ed Miller, commander; Ralph Hartman, senior vice commander; and John Cross, quartermaster.

Since their organization in 1935 the veterans have been doing welfare work not only on the Hilltop but in other states as well. In Dayton they have a ward of veterans which they supply with cigarettes, candy and reading material. This ward is visited twice a month by the members.

The veterans also support a national home in Michigan for the widows and orphans of the veterans who were killed in the war.

Safety Club

A boys' bicycle safety club is being organized this week by the VFW with headquarters at 2383½ W. Broad-st. Prizes will be awarded to those who engage in the prevention of accidents and who uphold the saftey of the Hilltop.

On Nov. 1, 1937, the club furnished a new meeting hall which is their present quarters. Before that time the Glenwood shelter house served as their meeting place.

Regular meetings of the veterans are held twice a month on the second and fourth Thursdays. Their emblem as shown above is the Cross Malta.

Ladies Auxiliary

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Westway post was instituted on April 26, 1936, with 27 members being obligated. Mrs. Alice Wolfe served as the first president. She served as poppy chairman of all the auxiliary units that year.

Mrs. Margaret Phelps was the second presiding officer elected and is at present serving in that office. Membership has grown to 66 besides a junior auxiliary unit of 28 members. This was established in 1937. Betty Jean Wolfe was the first president of the juniors and Elizabeth Boord is now the presiding officer.

Auxiliary activities have been centered around hospitalization, welfare work and youth activities. The annual "Buddy Poppy" sale is conducted each year for the purpose of welfare work and for contributions to the national home in Eaton Rapids, Mich.

MODERN POETRY

EDITED BY ESTHER WEAKLEY

DESERTED SCHOOL HOUSE

Just as you were when they went away,
Awaiting the sound of their happy feet,
Your door is half-open—why do they not come?
Their presence would make your joy complete.

The doves have a nest where your bell used to be,
Your woodbox is empty through all the long years.
The hickory's leaves lie dead at its feet,
The innocent cause of many hot tears.

The initials carved in your dusty desks
Are still to be read by those who will,
But few leave the road to visit with you
Sitting alone on your little hill.

But the doves call softly when daylight comes,
The locusts shrill in the noonday heat,
The crickets chirp when the sun goes down
And the fireflies rise from the fields of wheat.

The children are gone, but there remain
These little friends who will sing to you
All of the songs of the fields and streams—
Of their little lives and their love songs, too.
—Rosemary E. Gooch, aged 13, pupil, West High school.

PINE TREES

Do pine trees know the dull, heart-numbing sorrow
Of trees whose grey-green loveliness will burn
To gold and crimson, when on some tomorrow
Frost fingers touch them sharply. Do they yearn
As others do when little wild winds roving
Coax boldly every leaf to come and play,
Then laugh and drop them earthward while still moving
Across the hills, to crumble and decay?

Do pine trees feel no pulse of earth's glad waking
When other trees strain upward for spring's kiss;
And on each slender bough white buds are breaking
To petaled wonder . . . Do pines long for this?
Clothed in eternal green have they greeted
The passing years with hearts calm and serene;
Do they stand lone, yet proudly undefeated,
Gladly content to wear a somber green?

MY HEAVEN

A question creeps into my brain,
Though hardly in my teens,—
Is heaven on some distant plane,
Through death only seen?

My childish fancy questions much

Each day it comes anew.

When all my senses are content
And too, my heart at ease,
The gift of happiness is sent
By one who hopes to please.

My rosary of happiness
Each bead a kindly deed,
And in return the Lord will bless
My heaven on earth, indeed.

Letters To The Editor

Hilltop Record
Columbus, Ohio
Dear Sirs:

May we inquire about the Mothersingers chorus It has been quite a subject of conversation at our house since they gave their minstrel. Are they all professionals?

The chorus was fine. The end women specialties — especially Toddle luma luma and the dance by Helen Forest. Please publish more about them. Can anyone join?

"Myrna" of the Hilltop

Hilltop Record
Dear Sirs:

In opening my letter let me say I am a newcomer to the Hilltop and to Columbus and I and my family and I enjoy your paper and really depend on it for so many things.

This letter is really an inquiry. Our family attended the school minstrel last night and we are still arguing and discussing it. Part of us think some of the talent was professional and it was directed by someone other than members. The young lady who sang "Jeanie" was surely a professional together with the so-called mother (we don't believe it) who did the graceful dance. If these girls and women are all mothers and are amateurs why not put me and my family as well as plenty of others straight? We are interested and would like to get our arguments over with about this soloist and tap dancer. Perhaps an interview or two or maybe a short history of the mother singers.

Yours for answers,
The Snyder Family

P. S. Don't think we didn't like the minstrel. We surely did but these arguments have come up and I'm sure I overheard others who were doubtful. Perhaps it is because we are mothers and can't sing, can't dance and be youthful any more, I don't know. But please set us straight.

Again the Snyder Family.

'Doc' Campbell's Career Includes School Teaching

C. H. Campbell

Charles Howard "Doc" Campbell, 91 S. Westmoor-av, has not only been a druggist during his life but also a school teacher who has taught science, history, Latin, math and English.

Graduating from the high school at Gallipolis in 1914, he attended Ohio university for two years. Later he entered Ohio State university studying the remainder of his profession in the college of pharmacy. His college education was broken up by the war. He served three years in the army in 1918 as a bacteriologist in the medical laboratory.

Always being interested in textbooks, Campbell finished four years high school work in three years and during this time he was classed as one of the best three students in the school. In order to teach in 1916 he attended summer school at Ohio university, accomplishing the Latin Virgil in six weeks.

Taught School

After he taught school for four years he entered his pharmaceutical career. In 1924 he started his own drug store at his present location, 2766 W. Broad-st.

This past week, starting Feb. 7, he has been celebrating his 15th anniversary on the Hilltop. He has been featuring special sales on the articles sold at his drug store.

He has two sons, Fletcher aged 16, and Charles aged 9, the former attending West high school, the latter West Broad.

"Doc" Campbell is a member of the American Legion, Westgate lodge and the Business Men's association and chorus. He is secretary of the association and also of the chorus, holding that office since its beginning.

He believes the Hilltop is an ideal community both in which to live and do business.

Hilltop Library Gets New Books

The Hilltop branch library has available seven popular new books of fiction. They are "Green Wood Burns Slowly," by Brice; "Marble Face," by Brand; "Sword of Islam," by Sabatini; "Knights of the Range," by Grey; "A Starry Night," by Bower; "Seascape," by Carfrae, and "Disputed Passage," by Douglas.

Among the non-fiction are "How to Become a Ventriloquist," by Bergen; "Millbrook" (story of a country town in 1880), by Della Lintis; "First Things First" (a practical plan of character education for school and home), by Agnes Boysen; "Sailor on Horseback" (a biography of Jack London), by Stone.

Twenty-eight children heard the interesting stories told by Mrs. Morehead and Mrs. Weatherby at the monthly story hour last week.

1000 Ways To Say "I Love You"

Sending a Valentine is an old custom which began simply . . . . one just sent a little message of love or esteem . . . . Then the Victorians got hold of it and there was a sharp rise in the lace paper and ribbon market.

But now, how that custom has expanded! The shops are filled with a bewildering array of lovely tokens, all designed to express the same old sentiment to some one on February 14th.

Of course you'd like to send "something different," but what? The more you walk around and look, the dizzier you get. Why not relax? Sit down and study the advertising pages of the Hilltop Record. Here, you will find the store's own selections of the most appropriate gifts, and at prices to fit any purse.

Cupid only offered a message of three little words, but on these pages you'll find many ways to say "I Love You."

YOUR WORLD AND MINE

By MILDRED SCHANOK

(Notice to readers: Before this column appears again, we will celebrate the birthday of one of our nation's best loved heroes; also St. Valentine's day. We dedicate this week's lines to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, St. Valentine, Dan Cupid and his followers.)

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

"Up from log cabin to capitol
One fire was in his spirit, one resolve—
To send the keen ax to the root of wrong.
Clearing a free way for the feet of God,
The eyes of conscience testing every stroke
To make his deed the measure of a man;
He built the rail-pile as he built the State,
Passing his splendid strength through every blow;
The grip that swung the ax in Illinois
Was on the pen that set a people free."

The words of Edwin E. Markham to the memory of the great and kindly Abraham Lincoln seem to best describe his nobleness of character, as we pause nearly "four score" years after his death in reverence and admiration, to pay tribute to the part he played in the life of our nation.

In several ways, Lincoln is one of the most pathetic figures mentioned in American history.

Born to extreme poverty and unfortunate family "backing" he rose to greatness through terrific odds.

His natural sense of humor and fondness for story telling, made him a favorite with all who knew him; it seems strange that one who could bring laughter often, to his associates of early manhood, should glean from the harvests of time, so much sorrow for himself; sorrow that changed him from a stalwart, joking youth to a saddened, quiet figure in later life.

The story of his first love known to most of us, is a tragic one, for death claimed the girl he loved.

He climbed to greatness through trying circumstances, to labor and suffer through grim shadows of Civil War days to bring about peace and preservation of a nation and freedom for its slaves.

All this was accomplished to be climaxed by a tragic death.

Few men have been better loved by a nation's people; few men have paid more dearly in sacrifice of happiness than Lincoln paid. Wreaths of laurel to his memory in halls of the immortal dead, were more than honorably earned; so much so, that tribute we pay seems insufficient honor to one who gave so much of his life for the good of others.

Rail splitting is a lost art; but more patriotism might develop and less demand be made on government money, if chronic loafers and spenders would practice on wood-piles for a while.

"The heights by great men reached and kept were not attained by sudden flight. But they, while their companions slept, were toiling upward in the night." This is certainly true of the boy Lincoln, who worked out his arithmetic lessons on the back of a fire shovel in front of a cabin fireplace; and equally as true in later years, when he studied over law books and problems of state.

To respect a great man is a mark of godliness in a lesser one.

St. Valentine, as you know, was a Roman saint who managed to mix with an executioner's ax, Feb. 14, 306 A. D.

Due to the notion that the birds' mating season opened on that day a custom arose for the choosing of "valentines" or sweethearts, and missives of affection sent to loved ones came to be known as valentines.

Dan Cupid, the darling little baby god with cute wings, mischievous smile and clever bow and arrow, is a likeable little rascal; and while there may be times when he needs "a good warming" for the mischief he makes in muddling up heart affairs, we feel that for all he has undertaken since Adam lost his heart to Eve, he has done much better than the average archer could in the way of accurate marksmanship.

If Cupid's art could only be
Game hunting for humanity,
Without a doubt, his shot would bag
More birds and hares than he could drag!
But as some rather live on love,
And since hearts seem to be his loot,
Forget the thought in lines above
And watch him when he aims to shoot!

Bachelors and "old maids" are people who know better before it is too late.

Matrimony, which should be a fifty-fifty affair, often runs eighty-twenty or more and less.

Some are so busy liking everyone that there is no time to center their affections on one.

And now a love song for all who like sentimental stuff—

LOVE SONG

White moons have claimed my heart,
And golden gems of song and art!
Wind—songs and rain, star-dust and mirth;
Thoughts have been lured by lands of earth
That lie afar, by rose and dew,
But never dear, as charmed by You!

Silent by silvered strands I've stood,
Word-lost in wonder of night's wood!
Heart-bound when beauty beckoned me
Wing-mad with longing to be free
Of fetters holding man to earth!
But never then, knew I your worth!

Temples may lure and wind-harps call!
Roses may lure by morning's wall,
Stars in their heights sing on in space,
But love, the dear light of your face,
The white-charm of your heart is more
Than all that lured my heart, before!

(We'll wager that made Cupid dizzy.)

Love is the knowledge of my friend's need of me and my need of him, that is not satisfied by another's presence.

Love, like the American flag should be so sacred that it is held in the heart's highest reverence and respect; lesser sentiment is not love though often mistaken for it, but merely fancy, passion or infatuation.

Let me be human with all my heart, that I may live and love and carry the light of happiness into forsaken spots, that it may break the shadows and glow warm and kindly upon the lives and hearts of those who need a friend!

I would say, "I love you!"
In such a noble way
That the skies above you
Would seem so blue today.
You'd not have a notion
That life is grim or gray,
As friendship's sweet emotion
Swept all your doubts away!

MY. . . . DIZZY. . . . WORLD. . .

I have just had my little country home taken away from me by a private utility which wants a monopoly on the water around Westport Connecticut. I mean just this minute. I have hung up the telephone after telling my lawyer there that I would settle.

If you think I have given up without a struggle, ask any one of my cronies in New York or Connecticut. I have fought like a tiger for two years. So have fifteen hundred others, including Lillian Wald, dean of settlement workers; Stuart Chase, economist and writer; Jascha Heifetz, violinist; Rachael Crothers, playwright; VanWyck Brooks, eminent scholar and Pulitzer Prize winner; Walter Tittle, famous dry-point etcher (originally from Springfield, Ohio); Franklin P. Adams, the columnist; Robert Duffus, editorial writer on the New York Times; Harold von Schmidt, the illustrator; Hazel Heward, the illustrator; Jimmie Melton, the tenor; Webb Waldron, David Garth, Burton Davis and dozens of other writers and artists; Dr. Louis I. Dublin, population expert; John V. N. Dorr, one of Amercia's most distinguished engineers.

This distinguished company has had two long years of fighting in the Connecticut courts. We engaged expert engineers, we had one of them on the ground digging into the problem for a year, to show that this private water company could and should develop its present water shed before taking Westport's river. Our counsel was made Governor of Connecticut last November.

We are still putting up a legislative fight to curb the powers of this company which by its antiquated charter can take any piece of property in Fairfield County (the wealthiest county in Connecticut) which it "deems necessary and expedient" for its "corporate purposes."

But I've lost my little house which is over two hundred years old and which I purchased fourteen years ago without having any knowledge of the Bridgeport Hydraulic Company. I've lost my four acres with its ancient giant maples, its gnarled apple trees, its beautiful old stone fences. I have lost the little trout brook which wound through my green grounds. And I have lost my crystal clear river and the great rocks which have given me the most glorious swimming I ever have known anywhere.

A private business enterprise which has paid eight percent dividends throughout the depression has instituted condemnation proceedings against me and taken it from me. If you want to shed a tear with me, I don't mind.

And why I don't come back to Ohio, to a state which would not give away its sovereign rights to a handful of shrewd business men. Well, I just don't know.

fiddling while Rome was burning, fiddling while home was burning. The President's Ball Monday night packed in every celebrity in New York. I sat in a box quite close to Mrs. James Roosevelt so I could see her reactions to all the nonsense that was going on. What troupe of colored boys and girls who have been singing Franklin D. Roosevelt Jones in Sing Out the News came over and sang it in the Waldorf ball room. But guests who wanted to be introduced to the President's mother came up all through the number and she didn't have a chance to listen to that eloquent tribute.

Jimmie Melton sang three numbers in the early part of the program and after the theatre was over almost every actor and actress on Broadway came in to sing or dance or simply be admired and take a bow. Rudy Vallee when he was introduced, stepped up to the mike, sang a short, sweet birthday song and walked off, like a professional. Some of the other headliners acted like the amateurs they would be without the ballyhoo.

The supper or breakfast if you will, was the same as it has been for years at all these big balls, and very good, too. The committee talks and argues for days. But you get a hot consume, a choice of creamed chicken and saffron or scrambled eggs and bacon (piping hot), ice cream and cake. Monday night the ice cream came in all rolled in loose cocoanut (a departure from Neopolitan) and sticking up in each portion was a tiny American flag. Fastened to the flag's standard was the midget message "Made in Japan."

Rocket to the Moon, the new Clifford Odets production, is entertaining and interesting but it digs into a psychological, instead of a social problem. Luther Adler has a fat part which he plays with delicious finess.

But since Clifford Odets is one of the few creative artists who really can surround a social problem I like to see him do more significant things.

Last night we had a small dinner in Westport for the Governor of Connecticut and his Lady, with a big dancing party afterwards. They are charming, intelligent people and in many ways remind me of John and Harriet Bricker who now grace Ohio's State House.

SAFETY

safety and to buy safety patrol outfits. Camp Chase post of American Legion was instrumental in establishing marked off parking restrictions; Columbus Auto club supplied belts, badges, poles, flags and other necessary equipment; city policemen and firemen give talks and demonstrations on safety to the children; a school nurse gives regular time to instruction in safety; the state department of education, the state highway department, the American Red Cross and the National Safety council make available literature, films and demonstrations on safety problems.

At John Burroughs school, Principal E. B. Graham points out that with an enrollment ranging from 950 to 1200 over the past seven years not a single casualty has occurred. There a patrol of 14 boys working under a captain and a lieutenant controls the movement of traffic in and out of the building and especially at street crossings adjoining school grounds. Each morning 15 minutes before school begins and again at noon and evening they take their places, rain or shine, to protect the safety of the children.

Thorough Program

But the safety work begins much further back. In the class room time is given each day to the instruction along safety lines at school, at play, at home, on the street or wherever the child might be. Posters are made to demonstrate the work. Safety songs are sung. Slogans are memorized. Literature is studied. Safety films are shown and text books are studied all with one purpose in mind—to make the child safety conscious. Various forms of visual education are accepted as most effective by school authorities.

Working with this vast program is a safety council that meets each month. Membership is made up of two representatives from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades along with members of the patrol. Regularly elected officers preside at the meetings and such matters as improvement in the matter of school traffic by changes and reroutings are discussed. Recommendations are made to faculty members and often changes for the better result. Benefits of the council meeting are carried back to the home rooms where other students receive the benefits of the discussions. The council was organized two years ago. The safety patrol has been in operation seven years.

Owned Homes Equipped Better

Several interesting contrasts between owner-occupied and tenant-occupied units are shown in a recent governmental survey og 8,000,000 dwelling units in 303 urban areas.

Owner-occupied units are better equipped, according to the survey; the proportions having private indoor flush toilets and bathtubs are distinctly higher in all regions of the country.

Owners tend to occupy their homes much longer than tenants, the survey shows. Four-fifths of the owner-occupied units had housed the owner for five years or more. On the other hand, only 18 per cent of tenant-occupied units had been occupied by the same tenant for five years or more, and 40 per cent of the tenants had occupied their present dwellings for less than one year.

In the southwest mobility is greatest; in the case of over 82 per cent of the tenant-occupied units the tenants had changed within the preceding year. Dwellers in northeastern cities appear to remain longer in the same unit than people in other sections of the country, but in none of the regions had more than one-fifth of the units been occupied by the same tenant for more than five years.

Spears Installs New Organ

Pictured above is the console of the new Everett Orgatron installed last week at the Jerry Spears Funeral home, 3493 W. Broad-st. The instrument makes use of an electrical amplifying system. It will be used in all services held in the chapel.

The console is of American walnut finish and known as the cloister model. While electrically amplified it is not an electric organ but appropriates the features of a regular organ.

In commenting on the installation of the instrument, Spears said, "I feel that we are taking a step forward in making this organ possible for use on the Hilltop. We appreciate the fine contribution it can make to any service in which it is used. It is ever our desire to be able to render a better service to our community."

Comparative Costs In Building

STATISTICAL BUREAU, OHIO ASSN. OF RETAIL LUMBER DEALERS

The above diagram compiled by the statistical bureau of the Ohio Association of Retail Lumber dealers points out a fallacy commonly used in reasons why one should not build while lumber is high in price.

As shown above lumber figures only a minor part in the cost of an average home. Total percentage of lumber, millwork and flooring amounts to but little more than 22 percent of the entire cost of the house. Costs of labor and other materials constitute the major portion of the building costs.

Just a reminder to Lou Louden—we miss you more every day—and we sure are glad you sold your dog. . . .

Suggestion

What the Hilltop needs is one big alarm clock to wake every one up at the right time. "Suzie" Cleveland, in some mixup had to be the early bird that catches the worm one morning last week. She was mistaken for her sister, "Jackie." Now that is disgusting.

Chet Rinehart whose nickname is Chester) sure has a soft heart for someone—or should we say just one.

It's Spring

Well, spring is here at last. The Kimball brothers were seen sporting around in the antique Maxwell of theirs—Anyway if it isn't here, it must be just around the corner.

Heavy With Smoke.—If the living room is heavy with smoke after the party and yet you cannot retire leaving a downstairs window open, put a basin of water in the room and leave it over night. The air will be fresh by morning.

Round About The Hilltop

Time Will Tell

"Pop Waymer (Hilltop's Sonja Heine) has challenged Fred Sulzberger to a "Double Maltese Twist"—Boy we wouldn't miss that for anything . . .

Big Things

As we have said before, some people just go in for big things, for instance Jimmie Ellinger that jolly fellow who escorts "Chris" Kundts, pays $72 for eggs and milk — that seems a bit high doesn't it

"Petting"

Meg Rolling and Elizabeth Hanby attended a lecture last week at the YWCA. The lecture was on "Petting." They know all the angles now.

In At Last

Forty-four West high boys made a visit to the Ohio penitentiary last week, yes, it was only a visit.

"Pro Is The Word

By the way the Mothersingers of John Burroughs school are receiving quite a response from their minstrel of not so long ago. They've been classed as "pro's" now.

Here and There

Howard Powell (the husband of the big little Powell at the RECORD) is in Washington, D. C. on business . . . Dee Yank is being escorted now by the football champ Charlie Ream . . .

Have You Got One?

Noah Berry of 406 S. Hagueav, is our noted Hilltopper this week. He is a second cousin of Wallace Berry the movie actor. And that isn't all—there has been a Noah in every Berry family as far back as history dates.

It's a custom or something with them. But Noah has never seen his cousin for as he says "Everytime I learn he is in town, he's gone before I can catch him". . . .

Thrilling But True

If you really want a thrilling story (or should we say humorous) have "Kate" Penn and Virginia Sydbury tell of that awful experience they had when they got lost last year—Doggone that fence. . . .

Bits and More Bits

The noon hour gang in the back room at Tom's restaurant received no comment the other day. Says the Hilltopper, "It's nothing but a real liars club"—of course the stories could be true.

New Buildings Start On Hilltop

Building activity on the Hilltop continued at a steady pace according to first construction reports for building projects that were planned or launched during the past week.

Work will start at once on a one-family dwelling on S. Brinker-av. The owner is R. A. Ervin, 124 Haldy-av.

Alfred C. Bender, 54 N. Harris-av, has plans in progress for the remodeling of the dwelling at 4150 W. Broad-st.

A one-family house at 345 Binns-blvd will be started at once. The owner is R. A. Ervin, 124 Haldy-av.

Plans are in progress for a two story house. The owner is C. W Minnix, 576 Salisbury-rd.

Charles E. and Georgia Albaugh have taken title to the property at 532 S. Wayne-av, from Alice Ranney.

Youth Picture To Be Shown

A pictorial account of the Oxford group's work in 50 counties will be shown at the RKO Grand theatre starting today and continuing for a week. "Youth Marches On," is a 20-minute feature brought to Columbus through the efforts of a group of civic-minded persons and organizations.

THEATRES

LOEW'S BROAD

Following the current feature, "Devil's Island," Loew's Broad will present what promises to be one of the funniest films of the season, "Topper Takes a Trip," sequel to "Topper," opening Thursday, Feb. 16.

Boris Karloff is starred in "Devil's Island", cast as a French doctor sentenced unjustly. Karloff deserts his horrow roles for a 'straight' part.

LOEW'S OHIO

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer went to Hawaii for their latest big musical "Honolulu", which brings Eleanor Powell, Robert Young, Burns and Allen, and a large supporting cast to Loew's Ohio this week.

Hilltop Sports

The Buckaroos of West high will tangle with the Bengals of East tonight on the E. Broad-st court with the locals slight favorites by virtue of a 38-19 win the opening round of play in the City league. However, the Tigers will not succumb easily to the Bucks and the home floor advantage will make the charges of Coach Webster hard to beat.

Last Friday night the Aquinas Terriers visited the local floor and the Cowboys sent them flying back home with a 37-27 trouncing. Ray Stinson led the Buckaroos attack with 14 markers on three baskets and eight free throws while Ned Bell contributed eight points. The win pushed the locals into the runner-up position while the Terriers dropped into the cellar. Should the Bengals edge the Bucks tonight the two outfits would go into a two-way tie for the number two slot.

Edge Galion

Continuing their winning ways Saturday evening the men of Williams won a closely fought 36-33 triumph over the Galion Orangemen. In a previous battle at Galion West lost a two-point decision in an overtime. Carter, Rogers and Stinson each tallied eight points in this tilt but Mack, subforward, provided the winning punch in the final canto.

West was no match for Bobby Faught and Columbus Academy Tuesday afternoon and the Preppsters took an easy 41-23 decision on their own floor. West held a 9-7 first quarter lead but Messrs. Faught and Schiff got busy for Academy and held a 17-12 advantage at the intermission. The final two quarters were all Academy with Faught ringing up 20 points in three-quarters of play. West had previously defeated the Nelson Rd. quintet by a 24-16 margin when Faught was absent. The Buckaroos' scoring was evenly divided with Distlehorst, sub guard, tallying six points for the losers.

Ray "Murph" Stinson, veteran Cowboy center, moved into the fifth place in the City league individual scoring with 52 points on 14 baskets and 25 free throws. Bell, guard and captain, is in 13th place while Ucker and Rogers are tied for eighteenth.

Merchants League

The opening games of the newly formed Hilltop Merchants Basketball league swung into action last Saturday at Glenwood shelter house, producing the following scores:

Haunitz Market with Norman Schneider in charge defeated Frech Tavern 41 to 19. Campbells Drugs defeated Westgate Electric 38-33 in an overtime game. Hilltop Record won a hard fought game from Waymers Market 15-7.

The Hilltop Merchants in the City League basketball games got under way last Monday night at the K. of C. gym, taking a thrilling 33 to 32 overtime victory over Consumers Wholesale Supply for the latter's first setback.

Boys' League

The Glenwood shelter house should be filled to capacity next Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, to witness the Hoge Memorial-St. Aloysius game, a feature between the two long standing rivals of the boys' league. Hoge Memorial, who has won five straight games, will compete with St. Aloysius, who has won four out of a possible five. The game will start at 7:45 p. m.

Other games scheduled for Tuesday night are Holy Family and Highland Avenue Friends at 8:15, Briggsdale and West Park No. 2 at 8:45.

Results of last week's games were as follows:

Hoge Memorial 40; West Park No. 2, 11.

Holy Family 31; Burgess U. B. 11.

West Park No. 1, 39; Highland Avenue 11.

Glenwood M. E. 15; Briggsdale M. E. 13.

Girls' League

At the conclusion of last week's play in the girls' west church league at Glenwood shelter house St. Aloysius defeated Hilltonia U. B. by a score of 29 to 11. Burgess U. B. registered its first win of the season by defeating Avondale U. B. 20 to 12.

Hoge Memorial continued its high scoring tactics with a 39-8 win over Westgate Evangelical.

The girls' schedule runs as follows for next week:

7:15—St. Aloysius vs. Westgate Evangelical.

7:45—Hilltop C. of C. vs. Avondale U. B.

8:15—Hilltonia U. B. vs. Burgess Avenue U. B.

Boxing and wrestling matches are being sponsored every Wednesday night at the St. Mary Magdaline school, corner of Roys-av and Parkside-rd, beginning at 8:15 p. m.

The boxing schedule for next Wednesday is as follows:

Earl Carpes vs. Jack Petty.

John "Mickey" McGuire vs. Art Miller.

Gus Psora vs. Bill McGuire.

The matches, sponsored by the athletic association of the St. Mary Magdaline school, under the direction of Bill McGuire, are held in the school basement.

Political Slants

by Ello Mule

Principle topic of conversation among politicos in the capital this week centers around the Sherwood investigation at the Ohio Pen . . . long noted as the most archaic structure of its kind in the United States. Investigations there under all regimes have disclosed glaring examples of maladministration and wrong conditions . . . In this case there is apparently ample reason for the probe . . . Warden Woodward fell heir to the job after Davey pushed out Thomas . . . crystalized opinion seems to be that the institution itself is in the wrong place, by its very age, hard to administer . . and that too many political factors have entered into executive appointments there . . . Sherwood is said to have in mind the appointment of an experienced penologist . . . one not now connected with any Ohio institution . . . opinion is that Woodward is too old . . . and that his naturally kindly nature makes him an easy mark for conspiring subordinates, at whose door most of the trouble is laid. It is known that Sherwood plans a complete investigation of every penal institution in the state . . . all to the end that the mistakes and mis-directed activity of Mrs. Margaret Allman during the Davey regime may be rectified as far as possible.

Evidence exists on every hand that the Unemployment compensation act is not functioning as expected . . . confusion exists in the commission itself . . . its function and compliance efforts are obscure. And on the other hand so incomplete are the employment records in its hands that the applicant for the benefits is often turned away without his due . . . simply because the machinery for letting him have it is not complete . . . not until the compliance department cracks down and commences to operate will there be much improvement in the situation.

Creditors meeting called recently by Art Limbach, Democratic state chairman, seemed to have resulted only in determination to give Charles Sawyer and Martin L. Davey first chance to make a donation. The deficit is $20,000 . . . Limbach feels that if Davey and Sawyer kick in other Democrats will do their part . . . the plan is to ask Sawyer first, he being the candidate, then ask Martin L. to match the Sawyer money.

If fresh pineapple is to be combined with gelatin, the pineapple should first be scalded, that is, cooked for five minutes in a small amount of briskly boiling water. This is not necessary when using canned pineapple.

UNDERCOVER NEWS!

Underwear has gone far beyond the merely utilitarian purposes of the past, and modern man has various kinds for various occasions, according to a style show staged recently in Chicago for men's clothiers and furnishers. Don Crouse and Janet Moore wore costumes of half goods and half cellophane to display the latest styles in "formal" underwear.

SERVE ASPARAGUS WITH CALAVO

Serve asparagus with a dressing of sieved calavo seasoned and thinned to proper consistency. To three-fourths cup of the sieved pear add two tablespoons of cream or top milk, one teaspoon each of lemon juice and prepared mustard, one-half teaspoon salt and a few drops of tabasco sauce.

Haunts For Council

Activity on the Columbus political front has been stirred up in the past few weeks by the unpopular appointments of "hand picked" office holders.

It stands to reason, with a view of the makeup of the present city council, that thinking people of the various communities are going to have to take the matter in their own hands at the coming election to see that Columbus has a more capable representation in city council.

With the death of one Hilltop councilman and the expiration of the term of another this year we are in accord with the thought that this community should by all means have a capable representative in that body.

We can think of no more popular and capable selection than Ray G. Hauntz for this position.

Will Serve Well

We know without asking, Mr. Hauntz would not consider being a candidate for this job of his own accord. For this he cannot be other than lauded. He is operating a very successful local business which will mean far more to him than any renumeration he will receive from the council job.

To ask him to toss his hat into the councilmanic race is to ask him to make a definite sacrifice.

He is, however, the type of man who has served his community and his city well. This is evidenced by his six years as a member of the Columbus board of education without pay, during which time he has given much time and effort toward a successful operation of that body.

He has stood for those things which have been best for the city as a whole.

For Good Govt.

Hauntz is the type of man who can be elected to represent the people and do that very thing after the election without the "guidance" of a political boss.

We believe he is in sincere accord with all the sound principles of good government that Columbus so badly needs today. We believe he is above being classified as a party or factional candidate because the thinking voters of both parties will support him equally well. And we have maintained before, there are a multitude of thinking voters in Columbus.

Most certainly there has been every reason for some thought on the part of the people of the city after events of the past few weeks have been so forcefully thrust down our throats.

Should Ray Hauntz be inclined to consider this candidacy seriously we believe the Hilltop as well as every other section of the city can well afford to support him. This community deserves the proper type of representation in city council. It is time our public office holders are suggested and selected by the people rather than the people be forced to take the lesser of all the evils presented at election time by the political leaders.

This newspaper is interested in a program of good government for the city and county. It is our belief that people of our communities are honest and interested in honesty and efficiency in government.

How about it, Mr. Hauntz?

Oddities In Politics

Here and there on the political front this week we see: Consternation arising in the Democratic ranks as the result of the appointments made by Mr. Heer with the ever willing consent of his ever willing body of councilmen . . . Mr. Dailey seems to be walking out on the party though and most certainly not many people can blame him for that . . . Arthur Lamneck is being talked as a Democratic candidate for the mayoralty . . . He would run a good race . . . Heer himself is talked but hardly likely that he would run and far less likely that he would ever be

Harry Haney, owner of the Economy Drug store, 2860 W. Broad-st, was named one of the first 100 members of the International Drug club of the hall of pharmacy at the New York world's fair, it was learned this week.

The pharmacy exhibition is in three phases, the first of which deals with pharmaceutical chemistry and the story behind the prescription symbol. The second is devoted to the family medicine cabinet as the first line of defense against infection and disease. The third phase shows a conception of the drug store of the future.

Hauntz Has Adv. Sales

Ray G. Hauntz, Hilltop grocer and president of the Columbus board of education, is heading the advertising committee in connection with the tenth annual Hilltop minstrel to be presented at the West high auditorium March 15, 16 and 17. Early replies to a letter mailed out to prospective advertisers in the special supplement of the Hilltop Record to be released March 10 in connection with publicity on the show indicate a favorable response, Hauntz stated this week.

A veteran in the grocery business on the Hilltop, he has served several years on the education board and maintained an active interest in civic affairs. Recently he was instrumental in promoting the super highway west of Columbus, a project expected to start by July 1, and was active in the work leading up to the construction of the new West high stadium and the improvement of Magly field.

He has taken part in several minstrels in past years and is now busily engaged in contacting prospective advertisers for this year's supplement.

His modern food market is located at the corner of Powell-av and W. Broad-st.

West Meets North Tonight

The West Burkhoos invaded the lair of the East Tigers last Friday night and were met with a stubborn defense and a fast-breaking offense, the result of which was a 36-27 setback for the locals. The defeat, their third in City league competition, virtually eliminated the Cowboys from title consideration although they retained a half share in the second place position.

North, with nary a loss in seven straight league conquests, (although tied by South last week in a freak 37-37 brawl) will tangle with the Bucks tonight here on the Hilltop. West found the going pretty tough in a first round conflict at North and will attempt to even the series this evening.

This will be a hard job, however, as the Maroons present one of the most balanced outfits in the history of the school. Led by Captain Ed Merrit, high-scoring guard, and Jack Edwards, clever center, the Polar Bears will be strong favorites to whip the Bucks. North is noted this season for their driving finishes and will bring along a number of sharpshooters who might break up a close ball game at any minute.

Tuesday evening the Bucks will trek down to Central where the Pirates will be ready and waiting for them. West lost to the Riversiders in the first round of play and will be at the Central court with the intention of evening up the count.

Inability to penetrate the East defense and to connect at long range cost the Cowboys a victory at East. The locals stayed close on the heels of the Bengals during the first three periods but faltered in the final period. East led 9-7 at the quarter, 14-11 at the half, and 23-19 going into the final period. However, the Tigers scored 13 markers to 8 for the Bucks in the last quarter and won going away.

Outstanding for the Buckaroos were Captain Bell, Stinson and Ucker, who between them accounted for 20 points. The contest was extremely rough with three Tigers and one West player leaving the game on personals.

Hilltop Merchants

The Hilltop Merchants received a second blow to their second-round title aspirations Monday evening at the K. of C. gym when Bobbs Chevrolets scored a well-earned 35-32 victory. The Chevies won the game at the free-throw line where they scored 15 points while the Merchants were recording 8. Todd led the scoring for the locals with 10 points.

Following two weeks of play in the Hilltop Merchants league, the Hilltop Record and Camp-

Highland Home Is Burned

Flames Destroy Milk's Home Last Saturday Night

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Milks, 584 S. Highland-av, and their three-year-old son, David, were forced out of their home last Saturday night by a fire which destroyed their home.

All escaped the blazes except Mr. Milks, who opened the bedroom door and rushed into the living room when he smelled smoke. Says Mr. Milks, "The entire ceiling was ablaze. Flames came down from it and touched my face and head, but I didn't know I was burned so badly."

Mrs. Milks said she opened a bedroom window and crawled through it, expecting her husband to hand their son to her outside. But by that time neighbors were near the window and David was taken out by someone else.

Exhausted by Smoke

Trying to re-enter the burning room to save part of their belongings, Mr. Milks was driven back by smoke. When he reached the bedroom window he was exhausted and was pulled through by several men.

"I was unconscious several minutes and don't recall much of anything until I was taken to the hospital," he said.

Milks was treated at the Mt. Carmel hospital for second degree burns.

Firemen said the cause of the fire was undetermined and estimated damage unofficially at $350 to the cottage and $225 to the contents.

HBMA To Support Protective Move

Back Franklin Twp. In Fight To Get Fire Protection

The Hilltop Business Men's association in their regular meeting at Schmelzer restaurant Tuesday night went on record as supporting a move to obtain fire protection from Columbus for Franklin township. A committee representing the adjoining township pointed out that this protection had been denied the outlying sections beyond the city limits.

A subscription of more than $1200 has been raised by property owners and the township trustees as guarantee for payment for fire runs that might arise. The city has thus far refused to enter into a contract with them on the grounds that fire fighting facilities in Columbus are already undermanned and inadequate for many sections of the city.

A companion motion was then passed that the association petition council to take necessary action in providing needed fire protection for the Hilltop.

Marshall Speaks

Former Chief Justice Carrington T. Marshall addressed the group on several phases of economic and political relationships between the Republic of Mexico and the United States. Stating that Mexico is one of the richest spots in the world he pointed out that our country has repeatedly suffered humiliation and economic losses as a result of her unfriendly attitude but has reframed from any retaliation in order to maintain friendly relations.

The committee working on the tenth annual Hilltop Minstrel, Mar. 15, 16 and 17, reported that all the acts have been selected and most of the plans completed for the show.

A committee was appointed to supervise the launching of an advance scouting unit on the Hilltop with association sponsorship and backing. The Hill Tribune and Floyd W. Darby, service station owner, were accepted into membership.

Booster prizes were won by Jack Shank, Gene Hays, Paul Wichterman and Curtis Wilcox.

What Price Neutrality?

The ease with which the American mind is led to focus attention on incidents and things rather than on facts leads us to view with caution the American foreign policy as particularly applied to the totalitarian European states and their trembling neighbors.

Recently uncovered facts concerning sale of military planes to France is not to be considered lightly. The apparent "unlearned" lesson of the great World war should bring us to a realization that such economic policies are loaded with diplomatic dynamite.

The American press, the pulpit and other influential agencies are doing much to projudice American minds against Hitler and Mussolini and their mutual programs of "get what we want." It is not our purpose to defend such policies of "personal subservience to the state" and race discrimination that is a flagrant policy of both dictators. But we must not overlook the fact that sale of instruments of war to one nation morally presupposes that a neutral nation would enter into similar trade negotiations with unfriendly countries. Little support would likely be raised in defense of Germany for instance in this country because of her attitude toward us and the outside world but what is to prevent her asking the same trade rights as France?

Where are we to draw the line of what shall constitute a legitimate reason for an embargo against a nation?

It has taken us many years to arrive at a place where at least a few will admit that our blundering trade negotiations with the allied forces and our refusal to extend the same right to the central powers was responsible for our entanglement in the last great conflict. Can we as peace loving Americans afford to allow ourselves to be dragged into a similar situation in order to stimulate the war industry and jeopardise the security of our own nation?

A sane thinking policy would dictate extreme caution in trade discriminations with any country where the issue of neutrality is involved. Let personal feeling concerning dictatorships, racial discriminations and feared aggressions be subjected to a sound analysis of what really constitutes a "neutral nation."

Letters To The Editor

Hilltop Record,
Columbus, Ohio
Dear Sirs:

In answer to the inquiries regarding the Mothersingers Minstrel. Believe it or not we are all mothers with the exception of Charlotte Overmyer, soloist of "Jeannie," and she is taking her mother's place in the home since her mother's death about a year ago. Even though two or three of the chorus have had stage experience years ago, they are all homemakers now with the idea of home and children first. We like to meet together and enjoy a good time singing. Our director, Mrs. Bertha Masters, one of the end women, was the only director and that was done while she was on the stage. This is the third minstrel show the chorus has presented.

This chorus was organized in 1931 when Mrs. Carl Speckman was president of the John Burroughs Parent-Teacher association, and has been in continuation ever since. Anyone who likes to sing and holds membership in our association is welcome as a member. Many of those who were in the first chorus are still singing with us as they enjoy the fellowship and wholesome good times we have together. We wish to thank you for the many nice things said of us and hope this answers your questions. Come on and join us.

MRS. B. F. CLINE
Minstrel show publicity chairman

Round About The Hilltop

Just to show you the Hilltop is a place to find talent here's a suggestion, received by a Hilltopper, which you might O. K. That talked about character, Scarlett O'Hara, of "Gone With the Wind" should be played by EDYTHE CALLAND of the LA NORA BEAUTY SHOP. Cool and who said the Hilltop hasn't got everything.

The business men's (of the Hill) luncheon hour turned out to be a nut-cracking party last week. The nuts as we understand came from GEORGIA—too bad a nut cracker couldn't be found.

It has been rumored that JEANETTE TOBIN and WALTER BONNELL are still hitting a new high. JEANETTE goes to Capital University.

JAYNE ROBINSON, that little personality gal, is attending a business school to become a secretary — somebody's going to be lucky.

That old but new MAXWELL belonging to the KIMBALL BROS. is a sure weather prophet we have heard. It hasn't done so bad so far—hm!

Just The Same

Fifteen years haven't changed FREDDY GAUGGEL any. It's been that long since he played a streamline version of "YES WE HAVE NO BANANAS" in church. Now we've heard he's going to swing "FERDINAND THE BULL" and at the same place too.

DORIS SCHUBERT and BARBARA FINDEIS had quite a time with HOWDY HARRISON and ROY UNDERWOOD at the Gold Diggers prom last week. It seemed HOWDY and ROY couldn't decide which formal to wear, or how to arrange their hair, and their voices were so much higher—and, and, everything.

Those two-bit pens sold at Umbenhaurs are the real thing—write just like million dollar ones—well, anyway they write swell.

We have heard that KITTY CURRIER has been ill—here's hoping we see you up and around real soon Kitty.

That winning smile of MARGARET WHITE who works at the Sullivant Dime store, has made a lot of masculine customers.

KENT'S MODERN FOOD MARKET is now drawing customers by presenting magical tricks—by the way we would like to know how you do it . . . It has been said that HOMER LIGHTNER feeds his new Ford an extra dish of Wheaties each morning and that it runs like a trouper. He has had such good results we thought maybe some one else would like to try it . . . FRED PERKINS, the Hilltop's ace jitterbug, was sure goin' to town Saturday night.

Was sorry to hear of the tumble JEANNIE McDONALD received at the skating rink . . . Might mention that PEG ROLLING and VIRGINIA STOUT aren't doing anything particular these days—so there's someone's chance.

Well, if you didn't see the mechanical city on display last week at the FIRST FEDERAL BUILDING and LOAN office, we'd say you really missed something. It was estimated that approximately 4500 saw the masterpiece of HENRY PALLISON of DENMARK . . . And say, if you're going to send in some jokes for the Hilltop Minstrel, better get them in this week.

Jones Lumber Co. In Business 11 Years

Serving lumber buyers of the Hilltop for the past 11 years is the Jones Lumber and Coal Co., 87 N. Sylvan-av. During that time approximately 300 separate housing units have been constructed from materials supplied by the firm.

W. Hayden Jones, possibly better known to many Hilltoppers as the director of the Hilltop Business Men's chorus, is head of the company, having been one of the original partners in the Jenkins-Jones Co., forerunner of the present business. Started in 1928 as a lumber firm the owners later added building supplies and coal. Today practically everything that goes into the building of the home is furnished including, paint for inside and outside.

"What is the building outlook for 1939?" Jones was asked.

"I believe it will be a banner year throughout," was his answer. "The next six months look especially encouraging."

1937 Biggest Year

The year 1937 was the biggest from the standpoint of new construction, he pointed out. Last year was just slightly under the previous one. The firm's books revealed that new construction has increased steadily on the Hilltop from 1934 up to the present.

Most couples spend from four to six months in planning the work on a new home, Jones pointed out. Contractors, once they have their specifications agreed upon by their client, are easy to fill orders for. As a rule the woman of the family has some very practical ideas on what she wants in her new home but she will change her mind more often than her husband.

Inquiries on residential construction have been heavier since the first of the year than at any previous time in the history of the company, Jones said. This would indicate that there will be considerable building work under way as soon as the weather begins to break favorably.

At present the firm employs 12 people, operates three company-owned trucks and frequently rents others at rush seasons. A complete line of builders supplies, including cement, tile, plaster, sewer pipe, paints, lumber, roofing, insulation and millwork are handled by the company.

Jones has never been in any other type of business since he came from the farm into Franklin county in 1923.

Allen To Speak To Hoge SS Class

The Married People's Bible class of Hoge Memorial church will have as its guest speaker Sunday morning, Roland G. Allen, city prosecutor. He will relate some of his experiences as police prosecutor.

The class had a meeting on Feb. 10, electing the following officers for the ensuing year: Dr. T. E. Nichols, president; Harold V. Mielke, vice-president; Mrs. H. W. Chilcote, secretary, and Mrs. C. E. Wolfe, treasurer.

Just learned that HERB DEEMS is a VALENTINE baby—birthday or something . . . "CHRISTINE" of HAUNTZ FOOD MARKET takes her Saturday night bath on Tuesday now . . . Reliable authorities say CURT WILCOX will receive a raise due to the quick response in reading the treasurer's report at the Hilltop Business Men's meeting. It's the second time he has read it for a whole year . . . BOB SHERWOOD, of "POPEYE" fame, will be present at the Hilltop Minstrel show, March 15, 16 and 17.

Jones Lumber Co. In Business 11 Years

Serving lumber buyers of the Hilltop for the past 11 years is the Jones Lumber and Coal Co., 67 N. Sylvan-av. During that time approximately 380 separate house building units have been completed from materials supplied by the firm.

W. Hayden Jones, possibly better known to many Hilltoppers as the director of the Hilltop Business Men's chorus, is head of the company, having been one of the original partners in the Jenkins-Jones Co., forerunner of the present business. Started in 1928 as a lumber firm the owners later added building supplies and coal. Today practically everything that goes into the building of the home is furnished including, paint for inside and outside.

"What is the building outlook for 1939?" Jones was asked.

"I believe it will be a banner year throughout," was his answer. "The next six months look especially encouraging."

1937 Biggest Year

The year 1937 was the biggest from the standpoint of new construction, he pointed out. Last year was just slightly under the previous one. The firm's books revealed that new construction has increased steadily on the Hilltop from 1934 up to the present.

Most couples spend from four to six months in planning the work on a new home, Jones pointed out. Contractors, once they have their specifications agreed upon by their client, are easy to fill orders for. As a rule the woman of the family has some very practical ideas on what she wants in her new home but she will change her mind more often than her husband.

Inquiries on residential construction have been heavier since the first of the year than at any previous time in the history of the company, Jones said. This would indicate that there will be considerable building work under way as soon as the weather begins to break favorably.

At present the firm employs 14 people, operates three company owned trucks and frequently rents others at rush seasons. A complete line of builders' supplies including cement, tile, plaster, sewer pipe, paints, lumber, roofing, insulation and millwork are elected. Mike Desmond of the Citizen advances the opinion that Roger Addison will be the Heer candidate or that Mr. Wyatt Millikin might run . . . We're inclined to believe that Addison will stay out of the race if Dailey runs and Mr. Millikin will do likewise . . . On the Republican side of the fence Mr. Gessaman is a natural for the race and his only opposition to date that appears to be a very strong contender is Floyd Green of the Hilltop . . . Green will be a candidate, no doubt and of the lot suggested to date we're believing he stands the best chance to be elected . . . He has a lot of circumstances in his favor. What's your guess?

A. Scour with baking soda. A salt and vinegar solution is also excellent.

SUZ SALLIES - - - - -

Picture, if you can, Howdy Harrison and Roy Underwood decked out in "soup and fish", wearing corsages composed of one wiener sandwich and bun tied in bright ribbon, talking in soprano pitched voices about their new formals, hairdos, etc., and escorted by Barbara Findeis and Doris Schubert. Says Mrs. Harrison when escort Findeis (and friends) arrived to whisk her son off to the Golddiggers Prom on the OSU campus last Friday night, "Be sure to have Howdy in by 12:30." Whereupon the ideal escort asked mother to let them stay out just a little bit later, and the girls escorted the fellows out of the car and helped them in. Everything at the Golddiggers Prom, as you know, is done in reverse.

Annabelle Slyh dated Bob Nettleship for the prom and Jerry Stone escorted Forest Dean. Margaret Lewis was with Bob Howison. Earl Blaney, member of the Buckeye club, was crowned "King" by Agnes Ondrak, 1938 homecoming queen.

"Boots" Wright, Hibbs, Betty Wilhelm, Jane Aikire and Alice Zesler held one of those slumber parties where no one sleeps but all have plenty to eat, last Saturday night, at Betty Wilhelm's home, 350 S. Warren-av.

Learned recently that Betty Curry of Charlotte, N. Carolina, is staying with the Wrights (Charlena) and attending West high school.

Girls—one way to keep that hairdo just so—and yet play a rousing game of basketball to boot—was demonstrated by West high student Betty (Ferdinand) Bull at last Friday's session. "Ferdinand" plays basketball with her hair done up on curlers.

Betty Knisley attended the Theta Kappa Psi dinner dance which was held at the Fort Hayes Hotel last Saturday evening. Escort was Art DeMora.

Heard Dee Lawyer remark that she wouldn't marry for money. "But, oh if I could just fall in love with a guy who had 10,000,000 bucks."

West Side Day Nursery Plans Open House

These visitation drives will in turn be presented by different groups, such as the health group and children's group.

The public is invited to visit the nursery and see what progress has been made to help the Hilltop people.

1. What is the "Spirit of St. Louis?"
2. Which is the tallest living animal?
3. Who discovered the X-ray?

1. The plane in which Charles A. Lindbergh flew to Paris.
2. The giraffe.
3. Wilhelm Roetgen in 1895.

IN MEMORIAM

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead,—he is just away,
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.

And you—O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,—
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of him still as the same, I say;
He is not dead,—he is just away!

Movies

Ohio

Loew's Ohio has one of the choice films of the year starting next Friday, Feb. 24, when the deluxe technicolor production of "Jesse James," starring King of the Movies Tyrone Power in the title role, opens for its first central Ohio engagement.

Broad

"Ectoplasm" is back!

The mythical substance of "Topper" will once again appear (and disappear) on Loew's Broad screen with the engagement of "Topper Takes a Trip", the sequel to last year's hilarious film.

Like its predecessor, "Topper Takes a Trip" is based on the best selling novel by Thorne Smith.

Charles Laughton in "The Beachcomber" with his wife, Elsa Lanchester, opens next Thursday, Feb. 23, at Loew's Broad.

Around The World

The sound of the waterfalls of the world if blended into a heavy symphony would constitute the noblest music of all. The thunder of Niagara like the thrumbings of a million bass viols forms the heavy tones while the whisperings of a mountain rill strikes in minor key the highlights and shadows of nature's composition. And in between, the menacing roar of Yellowstone's cataract would be softened by the velvety tones of an Alpine waterfall. Each in its own way is a soloist, with music individually their own ranging from the continuous, thundering challenge that floats for miles from the steaming falls of Zambesi, to the tinkle, tinkle of a trout stream in the Rockies dancing merrily over rounded stones. Waterfalls are like people, each with their own characteristics, having only one thing in common—falling water.

We have stood high in the Alps with perhaps a dozen snow fed cataracts in plain view. Some were mere wisps of spray before they reached the valley below, others were charging torrents rushing headlong in their volume, slapping the obstructing rocks worn smooth with centuries of resistance. All wore a veil of mist around their body as the water poured cascading down the mountains.

It is not disputed that the cataracts of North America — Niagara, Yellowstone and many others—are among the most beautiful and impressive in the world. There is a grandeur about Niagara that even the African falls cannot match. One of the most potent of the forces of nature in feeding the imagination and pleasing the eye, the cataract, whether it be a slender stream like the "Bridal Veil" falling along the Columbia river in Oregon, or the sight of hundreds of tons of greenish water plunging to great depths, any waterfall (inspiration to composers and poets) is one of peculiar and lasting beauty.

Inns and hostelries of the world reflect the characteristics and customs of the people, as do few institutions. The great hotels of New York, London or Paris are just as faithful in their reflections as the obscure pensions tucked along the byways of the world. Curious customs are noted; such as the placing of one's shoes outside the door upon retiring, so that "Boots" whose sole duty it is to polish the shoes during the night may get in his work.

A guest introduced to this custom for the first time has fear that he may not get his shoes back again, but there they are in the morning, polished to perfection. We remember in a hotel in Chicago, traveling in company with a gentleman who had just returned from Europe, observing him getting ready to retire and placing his shoes outside the door. Thinking nothing of the matter, for we too had just returned from abroad, we were awakened in the early hours of the morning by loud rapping on the door. Not waking my friend asleep in the other bed, we went to the door to find an irate house detective glowering at us, saying, "If you ever want to see these shoes again you had better keep them where they belong at night and that is not in the halls of this hotel—but under your bed."

Meekly taking the shoes we agreed that Chicago hotels and Continental hostelries had differing customs.

Hospitality of the Arabs once extended is insurance of friendship. Not lightly given, its enjoyment is a ritual. We remember being invited to a meal in the home of a minor sheik on the edge of the Arabian desert. Some fancied service which, if rendered, had on our part been quite unconscious, won us the invitation. The scene was a large room in a stone building, square with just two large rooms, one for dining and the other for general purposes. As we entered the home, the host, dressed in his best robes, welcomed us in the picturesque language of the East. Pending service, we rested on the heavy carpets, admiring the native work as represented by the wool drapes and hand wrought bric-abrac of copper and other metals. Finally bade enter the dining room we were met by a woman of the household bearing a large pitcher from which she poured water over our hands. There was no table.

In the center of the floor was a large copper dish containing a mixture of chicken and rice. Small copper plates were provided the guests. We sat in a circle around the steaming dish on the floor.

The host reached into the copper bowl and took a double handful of the food to his plate. We all followed suit. There were no knives or forks. Stuffing the semi-liquid mess into our mouths successfully was an intricate operation. Conversation was taboo. There would be time for stories later. The meal over the host arose and once again one of the women of the house attended us with the handwashing ceremony. This time there could be no doubt of the necessity for this operation. Back to the large room the sheik called for his water pipe of "nargelleh" and after the tobacco became ignited and the water bubbling properly he told us of his people and asked of ours.

We could do no less than confess to our host that the Arab way of entertaining was superior to anything in the western world.

NEWS-BRIEFS COMMENTS

By Adrian Fuller

That part of Vatican city known as St. Peters, the most famous edifice in the world devoted to religion, is the cynosure of all eyes again, as the final rites for Pope Pius are completed and the ritual of selecting a successor to the Pope of Peace begins. The funeral over, attention is centered upon the Sistine chapel, that chamber in which the cardinals deliberate and finally select a successor as head of the great Catholic church.

It is not a large room, as such places go but, perhaps one of the most impressive in the world from the standpoint of historical significance and the beauty of the decorations, the frescoes of Michael Angelo, the maestro of this form of mural painting.

Open daily for the visitor, one is impressed with the simplicity of the appointments. On one side are rows of oaken seats. These are the ones where the cardinals will sit during the election. At the west end of the chapel is a small fireplace from which will emanate the wisp of smoke to inform a waiting world that a new pope has been chosen.

None others than the cardinals and attendants will be present during the time the election is being conducted. One can only speculate on the dramatic simplicity of the scene as the princes of the church make history in those solemn hours. Several times we have sat on those oaken seats, gazing upward at the magnificent works of the great artist who left his mark of immortality on the walls of a plain chapel. Then as now, we felt our privilege . . . even though the room was silent, only responding to the foot-steps of the visitors as they came, marveled and departed.

The Sistine chapel, either by word or in subconscious mind, will concern the world during the days until a successor to Pope Pius is chosen.

Residential Building Gets Early Start On Hilltop For 1939 Survey Reveals

More than a score of residential building units are already under way on the Hilltop in line with an anticipated enlarged building program for 1939, a survey revealed this week. One-floor plans, and two-story singles seemed to be leading the field indicating a more steady investment in home owned houses. At least two four-family apartments are already under construction.

Building contractors and lumber and building supply dealers have revealed an unprecedented interest from prospective builders for this early in the year. All indications would point to greater activity as the season progresses. Business houses too are planning expansions. A one-stop garage will be started this week at the corner of Burgess and Sullivant-aves, to be occupied by Schwan Brothers Garage.

Excavation under the Seiller's store, 2404-06 W. Broad-st, was nearly completed and work has been started on the walls in the construction of a basement store to be completed in April. The increased space will almost double floor space of the store.

Walter J. Shaper jr., of 40 W. Gay-st, is to start work on a one-family dwelling on Nashoba-av, soon.

An apartment house is nearing completion on Eureka-av, just north of Broad.

A $12,000 four-bedroom single is being built at the corner of Brinker-av, and W. Broad-st, for Lilian Funk, 991½ N. High-st. Russel S. Welch Construction Corp. is the builder. The same firm is building a single on W. Wayne-av, and Glenview-blvd, for Kenneth Agee. Three other houses are being built by Welch on S. Brinker-av.

Pfaltzgraf Builds

Earl Pfaltzgraf is building a one-floor plan on Fremont-av, to be ready for use in a short time. He and his family will occupy the new home. He lives at 598 Wiltshire-rd.

At 625 Chesterahire-rd, W. R. Barnett is constructing a two-story single. The house will cost $6,500. Other houses on the Hilltop will be started in about two weeks.

Otto Schatz, 244 N. Warren-av, is building a single at 203 S. Huron-av.

A two-story single with attached garage is being built at 462 N. Hague-av by Al Trabue. The house was started the first of the year and will cost $6,000. It will be completed in 30 days.

Trabue has also started work on a $5,500 five-room single at 514 N. Hague-av. The house will be completed about May 15. It, too, has garage attached.

Planck House Completed

Orr and Day, 2931 W. Broad-st, are working on a two-story stone and shingle residence at 3033 Crescent-dr. It will be occupied by Dr. L. E. Leaman, dentist, at 2757½ W. Broad-st. They recently completed a two-story stone and frame single at 2934 Crescent-dr. It is owned by Edgar Planck, automobile dealer at 1350 W. Broad-st.

Another of Orr and Day's houses is being built for Ivan K. Reed, 140 S. Roys-av. It is nearing completion at 41 S. Huron-av. It is a two-story frame and stone.

Fuller V. Spurr is building a one-floor plan with two-car garage at 459 Binns-blvd. Another one-floor plan with single garage is being built at 444 Binns-blvd. Spurr will soon start work on a one and one-half floor plan single at 713 S. Harris-av. It will be built for Rev. W. E. Boggs.

Last week a $14,000 four-apartment building was started by Claude Moss at 77-83 N. Huron-av. It is being built by C. L. and E. M. Lucas, local contractors. It is expected to be completed in three months.

The James M. Stevens Realty Co. is putting up a one-floor plan at 270 S. Warren-av, with five or six more to get under way in a short while. Ralph Clements, Rome, is the contractor.

Hilltop Democrats

We wanted to find out how the temperature is around the Democratic camp and upon inquiry this week find that the gentlemen of this party have some men in mind that might make good councilmanic timber, in their opinions.

In the first place, there seems to be little thought that Wyatt Millikin will run for council again. Some local Democrats even believe he may be selected as a standard bearer for the Heer organization for mayor.

In the event Mr. Millikin stays out of the race it was thought that Ralph Jacobs of Crescent-dr might be induced to run for council. He's well known and a business man.

Others being considered include Fred Sulzberger, who would give his right arm to be a councilman, and would make one of the "fightinest" councilmen the city ever had. Larry Scales has been talked of.

Latest of the Democrats to be mentioned is genial Charlie Kent, president of the Hilltop Business Men's association and also president of the local council of Small Business Men of America. We never knew till now just what Charlie's politics were and kinda wonder if he is very ambitious politically.

Draper Possible

We believe the Democrats of this community could not go wrong in selecting Robert Draper as their candidate.

Draper is a young attorney with qualifications of educational background and integrity that interests us. He has a good mind of his own and could not be influenced to follow the dictates of a boss. He has a wide following all over the city.

Hauntz Undecided

Following the suggestion in this column last week that Ray G. Hauntz enter the race for city council numerous favorable comments have been received. That he could be elected was held to be a certainty. That he would make a good representative from this community was also agreed upon. That he would run was not agreed upon by Mr. Hauntz as yet. He asks for more time to consider the matter.

A good attendance was in evidence at last night's band concert presented at the West high auditorium by the school band under the direction of Herbert E. Hutchinson. The final rendition presented by the Band Parents club will be heard for the last time tonight.

Proceeds of the concert will be used for purchasing uniforms and other needed equipment for members of the organization.

The concert was backed by school groups, churches, the Hilltop Business Men's association and civic groups on the Hilltop.

The program for tonights concert appears in full on page 8.

Stewart Wins Bowling Prize

Hal Stewart was the winner of the $25 first prize in the sweepstakes bowling tournament sponsored by Fred Wedemeyer, manager of the Hilltop Recreation bowling alleys. The contest closed Sunday with more than 400 sets having been rolled.

Stewart's score in the A class for the series was 700. Other good scores were 694 by Norm Tyack, 686 by Ray Smith, 683 by Bob Howison and 677 by Bill Schwartz. Clarence "Bo" Graham copped top money, $25, in the B division with 672. Charlie Roth shot 641, Ralph Walters 628, Harry Horcher, 616, and Bob Howison jr., 615.

Hilltop Man Burned Rescuing Horses

Charles Clutter, 52, 105 Eureka-av, stable caretaker at the Ohio State fairgrounds, was burned last Friday night while helping lead seven running horses from a blazing shed barn. Clutter, who is employed by Meyers Ackerman and A. M. Wheeler, owners of the horses, was burned on his face and hand when he took a pony from a burning stall.

He received first aid at a doctor's office.

Despite headway gained by the flames, firemen quickly checked the fire and prevented it from spreading to adjoining sheds.

Teacher Recovering From Fall Injuries

Mrs. Bessie Swaney Groves, 28 Midland-av, teacher at Fifth Avenue school, is reported to be slowly recovering at White Cross hospital from injuries received last November in a fall at the school. Mrs. Groves is teacher of Beta Lambda class of Glenwood M. E. church.

West Broad P.-T. A. To Have Play Next Friday Night

"In the Fountain of Youth," an amateur play, will be presented by the West Broad Parent-Teachers' association at the school auditorium Friday night, Mar. 3.

Characters in the play will be taken by members of the organization. Tabitha Tidbits will be played by Mrs. H. F. Remington; Rosemary Ruggles, Mrs. F. E. A program of amateur acts will also be featured. Mrs. J. M. Sharp is chairman in charge of the amateur acts and Mrs. Lynn Baker is director of the play.

Pedestrians—

Do you wish to avoid joining this fast disappearing race of you and me?

Out of 10 people killed in traffic so far this year of 1939 nine of them were pedestrians, seven of whom were crossing streets not at the intersection!

The Indians, with their lack of education, practically became an extinct race before they recognized the superiority of knowledge and firearms over bow and arrows and superstition.

In this day and age of knowledge and learning are we going to revert back to the Indian?

We know that darting out from behind parked automobiles into thoroughfare is a gamble with death and the stakes are 50 to one against us, and death has not taken a holiday for the pedestrians' benefit.

Therefore, with this knowledge in an age of higher education, firmly resolve not to join this race of vanishing pedestrians—protect yourself by crossing streets at the designated crosswalks and with the proper light.

Hilltop Students Have Flu

A mild epidemic of influenza has been evidenced in the Hilltop schools, as shown by a slightly higher percentage of absentees over the past week.

Pupil illnesses from the disease have shown a decrease in the high schools, but remain about the same in the elementaries. In neither instance, school officials declared, do they regard the number of increases alarming.

A total of eight substitute teachers for the city have been hired to fill vacancies caused by flu.

60 Absent

On Tuesday of this week reports show that West Broad Street school had 60 students absent due to colds, coughs, flu and croup. West senior and junior high schools each reported more absences but it is not believed that flu was the main cause.

John Burroughs had three teacher vacancies and 145 pupils absent. Highland Avenue school also had teachers out. West Mound Street school had a lower percentage of attendance.

World Prayer At Westgate

The "World Day of Prayer" services, sponsored by the Federation of Church Women of Columbus and Franklin county, will be observed on the Hilltop at the Westgate Evangelical church, 61 S. Powell-av, from 2 to 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Howard Whitehead will lead the service and several Hilltop ministers will speak. The meeting is one of several being conducted in the city and are being participated in by women of all churches.

KIRKENDALL RITES ARE HELD WEDNESDAY; HEART ATTACK FATAL

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for Miss Louella L. Kirkendall, 2678 Valleyview-dr, who died suddenly at her home Monday night. She had been active as stenographer and secretary of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, IOOF, for the past 40 years.

Monday she had been at her office as usual apparently in good health. Death followed a heart attack. She was a lifelong resident of Columbus and had been active in Odd Fellowship, working through the Rebekah organization, with which she was affiliated.

Three brothers and a sister, Frank, Carl and Charles Kirkendall and Mrs. A. Rodgers, survive her.

Bowling Tourney To Open

Hilltop Alleys To Be Host To Bowlers

Bowlers from all over the city will be trekking out to the Hilltop on Saturdays and Sundays for the next seven weeks to enter the city bowling tournament that gets under way at the Hilltop Recreation alleys tomorrow at 8 a. m. The local alleys are assured of the largest city tourney ever as 250 teams have already registered with prospects of 50 or more additional applicants, Fred Wedemeyer, manager of the Hilltop alleys, reports.

The past record was 231 entries, Columbus Bowling association records show. This is the first time the Hilltop has been host to the city's top flight bowlers.

The Hilltop Business Men's league will open the play Saturday. Backers of the teams will be guests of honor for the occasion. Spectators are invited to any of the sessions. There is no admission charge.

Play will be continued each Saturday and Sunday until Apr. 9. Any team bowling in a sanctioned league is eligible to compete.

An attractive list of cash prizes for teams and individual honors will be given. First prize for the winning team will be $100 in addition to the beautiful trophy award. Individual cash prizes will be given for best scores.

Douglas Club Meets Tonight

The West Side Douglas Republican club will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Warren, 209 S. Highland-st. A slide talking film on "Syphilis," made in Columbus through the joint efforts of the community fund and city board of health, will be shown by Dr. Lewis J. Roth, director of the venereal campaign.

Mrs. Lottie Cooley, president, urges all members to be present.

Students In Concert

Among the 200 students who participated in the Ohio State university chorus, under the direction of Professor Louis H. Diercks, department of music, last Sunday night included Jean Bower, 80 S. Burgess-av; Annamaye Hull, 222 S. Roys-av; Evleyn Wilkes, 147 S. Richardson-av; Charlotte Johnson, 338 S. Wheatland-av, John Johnson, 338 S. Wheatland-av, and Juellus Leon, 36 S. Hague-av.

The concert which is given annually was held in the men's gymnasium.

FREE TICKETS

Starting this week and continuing each week thereafter it will be worth every reader's while to look through the large section of classified ads found on the back page of the Hilltop RECORD, for there will be the names of five persons who are eligible for FREE passes to the Rivoli theatre.

You need only identify yourself at the RECORD office to claim your ticket. Claimant must apply in person within a week after his name appears as a ticket winner.

Big Crowd Attends Banquet

Over 600 Democrats Hear McSweeny At Dinner

Between 600 and 700 Democrats and their guests were in attendance at the seventh annual pot luck dinner put on by the Eleventh Ward club at the West high school cafeteria Tuesday night.

Hon. John McSweeney, former congressman and state welfare director, as speaker for the occasion paid high tribute to the Hilltop and the activities of the Hilltop Business Men's association.

The highlight of his address centered around a remark made about William G. Pickrel, former lieutenant governor. Interpreted by many as a direct boost for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1940, McSweeney said:

"I hope some day Ohio will place him in a high position of honor and trust."

To Hilltop Democrats he said: "It is not good politics for you or me to try to destroy the efficiency of the government during the administration of the opposite party."

Council President Wyatt L. Millikin, Councilman W. Herbert Dailey and Walter F. Heer, county Democratic chairman, were present and gave brief talks.

Samuel J. Willis, Eleventh Ward committeeman, was in charge of general arrangements for the affair.

Services Start

Revival services will be held at the Hilltop Community church beginning Feb. 27 and ending Mar. 4.

Rev. B. A. Awe is the evangelist.

Council Is Asked To Rename Local Park In Honor Of Westlake

City Council will on Monday evening receive a request to have the name of Westgate park changed to Westlake park in honor of the late Hilltop Councilman, Milton W. Westlake.

Numerous favorable comments have been received by the Hilltop RECORD since this suggestion was made a few weeks ago.

This recognition is based on the many years of public service rendered the community and the city as a whole by Mr. Westlake.

It has been pointed out that petitions bearing hundreds of signatures can be obtained should council decide this is necessary. However, it is felt that council and the mayor will look with favor on the proposal and pay this tribute to the memory of their late colleague.

One of Mr. Westlake's favored projects was the perfection of Westgate park. Last summer he determined the need of many improvements there and started a program in motion to secure these improvements.

Through cooperation of the city parks department, for the first time in many years, the park was completely cleaned up, toilets were repaired and a drinking fountain was installed near the ball diamonds after years of requests for the same.

It was Mr. Westlake's hope that the coming spring and summer would find the park one of the finest in the city and he had promises of a continued cooperation on the part of the park department to make further improvements which would probably include further development of the park lake.

The request for the change of the name of the park is being presented to council by letter only, it being hoped that those men who worked with him of late will find it possible to pay this fitting tribute without the necessity of a wide scale request from the citizens of the city, which of course will follow should they decline to do so.

MAN OF MAGIC TO BE IN SHOW

Jack Thomas

J. W. Thomas, the Jack Frost Sugar magician, will be one of the entertainers at the tenth annual Hilltop minstrel being produced by the Hilltop Business Men's association at the West high school auditorium Mar. 15, 16 and 17. Jack, a repeater from last year's show, will do his magic tricks this year in the person of an end man.

Reports have it that his antics are more mystifying when performed in "black-face." He was the starter at the magicians show here in Columbus recently when he headlined nine other acts of magic.

Tickets for the minstrel may be obtained from any member of the association.

"Best Ever" HBMA Show Goes Into Rehearsal

By Paul Wichterman

Of the spectators attending the tenth annual Hilltop minstrel at the West high school auditorium on Mar. 15, 16 and 17 few will spend more than two to three hours away from their homes going to and from and seeing the show. But for those participating in the event and especially those responsible for its production many hours have already been spent in planning and rehearsing the Hilltop's "No. 1" production.

Fame of the show has gotten far beyond the Hilltop as evidenced by persons attending last year's presentation from as far away as Nelsonville. Already portions of the anniversary edition have been contracted for by a down-town lodge several weeks in advance of the showing locally. The minstrel and a portion of the music in the show will be presented the week following the Hilltop minstrel.

Planned Early

Plans for the tenth annual show got under way even before the first of the year. Charlie Kent, president of the Hilltop Business Men's association, sponsors of the show, started laying tentative plans even before his induction into office.

One of the first steps in the procedure was the naming of a general committee to oversee the show. A meeting was then called and dates for the show and arrangements for directing the production were discussed. This year H. G. Deems and C. Carlton Hartley, veterans of practically every show, were named to assume responsibility for the general nature of the production. Being the tenth year it has been presented they decided to make it an anniversary review.

Hilltop Actor

Heading a list of featured players at a downtown theatre this week is Gene Sheldon former West high student and Hilltop boy who has taken his place among the topnotch performers of his time. Gene, who arrived from London on the Ile de France, Tuesday, will be seen with his wife, known professionally as Lorette Fischer.

During the past two years he has played theatres in London, Paris and Berlin as well as most of the leading show shops in this country.

As a student at West he is remembered as the pantomimic comedian always doing an invitation of some popular character. His parents formerly lived at 389 Belvidere-av, but have since moved to 389 Sheldon-av.

His career professionally started at the Knickerbocker theatre here in town and gradually progressed until an opportunity came to him at Loew's Ohio at a nice salary. Later he was signed into Chicago and from then on it has been a series of steps upward to include the "big time." He has been abroad no less than four times and is perhaps better known on the other side than at home.

Gracebelle Day, another Hilltop banner-carrier in London on several occasions, was "introduced" by Gene, it might be said. Peculiar as it may seem, Gracebelle and Gene were strangers until they met in London. Naturally they had heard of one another, but although they both lived on the Hilltop for years and attended the same school, they delayed their personal meeting for a London setting.

Welsh Will Honor St. David With Banquet

On Wednesday between 200 and 300 of Coulmbus' Welsh residents will celebrate St. David's day with a banquet at the Southern hotel. This banquet is sponsored by the Women's Welsh club.

State director of commerce, Charles H. Jones, a native of Jackson, the little Wales of Ohio, will be the principal speaker. Welsh airs will be sung and Miss Zella Roberts will play the old tunes on the harp. William E. Jenkins will sing and William Hayden Jones will direct the songfest following the speaking session.

Banquets honoring St. David are held the world over, for St. David is to the Welsh what St. Patrick is to the Irish. Homage is paid to this grandson of the king of Cardiganshire who established a monastery at Pembrokeshire during the seventeenth century, leading the way for Christianity in the country of Wales.

OHIO TENT HIVE NO. 37 SCHEDULES MEETING

The meeting of Ohio Tent Hive No. 37 will hold an important business session tonight at the home of the field representative at 291 S. Eighteenth-st. Among other important matters, plans for the chicken supper Mar. 2 will be decided upon.

A joint gathering of the drill teams of courts 443 and 533 is scheduled for Monday evening at Glenwood shelter house. Captain William Harouff plans at this time to select the permanent team for the trip to Detroit in August.

VACATION IN FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Neff and family, 2850 Crystal Springs-dr, left Feb. 17 for a three weeks vacation in Florida.

Hilltop Sports

West high's unpredictable Buckaroos, victims of two straight City league defeats in their last two starts, will wind up the current Cowboy campaign this evening when the cellar-dwelling South Bulldogs meet the locals at South. This will be the final City league fray for the Buckaroos.

Following the Bulldog-Buck fracas Coach Williams will begin immediately to prepare for the district tournament to be played at Delaware in the near future. No drawings have been made at present. Always a top flight outfit in this tournament the present West representatives will be out to continue the fine showing made by local cage teams in past years.

Despite a late rally in the final period last Friday, the Cowboys fell for the second time this season to the Polar Bears, who, at this writing, seem certain of at least a tie for the championship. The final score was 27-26.

After leading 13-10 at the half the Buck forces faded and North went on to build up an imposing lead. In the final period, however, the Cowboys began hitting the net and only the playing limit prevented the Bucks from upsetting the league leaders. As has been the case in games this season on several occasions, the Bucks lost the contest at the free-throw line. West missed 13 foul shots, enough to have won easily.

Third Place Tie

Central moved into a tie with West for third place by walloping the locals 33-21 on the Pirate floor Tuesday evening. At the beginning of festivities in the second half the Centralites put on a scoring show which iced the game and in the final canto Coach Williams ejected many of the regulars and inserted reserves.

Stinson proved the only real Buck scoring threat of the evening. He garnered 10 points while Paul Rogers counted seven markers. Ned Bell, usually effective with his long shots, was unable to score, while Carter, Gentry and Ucker made only four points between the trio.

The ball handling of the locals was ragged. Ankrum, captain and forward of the Pirates, was constantly breaking up dribbles, intercepting passes, and in general keeping the Bucks on edge all evening. The game was extremely rough although only one Central player was sent out of the contest via the foul route.

In the City league to date the Cowboys have won four and lost five, and have accumulated the best defensive mark of the six ball clubs. Only 247 points have been counted against them in nine games, but an ineffective offense has placed the Bucks last in the point-scoring column, having made 248 markers.

Girls' Basketball

St. Aloysius and Hoge Memorial, two of the bitterest rivals in the league, will clash at Glenwood Shelter house Monday evening for the class "A" championship.

Hilltop C of C, Westgate Evangelical, Hilltonia U. B., Avondale U. B. and Burgess U. B. will battle for the class "B" title.

The girls' church basketball league played Monday night producing the following scores, Hilltop C of C 17, Burgess Avenue 12; Hoge Memorial 36, Avondale U. B. 6; Westgate Evangelical 21, Hilltonia 9.

Boys' Church League

Hoge Memorial and St. Aloysius continued their neck and neck race for the boys' west church league championship this week as each recorded wins over their nearest rivals. The scores for the games were as follows, Hoge Memorial 27, West Park No. 1 11; St. Aloysius 25, Burgess Avenue U. B. 24; Holy Family 35, Glenwood M. E. 14; Briggsdale M. E. 18, Highland Avenue Friends 13.

The schedule for Tuesday, Feb. 28, is as follows, St. Aloysius vs. Highland Avenue Friends; Burgess U. B. vs. Hoge Memorial; West Park No. 1 vs. Briggsdale M. E.; Glenwood M. E. vs. West Park No. 2.

Each Wednesday evening boxing and wrestling matches are presented in the St. Mary Magdalene basement at 8 o'clock. This Wednesday the feature bout is between John "Mickey" McGuire, 169, vs. Leroy Oakley, 175.

The bout is scheduled for 10 rounds.

With three sets of games having been played in the Hilltop Merchants league, local Saturday afternoon basketball attraction, the Hilltop Record still remains in a deadlock with Campbell's drugs for first place. From the results of games played to date it looks as if the battle between the two to be played at a later date will decide the league championship.

A late rally in the final minutes gave the Record five a close 13-12 victory over Hauntz Market in the feature contest last Saturday afternoon. Campbell's drugs, led by Ed Hughes, walloped the Frech Tavern quintet 32-18. Hughes counted 13 markers. in the first game of the afternoon Waymer's Market lost a 27-18 decision to the Westgate Electric outfit. Junk led the electricians with 13 points while Mitchell, Everingham and Nader accounted for the entire grocer total.

The Hilltop Record

Are You Fair to your local Business Man?

When money is slack, when credit is needed, it is the local merchant whom we seek for friendly service. He tides us over with credits; he charges no interest, provides us with reliable, guaranteed merchandise fairly priced.

In short, he "holds the bag for us." That is why he deserves all our patronage in times of plenty as well as in days of stress.

And isn't it a pity that there are many who use him only as a leaning post—to tide them over the slack days and use their cash to fill the coffers of the big town mail order houses who wouldn't trust them over night—with, or without interest.

We all need that merchant—we need his confidence, his friendship. Our town needs his enterprise—the service he renders in handling only guaranteed, first grade goods that he is here to stand back of day in and day out.

Let's give him our cash when we have it. Let's pay his bills as promptly as we can. Let's earn and merit, the confidence he has placed in us and in our community.

Let's support him—we need him and he needs us, our trade, and our unselfish good will.

"be fair!"

To Model In Style Show At Church Tuesday

The committee in charge of this show includes Mrs. Ray Ruffing, chairman, Charlotte Brower, Velena Roush and Mrs. Horace Elliott. In addition to the style show, a handkerchief bazaar is also scheduled for that evening.

"Best Ever"—

This of course, necessitated many inquires and much correspondence to line up "high lights" of previous minstrels to headline the current production. One particular past performer was located in California but was unable to be present for the show.

Given Interlocutor

Floyd Green was named to head the staff of funmakers and end men and specialty performers were then drafted. Already they have spent many hours poring over volumes of jokes to select a repertoire of "chucklers". More hours will be spent in rehearsing, pepping up and cutting lines to speed up the show for much must be crammed into the two hours allotted.

W. Hayden Jones was selected to assume charge of the music. Immediately he begins whipping his 50-voice male chorus into shape for the occasion. New songs must be selected, arrangements and medleys worked out. A quartet is selected to indulge in some "barbershop" harmony. An orchestra must work out accompaniment for the entire show.

Other committees round up a number of fast-stepping dancers to tap and truck at various spots during the evening. Likewise, individual soloists must be decided upon.

Rehearsal Called

All parts of the show will rehearse for several weeks in various forms and not until the Sunday preceding the first performance will the entire show be put together for a complete run. Most of the afternoon will be spent in working out cues, cutting here, rearranging an introduction there and seeing that each person understands his part and when to do it. On Tuesday night all will assemble for a final "dress" rehearsal. There, finishing touches will be put on the entire performance, final instructions will be given for the first curtain.

Starting at 6 o'clock Wednesday, the first night of the show, a line of performers will begin forming back stage at the auditorium as the 100 or more persons get "made up" for their first numbers. Grease paint and make-up will be applied thick and furiously as the big task of brushing up the cast in time for an 8:15 curtain is accomplished.

Of course there are the many other phases and details of the show that have also been worked out far in advance of opening night. Jack Shank has been busy for days distributing tickets to all Hilltop business men for sale to the public. Arrangements for reservations must be made with the school. A plot of the auditorium, seating must be obtained to reserve tickets by. This year's reservations will be handled through the Shank and Saunders office, 2460 W. Broad-st, Monday and Tuesday preceding the show. Reservations may be had for an additional 10 cents.

Supplement Planned

Ray Haunts has spent weeks getting out letters to prospective advertisers for the special Minstrel Supplement to be released through the Hilltop RECORD on Mar. 10. Many calls must be made in signing contracts and writing copy for each advertiser that participates in the supplement.

Scenery and costumes were of course selected several weeks ahead but many details will require attention before drops are in place and each performer is fitted into his attire.

A reception committee under Joe Briggs was appointed to handle the seating of 4000 persons expected for the three nights. A large staff of men must be on hand to facilitate movement of persons to their seats in the short time allotted to the task.

Then, too, a publicity committee, under Curtis Wilcox, must plan a program of stories and pictures for publicizing the show through the newspapers, radio and every medium at the disposal of the committee. Stories about the "stars" must be pounded out to acquaint the public with the coming attraction.

All this to give the Hilltop a 25 cent show? That's only part of the answer. The members of the organization do things that way. The best show ever? Well, at least until next year's. Do they enjoy doing it? After the final curtain they'll say "never again" but on the way home they will already be making plans on how to improve next year's show.

City police and firemen have asked for restoration of their pay cuts. That they are entitled to same is not in question.

The problem at hand is to determine how the city can find money with which to provide this increase in pay.

Now, should the council be made up of at least five men who will think all angles of this question out to a satisfactory conclusion they may be able to satisfy this request. YET, if the money positively cannot be raised and but one member of this body can see it that way, it is entirely possible for misleading impressions to pervade the atmosphere and the one thinking member of council be blamed for not providing the pay restoration. This is merely cited as an example of what can happen.

Truly, it is asking a lot of a man to represent the community, in council when he has no assurance that he will have a majority of the co-workers in council of his same calibre.

Metzemaier Has Been Florist For Six Years

William Metzmaier, 2437 W. Broad-st, has been a florist on the Hilltop for six years. When asked why he had chosen this particular occupation he replied, "My grandfather and father were both florists, so I naturally became one, too."

He graduated from Aquinas high school in 1930, majoring at that time in an academic course. He preferred science, chemistry and math to any other subjects.

Being interested in sports, much of his spare time, if any, is taken up attending various ball games. He has made a hobby of sports, of which he says, "I would rather play ball than eat." During the summer months he participates in ball games, playing with independent leagues.

Metzmaier has traveled extensively in the state of Ohio, having covered almost all the important cities. If ever the time is found to do so he would like to travel over all the United States. This he says is one of his ambitions.

One Holiday

Metzmaier's work is confining, having to work seven days in a week. His only holiday for the whole year is the fourth of July, which he believes comes and goes too quickly.

Mrs. Metzmaier, who works with her son, has been with the store also for six years. She believes their busiest time of the year is Easter, when they start delivering flowers at 3 o'clock in the morning.

A fresh stock of flowers is obtained each morning to continue the day's business.

Metzmaier is a member of the Hilltop Business Men's association. He will serve as an usher at the Hilltop minstrel which will be given March 15, 16 and 17.

IN MEMORIAM

JACQUES, David — Who went to his eternal home three years ago Feb. 26, 1936.
Deep in our heart is a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest
In memory's frame we shall keep
Because God gave it then took it
And he knows best.
The rolling stream of life rolls on
But still the vacant chair
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of the one who once was there.
We mourn for him in silence
No eyes can see us weep
But many a silent tear is shed—
When others are asleep.
Father, Mother, Sisters and Polly.

Round About The Hilltop

Thanks to the Hilltopper who responded so quickly in furnishing us with the address of LODABELLE SCHMIDT . . . "RONNIE" LINSCOTT, that jolly fellow with the big broad smile, went collecting one day last week for grocery bills. Upon receiving the money from those who had paid he just dumped it in a sack—we still haven't found out if he landed in the red.

LUCILLE SUMNER seemed pretty happy about the whole thing last Saturday night . . . Might mention that FRANKLIN EDWARDS (a '38 grad of West High) passed a proficiency test at Ohio State university . . . And say, we expect some of you heard that HERSHALL WILSON has been rushing DOROTHY WEST lately—or has it been just lately?

Last week I suddenly spied the answer through the other end of the telescope. Here's what one family did to solve the perplexing problem. Says the proud father—"Either settle it, or try not to be annoyed by it. Don't for instance struggle morning after morning to see that your child gets to school on time. Give him an alarm clock and tell him he's on his own. The first day we tried it on our daughter she was late. Now she's the family clock-watcher, our time check, and with only three tardy marks in 11 months."

By the way, according to the play, "Mrs. Tubbs of Shanty Town", given by the Burgess Avenue U. B. church, the RECORD is a prominent paper there—we mean, of course, in Shanty Town.

Heard the band concert at West High went over with a big bang Thursday night. The concluding performance will be given tonight . . . BYRON FARWELL was seen walking down Broad-st by himself Monday morning. Where was the company, By? And with all those feminine admirers you have.

Why Wives Go Home to Mother! Where Movie Stars Work for Nothing! Two of the Many Interesting Features Appearing in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with the Sunday CHICAGO HERALD AND EXAMINER.

LUCILLE DAVIS, we understand, is receiving phone calls from a certain aviator. HEMP CRUISE is now attending Ohio university . . . Overheard a conversation on the street car one morning of last week; it seemed that jokes were the main topic, so here it is. Says one little boy to his friend, "My brother fell and hit his head on the piano." Little friend: "Did he hurt himself?" "No he only hit the soft pedal." Catch!!

JACK BELLAR, a student at Denison university, arrived home Tuesday after being confined in the hospital at Granville, Ohio . . . DICK GILGER, who is now a new manager, is struttin' all over the place. CONGRATULATIONS.

By the way, there's going to be some fancy stepping at the style show given at the Hilltop Church of Christ on Feb. 28. And that isn't all, the models are sure something.

Here's something new — next time you eat a sandwich try mustard and catsup (mixed together) on it. One Hilltopper was seen doing same.

Foils Snatcher

Mrs. Teressa Yeager, 130 N. Terrace-st, knows how to baffle purse snatchers. A 17-year-old youth who tried to grab her purse at Terrace and Steele-aves, failed because the purse strap was around her arm.

Robbery Victim

J. E. Roaley, 587 Nashoba-av, last Sunday night told police that he was robbed of $9 by a man, about 38 years of age, who stopped him at Nashoba and Walsh-aves, at the point of a gun forced him into a nearby alley.

Do You Remember?

By Cap Ansel

Oct. 17, 1910, Young's Westerns baseball club defeated Burners all professionals 5 to 4 at Highland and Sullivant-aves. Charlie Young stole second, third and home on three pitched balls. Batteries—Donalds and Friends for Westerns and Kiddo Wilson and Francisco for Burners.

Why the Delay?

Fourteen months have passed since it became known to the trustees of Ohio State university that a man must be selected to succeed President George W. Rightmire.

Yet in 14 months no announcement of a successor has been made. Why the delay?

Ohio State deserves the finest man available. Yet, it does not appear that such a man should be so hard to find if he can be assured his plans and policies will have the backing of the official board. Could the delay be due to the fact that the board is interested in having a man selected who will do as it or outside influences dictate? This is one sure way to fail to get the proper man.

It will be interesting to learn the calibre of the man selected.

Think It Over

City Council on Monday evening heard our proposal that the name of Westgate Park be changed to Westlake Park in honor of the memory of the late Councilman Milton W. West lake.

We are told that members present thought well of the idea and also felt that a similar tribute would be fitting to the memory of the late Councilman Karnes. With this we agree.

As it now stands council members are in the process of "thinking it over" with the idea of taking definite action soon.

It's This Way . . .

Excerpts from relief client letters are interesting to say the least . . . Some of them are recorded below:

"I can't get no unemployment."

"my husband is in jail at Akron for unsupport."

"My brother is a war veteran, having been in the Influenza epidemic at Camp Sherman."

"I am a working man's wife whom is not working."

"Hon. Gov. I wish you would have your dog catcher look after his dog catchin a little closer and let my wife alone."

At the meeting it was understood that the league expected to conduct a campaign to reduce taxes and public expenses.

Injured

Howard Briggs, 47, and his wife, Valeria, 49, of 209 S. Oakley-av, were injured last Friday afternoon when their auto crashed into a parked car at Central and Sullivant-av.

Mrs. Briggs suffered a possible fracture of her right leg, and Briggs suffered shock. Both were treated at Mt. Carmel hospital.

Sister, Brother To Dance At H B M A Minstrel Show

Among the fast-stepping dance acts slated for the Hilltop minstrel Mar. 15, 16 and 17 will be the Goodchilds, a sister and brother act that appeared on the show two years ago.

Earl, 16, and Bernice, 13, are both students at West junior high. But school work is not their only routine in daily living for three or four times each month they are called upon to dance at some entertainment. This of course requires many hours of work on new routines. Both are pupils of Jimmy Rawlins. They have been dancing together for over six years.

Last summer they spent the biggest part of their vacation with a stock company which played most of the cities in Ohio. Both are ambitious to continue their entertaining. Earl studies voice, instrumental and piano in addition to his dancing. Bernice also studies music and in addition to regular dancing she works at ballet.

The Goodchilds

They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Goodchild, 133 S. Hague-av. Mr. Goodchild is employed at the Columbus Dispatch.

Camp Chase Post To Meet Tonight

Camp Chase Post No. 98 of the American Legion will have its regular meeting tonight at 8 o'clock, to which all legionnaires are invited.

Thursday, Mar. 9, there will be a meeting for men only which includes all ex-service men. The only qualification to attend is to have been enlisted in the service. Refreshments and entertainment have been scheduled.

A post dance has been planned for Saturday, Mar. 11, for all legionnaires, families and friends. There will be dancing from 9 to 12 p. m. Admission is 50 cents a couple. Entertainment chairman is E. A. Webb.

Hughes Rites Held Wed.

Mrs. Ellen G. Hughes died early last Monday morning at her home, 2743 Sutton-av, after a month's illness at the age of 36. She was a past worthy matron of the Robert Morris chapter, OES.

Surviving are her husband Seymour G., auditor and secretary of the Sunday Creek Coal Co.; one son, Edward; her mother, Mrs. Mary Ellen Graham; one sister, Mrs. Meredith Masslow; one brother, James A., and her stepfather, Homer A. Grabans. Funeral services were held Wednesday.

Hilltop Sports

The Columbus league's championship will be decided Monday, Mar. 6 in the K. of C. gymnasium when the local Hilltop Merchants, first-round winner, and Medick Fords, second-round champion, tangle in the feature game of "Hilltop Merchants Night."

Medicks won the second-round title with four straight wins and no losses. The Merchants, headed by Warren Whitlinger, won the initial round with four victories and one setback.

The Fordmen are headed by Glen Golden, former South star, Cal Evans and "Red" Foster. Besides Whitlinger, the Merchants roster will include Hunt, Swan, Plank, Prewitt, Dimetri and Saunders. With these two star-studded rosters a battle-royal is almost certain.

Wrestling

West high's grapplers lost a 28-20 decision to the East team in the latter's gymnasium last Thursday afternoon. In a previous meet the two squads had battled to a 23-23 tie. Swartz, Painter, McConnel and Lerum were winners for the Buckaroos.

Hilltop Merchants

Competition in the Hilltop Merchants Saturday afternoon league reached its peak last Saturday as the previous co-leaders, Campbell's Drugs and the Hilltop Record both suffered defeats and as a result a four-way tie now exists in the circuit. Those teams tied for the top rung are the Record, Campbell's, Hauntz Market and the Westgate Electric outfit.

In the feature game Westgate Electric nosed out the Record by a 27-26 count. Galbraith and Junk garnered 15 points between them while R. Brannigan led the losers with 11 markers. Hauntz Market knocked the Drugmen from their top position with an 18-14 win. Bob Whetstone led the scoring for Campbell's with nine points.

In the other contest on the program Waymer's Market escaped from the cellar by edging Frech's Tavern 26-24. The winners picked up their winning margin at the free throw line as each squad counted 11 goals. The win was the first for the market five while Frech's has yet to win a game.

The St. Mary Magdalene A. C. will present its weekly boxing program Wednesday, Mar. 8. Those appearing on the program are Earl Carper, Al Stevens, John McGuire, Gus Psora, Art Miller and Louis Marsilli.

A challenge to any amateur boxer is issued by Jack Petty (126) in his weight.

The star studded blue streaks of St. Aloysius were crowned 1939 champions of the boys West church league at the Glenwood shelter house last Tuesday evening.

Glenwood M. E. won the class B title by defeating West Park No. 2, 18-7.

Westgate Evangelical moved a step nearer the class B title of the girls West church league Monday evening with a 21-12 win over Hilltonia U. B., while Burgess U. B. continued to dog their footsteps with a 10-5 victory over Avondale U. B.

The schedule for Monday, Mar. 6:

Class A—Hoge Memorial vs. Hilltop C. of C.; class B—Avondale U. B. vs. Westgate Evangelical; class B—Burgess U. B. vs. Hilltonia U. B.

Basketeers Close Season

Having completed their regular playing season last Friday evening with a 48-21 loss to the South Bulldogs, the West High Buckaroos were to have met Hilliards last night in a first round contest in the Central district basketball tournament held in the Ohio Wesleyan fieldhouse at Delaware. If the locals should return victorious over their first opponent they will tangle with the winner of the South-Central fracas at 9 p. m. this evening.

Hilliards was made a class A school at the start of the year. The Franklin countians were formerly a class B outfit and according to past performances should not be too tough for the locals. However, West has not fared so well on the hardwood this season and a close contest might be in the offing.

Should the Cowboys hurdle their first opponent more trouble will loom in a dark mass on the horizon. Central has taken the measure of the locals twice this season and South has split even in two games, having walloped the Bucks at the Bulldog house last Friday by that 48-21 margin.

South Team "On"

The locals failed to score a single field goal in the first half while the south-siders were really "on." South held a 15-5 lead at the end of the first period and increased it to 33-8 as the half ended. From then on in it was a walk-away for the Bulldogs who led 31-16 at the expiration of the third canto. This was the only period in which the locals were able to outscore South.

Miller and Krumm led the victors with a total of 30 points, 20 and 10 respectively. West seemed unable to halt these two as they slipped in from all over the floor. The bright spot in an otherwise drab exhibition for the Cowboys was Ray Stinson, who finished his scholastic playing season with a 12 point total. Captain Ned Bell again failed to tally a marker after scoring consistently in the earlier stages of the City league race.

The defeat was the fifth in succession for the Buckaroos, the last four of which were City league frays. West ended the regular playing season with a record of six wins and 12 losses, a .333 percentage. In the City league, however, the Cowboys tied with Central for third place with four wins and six losses, and sported the best defensive record of the six teams.

Colds And Flu Increase

Many Absent From Work, Schools As Epidemic Spreads

The cough, the sniffle and the sneese held sway on the Hilltop this week as more and more people fell victim to colds and flu. Doctors were putting in overtime attending long lines of waiting patients.

Spreading from the schools, where considerable headway had already been gained last week, the epidemic seemed to be more prevalent in the adult ranks. Stores and business houses were missing the services of many of their employees. One large grocery store reported two persons showing up for work out of six persons normally on duty.

Churches and other public gatherings were considerably under average during the week and school attendance was below last week's level.

Few Cases Serious

Doctors reported few cases of severe illness and in most instances the patients responded to ordinary treatment of medicine and rest but those who refused to follow instructions found it difficult to get rid of the malady.

There seemed to be little danger of the schools being closed on the Hilltop although attendance was considerably below normal.

At West senior high 136 were reported absent where the normal figure is 70. Most of the additional ones seemed to be due to flu and colds.

West junior high had 112 out because of sickness. John Burroughs reported 114 vacant seats with about 95 per cent apparently due to flu.

Highland Avenue had 41 students and three teachers on the sick list. Teachers were also off duty in other Hilltop schools. West Mound Street had nine out of 69 total enrollment. West Broad had better attendance than last week.

Broad-Warren Will Remodel

A complete remodeling program that will change the arrangement and appearance of the Broad-Warren Market, 2856 W. Broad-st, will get under way this week-end, according to Harley Sapp, owner of the store.

The store will be repainted in a color scheme of black and white, floor covering will be put down, new meat equipment will be installed, and new shelving space added. Island displays of food will be arranged under the new floor plan that will give customers greater opportunity to serve themselves if they so desire. The clerk service will still be maintained.

Approximately two weeks will be required to complete the work but business of the store will not be disrupted during that time.

Buckingham, organist, will play an organ arrangement of the familiar "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" and the descriptive "Flight of the Bumble-Bee."

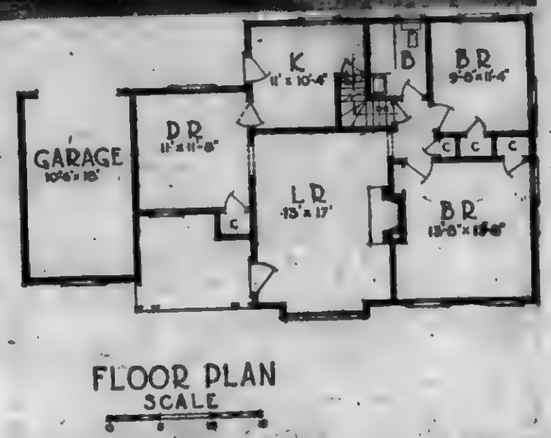
AN EARLY AMERICAN DESIGN

Adapted to Modern American Requirements

The Brentwood

This refreshing, out-of-the-ordinary bungalow is basically Colonial in architecture but distinctly modern-American in planning and construction. As pictured, it is built of cinder concrete blocks; shingle or clapboard would also be effective. One of the most favorable aspects is that it has three bedrooms, each with its own closet. Consequently it can comfortably house a family of from four to six persons. The arrangement of the various rooms is a logical and convenient one—the large living room receives a generous amount of light from its triple windows; the kitchen and dining room are adjacent to one another; the bedrooms are grouped together and are well-lighted and ventilated; the bathroom is centrally located. The bathroom, incidentally, provides for a modern medicine cabinet, countersunk in the wall of the room. The kitchen is designed for utmost utility; space is allowed for all modern conveniences. The stairway to the basement leads from the back door and the kitchen.

Facing Westgate Park



Shown above is the first of four new homes being built by J. C. Nagle, real estate broker, 512 Townsend-av. It is located at 3131 Parkside-rd, facing Westgate Park. This one floor plan has five large rooms including a living room with wood-burning fire place and a side porch, a large master bedroom with turn closets. It is air conditioned. It is open daily for inspection.

Home of Good Proportions

This home breaks away from the monotonous architectural design which so many small homes employ. Attractive features which stamp it as unusual are its generous front porch, its novel living-room window with pointed gable, and the concealed garage that gives a sense of added space to the house. Appraised by the Federal Housing Administration at $7,350, this home was built in New Jersey with an FHA-insured mortgage amounting to $6,400, to be amortized over a 20-year period.

Trees Need Attention

"For trees, you know are friends, indeed.
They satisfy such human need:
In summer shade, in winter fire,
With flower and fruit meet all desire,
And if a friend to man you'd be,
You must befriend him like a tree."

—Charles A. Heath

In regard to the feeding habits of insects there are two main classes — those with chewing mouths parts, and those with sucking mouth parts.

Some of the common chewing insects are the elm leaf beetle, the canker worms, the tussock moth, the walnut Datana, the bagworm, the spiny elm caterpillar and the Japanese beetle. The common control for all leaf-chewing insects is a stomach poison, such as arsenate of lead, applied as a spray to the leaves at the proper time.

Some common sucking insects are aphids, leaf-hoppers, red spider, and the numerous scales. These insects require a contact spray such as miscible oil, or an oil-nicotine spray.

Miscible oil as a dormant spray, at proper strength, will kill most of the scale insects, and is now believed to control to a considerable degree the hatch of over-wintering eggs of leaf-feeding species.

The European elm scale is the most damaging scale to our shade trees in Columbus. Professor T. H. Parks, extension entomologist of the Ohio State university, in his recent bulletin on "Insects on Elms," says: "In the city of Columbus we have more complaints about this insect (European elm scale) than all other shade tree pests combined. There it has killed the lower limbs on some valuable elm trees, this injury having been done principally during the last five years. From a very small beginning, the insect multiplies rapidly on trees, and its habit of establishing itself mainly upon the lower limbs causes these limbs to become seriously injured, or die; hence infested trees soon become disfigured."

For best results, the dormant oil spray should be applied any time now before the trees leaf out. A six per cent solution should be used, and it is important that the temperature be at least 40 degrees Fahrenheit. This spray will not injure paint.

Grapes Thrive On All Types Of Soils

With the exception of the berries, there is no fruit as satisfactory for the city gardener as the grape. Grapes will thrive on all types of soil that are well drained. They do well on a gravel loam, heavy clay, or any of the intermediate kinds of soil that are in good physical condition and are rich in humus. Grapes should never be planted on soils where the water table is high or on an impervious strata under the cultivated soil or where there is poor drainage.

Even on the city lot one should plant a variety so that a supply can be had over a period of time. The Concord has been for years one of the most desirable from the standpoint of yield and flavor. The Worden, also a blue grape, is similar to the Concord. The quality is better, but the fruit is inclined to crack and to shell so that the fruit will not stay on the bunches as long as will the Concord.

Niagara is a good quality white grape. The yield is large and it will grow well on almost any type of soil. White grapes do not sell well on the market, but they equal the blue varieties for home use.

If one wishes more than one or two grape vines then the writer would recommend that vines of several varieties be planted. One of the best grapes from the standpoint of yield and flavor is the Caco. The fruit is red in color, very large and of excellent flavor. Then there is the Golden Muscat, a new yellow grape of excellent flavor, and will do well wherever the Concord will grow.

The propagation of grapes is a very simple process and may be easily done by the grape grower or the home gardener. To propagate from cuttings use mature canes of medium sized wood of the past season's growth by dividing the canes into lengths of eight to 10 inches. This length will usually include about three buds. Place the cuttings in the soil sufficiently deep so that only one of the buds extends above the surface of the ground. If a glass jar is placed over the cutting the danger of dying will be greatly lessened. The jar will hold the moisture around the cutting and prevent rapid evaporation of the sap in the cutting. After the cuttings are well rooted they can be dug and planted where the vine is wanted.

There are a few general principles connected with the growth of grapevines that the grower should remember when he prunes his grapevines. First the fruit is produced on shoots which spring from the one year old wood and therefore the pruning of a vine is primarily a renewal proposition. A certain amount of the previous year's growth must be saved for fruiting purposes. It is never desirable to have more old wood than is necessary to shape the vine. The vigor of growth of the coming season is to a certain extent influenced by the amount of pruning. If too much new wood is left, so many bunches are produced that they are small and poorly filled. Weak growth results from such pruning and the yield will be comparatively less. Weak growth also results from such pruning. On the other hand, if too little wood is left after pruning, the new growth becomes excessive and the yield correspondingly less. In the city where the vines are trained on fences and garages it is a good plan to have the vines eventually cover the space where they are intended to grow. In this way the grape vine serves for ornamental purposes as well as a source of excellent fruit.

Venetian Blinds Brighten Home

New homes demand the finest in inside fixtures according to Charles Daugherty of the Daugherty Shade Factory, 2283 W. Broad-st, and he advises the selection of Venetian blinds.

A complete line of these shades is available through the local firm. They will be glad to give estimates on any job.

They also announce a complete selection of wall papers and paints.

DO YOU REMEMBER?
By Cap Ansel

When Jim Young and Doc Pollock leased a field at Highland and Sullivant and built a grandstand and a solid seven foot fence and erected a very fine baseball setup. That was in 1909. Cap Ansel was selected as manager and he piloted the young Westerns to a pennant in the Capitol City league.

A big sign on the fence said "Treat your fans to best." They did, and such clubs as Oakwoods, Schullmans, Wilkes, Panhandles, Interurbans and others played there. The plant was paid for in two years but homes being built forced elimination of this locality.

Sullivant avenue was just mud.

Fairfielders To Banquet March 27

Mrs. Raymond H. Treffinger, president of "The Fairfielders," announced at a recent meeting of the executive committee of the association that the annual banquet will be held at the Southern hotel, Mar. 27. Ample accommodations are being arranged by the management of the hotel reserving the ballroom and the entire mezzanine floor for the use of the Fairfielders.

Gov. John W. Bricker has been extended an invitation to be the guest speaker.

Between 500 and 600 Fairfielders and their friends attended the banquet last year, and the chairmen of the several committees are rapidly completing an interesting program for the enjoyment of the many who will attend this year.

Moderation

"Do you believe in telepathy?"

"I shouldn't like to see it carried to an extreme," replied Miss Cayenne. "If everybody could ascertain what everybody else is thinking, so few of us would be on speaking terms."

First Federal Offers Advice On Loans

The officers and employees of The First Federal Savings and Loan association make the modest claim that they are glad to offer their services on any problem of thrift and home ownership.

While they pull no rabbits out of the hat, neither do they promise to make a person rich overnight. They refuse to have anything to do with speculative schemes.

When you need advice about the investment of funds, large or small, or the financing of a home or other improved real estate they ask that you call at their office, 2369 W. Broad-st, or 53 E. State-st. Any assistance they may give places the individual under no obligation to the organization.

A business like the First Federal differs from many others in important ways. In the first place both investors and borrowers deal with the institution year after year for a long period of time.

In the second place the investment of money or the placing of a mortgage on a home is a matter of very great importance to most people. They want to understand the borrowing or investment program thoroughly before they make their commitments. The First Federal invites a thorough investigation of their plans.

H. G. Deems, secretary of the First Federal, states that this firm has made possible the financing of many of the numerous new homes under construction on the Hilltop.

"I want to buy a toy train for my little boy."

"Next floor, please, sir. Men's Hobbies!"

Lawn Should Be Rolled After Seed Is Planted

Rolling a lawn should follow seeding. If this is done, two benefits will be secured. First, the seed that has been sown will be pressed into the surface of the soil and germination and growth will be assured. Seed that is suspended above the surface, in one form or another of the previous season's growth, may germinate. But unless it has permanent contact with the soil, constant moisture supply will be lost and the small plant will dry up and die. The surface of the lawn, because of freezes, becomes very loose and dries out within a few hours. If this is the only source of moisture the new seed has, there is little chance of a continuous growth. A light rolling will press the seed into this loose surface. In addition to pressing the seed into the soil, the rolling will pack the soil particles closely together, thus assuring a continuous moisture supply. The water will move to the surface from the layers of soil by capillarity on a packed soil but can not do so in a loose soil.

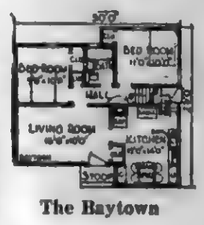
The second purpose of rolling a lawn is to make the surface smooth. The surface should be smooth but not hard. It is true that the mower can be pushed more easily if the surface is hard, but our aim is to have a good stand of grass. A lawn, to have a proper surface, should be rolled before the freezing weather ends. In the first place, the amount of work required now to roll a lawn is much less than it will be after the freeze ends. After a thaw the ground is very soft and the weight should be less than for later rollings.

Even though a heavy roller is used now, the chance of danger to a lawn is far less than it is later. A heavy roller presses the top layer of soil so firm that there is little chance for proper grass growth. The air spaces are all forced out and no plant can grow unless there is proper aeration of the soil. The grass roots need air and most of the soil bacteria must have air to live. These bacteria are essential in the soil as they aid in breaking down and liberating both organic and inorganic plant foods.

A lawn rolled now has the advantage of having a smooth surface and at the same time one that is not packed hard. The loss of water from a firmly packed surface is much greater than from a loose one. If rolling is done now there will be several slight freezes which will loosen the surface and leave it in proper physical condition for the entire season. In case the freezes should be so severe that a great amount of heaving is done, this can be corrected with another rolling.

Another item that should be considered is the type of soil. A clay soil, with little or no sand, will be packed very hard by a heavy rolling. This usually does more harm than good. The water drum type of roller is best. The weight can be regulated to meet the requirements of soil types and conditions.

Imitation Stained Glass. — Ordinarily cloth dyes obtainable at drug and dry goods stores can be used to imitate stained glass. A color is selected and the dye is mixed with clear lacquer which is then applied to the glass. If transparency is required, one coat is enough. Successive coats reduce transparency. A coat of thinned clear varnish is then applied over the stain, permitting cleaning with a dampened cloth.



POPULAR COLONIAL DESIGN

4 Rooms and Bath

Cost About $2,400 To Build

COMPACT BUT ADEQUATE

All the charm and simplicity of Colonial design is reflected in this fine little home which accommodates from two to four persons. Yet, notwithstanding the compactness and simplicity of its arrangement, this cottage provides ample space for the average family. It meets the exacting requirements of both architectural taste and economy. The generously proportioned living room is sufficiently large to entertain in, and is conveniently located next to the kitchen; this makes serving quick and easy. The bathroom opens on the hall and is easily reached from either of the bedrooms and the living room; hence one does not have to pass through any occupied rooms to get to it. Kitchen space is carefully and efficiently allocated to standard fixtures; not an inch of space is wasted. The second door on the side of the house opens into the kitchen and makes grocery deliveries convenient. Numerous windows allow ample sunlight.

The Baytown

Hints For Home Owners

Window Conditioning

Experiments by Prof. G. L. Larson of the University of Wisconsin indicate that window conditioning, which means storm windows or double-glazed sash, effects fuel savings of 30 per cent in homes when no other form of insulation is applied. When good wall and roof insulation is also applied, the fuel saving may go as high as 55 percent, according to Professor Larson. Window conditioning, it is claimed, pays for itself in less than two heating seasons.

Double windows are effective in eliminating chilly drafts. It is not always realized that in cold weather drafts develop even where windows and doors are snugly fitted. There does not have to be actual leakage of cold air, for when the warmed air of a room comes into contact with the cold surface of a single pane it is chilled and sinks to the floor, setting up currents which send chilled air across the floor. Where double panes are used the insulating wall of captive air keeps the inner surface much nearer general room temperature.

Fogging of windows from condensation also is greatly reduced by window conditioning for the same reason, allowing the interior of the house to be kept at proper humidity without unpleasant blurring of the windows and the harmful effect of excess moisture on window sills and draperies.

Modern winter windows and various types of prefabricated double-glazed sash harmonize with almost any style of home and are a far cry from the old bulky unsightly storm windows. In the trend toward more and larger windows in homes, window conditioning is gaining wide favor for year-round comfort, economy and appearance.

Automatic Equipment

Where scientific kitchen planning has been developed, housekeeping has been freed from much drudgery. A large contribution toward lightening the kitchen work has been made by the automatic features of refrigerators and ranges, but location of the equipment in proper relation to work is necessary to have the ultimate in kitchen efficiency.

Kitchen cabinets containing flour bins, utensil drawers, towel racks, and other kitchen essentials go far to break the monotonous kitchen routine and meet good housekeeping requirements, but if the cabinets are improperly located, then convenience and efficiency are reduced. Modern homes are sacrificing convention for efficiency, and the traditional arrangement of kitchen equipment is quickly giving way to the promoting convenience.

Dishwashing is a less boring task if all the materials needed for it are stored within easy reach of the sink. Cupboards and shelves should be within arm's reach of the range. A cabinet for packaged goods should be convenient to the refrigerator so the preparation of food does not involve lost steps.

Those little brown substances clinging to the branches of Jerusalem cherry trees are what is called the scale, and should be removed. Take a piece of whale oil soap, make a moderately strong suds and scrub them off with a toothbrush.

Lazy Bones Can Now Rule The Modern Type of Home

There WAS a day when a man had to be a man to exist in this best of all possible worlds. He had to wrestle the ashes out of the furnace once a week. He had to take down, put up and paint the screens. He had to tear a window apart every now and then to find a sash weight which had let go the night before with a horrible racket. Yea verily, and he had to be able to coax a swollen window up and down!

Now—bah! Scientific progress in the building field has simplified everything until even a young woman could operate it. An inspection of modern conveniences available in a home will prove our point.

You will note that many of the heating units on display can be operated with no apparent work at all. You will see that gas, oil and coal have contributed in making modern heating streamlined to a remarkable degree.

Incentive Disappears

What will happen to the man who could toss a shovel of coal neatly into the furnace mouth without slopping a lot of it around on the floor as a second rater might do? Indeed, all the incentive for shoveling perfection has disappeared. You either shovel it into a wide-mouthed hopper today, or you do nothing at all. Yowsuh, one of the models shovels its own coal and tosses out its own ashes, and all the owner has to do is sit around and get hardening of the arteries.

And the windows! Nowadays you can buy them all completed—and what windows! They do not stick and do not sag. They are all weatherstripped when you get them, and they do not have a heavy sash weight. They operate with a small spring. Most of them have storm windows as well, and in many cases they are equipped so that the storm windows may be lifted out of their frames and screens inserted in the twinkling of an eye — and from the inside of the house at that!

Screen Rolls Out of Sight

At least one of the windows exhibited came equipped with its own window screen, made of lifetime bronze, and of the type that rolls up on a spool, out of sight, when not in use. No job at all changing screens in a house so equipped. One window for airing the attic was a beauty. The lower half of the window simply revolved within an arc!

Once upon a time a man who built a house had to depend on the carpenter to fashion his mantel according to specifications. Now, in this packaged age, he can buy it ready made — and the whole section can be moved in. Walls, too, are available in every type of wood and composition paneling, and a new type of insulation is made of corrugated boxboard.

And floors! You can buy them today in squares, in any sort of wood or combinations of wood you want. And so cunningly are they fashioned that you cannot see the nail holes when they are affixed to the floor.

Ice Man Kept Out

A number of visitors will like the ice box. It is really part of a kitchen work cabinet, but the ice box part of the cabinet has a section which goes through to the back stairway. The ice man can deliver ice without entering the kitchen at all.

And water conditioning is with us. In the old days if water was hard it was hard, and that was all there was to it. One saved a little rain water for special things. Now, in handsome cylinders, water is softened merely by turning a crank.

Now if somebody would only rig up a device for paying for a home by turning a crank, or better still, something that would pay for your home automatically. It seems a shame, with so many swell gadgets available, that one has to pay for a home the hard way, even as father and grandfather and great-grandfather, too!

Prizes Offered In Bendix Contest

A contest of interest to local housewives is being conducted by the local representative of the Bendix Home Laundry, Westgate Electric shop, 2565 W. Broad-st.

Details of the contest may be obtained at the store. There will be 150 of the modern Bendix machines given away for the best letters completing the statement, "The Bendix home laundry saves work, time and money, and protects health because . . ."

C. J. Rice, owner of the firm, points out the advisability to the prospective new home builders or remodelers of making plans for a recreation room in the basement and installing an attractive Bendix Home Laundry to eliminate the old time washing machine.

FHA Provides Finance Plan

"Previous to the birth of the national housing act the retail lumber industry from one end of the country to the other was bemoaning the fact that our citizens could purchase anything and everything but buildings on a deferred payment plan. Now that we have the vehicle, let us put it to good use."

Urges Familiarization

Urging all persons associated with the home building industry to familiarize themselves with the provisions and operations of the federal housing administration, Mr. Horner declared that "such knowledge will help materially to make business profitable and at the same time make it possible for families in the low income bracket to own their homes and contribute very materially to making those families better American citizens."

Pointing to the low-cost home field as "a fertile one for effort on the part of the lumber industry," he declared that the best solution for low-cost housing was in privately built homes financed under the federal housing administration's insured mortgage system.

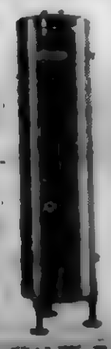
QUESTIONS And ANSWERS

Q. Last summer we bought a house, and the rooms were very hot. We cannot understand this, as the ceilings are high. We want to do something this winter to improve this condition, as we understand building is cheaper in winter than in summer. Besides, we want to be ready before the hot weather comes again. Can you suggest how we can improve this condition?

A. High ceilings of themselves do not make rooms cool. There must be some way of draining off the hot air that accumulates under the ceilings to get the benefit of their height. This can be done by changing the windows so that the heads are near the ceiling, but this may spoil the outside appearance of the house. Probably transoms over the door would be more practical. Then there should be a large opening in the hall ceiling at the highest point so the warm air can escape. In addition, adequate openings must be provided in the attic space, by means of either large louvers at each gable or additional chimney flues. If there is space, a bulkhead should be built around the opening into the attic from the hall. Then, of course, insulation of the walls of the house and the ceiling over the top floor will help materially. In brief, provide insulation with ample ventilation and the rooms should be reasonably cool. It would be well to employ a competent architect to help you.

Q. What size coal bin is required to hold 10 tons of coal?

A. A ton of coal will occupy about 45 cubic feet of space. Convenient storage of coal should be such that the depth is not over four and one-half feet; the size bin required for 10 tons would be 10 feet square.



Jones Sees Active Building Year

The building outlook in this community is the brightest it has been in many years according to W. H. Jones, manager of the Jones Lumber & Coal Co., N. Sylvan-av.

Mr. Jones points out that numerous prospective home builders have made plans for spring building and already many of these contracts have been let.

It is anticipated that more than 300 new homes will be constructed on the Hilltop this year. Nearly 30 of them are now under construction.

The Jones Lumber Co. is an old established Hilltop institution furnishing all kinds of building materials and supplies. They will be glad to give estimates on any job at no obligation.

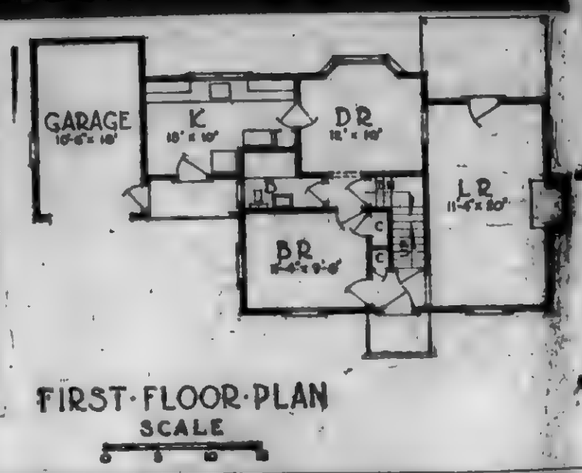
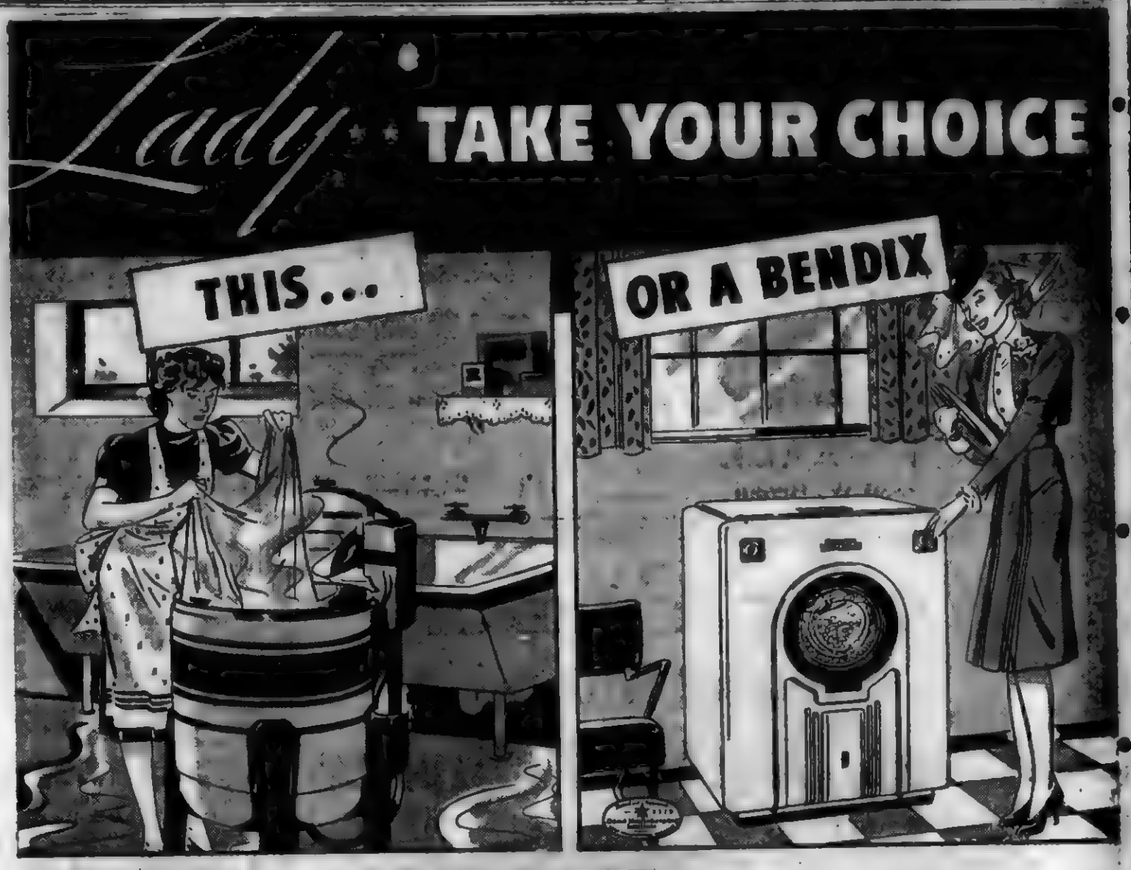
Local Firm Is Foremost In City



Foremost movers in the city of Columbus are the Hilltop Van & Storage Co., 2830 W. Broad-st. They have operated a fleet of modern vans since 1919.



They employ only skilled movers and provide fireproof storage. Their moth proof storage service with 100 percent guarantee is an outstanding feature. The firm is operated by H. F. Kunzi, a Hilltop booster for many years.

SIMPLICITY MAKES COMFORTABLE HOME

The extreme simplicity of this small home is effective and makes it representative of a style of architecture which each year becomes increasingly more popular. Designed for a small family, the house is a compact dwelling unit with all of its space used to advantage. Its chief attraction is an unusually large living room that boasts two side exposures and sets each on the front and rear. The Federal Housing Administration insured a mortgage on this home for $5,400 after a valuation of $6,300 had been assigned it. The owners, who live in Connecticut, will amortize the mortgage over a period of 20 years.

Welch Heads Bldg., Real Estate Firm

Russel S. Welch & Co., Inc. are active real estate brokers and are members of the Columbus real estate board. They handle the brokerage business, while Russel S. Welch Construction Corp. is the company which handles the building of fine homes. Russel S. Welch is president of both companies. He resides at 354 S. Brinker-av. The firm employs 15 salesmen, of whom five reside on the Hilltop and are engaged in selling Hilltop homes. All are men with wide experience in the field of real estate brokerage and are available to all Hilltop customers of the firm.

The building division of the company offers, in effect, the same services as a one-stop station. Complete in their own office, they will purchase the lot for you, arrange all financing at no expense, have complete plans and specifications made for the new home, take care of the fire and wind-storms insurance, and actually build the home in such a way that complete satisfaction is assured, and give a written guarantee that the home is built of the finest of workmanship and the highest quality of material available. The firm has built numerous houses on the Hilltop and offers every purchaser of one of these homes as a reference. They are able to build at lower figures because of the large volume of business they have, their large purchasing power, and their method of group building. This all results in a substantial saving to the home builder.

The firm is now building new houses on N. Wayne-av and Glenview-blvd, a large two-story four bedroom frame and stone home with attached garage on the corner of S. Brinker-av and W. Broad-st; a six-room stone and frame home at 139 S. Brinker-av; a six-room stone and shingle house at 143 S. Brinker-av, and the most unusual one-floor plan house ever built on the Hilltop at 240 S. Brinker-av. The house is of Normandy architecture with a Normandy stone tower, sunken living room, marble vestibule entrance, with a dining room on a different floor level, and the bedrooms on still a different floor level, making it all a three floor level house, still a one-floor plan. The two-car garage is in the basement. Plans are also in progress for new homes to be started immediately on Berkshire-rd, Upper Arlington.

Planning Booklets Available To Prospective Home Owners

In order to assist and encourage prospective home owners the West Side Lumber Co., 3401 W. Broad-st, has made available free copies of a "Low Cost Homes" and the "Johns-Manville Ideas" books, according to Albert W. Jordan, salesman for the firm.

"The desire to own a new home is natural because nothing in life makes for more genuine happiness, independence and real sense of security than a comfortable home, large or small, which one might truly call his own," Jordan said in commenting on the usefulness of these booklets.

"There never was a time in our history when this desire to own a home could be gratified more completely and quickly than at the present with financing over a long period on monthly payment plan at about what one now pays in rent—only you pay it to yourself and not to some landlord," he continued.

FHA allows up to 20 years to pay, or if you like, the financing can be for 10 or 15 years with low interest rate.

Local Firm Obtains Franchise

Announcement was made this week by the Insulite Co., Minneapolis, leading manufacturers of insulating board for 25 years, that the Asbestos Roofing and Siding Co., 3127 W. Broad-st, has been appointed official approved applicators for a new siding called Insulite Briklite siding.

F. K. Dickerson, manager of the local concern, states this new brick siding is built into the face of a half-inch insulation board, forming a completed unit, a one-piece waterproof and weather ... covering for house walls. When properly applied with sealed joints and concealed nailing, the insulating material forms a solid unit on the house walls, thus completely shutting out both moisture, cold or heat.

With J. W. Munsell acting as sales manager, a sales force of 15 men has been organized and a number of homes are already being covered with the new material. The company is displaying the product all this week at the Hilltop branch of the Ohio National Bank.

Dignified English Bungalow

Four Rooms, Dinette and Bath

COMFORT WITH ENGLISH STYLING

Typically English in appearance . . . typically American in practicability . . . this dignified bungalow combines the best points of English architecture with hard-headed American commonsense planning. The spacious living room, with its hospitable fireplace . . . the well-lighted bedrooms . . . the sunny dinette—all these give this smart little home a definitely hearty "English squire" air. Yet the designers have not overlooked the importance of utility. The bathroom is conveniently accessible to both bedrooms and the living room. You can reach the garage without stepping out of the house. The kitchen is compact and is adjacent to the dinette. A closet opening on the vestibule provides a place for guests' wraps. Ample storage space is to be found in the attic.

The Borden

When Papering.—It is well when papering a room to remember that large paterns and dark colors will make it appear smaller, while a plain or striped paper, if a light hue, will give an impression of increased size.

Head of Lumber Group Outlines Homes Problem

The way to a safe and sane solution of the nation's housing problem, avoiding entirely any semblance of a "paternalistic system," has been pointed by the federal housing administrator, J. W. Horner, president of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association, told members at the association's recent convention.

This plan, he pointed out, contemplates the building of low-cost homes by private industry. The homes are built by local builders with material sold by local dealers, and are financed with private funds under the terms of the national housing act. Homes built under this program must meet certain standards of construction set up by the FHA, and loans may be amortized over a long period of time at a reasonable rate of interest.

Change In Opinion

"Within the last month one prominent and successful operator of retail lumber yards admitted to me that until this year he and his associates had taken a negative attitude in regard to the FHA program," Mr. Horner said. "Reversing his views has resulted in substantial gains in his volume of sales and has materially helped the employment situation as well.

Dining Room Needs Southeast Exposure

If plans for a new home include provisions for a dining room, a number of factors should be taken into consideration.

Southeast exposure is desirable in order to assure morning sunlight in a dining room. Other important considerations are: (1) The room should be planned with ample wall space to accommodate the furniture: (2) immediate access from kitchen or pantry is essential; (3) in smaller houses dining space planned in conjunction with the living room is generally satisfactory for normal family use and permits flexibility for special occasions.

Roof Materials Cover wide Range

There is a wide range of materials available for the roof of a house.

Among the most frequently used types are: slate-covered shingles in strips or in single units, wood shingles, composition shingles, cement tiles, terra-cotta tiles, metal shingles, sheet metal, slate, and impregnated paper.

In building a new house the type of covering is selected and the roof structure built accordingly. A deck or sheathing is usually required. To this is fastened the covering, but in some sections, particularly those near the sea, it may be advisable to lay wood shingles over shingle lath. The underside of the shingles needs to "breathe" on account of the excessive moisture in the air or they may rot quickly.

With all types, save paper and wood shingle, heavy roofing felt should be placed over the decking before covering is put on.

When a roof is renewed, the matter of weight of the material selected must be given careful study. If the old roof is of wood shingles, it is often possible to cover it without removing the old shingles, but if a heavy material, such as slate, is used, the frame must be checked to see if it will safely carry the added weight.

"Jerry-Building" on Decline In Home Construction Today

The poorly constructed home bearing distinct marks of "jerry-building" is a thing of the past.

Buying a home in years past was pretty much a question of chance but it is a great deal more difficult today to sell a poorly constructed home. Fortunately, there are few builders now whose methods are questionable. The Federal Housing administration has contributed greatly to the discouragement of "jerry-building." Even the inexperienced or uninformed home buyer can venture into the home market without great fear of being victimized by unscrupulous dealers.

Homes to be financed must be constructed of sound materials; they must be located in neighborhoods free from influences impairing their desirability as homes and their value as investments. They must conform to sanitation and health requirements, and they must contain at least some of the conveniences necessary to comfortable and modern living.

Otto A. Rieck, 166 S. Brinkerav, has 34 years behind him as a quality painter and decorator.

For the past 22 years he has been a resident of the Hilltop. He has decorated and painted many churches and stores. One of his more modern jobs was that of the Athletic club.

He will be pleased to give estimates on any job. He does brush and spray painting.

Furniture May Be Built From Old Left-overs

By Betty Wells

"Old but not antique," writes Mrs. R. H. R., "that was the trouble with the furniture in my guest room. But I designed it all over and did the remodeling myself, and it really looks quite exciting. My husband helped with the carpentry.

"The color scheme is black and white, and the result is modern. I cut the legs off the bed and set the side boards up making it more contemporary looking. The base of the draped dressing table is an old oil stove with boards across the top and a skirt added. The night table is an old medicine cabinet that was on a dresser years ago. The chest of drawers is an old bureau with the mirror taken off and hung on the wall.

"Both bed and chest of drawers are painted white with a wedge-shaped panel of black pointed boldly down the center of each. Dressing table skirt is white with black banding and white ball fringe. On the floor I have crocheted rugs in geometric design. The slipper chair is covered in black with piping in white. Bedspread is white with black piping. Curtains are white with rows of pink and black ball fringe. The wall paper is pale pink with a tailored medallion in deeper pink and this note of pink is repeated in lamps, dressing table bottles and cushions.

"So many of my friends have copied my idea and have found it very inexpensive to work out. I thought maybe your readers might like to hear about it too, and I would feel so thrilled to have helped others solve their problems."

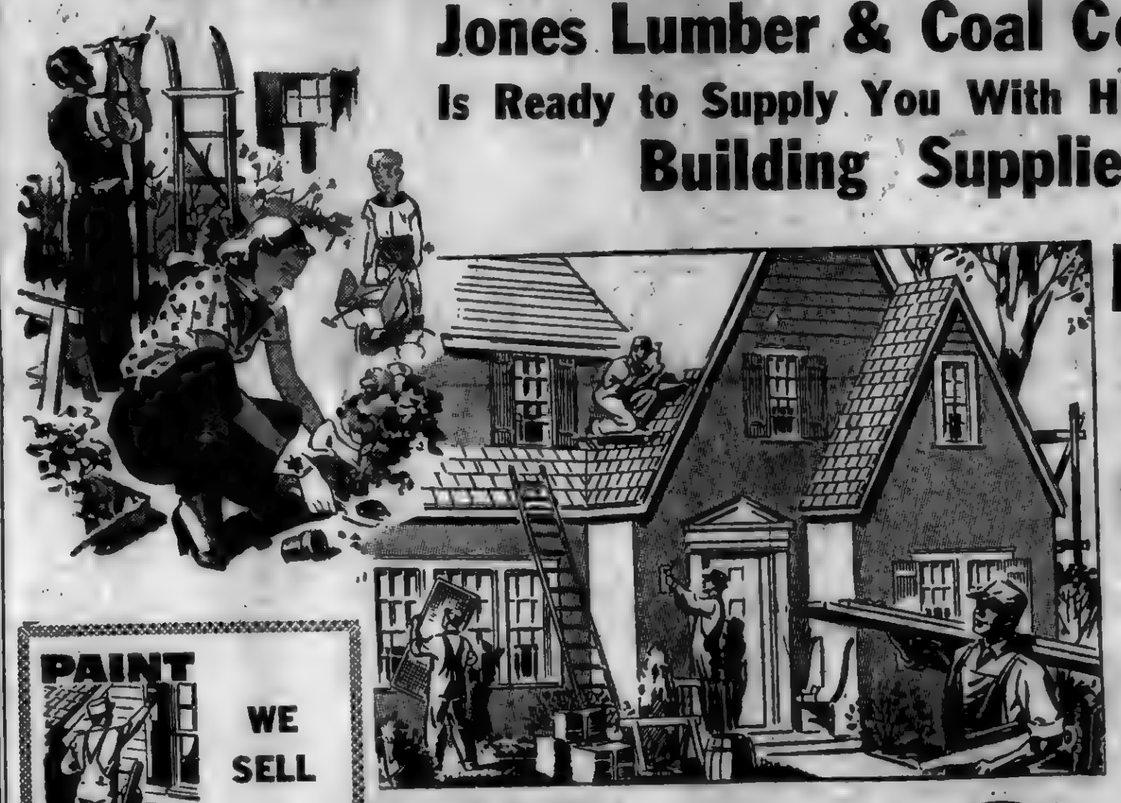
"Thank you, Mrs. R. I think you've been very clever in making such an attractive room out of left-overs. I'm always delighted to hear from our readers about decorating experiences."

Tints Helpful In Concealing Bad Spacing

Long a valued device of interior decorators, the use of wall and ceiling tints to conceal bad proportions and accent the feeling of space is now being commonly used by home owners.

Light colors, those mixed with white, tend to create a feeling of space and should be used as ground-work when this effect is sought. By using a gray background throughout the house, brightened with light shades of yellow, pale green, coral, or other similar tints, a sense of space will be attained, and normally dark rooms will appear brighter.

If the house is too large and appears too empty, the action should be reversed. Dark shades, warm glowing colors, should be used to draw together an oversized room.



Where too much sunlight streams into a room, the intensity should be tempered with green or shades of blue. Rooms receiving too little sunlight should be treated with sun shades such as yellow, light gold, or chartreuse.

The Hilltop Record

The Hilltop, Columbus, O.
Friday, Mar. 10, 1939
Total No. 1141
Vol. XXII, No. 47

The first time I saw Jimmy Hull was several years ago when he was a star basketball player with Greenfield McClain high school. It was the day of the team's most important game with the famed Waterloo Wonders, undefeated in 56 starts, thrice champions of Ohio. But Jimmy Hull had no idea that Waterloo's string would ever reach 56. And Jimmy wasn't whistlin' in the dark. He meant every word he spoke when he said 'We can beat those guys."

That night, before a hysterical throng, I saw Jimmy, calm and poised, late in the second overtime period, take aim and fire the winning points into the hoop.

I wasn't surprised, therefore, when I heard Jimmy Hull talking about a Big Ten championship for OSU early this winter. The gentleman has spirit, he has a courage that's blind to obstacles, he has something contagious that carries you with him into every battle, he has an indomitable "will to win," not at any cost, but certainly in the face of all obstacles. Jimmy Hull and the boys he led to a Big Ten basketball championship, and their coach, were probably the only people at Ohio State who were not surprised.

But if you mention Hull's contribution to his university in terms of championship trophies, diamond-studded gold basketballs, and certificates of award—I'm not interested. It is greater than that.

He has brought something to Ohio State that has long been absent. That "something" is permeating the philosophy of the entire athletic department, and diffusing out into the student body and faculty with heart-warming effect. This spirit, this love of a cause, this desire to make one organization outstanding—i. e., a champion, he has proven to be experimentally sound. How badly it has been lacking, how badly it is needed in other phases of campus life, is obvious.

One who is a football fan wonders at the irony of the situation which saw Jimmy Hull shunned as a quarterback on a squad so devoid of spirit that it sprawled awkwardly in feeble efforts to play against hard-hitting, smashing opponents; so devoid of leadership that it was awkward and impotent; so loaded with "ability" that it had no concentrated attack, no common goal.

As large universities go, Ohio State is yet young. It has great potentialities as a center of learning. It needs leadership, however, undominated, courageous, thoughtful, marked by a "love of the cause" like Jimmy Hull has demonstrated as effective in leading his team to a title.

That alone won't win EVERY battle, of course. Hull will lose a few of life's tilts in the next 30, 30, 40 or 50 years. But one would like to wager that Jimmy Hull will not have lost the 20, 30, 40 or 50 years when that final gun sounds.

Watching the Greenfield product and his mates perform recalls with shocking suddenness the idea that it's the FOUR wheels that make the wagon roll. We forget that sometimes, whether we're naming college presidents, dog catchers or just a tackle on the football team.

Witherspoons Start For Foreign Lands

Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Witherspoon, 66 S. Ogden av, left Wednesday evening for New York city prior to their sailing Saturday on the steamship Excaliber for Europe. Rev. Witherspoon is pastor of the Apostolic tabernacle, 1074 W. Broad-st, and also chairman of the missionary board for whose interests he is traveling.

Rev. Witherspoon plans to take moving pictures of their trip and keep a record of all their travels for the purpose of lecturing after their return.

Reports received from the Holy Lands tell of great danger there, but Rev. Witherspoon and his wife believe this will add to the interest of their trip.

A special farewell program was given Tuesday evening at the tabernacle in their honor. Gifts and flowers were presented from their many friends. The auditorium was filled to capacity with delegates from the six branch churches of the Apostolic tabernacle and visiting ministers from other cities.

The Hilltop's fine contribution to the fast Columbus basketball league, the Hilltop Merchants, proved its superiority in the circuit when it walloped the Medick Ford five 42-31 in a play-off game at the K. of C. gym Monday night.

Starting off with a bang which was heard all evening, the locals led 22-14 at the half and were never headed. The Merchants hit the net from all angles and set up a defense which was almost impregnable.

Tom Swan hit his stride for the first time this season and counted 13 points closely followed by Whitlinger with nine and Todd with eight. Foster was the big gun for the losers with 18 points.

An off and on squad all season but still a squad possessing the fight that has characterized most Buckaroo athletic teams, West high's basketball squad, 1938-39 model, ended its basketball campaign by bowing to the strong Grandview five in the second round of the Central District basketball tournament at Delaware last Friday evening by a 33-28 count. In a first-round contest the previous evening the Bucks had won a hard-fought 38-23 decision from Hilliards.

In the Grandview-West contest the lead changed hands nine times and was tied on four different occasions. Grandview led at the half 12-11. In his final contest for the Buff and Brown cagers Stinson played a bang-up game. However, the lone sophomore of the starting five, "Duck" Ucker, carried the brunt of the Buck attack in the scoring department with nine markers. Stinson and Rogers each tallied six points. Grandview, contender for the Central Buckeye League crown at present, played a fine brand of ball but their inability to connect on several "sucker" shots cost the locals the fray.

Bucks Gain Verdict

In a closely-contested fray Thursday the Bucks spurted in the final quarter to gain the verdict. The locals built up a 12-5 lead at the end of the initial period, but tallied only one point in the second quarter to lead 13-12 at the half. They held a 20-18 advantage as the final canto got under way and coasted in with a smashing 13 point splurge in this period. Outstanding for the Cowboys were Stinson with 10 points and Rogers with nine. Ned Bell found his shooting eye to add seven markers to the Buck total.

Prospects for next season's team appear bright for the Bucks. Of the 10 players selected for the tournament squad only two, Stinson and Gentry are seniors. The hold-overs for next year include Ucker, sophomore forward; Rogers, Mack, Carpenter and Distlehorst, junior forwards; Maxwell, sophomore center; and Bell and Carter, junior guards of the present team.

Recognition for fine all-around play during the past basketball campaign was given two Buckaroo stalwarts this past week when Ray "Murph" Stinson and Ned Bell, acting captain for most of the season, were given berths on downtown newspaper All-High teams. Stinson, the leading Cowboy point-maker all season, was named as one of the two centers on the Dispatch's eight-man squad and Bell, outstanding defensive player for the Bucks, was given a position on the Journal squad. Stinson is a senior while Bell is a junior.

The proteges of Coach George Williams tallied 532 points in their 20 games while opponents of the Bucks were credited with 631 markers. The average game points for the locals was 26.6 while their opponents' average amounted to 31.5. Williams was handicapped somewhat at the beginning of the season by a comparatively inexperienced squad but has produced a team that has done fairly well in competition with some of the best Class A schools in the state.

Round About The Hilltop

Notes and Nubbins: DICK SCHICK, a former Record employee, is commonly known as "Nubbins" down in the Greenfield territory . . . and he, by the way, makes many week-end visits to Ross county to see a certain red head . . . Rumor hath it that POP WAYMER is asking FRED SULZBERGER to demonstrate that double Maltese twist . . .

Champs

WM. "FLORIST" METZMAIER and wife won second honors at the Mr. and Mrs. bowling tourney at the YWCA.

Ferdinand

People in the vicinity of Warren and Sullivant are making complaints of a peculiar noise emanating from Painter Market, and have come to find out it is GEORGE practicing "FERDINAND" for the Minstrel.

Here and There: Understand that MICKEY McGUIRE is powerful popular at the boxing and wrestling matches at St. Mary Magdalene basement each Wednesday evening . . . Heard that VIRGINIA HALEY writes poetry and pretty good at that, depending, like all poets, I guess, on the mood she's in . . . Where is LILLIAN McMANAWAY, the gal with the winning smile? . . . BOOTS WRIGHT, the now MRS. CARL HIBBS, and her partner, BETTY WILHELM, have been winning on the basketball floor at Glenwood . . . ZOE CREGO is again attending business college . . .

Customer Right

MARY ELLEN SMITH, waitress at the Broad-Hague Restaurant, believes the customer should know what he wants so when a gent recently asked for a glass of water and a toothpick, with a napkin—he got just that . . .

Can't Take It

We just wonder if all weddings affect JACK MERRIMAN in the same way as the one performed by the men of the Fidelis Class of Hope Memorial church. The occasion was a mock wedding in which Jack was bridesmaid, and wore beautiful long blonde curls and a pink taffeta dress. Incidentally, the "bridesmaid" was ill for a short time after that . . .

BILLY BOB MASTERS is back to school again after his accident of several weeks ago. It seemed his hip was knocked out of place . . . Can report HENRY JONES almost had to sing for his supper. He carried the grocery list around in his pocket all day and finally discovered he had it that night. The mistake was discovered just in time . . .

Crowned Queen

MRS. BONITA BURTNER was triumphantly crowned Queen of Chinese Checkers after winning a round from five distinguished male checkered players. And that FRED "JITTERBUG" PERKINS is doctoring a bad case of effected "ego" . . . GLORIA BRADEN and BETTY RITTER, autograph seekers, added to their prized collection by getting one from BOBBY BREEN at the Palace theatre . . .

Just a Habit—Gee!

Pie every morning for breakfast used to make up the menu of DON SMITH, attorney, but as we understand it, it's just an old New England custom . . . DORIS SCHUBERT also has for luncheon festible, pumpkin pie, with Neapolitan ice cream . . . The new buggy which escorts "CHARLIE" KENT around is quite "nifty."

Fairfielders To Banquet

The annual Fairfielders banquet to be held at the Southern hotel, Mar. 27, has appointed Miss Norma Turner and Mrs. Blanche Uncle as captains of the two ticket selling teams.

Any person who formerly lived in Fairfield county, now living in Franklin county, may become a member by registering with the executive secretary the night of the banquet. A large crowd is expected to attend.

Head Man

Charlie Kent

Head man in the tenth annual Hilltop minstrel is Charlie Kent of the Kent Modern Market, 2756 Sullivant-av.

Charlie is president of the Hilltop Business Men's association and heads the minstrel committee. He has been active in the production of many past shows, last year having been in charge of the advertising section.

He is also president of the Columbus Council of Small Business Men of America.

sents his profession. There are four members representing the grocery business: Chet Herbert of Davis & Herbert, Frank Kent of Kent's Market, Walter Kraus of Distlehorst Market, and Bob Nichols who is associated with Krogers. The latter was among the four original members who still participate in the chorus. The others who were members of the organization at its beginning are Henry Jones, the Hilltop Record; Dr. C. H. Lose, dentist, who was the second president of the chorus, and C. H. Campbell of Campbell's Pharmacy, who has been secretary-treasurer of the chorus yearly since its origin.

Robert Jones of Jones Dry Cleaners, and A. H. Stroutman located on the north side represent the dry cleaning business, while Harry Swickard and L. D. Helyer are representatives of Moores & Ross Co. Seiller's department store contributes two members of the chorus in the persons of Bob Zellers and Howard Vawters, the latter being the youngest member. Vawters graduated from West high school in 1938. Zellers is the chorus librarian.

E. H. Gildersleeve is associated with the Capitol Finance Co., and is a past president of two years standing. Gildersleeve will sing first tenor in the male quartet booked for the minstrel. Singing baritone in the quartet is Paul Wichterman of the Record staff, and in the bass position, Anson Fox who is associated with the Sherman Vogue shop.

Chorus of 50

Men from all sections of Columbus have heard about the Hilltop male chorus and have requested to join, thus accounting for the membership of 50 which compose the group. The original chorus had a membership of eight. Rehearsals are attended by an average of 36 members every week and if a member fails to attend three consecutive rehearsals he is put on a waiting list. For any public performance a member must attend at least three out of five of the preceding performances.

Rapid Fire Show In One Section

• Jokes, Comedy, Song, Skits, Dances To Be Featured In Review Production

Next Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock the tenth annual Hilltop minstrel will be presented for the first of three nights, being concluded on Friday, Mar. 17 at the West high school auditorium. The performance, an anniversary edition, will include many highlights from previous shows as well as new arrangements by cast and chorus.

From the time the "Harbor Lights" are sighted by the Hilltop male chorus and the boys declare that they "Must See Annie Tonight," down to the last "All Ashore," the show is packed with hilarious comedy, outstanding musical numbers and surprise skits.

Hula Dancers On Program

The tenth annual Hilltop minstrel brings back for your enjoyment in its anniversary edition the outstanding comedy skit of 1931 in presenting the grass skirted sextet of business men in a hula dance. The dancers include Fred Sulzberger, Charlie Crues, Charlie Kent, Tom Roan, Gene Hayes and Clarence Story.

Costumes

John Riepenhoff

John Riepenhoff, 2532 Sullivant-av, is assisting with costumes and scenery for the tenth annual minstrel show to be presented next week. Riepenhoff is in the dry cleaning business.

Billy (at dinner): "Dad, are caterpillars good to eat?"

Dad (severely): "Haven't I told you never to mention such things at the table?"

Mother: "Why did you ask that question, Billy?"

Billy: "I just saw one on dad's lettuce, but it's gone now."

Reserved Seats On Sale March 13

Tickets for the tenth annual Hilltop minstrel can be obtained from any member of the Hilltop Business Men's association for 25 cents. Reserve seat tickets will be exchanged at the Shank & Saunders office, 2459 W. Broad-st, on or after Mar. 13 by paying an extra charge of 10 cents.

No tickets will be reserved until that date.

The minstrel is being presented this year in one complete act. Following the opening chorus, which will be a medley of "The Jolly Rogers," "Happy Days," "Harbor Lights" and "I Must See Annie Tonight," interlocutory remarks and introductions by Floyd Green, the show will get under way in earnest with a tap dance specialty by the Riepenhoffs — Anna Lou and Virginia, 2523 Sullivant-av.

Books for passage on the good ship "Minstrel" are: end solos by George Painter, Dick Becker and Leo Phillips; dance solo by Billy Bob Masters; "Ole Man River" by Howard Young; the "quintuplets," plus Mamma Dionne and Papa Dionne, Dr. DaFoe and nurse; dance number by Miss Marilyn Melick and Frazier Reese; one or two numbers by the special quartet; dance solo by Donald Boror; the male chorus singing the "Sailor's Chorus" and "The Bells of St. Mary's"; a breathtaking "hula dance" by the Hilltop's most "graceful" dancers; a dance specialty by the Goodchilds; a dance number by Libby Lee Czatt; "I Want To Be A Sailor," by Tommy Graham; accordion and xylophone numbers; dance by Edmund Montgomery, and the closing chorus—"Heigh Ho," "God Bless America" and "All Ashore."

Intermingled with the lilting banter of the end men, Billy Southworth, Dick Becker, Jack Thomas, Don Smith, Leo Phillips and George Painter, and with "Popeye" Sherwood running aimlessly around, this "trip to sea" promises to be an eventful and entertaining one.

H. G. Deems and C. Carlton Hartley are directing and performances will get under way at 8:15 on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, Mar. 15, 16 and 17.

Brown's Orch. To Play

The Jones' and the Browns will have it at the minstrel.

This year another commonly heard name, Brown, will be featured in the musical production of the show. Hal Brown of 156 Southampton-av will have charge of the orchestra and promises a good selection of hooters and tooters.

He conducts a popular dance orchestra and has played for many Hilltop social functions.

Directs Music

W. H. Jones

W. Hayden "Bill" Jones, director of the Hilltop chorus for the past 10 years, is again putting his boys through their paces for the tenth annual Hilltop minstrel. Jones is associated with the Jones Lumber Co., 57 Sylvan-av, and resides at 190 S. Roys-av.

Busy Secretary

C. H. Campbell

C. H. Campbell, secretary of the Hilltop Business Men's association, is one of the many important cogs in the machine which will present for the enjoyment of Hilltop residents, the tenth annual Hilltop minstrel to be given next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings in West high school auditorium.

Abundance of Show Material

What to select for the show?

That is the troubling problem that presents itself to the directors of the Hilltop minstrel.

There was a time a few years ago when it was a problem to find sufficient material to make up a good show. At that time the minstrel was not so well advertised and applicants were not so numerous. Today the opposite is true and of necessity many of the finer acts that are presented for approval cannot possibly be selected.

This year numerous persons from all over the community have suggested material for the show. The directors have made their selections based on their past experiences in determining what the Hilltop public likes.

Past Nine Shows Have Had Wide Variety of Talent

With L. E. Saunders as chairman and Harry M. Freeman directing, the Hilltop minstrel committee went into action for the first time in the winter of 1930. End men for this first show, which was given in the auditorium of West high school, were George Painter, Paul Hubbard, Dick Becker and C. Carlton Hartley.

Following its initial success the minstrel was again produced in 1931. It was directed by C. Carlton Hartley. The background, similar to that of 1939 version, was a sea-going liner, and was captained by Herbert Deems.

The third annual minstrel show was given before an audience of 2800. The committee included S. P. Edwards, chairman; Edith Robbins, Miss Ethel Greiser, Walter Reebes, Dr. W. L. Durflinger, W. A. Harris, Dr. E. E. McNamee, W. H. Jones, C. J. Kohn and C. C. Hartley. The olio numbers were by Harry Woods and Dick Becker in a black face comedy skit. Floyd Green was interlocutor and end men were Paul Hubbard, Dick Becker, Don Smith and Raymond Hill. Auxiliary ends were Ray Hauntz, Will Coulthard, C. Richards, Louis Oppenheim, L. E. Saunders and P. E. Todd. C. C. Hartley again directed.

The 1933 edition of the show featured a 20 minute concert by the Hilltop championship chorus which had just returned from the Eisteddfod in Jackson, having won many honors while there. H. G. Deems was general chairman, and end men were Leo Phillips, Paul Hubbard, George Painter and Dick Becker. Interlocutor was Floyd Green. Olio acts were presented by Betty Stauch, Lodabell Schmidt, Evalyn Keller, Jack Wiseman, Ed McCarthy, Jerry Phenie, Tony Reader, Bill Ogden, Opie Reed, Phyllis Rawlins, Mary Campbell, Billy Ewald, Buddy Webber and Helen Richter.

A colonial sitting was the background of the 1934 show which featured a patriotic pageant. This performance was directed by Tom Lewis. The outstanding feature of the program was the "Last Day of School" skit. "School Marm" Herb Deems held sway over "her" pupils who were 24 Hilltop business men and women. The "Happy Steppers," composed of Billy Ewald, Buddy Webber, Phyllis Rawlins and Mary Campbell, was one of the feature attractions.

The 1935 minstrel was again directed by Tom Lewis and presented on Apr. 4 and 5. During the first part "crew" and "passengers" sailed to Mandalay, following which act a radio broadcast was given. Ray G. Hauntz presided as master of ceremonies. C. J. Kohn was general chairman of the show and committees were headed by Ethel Greiser, music; Edith Robbins, orchestra; W. H. Jones, songs; F. F. Green, publicity; P. E. Todd, host; Dr. E. E. McNamee, property; C. G. Campbell, tickets; R. G. Hauntz, special advertising; C. J. Rice, olio acts; and R. D. Hastings, programs.

In 1936 Harry Barton directed the performance which was given on Feb. 27 and 28. The setting was a rural one with olio acts coming in the second part. Dr. J. H. Czatt was general chairman and committees were headed by C. J. Kohn, Dr. E. L. Durflinger, William Jones, Gene Todd, Carl Sherburn, L. E. Saunders and Miss Ethel Greiser.

Under the direction of Harry Barton and featuring the famed Hilltop chorus, the eighth Hilltop minstrel was given on Mar. 11 and 12, 1937. End men were Dick Becker and Harold Sinclair, with Floyd Green as interlocutor. A circus stunt featured the second part with Herbert Deems as ringmaster. The Dancer

Edmund Montgomery

Edmund Montgomery, 10, 846 S. Wayne-av, will be featured in the Hilltop minstrel, Mar. 15, 16 and 17, with a rhythm tap dance.

Edmund has been a student at Jimmy Rawlins studios for three years. He is in the fifth grade at John Burroughs school. The little fellow will perform for the first time in Hilltop minstrels.

"Skipper"

Floyd F. Green

Directing the antics of the endmen and other deck hands will be the Hilltop's smooth-working "Skipper" Green. For three nights he will head the HBMA minstrel as interlocutor.

In that capacity he has worked several of the past shows, a task that calls for no end of tact, quick thinking and stage personality. In each department Green has demonstrated his ability to be master of the situation for almost invariably one of the endmen will start off on the wrong "gag", necessitating a rapid change in the continuity of his previously arranged notes. Then, too, there's always the danger of missing the announcement of someone's number, but always the show "goes on".

NOTES AND NUBBINS

To believe that W. Hayden "Bill" Jones, for 10 years director of the Hilltop chorus, for 13 years director of the Hoge Memorial church choir and present director of the Miami Presbyterian church choir, would chuck music for GOLF! is almost impossible . . . but that's what he said . . . and we have witnesses . . . R. O. Harrison, first prexy of the Hilltop Business Men's association, is now president of the First National Bank in Springfield . . . Cliff Kohn was first president of the Hilltop chorus . . . The "newly discovered"—(quoting P. W. himself) member of the special quartet which will sing in the minstrel show next week, Paul Wichterman says that it took Hilltop business men four years to discover him . . . this in answer to why P. W. was not in the quartet before in consideration of his "great" talent . . . Those great artists of the hula who performed in the grass skirt comedy skit so popular in the second minstrel show presented in 1931 are being brought back for the entertainment of those attending the anniversary edition . . . Richard, 15-year-old son of "Bill" Jones is musically inclined . . . he plays the piano . . . Ray Boyer and Bill Birle will give out with one of their surprise acts at the show next week . . . Dr. C. H. Lose, dentist, composed the music for the opening chorus in the 1932 production . . . Floyd Green will act as interlocutor for the fifth time in this year's version of the Hilltop minstrel . . . Phyllis Rawlins, member of the popular "Happy Steppers" team which has appeared in numerous minstrel shows, is now holding an important position as dance instructor at her brother's studio . . . The Hilltop's "one and only "Galli-Curci" who created much ado in the 1934 edition of the minstrel by refusing interviews and so forth, turned out to be only Frankfurter (Jack) Shank . . . no reflection intended . . . Past presidents of the Hilltop Business Men's association include R. O. Harrison, George Painter, Herbert Deems, Gene Todd, C. H. Campbell, Floyd Green, C. J. Rice, Dr. John H. Czatt, Dr. W. M. Bates, C. Carlton Hartley . . . Copper Leo Phillips has tamed down considerably since last year's shooting fracas which gave him the moniker "Dead Eye Phillips" and will offer "Alabma" as his selection in the performance next week . . . a free for all started by George Painter and Tom Lewis preceding the 1935 edition of the minstrel caused a slight delay in production activities . . .

Spring thaws will be upon us soon and we hope our tires will last until the roads are repaired.

Speaking of letters to the editor, can anyone tell us the origin of painted finger nails or what is the height of an angel?

Depending upon whether you want to live in it, or sell it, you paint your house in bright colors, or glowing terms.

Follow truth as you see it but make room for the insight and vision of other men.

No Escape

"If you don't want to marry her, why on earth did you propose?" said one clubman to another.

"That's just it," said the other clubman. "She proposed to me."

"Why didn't you turn her down?"

"I couldn't. She worded her proposal so cleverly. She said: 'Will you marry me? Have you any objection?' Thus, whether I said yes or no, she had me."

"Not at all. You should have preserved a discreet silence."

"Just what I did, and she fell into my arms, murmuring that silence gave consent."

Useless Remarks

Where there's a will there's always a bunch of poor relatives.

"Oh, dear, I've missed you so much," and she raised the revolver and tried again.

College is a place where people with lots of crust spend lots of dough and have one long loaf.

Most of the girls who work in night clubs are sentimentalists. They save their old costumes by pasting them in a scrapbook.—Aggievator.

You've Seen 'Em

The storm was increasing in violence, and some of the deck fittings had already been swept overboard, when the captain decided to send up a signal of distress. But hardly had the rocket burst over the ship when a solemn-faced passenger stepped to the bridge.

"Captain," he said, "I'd be the last man on earth to cast a damper on anyone, but it seems to me that this is no time for letting off fireworks."

Not Guilty

A young woman stepped daintily aboard with a baby in her arms. As she hesitated before the steward, he bent over her and said, in his chivalrous way:

"First or second?"

"Oh!" said the girl, her face as red as a rose. "Oh, dear, neither—I'm only the nurse."

Teacher: "Honesty is the best policy."

Son of Insurance Agent: "You're wrong, teacher. Twenty-pay life is the best policy."

Aim high, but be sure you draw a bead on something beside blue sky.

Reception Head

Joseph M. Briggs

Joseph M. Briggs, of the Brigge Insurance and Rental agency, 2596 Sullivant-av, heads the reception committee for the tenth annual minstrel show.

Assisting him on the committee will be Harold F. Schmidt, Dr. Willard Durflinger and Dr. L. R. Leargan.

Ushers for the show will be Percy D. Miller, E. L. Skipper, Carl Turner, Dr. C. E. Brady, C. A. Cruea, Paul Rausch, Dr. T. S. Fox, William Metzmaier, Lou Rausch, Clyde Raymond, Dr. Evan Morgan, William Coulthard, Bob Neary, C. W. Minnix, Marvin Southworth, Zale Kemp and Noble Allen.

Magician

Jack Thomas

A black faced magician who will pull colored rabbits out of somewhere will be one of the main features of the Hilltop minstrel. Here he is, Jack Thomas, the Jack Frost sugar man, and a popular favorite of last year's show.

Distantly Related

Two chance acquaintances from Ireland were talking together.

"An' so your name is Riley," said one. "Are yes related to Tim?"

"Verry dishtantly," said the other. "Oi was me mother's first child, and Tim was the tenth."

Hall Family Has Reunion Last Sunday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Hall, 47 N. Warren-av, was the scene of a reunion last Sunday of the Hall family. Mr. Hall's brother, Rev. Arthur Hall of Pueblo, Colo., was present together with Mrs. Anna Weirich, Mrs. Ida Casey of Norwood and Miss Mary D. Hall, Columbus, sisters. It was the first time since the Hall family, originally from Gallipolis, had been broken up by marriages that five families could be present at a reunion. Rev. Hall was enroute to Boston where he was to attend a Good Will convention.

Other relatives present were Mrs. Nora Caldwell, Misses Mary and Francis Weirich of Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Apel, Mr. and Mrs. John Ricker, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Hall, Robert Hall, Nancy Hall, Doris Hall and Mrs. John Hall of Columbus.

HERE'S STAGE VIEW OF 1938 MINSTREL

Publicity

Curt Wilcox

Curt Wilcox, manager of the Hilltop Branch of the Ohio National Bank, is in charge of publicity for the show to be presented next week.

Wilcox resides at 2997 Palmetto-av.

Cause for Alarm

"Well," said the boss, who was a little cross that morning, "I'm glad to notice that you are arriving punctually now."

"Yes, sir. I've bought a parrot."

"A parrot? What on earth for? I told you to get an alarm clock."

"Yes; I did. But after a day or two I got used to it and it didn't wake me. So I got a parrot. And now when I go to bed I fix the alarm clock and put the parrot cage on top of it. What that bird says when the alarm goes off would wake up King Tut himself."

The Cad!

Sweet Young Gal (in parlor): "Mamma! Mamma! Come here and make Dick stop teasing me!"

Mamma (from stairway landing): "What is he doing dear?"

Sweet Young Gal: "He's sitting on the other end of the davenport."—Frivol.

Tough Ones, Too

"I do my ice skating in the winter on the same spot I do my horseback riding in the summer."

"Do people laugh when you fall down?"

"No, but the ice makes some funny cracks."

Creditors, Please Note

"It's remarkable how that singer can hold one of his notes for almost a minute."

"That's nothing — why, I held one of his for years."

Papa, Mama Dionne And Quins To Appear In Person

Probably no greater dramatic portrayal has ever been given than that which will be included as one of the many features of the Hilltop Business Men's tenth annual minstrel to be presented next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings in the West high school auditorium. The business men will offer for entertainment purposes a view of the famed Dionne quintuplets with Mamma and Papa Dionne played by Charlie Apel and M. W. Seiller, respectively. Tom Zelkoff will enact the role of that great humanitarian, Dr. Allen DaFoe.

You'll see in the roles of the "quins" Ray Coffman, William Watts, Lou Saunders, Curt Roberts and Alvie Nafzger.

Chorus

William J. Walker, engineer at the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. is a past president of two years standing.

Vice-president of the organization is John Aston.

Other members include Harry Decker and son, Ralph, the latter associated with a gas station on the south side; Wendell Griffith, who is with the Capital City Products Co.; Lawrence Dowdy; George Kennedy; Paul Nuss, associated with the Boyertown Burial Co., on South High-st.; Sam Russell, salesman; Norman Diehl, who makes "the most awful" faces while he sings; Eugene Barker, Bill Grace and L. Leonard.

C. L. Gardner and Morgan Hughes, both associated with the Jeffry Manufacturing Co., are members of the chorus as are John Davies, salesman of Bexley, J. R. Embrey, C. W. Humphreys and C. C. Marshall, who is termed "most faithful" of the group. Marshall lives outside the city limits and quite often walks in to rehearsals at the Legion home. There are H. F. Remington, a Pennsylvania shop man, Earl Woltz, George Wood, Tom Reed and J. G. Smith, who is associated with a downtown branch of a building and loan association.

Ethel Greiser Wright of the Hilltop School of Music, located at 2703 W. Broad-st, served five years as accompanist for the Hilltop Business Mens chorus.

Past Nine

The ninth annual minstrel was presented on Mar. 10 and 11, 1938, under the direction of Herbert Deems and C. Carlton Hartley. Floyd Green was interlocutor in the first part of the show. The second part, directed by Dr. J. H. Czatt and L. E. Saunders, carried Hilltoppers back 75 years in portraying a day in camp, with the setting a Civil war camp. Opening with a reveille and closing with taps, the act was tops in entertainment as Dr. A. C. Myers put his squad through drills amid old time jigs, magic and songs. Features to be remembered were the Melfi accordion band, Bob McGonigal and the "Ten Pretty Girls" and the Scottish Highlanders.

Eloquent Elmer

Jane (at one end of sofa to Elmer at the other end): "Elmer, do you think my eyes are beautiful?"

Bashful Elmer: "Uh huh!"

Jane: "And do you think my hair is the prettiest you ever saw?"

Elmer: "Gee whiz! I'll say."

Jane: "Do you think I have a perfect figure?"

Elmer: "Gosh! You bet!"

Jane: "And do you think my lips are like rubies?"

Elmer: "Oh boy! I'll say they are."

Jane: "Are my teeth like pearls?"

Elmer: "Uh huh!"

Jane: "Oh, Elmer, you say the cutest things."—The Yellow Strand.

Heads Sales

Ray Hauntz

In charge of advertising for the tenth annual minstrel is Ray G. Hauntz, prominent Hilltop grocer and president of the board of education. Hauntz has been outstanding in the drive for a super highway west of Columbus. He resides at 44 Binns-blvd.

Tickets

Jack Shank

"First come, first served." says Jack Shank, in charge of tickets for the tenth annual Hilltop minstrel to be presented next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings. Tickets are 25 cents per person and may be exchanged at the Shank & Saunders office, 2459 W. Broad-st, for reserved tickets next Monday and Tuesday.

Reserved seat tickets do not go on sale until Monday morning, Mar. 13. "The early birds get the worms."

The Goat

"What are you doing now?"

"I have found a new circus turn—the friendship of a lion and a goat."

"But aren't there quarrels between them?"

"Oh yes, they have their little quarrels, but then we buy a new goat."

A Request Number

At a smoker, one of the company, who was a little inebriated, insisted on singing songs. As he did not possess the slightest vocal ability, his efforts were not appreciated.

At last one listener cried: "Do you know 'The Long, Trail'?"

"Yes," replied the gratified would-be vocalist. "Shall I sing it?"

"No—hike it" was the unfeeling reply.

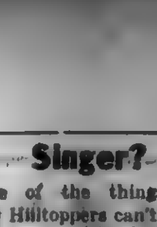
One of the things that many Hilltoppers can't understand is how Leo Phillips continues to be an end man in the minstrel from year to year. Some people have expressed the belief that, since Leo's solo number always comes near the close of the show the audience is merely applauding because the show is nearly over rather than in praise of Phillips' song number.



Leo Phillips

Hundreds of people have written to the RECORD asking that if Phillips is to sing this year he get another song. "Dinah" is getting rather old. Others have asked that if he does sing this number he kindly learn the words so he wont leave the entire job up to the chorus.

He's pictured here as he fiddles away while the Hilltop burns up because he's in the show again.

Properties

Dr. E. E. McNamee

In charge of costumes and properties for the tenth annual Hilltop minstrel show is Dr. E. E. McNamee, chiropractor, 2543 Sullivant-av. McNamee must see that all members of the minstrel cast are outfitted and properly groomed for their appearance at 8:15 o'clock next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings when the anniversary edition of the Hilltop minstrel will be presented.

Truthful Tommy

Little Tommy was asked his name and replied, "Bunny."

"Have you no other name?" asked the lady.

"No."

"What is your father's name?"

"Daddy."

"Has he no other name?"

"No."

"Then what does your mother call him?"

"Fathead!"

Deems, Hartley Direct Show

The tenth anniversary edition of the Hilltop minstrel is directed jointly by H. G. Deems, secretary of the First Federal Savings & Loan association, and C. Carlton Hartley, publisher of the Hilltop RECORD.

Both have had some part in practically every show since they originated 10 years ago. Deems was interlocutor for the second show and served in this capacity another year. Hartley was an end man in the show two years and directed the show three years.

Last year's show was directed by Deems and Hartley.

Plenty of Kick in This

The following, reputedly by a colored schoolboy in Georgia, won a prize as a complete story in the fewest words:

A mule in a barnyard, lazy and slick;
A boy with a pin on the end of a stick
Slips in behind him as still as a mouse—
Crepe on the door of the little boy's house.

Hiding Her Light

Mrs. Smith was vigorously powdering her face before going out.

"Why do you go to all that trouble?" asked Smith, who was waiting impatiently.

"Modesty, my dear," was the reply.

"Modesty?"

"Yes, I've no desire to shine in public."

Facing the Facts

Madam Ganna Walska, defending cosmetics, said at a dinner party in Chicago:

"I am in sympathy with the young woman whose grandmother said to her:

"'Helen, Helen, why do you insist on using makeup?'

"And Helen very modestly and truthfully answered:

"'Because, grandma, I haven't the face to go without it.'"

Kate Kats

Sue: "I refused to marry Harry two months ago, and he has been hitting up the booze ever since."

Kate: "Well, I call that carrying a celebration too far."

Poor Guess

Frost: "Where do jellyfish get their jelly?"

Prost: "From ocean currents, I guess."

Strange Power

"Why do you admire that preacher so much?"

"Any man who can keep a flock of women quiet an hour deserves admiration."

Short Story

Are you superstitious? Beware—for some unforseen circumstance heralded by some sign or omen has a significant meaning. Anyhow, the early settlers believed in them sincerely—at least many of them. Perhaps we have not yet outgrown many of these. Let's take inventory of superstitions more than a century old in Franklin county. If a whippoorwill perched near the cabin uttering his weird sound, it forecasts a death in the family. If the house dog sat upon his haunches and crawled stealthily toward the door or across the threshold it indicated that a coffin would soon be taken out of the house; domestic animals which were born with deformities, were supposed to prophesy a death in the family; the sundog, in the margin of broken clouds, meant a coming misfortune of some kind; any meteoric showers were considered a day of judgment was at hand and all should make preparations accordingly; the jack-o-lantern was an evil omen; comets were harbinger of war—the comet of 1811 heralded the War of 1812 and the one in 1843 announced the War of 1846 with Mexico.

Dreams were indications of some abnormality. To dream of bees swarming was a sign of illness; to dream that bees had swarmed away was a sign of financial reverses; to dream of fire foreboded anger; to dream of a snake, forewarned one of the dangers of enemies; and to dream of a wedding meant a funeral would soon be held. We might continue the list indefinitely but the above are sufficient to show the extent of superstition among our forefathers.

Not Pat?

"Does this package belong to you? The name is obliterated."

"No, that isn't my package. My name is O'Brien."—Yellow Jacket.

Sick

Physics prof: "Is heat always generated when two bodies come together?"

Student: "No, sir. I hit a guy yesterday and he knocked me cold."—Ohio State Sun Dial.

Her Reasons

He: "Why didn't you answer my letter?"

She: "I didn't get it, and besides I didn't like some of the things you said in it."

End Man!

For those people who are not acquainted with Ferdinand, the bull, a treat is in store at the Hilltop minstrel. George Painter, Sullivant Ave grocer, will take Ferdinand in hand next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings and do a little ditty in song style. He's one of the minstrel end men.

"You can't see Mr. Jones," said the sharp-faced, sharp-tongued woman to the political canvasser at the door.

"But madam, I merely wish to find out what party he belongs to."

"Well, then, take a good look at me. I'm the party he belongs to."

The Struggle

Gripping his instrument in his powerful fingers, the dentist made a long upward pull. Nothing happened. Compressing his lips, he redoubled his efforts. Again he was unsuccessful.

With a grunt of annoyance, the dentist tightened his hold on the inanimate shoulder in his grasp, and heaved and tugged till the veins knotted prominently on his temples and his brow dampened with perspiration.

Then, suddenly, when he was on the verge of exhaustion, his efforts were rewarded. There was a loud plopping sound that was music to his ears—and out it came.

"Phew!" exclaimed the dentist, mopping his brow. "That was a hard one. Next time I'll get screw tops instead of these confounded corks!"

Coyle For City Auditor

In a further desire to take politics out of the way of obliterating efficiency in public office and more especially in the city hall, we'd like to see Avard "Chub" Coyle elected to the job of city auditor in the election this fall.

And we sincerely believe, if he will announce his candidacy at this time, he is likely to do that very thing.

Coyle, a Hilltopper, living at 251 Nashoba-av, has never been active in politics. Yet he does know the office he might seek, since he has been employed in it for the past 17 years and knows it from A to Z.

He is without a doubt the best qualified man for the post.

Had there been no such thing as "invisible government" by a political leader, and had city council been truly interested in doing that thing which was best for Columbus it would have appointed Coyle to the auditor's job recently upon the death of Auditor Davies.

"Chub", as he is commonly known in this community and throughout the city, has friends galore, weve found. And furthermore they are unanimous in saying that he is the man for this important city job if he will but go to the trouble of being a candidate for the job and run the gauntlet at an election.

We'd like to see him make such an announcement . . . and soon. How about it, Mr. Coyle?

For Mayor

Our friend Mike Desmond of the Columbus Citizen went into details Sunday to state what a good mayoralty candidate Ray G. Hauntz would make.

We've known Ray to be possible mayoralty timber for some time and have known of his popularity as a vote getter.

Floyd Green, another Hilltopper, who has previously served the city as a councilman for four years, will definitely be a candidate for mayor this year.

With two such men available as candidates we feel most certain that one of them can be elected. However, we are of the opinion that the entry of both men in the race will make a definite wedge for Mr. Gessaman to get back into the office, whereas either one of the Hilltoppers, alone, stands a very good chance to nose him out and be elected in the fall.

Haunts Will Serve Where Hilltop Says

Ray Hauntz, when contacted this week, had this to say: "I have no personal desires for the office of mayor or councilman. I do feel that I owe a debt of gratitude to this community for my success in business and in public life. Therefore, I will abide by the wishes of the Hilltop people and will determine my actions by their desires, bearing in mind that if I should be a candidate for either office I will seek to serve all sections of the city equally well."

Hauntz has indicated that he will not be a candidate for re-election to the school board. He has served that group for eight years.

Auditors Lead In Tourney

Thatcher Auditors from Hi-Goodale took over undisputed leadership in the city bowling tournament now in its third week of play at the Hilltop Recreation Bowling alleys when they rolled a 2974. The Sunday event in which they participated saw 31 teams take to the alleys in addition to singles and individual competition.

Milt Reese with games of 198, 232 and 214 was a big factor in his team's play. Mike Cyphers stepped into the lead in the singles with a neat 641. Boyd Roscoe went into a tie for second with Henry Haye.

Play will be resumed today in the city-wide bowling event with prospects bright for high scores this week-end.

Green To Seek Mayor's Post

Formal Announcement of Candidacy Is Expected In Short Time

Floyd F. Green, 3046 Crescent-dr, will be a candidate for mayor of Columbus in the primaries this year.

While no public announcement has been made by Green yet the RECORD is reliably informed that he will be a candidate and will make a formal announcement within a short time.

Green was a candidate for mayor in 1931. He was defeated that year but was again considered for the job when the Republican convention was held in 1935 but was willing to step out of the picture in order to prevent a break in the Republican ranks.

He was later promised the job of director of public service in the city hall under Mayor Gessaman but never took that office due to a "squeese play" in which he was left out on a limb.

While numerous men have been mentioned in connection with the candidacy is the coming campaign Green is generally conceded to be Mr. Gessaman's strongest contender for the job on the Republican slate. It is thought he will be able to poll a large Republican vote, and a good representation from the independents and Democrats, since the race is wide open on the non-partisan ballot.

Although Green has made no formal statement he has intimated that he will be a candidate for the job regardless of who enters the race. It is believed he has been looking forward to this year as his best opportunity to enter the city hall as mayor.

Green served in city council from 1926 to 1932.

For Best Representation

An Editorial

The Hilltop community deserves the best in representation in city government. It can have the best.

This week comes the announcement that Floyd F. Green will be a candidate for mayor at the coming election.

In recent weeks The Hilltop Record has suggested that Ray Hauntz be a candidate for city council. Previous to this suggestion the Record had determined that Hauntz had all the qualifications that we had previously outlined for a candidate for mayor or councilman.

Hauntz has since been mentioned as a possible candidate for mayor and reports are that the suggestion has been enthusiastically received by various groups and individuals from all over the city.

We believe the next mayor, a councilman, a member of the board of education, and the city auditor should come from the Hilltop. We believe the proper local men are available to serve the city better than can any other candidates that have been suggested for these various jobs.

There should be a unified effort on the part of Hilltop people to get the proper men for these offices.

We are therefore asking for an expression of opinion of people of this community as to whom these candidates shall be. It is important that the public select their candidates rather than wait and take the lesser of several evils at election time. Who do you think would best serve in these capacities? Write in today with your suggestions. Let's present a unified program for the good of the Hilltop as well as for the city as a whole and without political strings attached.

50 Players Respond To Call

Veteran Material Makes Prospects Bright At West

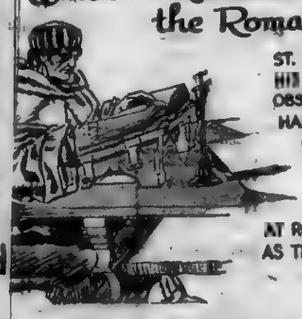
With only two key positions lacking veterans and prospects bright for a good season, Coach George Williams, headman of Buckaroo baseballers, issued the first call for pitchers and catchers last Friday at West high school and was met by some 50 candidates in response to the call.

Harry Riggs and Frank Richey, ace twirlers on last year's team, are both now numbered among the alumni. Richey was also an accomplished initial sacker and played that position when Riggs was on the mound.

Jake Richards, up from West Junior and Barrett, who saw little service with the varsity mound corps last season, are the best of the pitching lot at present. Both have had experience which is a point in any pitcher's favor.

Blackstone, last year's catcher, and Bill Albert, another West Junior star, are leading the parade among the back stoppers with the latter most likely to see service the most during the coming campaign. Albert is hailed as an up-and-coming star although his experience is inferior to that of Blackstone.

Link vs. Rogers



Ralph Link, a regular in his sophomore year but who didn't play at all last season, will battle with Paul Rogers, who held down the hot-corner last year, for the position. Ned Bell played a lot of short-stop last season while Carter took care of the second base duties.

Made vacant by the graduation of Richey, the first baseman's job is wide open. Bill Mac studied under Richey last season and he, along with Bud Ma[illegible] well, former West Junior star, will vie for those honors.

Least of Williams worries at present is the outfield. Three of the starting nine last season in every contest, this trio will probably again patrol the outer limits of the diamond. The diminutive Distlehorst will probably cover the left field sector, Ea[illegible]er will cavort in center and Co[illegible]burn will work in right.

Coach Williams is not running around shouting for joy, however. If the pitchers go through; if the squad is not affected by eligibility rules—a few more "ifs" thrown in—the Cowboys might have a [illegible] season.

St. Aloysius newly crowned 1939 champions were honored with three first team selections in the boys west church league. Those making the first team are Paul Fulton, forward, of Hoge Memorial; Robert Brannigan, forward, of St. Aloysius; Clifford Morgan, forward, of St. Aloysius; Robert Whetstone, center, of Burgess Avenue U. B.; Herman Mitchell, guard, West Park No. 1; Robert Dorcey, guard, of Holy Family; and Robert Paschal, guard, of St. Aloysius.

Those on the second team are Robert Miller, forward, of Glenwood M. E.; Bud Hoskins, forward, of Highland Avenue Friends; Joe Bendetti, forward, of Holy Family; William Curtiss, center, of Hoge Memorial; William Hart, guard, of Highland Avenue Friends; Edward McFadden, guard, of Hoge Memorial; and Richard Gray, guard, of West Park No. 1.

Hoge Winner

Monday evening Hoge Memorial's scarlet and gray of the girls league defeated St. Aloysius in one of the hardest fought games of the season, making a tie for the championship of Class A. The contest was a nip and tuck affair until the final minutes when the defending champions gained a 24-17 lead only to see a last minute Irish rally stopped short by the final whistle.

Steward played a brilliant game for the Irish tallying 14 points. B. Johnston led the defending champions offensive with 13 points.

Burgess Avenue U. B. defeated Westgate Evangelical by a 22-17 victory, also making a tie for the class B title. Scott and Miller tallied the most points for Burgess and Scoles for Westgate Evangelical.

The two final games will be played Monday evening at the shelter house as follows: Burgess Avenue U. B. vs. Westgate Evangelical for class B title. Hoge Memorial vs. St. Aloysius for the class A title.

West High Play Wins City Honors

The West high play, "The Boor," given by Marge Platt, Byron Farwell and Don Bachman, won the city district contest competing with North and Central high schools. The play will be entered in the state contest with the same students taking part.

"The Boor" is a one-act comedy written by a prominent Russian author and was chosen by Roy Bowen, dramatics instructor, to be enacted by West students. The play was first presented in the school auditorium on Mar. 7.

A patriotic celebration must be planned at least 30 days in advance. It takes that long for Japan to prepare the souvenirs.—Robert Quillen, Detroit Free Press.

Spears Home To Add New Services

A complete service program is getting under way at the Spear's Funeral home, 2693 W. Broad-st, according to Jerry Spears, owner of the home. The entire building previously used as a residence in addition to the funeral facilities will be utilized. Complete remodeling and redecorating will be carried out throughout the building.

High spot of the new service will be a 24-hour attendant plan whereby the building will be lighted and open for business day and night with men on duty at all times. The six rooms of the second floor will be converted in display rooms, lounges and restrooms and family rooms where families may remain all night if they desire.

Chapel facilities will be greatly enlarged providing sufficient space for two services to be conducted at the same time without distraction or common entrance to the building. Elevator service will be available to all parts of the building.

Too Involved

Snooks (fiercely)—Do you mean to call me a liar, sir?

Brooks—That is the construction which suggests itself in connection with the observation I addressed to you.

Snooks (mollified)—All right. I accept your apology. But I allow no man to insult me.

The vicar had just returned from a visit abroad, and a big crowd of his parishioners had collected to welcome him. Beaming with pleasure, the vicar got up to speak.

"My dear friends," he started, "I will not call you ladies and gentlemen, because I know you too well."

NEW STANDARDS FOR SOFT DIETS

Next time someone in your family is a bit under the weather and the doctor recommends a soft diet, don't despair of the cooking problem. It isn't as if you had to go out in the kitchen and cook mountains of vegetables just to get a small dishful of strained foods anymore. Not with thirteen different kinds of fine strained foods all ready for you at your grocer's.

These prepared strained foods are every bit as good for adult fare as they are for infant feeding. And they are attractive and appealing to grown folks, too. There are three different kinds of fruits packed in tins now ready for your special diet — delicate pears and pineapple — rich, velvet-smooth strained prunes—tart, lively apricots and apple sauces. Then there are seven different varieties of strained vegetables, too — bright colored carrots — lusty, full-flavored spinach — tomatoes—garden-fresh peas—green beans— and an appetizing blend of strained mixed greens. For soups, you can have a mixed vegetable soup—or a meaty flavored beef and liver soup—and there is also a specially fine cereal made of a mixture of wheat hearts, farina, whole wheat and oats.

There now, with all those to choose from, you should have no trouble at all making out an interesting and appetizing diet. Then when your patient is on the mend, you can take these very same strained foods—blend them with other ingredients and turn out special fancy fare your patient is sure to relish. An Apricot Spanish Cream Parfait, for instance, that is so ineffably tender and smooth it melts away in your mouth—a tasty Molded Tomato and Consommé Salad with cottage cheese topping for main course eating, or a Baked Carrot Ring filled with a creamed soft vegetable, or a savory serving of Scrambled Eggs merged with strained tomatoes to give them extra tip and zing. Every one of these dishes is sure to find favor with your patient when you prepare them so:

APRICOT SPANISH CREAM PARFAIT

Soak—
2 tablespoons plain gelatin in—
½ cup milk.
Scald—
2½ cups milk.
Add to gelatin, stirring until gelatin is dissolved.
Combine—
3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
½ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla.
Add slowly to milk and gelatin. Cool.
Beat until stiff—
3 egg whites.
Fold into custard mixture. Chill until firm, whipping occasionally while congealing to make a fluffy dessert.
Combine, blending thoroughly—
2 cans strained apricots and apple sauce
4 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons light corn syrup or sugar.
Place gelatin mixture and the apricot sauce alternately in tall parfait glasses. (Serves 6.)

MOLDED TOMATO AND CONSOMME SALAD

Soak for 5 minutes—
1½ tablespoons plain gelatin in—
¼ cup cold water.
Add, stirring until dissolved—
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup water or consommé heated to boiling point.
Add, blending well—
2 tablespoons pure cider vinegar
1 can strained tomatoes.
Chill. Unmold. Top with cottage cheese and garnish with parsley. (Serves 3.)

BAKED CARROT RING

Beat with fork—
1 egg.
Add, combining thoroughly—
1 can strained carrots
1 tablespoon butter, melted
½ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon milk.

Pour into buttered individual ring molds, set in pan of warm water and bake in a slow oven (325° F.) 40 to 45 minutes. Unmold. Fill center with a creamed soft vegetable or a strained vegetable. Serve hot. (Serves 3.)

SCRAMBLED EGGS

Beat slightly—
2 eggs.
Add and blend thoroughly—
2 tablespoons strained tomatoes
½ teaspoon salt.

McConnell, Painter To Enter Kent Wrestling Tourney

Jack McConnell and George Painter, city champions in the 175-pound class and the 165-pound class respectively, will trek to Kent this week-end to participate in the state wrestling meet to be held at Kent State college starting today and continuing through Saturday afternoon and evening. Coach George Collins will accompany the two West high stalwarts to the event.

McConnell and Painter were the only first place winners for the Buckaroos in the city meet held last Wednesday afternoon, but Cliff Lerum, Hartung and McKenna gained second place positions in the finals. Lerum wrestled in the 185-pound class, Hartung in the 105-pound group and McKenna mixed with the 135-pounders.

Third place winners for the Bucks included Payne in the 145-pound class, James Ham among the 125-pounders and Carl Glade in the 155-pound class.

In the team race West scored 25 points to take third place behind South and East with 39 and 34 points respectively. Central brought up the rear with two points.

Neglect

"Young man," said the stern mother, "I saw you in the park with my daughter."

"Yes," was the reply.

"I saw you kiss my daughter."

"Yes."

"Have you nothing to say?"

"Yes. If you can't look after your daughter better, you'd better let me."

Storage stocks of butter remain high. Milk production on Dec. 1 was about five per cent greater than at the same time in 1937. The proportion of cows in milk as compared with total numbers is higher than in years preceding 1937.

Milk Leads Farm Cash Income

The rising tide of farm cash from milk has added nearly $440,000,000 to the dairy farmers' income since the low of 1933. Figures on the milk cans show total farm cash income for each year in millions of dollars.

MILK led all products as the largest single source of farm cash income in 1938 with a total of $1,430,000,000. This was only 6.5 per cent less than the 1937 figure of $1,530,000,000 according to the Milk Industry Foundation and was $440,000,000 greater than the low of 1933.

"All farm cash income dropped 12.9 per cent, government reports show, from $8,398,000,000 in 1937 to $7,150,000,000 in 1938, excluding government payments," the statement said.

"These figures show the importance of milk as a mainstay of farm purchasing power. They are particularly impressive because milk production was estimated to be from 4 to 5 per cent greater during the year and sales of fluid milk were down approximately 4½ per cent from 1937.

"Milk delivered to homes and stores in bottles, which brings farmers the highest price, probably would have suffered greater consumption declines but for determined efforts by milk distributors to push sales.

"Cash income from milk is also important as it is chiefly cash paid monthly to farmers," the Foundation points out, "and this is cash that is used in the current purchases of merchandise and supplies.

"The milk industry is a huge buyer and milk distributors and producers in many markets account for one of the largest single outlays for cars and trucks, feed, oil, gas, tires, groceries and other supplies."

Round About The Hilltop

"SOUTH SEA GIGALO" CHARLIE KENT kicked so high doing the hula hula dance for the Hilltop Minstrel that he now walks around with a limp. We'd say it's nothing but—"over enthusiasm" . . . Hat's off to the WEST HIGH OCCIDENT STAFF. 'Tis heard the school still remains in the lead for the number of subscribers to the paper, and that's including all high schools in the city . . . The living room suite recently purchased by ANNA LEE GUSLER and "KENNY" of MILLIKIN MARKET suggests that it won't be long now . . .

Tit for Tat. ALBERTA WILLIAMS, West high grad of '33, is living in San Diego, California. The weather she says is really cold, it isn't always warm and sunny, and there ain't so many sailors she feels like an "Old Salt" herself . . .

SAMMY SNYDER, who is studying to be a pharmacist at OSU, takes Tuesday nights off . . . The model plane RAY PERCY completed last Saturday was taken through a door that was six inches narrowed than the wings on the plane—yes, it did demolish it . . . FRED WILHELM JR. is recovering at home from an operation at the University hospital . . .

Flashes and Flashes! Rumor hath it that JEAN TARLETON'S sorority will put her up for queen this year—not such a bad idea . . . "BUDDING" DON NOLAN will soon be strutting around in a new OSU sweater which he will receive for winning the intramural and freshman class championship in wrestling—could it be that spring is approaching with all its vim and vigor . . .

Personals of way back. "I first remember a small one room school house, just north of the present site of the Westmont theatre," says MRS. CLARA SKIPPER, who has been a resident of the Hilltop for 60 years. She says that's when reading, writing, arithmetic and grammar were taught to all . . .

MARY "SMILING" SCOTT'S best weakness is bashfulness . . . Expect WALLY BONNELL will remember that four can't ride in the front seat of his Plymouth coupe—especially when he sees a ticket . . .

The green that is being displayed so freely on passersby is just a reminder of St. Patrick's Day, so if you haven't kissed the Blarney stone or worn your best suit of green, now's the time to do it.

EVANGELIST

Veteran Hilltop Pastor Has 22d Anniversary

By Paul Wichterman

A week of special services starting at the Oakley Avenue Baptist church tonight will pay tribute to the "dean of Hilltop pastors," Rev. Jacob R. Ashburn jr., who will be completing his twenty-second year as minister of that church. Fellow pastors from several central Ohio and West Virginia colored churches will have parts on the programs arranged for the week.

Familiar to many in the community as a quiet, unassuming individual, he is loved by his pastorate and fellow churchmen as a faithful and devoted minister. He not only holds the honor of being the oldest Hilltop pastor (from the point of years of service) but is also the oldest colored pastor of the Baptist church in Columbus.

Rev. C. E. Haworth, president of the Hilltop Ministerial association and pastor of the Highland Avenue Friends church, gave the following statement to the RECORD in connection with the anniversary celebration:

"I have felt it a great privilege to have the fellowship of Rev. Ashburn for several years. He always cooperates with others in anything that helps in the lifting of the moral and spiritual conditions of the community. His ministry is of the highest type. He is doing a great service for his people on the Hilltop."

Rev. Ashburn has been president of the Hilltop Ministerial association and and for the past seven years he has served as president of the Eastern Union association. He is a past president of the Baptist Ministerial alliance and has acted as treasurer for the Ohio Baptist General association for 14 years.

Social Worker

He is an active social worker and is at present a member of the board of the Urban league. Every year he personally visits the 350 enrolled members of his church, one of the largest and most active in Ohio.

Rev. Ashburn was educated in the Virginia seminary. Later he graduated from Hillsdale college in Michigan and then from Mt. Union college at Alliance. He served for a time as an instructor at the Virginia school. He is recognized as a student of the Bible and can quote long passages of scripture from memory.

Rev. and Mrs. Ashburn and their two sons and daughter live at 178 S. Oakley-av. His wife is an ardent church worker. The daughter, Evelyn, is a graduate of West high school and at present a student at Ohio State university where she is specializing in music.

Reginald, the oldest son, is a student at West high while Julian is enrolled in West Junior high school.

Church Contest To Close Wednesday

Entries for the church essay contest sponsored by the Hilltop Ministerial association must be in before Mar. 23. The subject chosen by the sponsors is "The Importance of the Church in the Community," and is open to persons of school age.

The contestants must not exceed 500 words on the topic. It must bear the name of essayist, grade in school and church affiliation or preference. All entries are to be mailed to the CHURCH ESSAY CONTEST, The Hilltop RECORD, 14 S. Oakley-av.

West Side Board Seeks Members

The West Side Board of Trade announced last Tuesday the beginnign of a new membership campaign. Harry A. Mock, 986 W. Broad-st, secretary of the board, said their aim was to promote civic and business welfare on the West Side. Those desiring to join may do so by contacting the secretary or one of the members.

The number of cars loaded with revenue freight in 1938 was 19 per cent less than 1937.

VFW To Organize Bicycle Safety Club On The Hilltop

A bicycle safety club for the boys and girls of the Hilltop and lower West Side is to be launched in the near future by Westway post No. 3441, Veterans of Foreign Wars, located at 2393½ W. Broad-st.

J. Cecil Suver, 47 N. Harris-av, is chairman of the committee to coordinate effective plans for the "bicycle safety club."

Chairman Suver states, "There is a real need in educating youthful riders in the matter of safety and that the bicycle rider of today properly trained in safety and traffic regulations will be the careful auto driver or pedestrian of tomorrow."

It is planned to have every youngster in the community to register for membership and to furnish each member with a reflector emblem to place on his "bike" showing his register number and that he is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars bicycle safety club. As the club progresses it is planned to have the youngsters elect their own club officers and operate the meetings themselves under the competent tutorage of the committee in charge of the bicycle safety campaign.

Opening registration date will be announced shortly.

Complete In Service Features

REDECORATING

REMODELING

We are remodeling our building to be used entirely for business purposes. There will be a night staff on duty to render service and meet the demands of 24-hour responsibility. Doors will remain open and building will be lighted night and day with a man in charge at all times.

Family rooms with complete privacy will be available on our second floor where families may remain all night near their loved ones when they desire.

Ladies lounge and rest room with telephone service and modern conveniences a feature so lacking in funeral parlors. Six rooms on the second floor will be turned into family rooms, display rooms, lounge and rest rooms.

Two display rooms with furnishings properly grouped and prices of complete service plainly marked.

A contact system has been set up to arrange service, contact relatives or otherwise assist in handling services in distant cities.

Our building will be completely redecorated with modern lighting system—proper ventilation—and elevator service.

Just recently we installed a beautiful Everett Organ in our chapel.

Chapel space will be greatly enlarged to provide facilities for conducting two services at the same time without distraction, noise or common entrance to building.

We offer straight ambulance service. It is the only ambulance in the community that is not used as a hearse.

The attendants are young men of the proper size who have been residents of the Hilltop for 25 years and are graduates of the special Red Cross Training School. They will be wearing clean new uniforms and will be available for emergency duty 24 hours a day.

Our ambulance is equipped with such modern conveniences necessary to meet the demands in removing the sick and afflicted to or from the hospitals or greater distances.

Our fleet of cars is modern. The hearse is the new three-way type—permitting loading from the end or either side. We operate two Packard limousines.

We have available wheel chairs, fracture beds, crutches and other equipment needed for invalids.

In fact the Spears Funeral Home must be a service center offering to our community that which is equal to the best in any community.

Pupils Present Safety Plays

A safety program was presented by the John Burroughs Parent-Teacher association at its regular monthly meeting held Mar. 14 in the school auditorium.

Pupils of grades four, five and six presented playlets on safety at the request of J. W. Cooper, chairman of the safety committee of the association. The fourth grade class presented "Safety in the Home"; fifth grade, "Safety in the Street," and the sixth grade "Safety in John Burroughs school."

Coyle Is Candidate For City Auditor

Hilltopper Will Enter Primary For City Post

Avard R. Coyle, 251 Nashoba-av, will be a candidate for city auditor in the coming primaries, he announced today.

Coyle, a resident of Columbus all his life, is 42, married and has one son, William, 11. He has lived on the Hilltop since 1914.

He is at present a deputy in the city auditor's office. He was first employed in this office in 1922, was appointed a deputy in 1925, appointed an accountant under Sam Willis in 1935 and was reappointed a deputy in 1936 by John Davies.

He is a member of West Gate lodge F. & A. M., Scottish Rite, Shrine, past commander of Columbus post No. 82 of American legion, member of Forty and Eight, third vice chairman of the Franklin county council of American legion, past president of the Municipal Employees association, member of Buckeye Republican club, War Veterans Republican club and 37th Division Veterans association.

He enlisted in troop B, Ohio National Guard in 1917 and was mustered into service in the 136 field artillery, 37th division.

The Minstrel, An Institution

Another Hilltop Minstrel has been presented for public approval.

That the show was a success in practically every respect is evidenced by the fact that a record attendance was present and that comments since the show have generally been to the effect that it was well liked and a really worthwhile bit of entertainment.

It is a pleasure to work with such a group of individuals in a production of this kind. The Hilltop Minstrel is an institution in itself, and each year its presentation becomes simpler, and the shows are generally better.

Nearly everyone in the show knows the duties thereof and more like professionals than amateurs they proceed to give the show their hearty cooperation and make it the success it is.

All who gave of their time and efforts so generously are to be commended and there were so many it would be out of place to mention them individually.

Each year after the show is over all who participate in it comment that they are glad it is over and that they would never give it so much time another year. But even before the drop of the last curtain ideas and plans for another show are in the making, and secretly, practically every man of the group knows he will be among the first to volunteer his service a year later.

Yes, sir, the Hilltop Minstrel is an institution!

On The Local Political Scene

One week closer the election of a mayor and councilmen and other public officials brings nothing much of interest in the way of news on the local political scene.

Several Hilltoppers responded to the Record request of last week stating their preference for mayor and a candidate for council and the school board. More letters are being received each day however and it is hardly fair at this time to judge the temperature of the Hilltop toward the local candidates based on the response received to date.

Prominently mentioned for the school board post is Robert Draper, 74 N. Roys-av. Draper, an attorney, is well qualified for the post by virtue of his education and interest in community welfare. We believe the Hilltop and the city at large would make no mistake in urging Draper to seek this position.

Last week we stated our belief that Avard R. Coyle was best qualified for the position of city auditor. Today Mr. Coyle is announcing he will seek that post. His past record of 17 years of service to the city is worthy of investigation by those who desire to cast their vote for efficiency in city government.

Car Man Robbed And Shot

Condition of Robert L. Hall, 364 S. Eureka-av, motorman for the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co., who was shot in the abdomen by a negro while changing the trolley on a Long-Livingston street car Wednesday evening, was described as "fairly good" by attaches at Grant hospital, it was learned by the RECORD.

The bullet penetrated the abdomen on the right side and physicians at the hospital operated Thursday morning to remove it. The negro reached for the money-changer while standing on the car step, and fired point-blank at Hall.

Hall slumped in his seat after he was shot while residents of the neighborhood called the police. Immediately following the shooting the negro turned and fled. The motorman apparently did not realize the robbers intention until the money-changer was grabbed from his hand.

Ingram Rites Held Wed.

Burial rites were conducted Wednesday for Mrs. Esther Speed Ingram, member of a pioneer family of Columbus, and well known throughout the Hilltop. Nearing her 77th birthday Mrs. Ingram resided with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude C. Waltermire, 908 Wiltshire-rd. Death occurred at University hospital after nine weeks' illness of pneumonia.

She was a daughter of the late Mrs. James Speed, who owned and operated old Cadwalder House, which stood on the present site of the Atlas building.

Besides Mrs. Waltermire, she leaves also three other daughters, Mrs. Ross F. Birey of 926 S. Westgate-av, Mrs. C. A. Thomas of 97 King-av, and Miss Naomi L. Ingram, a teacher in Greene county; four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Hoge To Honor Pastor

Members and friends of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian church will pay tribute to their departing pastor, Rev. H. C. Hutchinson, when they hold a reception and farewell party for Rev. and Mrs. Hutchinson at the church on next Friday evening, Mar. 31.

Having served the church as its pastor during the past 12 years Rev. Hutchinson will retire from the active ministry at that time. Sunday morning he will hold his final communion service at 10:30. At that time more than 30 new members are expected to be received into the church. A communicants class of 18 will be present.

At the farewell party a short program will be presented. Members of the church will give brief talks and a number of musical selections will be heard. Representatives of the Hilltop Ministerial association and the Columbus Presbytery will be present.

During his stay at the local church Rev. Hutchinson was responsible for establishing 45 mission Sunday schools throughout this section. His ministry saw the addition of over 700 new members during the 12 year period. He has been in the ministry 30 years.

Painter's Market Is Remodeled

A program of remodeling and redecorating is taking place at Painters Market No. 2, Warren and Sullivant-av, this week as walls are being refinished and a general rearrangement of floor space is being carried out.

Floor displays have been displaced by counters where customers may serve themselves or have the services of clerks if they desire. New counters are finished in green to match with other painted effects in the store.

VFW Organize Safety Club

Membership in the recently organized "Bicycle Safety Club" of the Westway post No. 3441, Veterans of Foreign Wars, 2393½ W. Broad-st, will be available to all boys and girls of the west side Saturday, Apr. 1. Registration office will be open from 1:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m. Apr. 1 and from 4:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m. on week days at post headquarters.

Each youngster becoming a member of the Bicycle Safety club will receive a reflector emblem for his "bike" bearing the name of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Bicycle Safety club and his enrollment number. When sufficient members have been enrolled the boys and girls will be given an opportunity of selecting their club officers such as cycle president, cycle captain, cycle lieutenant, etc. The meeting will be supervised by the safety committee of the Westway post.

J. Cecil Suver, chairman of the safety club promotion said today —"The Veterans of Foreign Wars Safety club program was created as a new junior activity as a result of Westway post's recognition of the problems involved in the growing popularity of bicycle riding. The organization of bicyclists into a group for the purpose of protecting themselves from traffic hazards already has resulted in a noticeable decline in this type of accident in many communities."

Adults interested in furthering the bicycle safety club may become a booster member by applying at post headquarters.

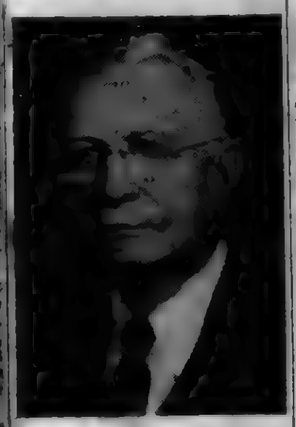
A. G. Mechem In Shoe Business For 40 Years

Forty years in the retail shoe business is the record of service accumulated by A. G. Mechem, owner of the Mechem Shoe store, 2469 W. Broad-st. This genial man who says "his age doesn't matter" is modest in telling anything about his life or the things he has done.

He was born and reared in Belmont county in the eastern part of the state and started in the retail store business in Nelsonville in 1884. Shoes were among the items sold by the store he managed at that time.

"As a matter of fact, it was not so much shoes we sold in those days as 'findings'," he explained. "Findings" consisted of shoe pegs, awls, leather and other items that entered into the shoes that were made mostly at home or by the shoe cobbler in the community.



Mr. Mechem said the first shoes ever made by the Godman Shoe Co. shortly before the turn of the century. The first ones sold in that town were infant shoes. Later the company went into the manufacture of all kinds of shoes for men and women.

Shoes Not Fitted

"At that time we never fitted more than 10 percent of the shoes purchased. Size didn't matter so much so long as they were wide enough."

The average size of ladies' shoes 40 years ago was four and one-half to five. Today the average is six to seven.

Mr. Mechem and his three sons, Harold, Walter and Stanley, had four shoe stores in Columbus. Harold is now deceased and the other two sons are in the dry goods and shoe business in Nelsonville.

A. G. Mechem

The Hilltop store was opened in its present location 12 years ago. The other Columbus stores were disposed of after the death of Harold, seven years ago.

The firm of Elliott and Andrews had previously occupied the location that is now the Mechem store. The present owner took over the unexpired lease of the other company and has held it ever since.

Styles Change

He admits that the constantly changing styles in ladies' shoes makes it a little difficult to know just what to stock at certain seasons but he points out that there

Fire Protection Fight Again Taken To Council

Citizens of Franklin twp. appealed to city council this week in an effort to buy fire protection from the Columbus fire department, following a fire at 3475 Wicklow-rd, Sunday night in which the Columbus firemen refused to act because the building was outside the city limits.

Columbus fire officials claim that the city's fire machinery and man power wasn't large enough to take care of additional territory. However, the fire department has made contracts with other townships, according to Al Boyer, 3569 Grace-st, chairman of the Franklin twp. committee.

A sum of $700 was raised among the residents by subscription and the township officials promised to duplicate this total to guarantee payment under a fire protection contract with the city.

Boyer said, "We're going to hold a meeting soon to discuss the situation and when council gets over its present busy schedule we will appeal to them."

Auditors Retain Lead In City Bowling Tourney

First place in the five-man event of the annual men's city bowling was still in the possession of the Thatcher Auditors team following play last weekend in which no serious bids for the top position took place. The high game of the tourney Sunday was made by the Fell Funeral home outfit which hit the pins for a 2936 total and eighth place in the team standings.

Bill Keller and George Koetz banged out a 1284 mark to grab first place in the doubles standing. They replaced Carl Clouse and Fred Wedemeyer. Keller counted a 596 three-game total while Koetz was hitting a 622 series. A 66-pin handicap added to their final mark.

Harry Brady became the new singles leader when he pounded out a 678 score, topping the 643 total with which Bill Schwartz had been holding the lead. Ed Noe had 640, good enough for a fourth place tie, and Bill Keller gained the seventh place spot with a 639.

Play will resume this week-end and continue each succeeding Saturday and Sunday until Apr. 9. On this date the winners in all events will be announced.

A membership drive for the Citizens' Tax league is expected to get under way on the Hilltop in a few days, according to Charles Kent, president of the Hilltop Business Men's association. A committee will be organized to contact all persons living in the community who are interested in the work of the tax league.

A tentative goal of 500 members has been set for the Hilltop. The drive is a part of a similar city wide movement being formed to better acquaint the taxpayers with the problems of local taxation. The association is taking the initiative in getting the league movement started locally, Kent stated. Membership will be open to all property owners.

Fire Destroys Shrum Home

Fire completely destroyed the home of Raymond Shrum, 3475 Wicklow-rd, caused by spontaneous combustion of a pile of oily rags. Spending his entire Sunday painting and repairing the one family frame dwelling, flames swept the building shortly after completion of his work.

According to firemen, the blaze was not reported until it was too late to save the house. The building was not occupied at the time. Unofficial estimate placed the loss at $3,000.

Legion To Have Big Celebration

Camp Chase Post Will Observe Tenth Anniversary With Big Party

Ten years of community service to the Hilltop will be celebrated by Camp Chase post of the American Legion on Apr. 22 at a big tenth anniversary program which will be open to the public.

Something entirely different from previous birthday celebrations will be sponsored by the local post at that time, and present indications as outlined by the committee in charge are that this year's celebration will be one that will long be remembered by the community and one that will set a new high point in legion activities in the community.

Complete details of the program will be announced in the RECORD next week and on following weeks.

Present plans call for the celebration to be held in the West high auditorium and to be open to the public.

George M. Ward

Chairman of the committee in charge is George M. Ward, 723 S. Roys-av. Ward is a major in the National Guard, first batallion, 166th infantry. He is employed by the state civil service commission. He is also county commander of the legion and has been a Hilltopper for the past 17 years.

Walker Fired By Sheriff

O. B. Walker, 231 S. Roys-av, was dismissed from his position as issuing deputy in the sheriff's office this week by the order of Sheriff Jacob E. Sandusky. The charge given for Walkers dismissal was alleged embezzlement of public funds.

According to Ralph J. Bartlett, county prosecutor, Mr. Walker, who is 40 years old, confessed to taking the money amounting to "several hundred dollars' in line with his regular duties. He was also charged with forging the name of J. Arthur Yoder, county clerk, on papers in connection with the embezzlement.

Mr. Bartlett said the case will be submitted to the grand jury, which meets Apr. 17.

5 Injured In Mishap Sunday

Cars Collide As Young People Return Home

Five Hilltop young people were injured Sunday evening when the car in which they were riding collided with another car just west of Reynoldsburg on the national highway. The accident occurred about 11:30 p. m. as they were returning from a visit with friends near that town.

Boyd Clover, 18, of 342 S. Warren-av, was the most seriously injured. He is in Grant hospital with a partially paralyzed back and possible internal injuries. Ruth Groves, 17, of 28 Midland-av, is recovering in the some hospital from a skull fracture and shock.

Shelter House Has Contests; Amateur Hours Are Planned

Entertaining talent of every conceivable kind was on display at Glenwood Park Shelter house Wednesday evening as a well-planned amateur hour, sponsored by the city recreation department, was presented. Taps, make-up and beautiful costumes were all to be seen as the 17 performers went through their routines.

With Bert Bost acting as master of ceremonies and Al Abrams assisting, the program got under way with a dance by the Rythm Dancers, a quintet of girls who performed in fine fashion during their two numbers.

The best number presented, from the standpoint of the 600 people who thronged the room, was Thelma DiSandro, a 14-year-old brunette who sang and danced. During the latter part of the show Miss DiSandro was called back for three encores and presented each with a finesse seldom seen in a girl of her age.

A recitation, "The Newlyweds Go Fishing" by Nancy Lee Guthrie was well received as well as a tap dance by Bobby Masters. Others appearing on the program in charge of Lucille Thorne included: Matilda Marocher, Betty Lou Schurtz, Ritz Lawler and Buddy McCleary, Joe Gerhn, Peggy Henry, Nancy Ann and Lois Waters, Dicky Weber, the Sunshine Girls and members of the Coyle and Devore School of Theatre.

Each Wednesday evening, beginning at 7:30, an amateur hour will be held at the shelter house with the winners, chosen from each contest, appearing on Judge Kime's radio program. Try-outs for these amateur hours can be had any Saturday morning at the shelter house from nine to 12. Ray Cook is in charge of all activities at the house and will conduct in part the tryouts.

Round About The Hilltop

A rose, and one of your very nicest, BILL METZMAIER, to FLOYD F. GREEN for his excellent job of interlocutoring in the minstrel show.

Our vote for the Hilltops cutest twins goes to PRISCILLA and PATRICIA DeVAL, 20-month-old daughters of DR. and MRS. W. E. DeVAL.

Books on your "Must read" list are: "The Patriot," by Pulitzer prize winner Pearl S. Buck; "Rebecca," by Daphne DuMaurier; "Listen! The Wind," by Anne Morrow Lindbergh; if you haven't already, "All This and Heaven Too," by Rachel Fields; and "With Malice Toward Some," by Margaret Halsey.

Still socieing is MELBA POWELL who gave a birthday party this past week for her small daughter, JACKIE.

Tidbits and chit-chat: SCOTT ROSE, heard singing over a national hook-up recently with Charlie Freshwater's band—broom-leaner, DICK GILGER, in Charlie Kent's Market, knocked over a display case, but was fortunate enough to have no damage done.—the WANDA STINSON-WARREN KEEFER marriage, announced just recently, although a surprise, had its beginning in high school. — DAVE HASTINGS seen on St. Pat's day wearing a green shirt, green tie, plus green shoes. — nonchalance displayed at a fire by HAROLD ROSS, who pulled on his trousers behind the garage while he watched the smoke roll out of his house. MRS. LONG of Long and Haldeman's, with her sister, contemplates an enviable vacation to Florida in June.

FREDDY GAUGGEL, adept at any or all duties at his church, is apparently like the proverbial bull in the china shop when it comes to frying steak in his own kitchen. The evidence, a bandaged finger, was much on display Sunday morning when he played the organ.

WAYNE HOUSE, recently added to the faculty of West high school, and a cousin of ED HOUSE, is another of those Ohio university grads.

If you'll pardon us for still talking about the minstrel show—in our opinion the most beautiful costume was worn by LIBBY LEE CZATT, and a close runner-up was MARILYN MELICK; most spectacular dancer, EDMUND MONTGOMERY, diminutive rythm dancer; the best makeup, that of the Dionne quintuplets. We loved their long black curls, and their girly-girly voices.

Stuff and nonsense to you men, but as you women all know with the advent of spring has come a whole paint-pot full of new colors. Among the most important are chartreuse, fuschia, blueberry, japonica, apricocta, Parisian blue, fresh earth lime—oh, but stop us, we could go on forever.

Week-ending with the GEORGE WILLIAMS were the CLAUDE CHRISMANS of Logan. CHRIS, as you know, was assistant under HAROLD WISE, former coach of West high, who also was in town for the tournament finals last week-end.

R. G. NOWELL, known as "BOB" up around N. Hague-av and Grace-st, retires at 9 p. m. almost every evening so he can be on the job in his grocery store bright and early the next morning.

Things we like: these gorgeous early spring days—those fascinating talking greeting cards, the ones for St. Patrick's day say, "Top o' the Mornin'" right at you—fat, rosy-cheeked babies—people who are on time for appointments—the air of friendliness in METZMAIER'S—the first crocuses of spring, and these we saw last week in front of 2552 W. Broad-st—C. C. HARTLEY'S (the Hilltop Record's own) ability to talk himself out of being "taken in" by the local cop of Mount Sterling, and ELSIE (MRS. HENRY) JONES' sound and cheerful philosophy.

The loveliest pussy-willows we've seen this spring are those grown by MRS. PAUL MOXEY out in Valleyview. They're a Japanese variety, some delicately tinged with color, rose, yellow and pink.

Prize for best host of the Hilltop should go to ART MILLER, who recently staged a surprise birthday party for his wife. Besides being the perfect host he served refreshments with the finesse of a professional caterer.

MRS. OWEN JORDAN, 123 N. Roys-av, is "up and at 'em" again after an operation several months ago. A round with the ever-present "flu" set her back a little longer, but she made her first trip down to Broad-st the other day for a visit with everyone.

New Wave Process Is Now Available

A departure from the usual process of permanent waving is being used in beauty shops today, according to Mary Lou Kimball, owner of the Mary Lou Beauty Salon, 10 S. Hague-av. The Rilling Koolerwave method uses no electricity and permits the woman getting a wave to move about wherever she pleases during the process.

She may phone, gaze out the window or even indulge in a soda at the corner drug store, if she chooses, for she has only a cap of curlers attached to her head, and no wiring of any sort. The system of hair waving uses a little roll of specially treated paper called the Koolerette which is so treated that it generates its own steam when it comes in contact with water.

WPA Adult Evening School Classes To Start Mar 21

The spring quarter of the Ohio State university WPA adult evening school will open Monday, Mar. 27. About a dozen new courses are being added to those which were offered during the winter quarter.

The usual popular course in gardening will be given in cooperation with the floriculture department. The demand for training in salesmanship has resulted in the scheduling of a course in the psychology of salesmanship and advertising. The psychology department will also conduct a clinic for the discussion of personal problems. In this clinic the identity of the interested persons will be left out of the discussion, whenever desired.

In the field of science a course in genetics, covering the subjects of heredity and eugenics, is being scheduled. In modern languages a Spanish club will be organized and a beginning course in Portuguese will be given.

Other new courses include applied design, modern poetry, feature writing for women (journalism), dictatorships and democracies and social progress. One group is scheduled for a "movie review" of current pictures and a study of moving picture production.

These classes are open to all adults, without charge or credit. Enrollment may be made in Derby hall during the first four evenings of any week, beginning Mar. 27.

Air-Conditioning School Started By H. E. Stevens

H. E. Stevens, dealer for the Home Furnace Co. of Holland, Mich., 1575 Parsons-av, started a school for prospective salesmen and mechanics to learn the fundamentals of air-conditioning equipment this week.

Classes will be held two evenings each week, Tuesday and Friday, and will continue until July 15. The courses in heating and air condition equipment will be taught by John F. Sandfort of the College of engineering, Ohio State university, and are intended to equip those taking the courses to become salesmen and mechanics capable of doing installation work.

The classes are being conducted in the hope of securing competent men who will fit into the organization which is planning to expand in six central Ohio counties, which will represent the Home Furnace Co. of Michigan.

Stevens has been in the furnace business since 1925 and about a year ago established his own firm on Parsons-av.

Helen Buehler Heads Local Safety Club

Helen Buehler, 233 S. Eureka-av, president of the "Always Be Careful" safety club, has held this same office for six years. The club, organized in 1933 by D. K. Findley, safety councilor of the Chamber of Commerce, has had a steady increase in membership, the president enrolling more than 4,000 members.

Although Helen is only 15 years of age, she has done many things to promote safety among school students. She is in the tenth grade at West high school and has great hopes of obtaining more students to join the club at West.

The number of traffic accidents was reduced 62 per cent last year, which shows a record of over half. D. K. Findley, formerly of Providence, R. I., was sent to Columbus because of his outstanding record at Providence to assist in reducing traffic accidents in Columbus.

Helen has had 18 months' dramatic experience over the radio, participating in a story hour over WCOL. She has also been on Judge H. Kimes' program on the air.

Unemployment Compensation

Q—If an unemployed worker finds it impossible to call at the local office, per UCC rules, will he lose his benefits?

A—If a person fails to report because of some grave condition over and beyond his control, such as impassable roads, he will not surrender his rights to benefits, but can report the following week or at another time designated by proper authority.

Q—If a worker is injured when working at his trade or occupation for a covered employer, will he receive benefits?

A—No individual is entitled to benefits unless he or she is capable of and available for work.

Q—What would bar a worker from receiving benefits under the Ohio law?

A—A worker would be barred from receiving benefits for the following reasons: 1. Refusal to accept work for which he is reasonably suited; 2. Loss of job through commitment to a penal institution; 3. Loss of job through act of God, such as a flood or cyclone; 4. Leaving employment on strike; 5. Receiving remuneration from other sources such as old age benefits, workmen's compensation, or wages in lieu of dismissal notice.

Q—May the Ohio unemployment compensation fund be used for purposes other than for compensation to the unemployed?

A—No. The fund and its interest earnings can be used for ONE purpose ONLY—that is the payment of benefits to the eligible unemployed.

Working with him as a salesman ever since the store was opened is Z. H. Kemp, 230 S. Westgate-av.

Scores Are High At Gun Club Sun.

Win on regular matches were well distributed among the contestants in the Briggsdale gun club trap shoot held Sunday. The trap shoot was the most successful of any sponsored by the club since its organization.

High man for the day was Greiner, of the Tarlton Gun club, who broke 90 out of 100 birds. Evans, Powers and D. Dailey, all of Briggsdale, and Justus, of Tarlton, tied for second. Third place went to H. Plunirner, of the Amlin club.

The Dailey team of five shooters will challenge any family team to a 25 target match. The winning outfit will be presented with a trophy by C. H. Shade, owner of the Briggsdale Nite Ball park.

CARD OF THANKS

Benefit Luncheon To Be Thursday

A pot luck luncheon will be given Thursday, Mar. 30, in the St. Mary Magdalene school hall, located at Parkside-dr. and Roys-av, at one o'clock. The luncheon will be a benefit for the new sisters convent to be constructed soon on Roys-av.

Guests are requested to bring own table service and covered dish.

Dining Room Needs Southeast Exposure

If plans for a new home include provisions for a dining room, a number of factors should be taken into consideration.

Southeast exposure is desirable in order to assure morning sunlight in a dining room. Other important considerations are: (1) The room should be planned with ample wall space to accommodate the furniture; (2) immediate access from kitchen or pantry is essential; (3) in smaller houses dining space planned in conjunction with the living room is generally satisfactory for normal family use and permits flexibility for special occasions.

The Dangerous Fly

The Hilltop Record

The Hilltop, Columbus, O.
Friday, Mar. 31, 1939
Total No. 1144
Vol. XXII, No. 50

Round About The Hilltop

Nosing around a bit, and peckin'-it off for you—Paul Maxey (not Moxey, as we erred last week) resents the fact that his wife, Marjorie, was given all the credit for growing the pussy willows. He claims quite a hand in their up-bringing.

Jayne Hartley, who with her small daughter, Luanne, accompanied C. C. to Greenfield last week, spent most of her time in bed with a cold and the flu. She returned last Friday, and is up and about now.

Our rose this week to Jane Jones for the oh-so-delish angel food cake she sent to the RECORD last week. It's those little kindnesses that we thing are vera vera nice.

Luella Siniff spied only this week being arrested for running a red light.

Dr. John Wolfe, formerly ye editor of the Record, has promised to be guest columnist next week.

John Hipple, back from Costa Rica, would like to teach school in Greenfield this coming fall—

We liked the music in the Hilltop minstrel and think a special word of appreciation is due Hal Brown and his orchestra who swung it out for the performers.

Diverging from our usual pish and posh—We like the atttiude of columnist Mrs. Walter Ferguson. She criticizes scathingly the system of taking for war all the intelligent and physically perfect men, and leaving behind the broken in body and mind to carry on the race. We think, as Mrs. Ferguson, that this system should be reversed for the continuance of a healthier and happier and more intelligent people. We think war is not a very intelligent thing anyway.

Note for the special attention of Jack Shank: R. A. Percy spent an evening this week twisting and tacking baby blue and pink crepe paper at the home of his daughter-in-law for a shower.

Hilltopper Edward Bass, 387 Binns-blvd, is one of the baritones of the Ohio State university men's glee club which will give concerts over the Columbia broadsystem every Monday afternoon starting May 8 and continuing through June 5.

George Williams, busy whipping into shape his baseball team for the spring, finds the unused muscles give him a bit of trouble that first week of practice.

Mrs. R. G. Nowell, who underwent an operation at Mt. Carmel hospital recently, is expected home some time next week. She's doing very well, thank you.

Gloria Day (Gracebelle, to her Hilltop friends) is still at the Chez Paree in Chicago with Russ Morgan's orchestra, and may be home this week-end. And by the by, did you see the lovely, lovely pictures of our titan-haired dancer in Life, and in Pic, Mar. 7, and Photo for February? As you probably know, too, she made a short for Warner Bros. not so long ago. We do wish they'd release it soon in Columbus.

Things we can't imagine: C. J. Kohn in a hurry—Dr. C. O. Cramer when he wasn't in a hurry—Dr. F. L. Sulzberger when he didn't have a story to tell—M. W. Seiller without a pleasant word for everyone — Shirley Umbenhaur when she didn't look as if she had just jumped out of a band-box—the Coffman brothers anything but jolly and good natured—Curt Wilcox not enthusiastic about fishing.

It was the heart interest that took Sammy Snashall of Murphy's Pharmacy to Cleveland Wednesday last.

Services Are Held For Hall

Funeral services for Robert L. Hall, 264 S. Eureka-av, street car conductor, were held at the Jerry Spears funeral home Wednesday afternoon with burial in Greenlawn cemetery. The 48-year-old Hilltopper who died in Grant hospital early Monday morning was seriously wounded last week when shot by a negro who grabbed his money changer and fled.

A $500 reward for any information leading to the arrest of the robber was posted by the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co., Mr. Hall's employer, and another reward has been collected by his fellow workmen for the same purpose.

Mr. Hall, a conductor on the Long-Livingston car line, had changed the trolley at the end of the Long-st line when the negro appeared. In an attempt to keep the gunman from obtaining the changer, the Hilltopper grabbed for it. The negro shot him with a small caliber revolver and ran with the changer.

Police officials have issued descriptions of the robber and several suspects have been brought in by officers, but as yet no great headway has been made.

Latest reports indicate that the group will request the president of city council to pass a resolution giving authority to that body to deal with the Franklin Township association in contracting fire protection, thus removing it from the hands of Don Wiper, safety director.

"We feel that the safety director has been unfair in granting fire protection to all other townships and refusing us in our request," said Al Boyer, 3509 Grace-st, one of the leaders in the work.

Legion To Have Program

All Hilltoppers will prick up their ears like an old fire horse at alarm when the Camp Chase Post No. 98 and the entire American Legion celebrate their tenth and twentieth anniversaries respectively on the Hilltop Apr. 22.

The post's big celebration which will be open to the public, will be held in the West high school auditorium this year at 8:15 p. m.

Completely different from anything the post or legion has ever presented, it has promised to be spectacular and exciting and will set a new high in the legion activities in the community.

The program, prepared by experienced committeemen, is arranged for young and old, being as varied as the spring weather. Champion dance teams; magicians (who will create watchful eyes); skits of comedy for those who demand all the beauty and sweetness or who like realistic performances; solo selections and quartet numbers by well known local warblers; various dancers who will never be forgotten since some of their recent presentations. It's a full two hour show crammed full of new and different entertainment for public enjoyment.

Arrangements for tickets will be announced in next week's RECORD and also further details of the show.

George M. Ward, 723 S. Roosevelt-av, is chairman of the committee in charge. Dr. A. C. Myers, Walter Sprenger and E. A. He is employed by the state civil service commission.

The committee in charge of this year's celebration will be one long remembered. Children must be accompanied by adults.

Wade Parker Takes Own Life

Last Monday in the rear room of his Westgate gasoline station, 3184 W. Broad-st, Wade Charles Parker shot himself in the head because he had been despondent over financial worries and ill health.

He was well-known to west side residents as the owner of a pet Canadian black bear he kept in the cage beside the station. The bear was given to him as a present from a Canadian friend four years ago. Parker and his bear made the headlines last year when the bear escaped, causing quite a furore on the west side before it was captured by police.

The body was found at 5:30 p. m. by Harold Derrer, 117 Derrerd. Parker was lying on his back on a bed in the rear room. Dr. Edward E. Smith, coroner, said the bullet had entered the left side of the head and came out behind the right ear. A verdict of suicide was pronounced.

He is survived by his wife, a son and daughter. Funeral services were held Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. Masters, by Wylie S. Shroyer.

With a pang of regret we report that FRANK (honey chile) HOLYCROSS won't be on the softball firing line this spring . . . . But he'll umpire . . . . Able observers have generously asserted that FRANK'S eyesight is twice as good as HARRY (blind umpire) THORNTON'S . . . . Which will account for some awful lousy guessing in FRANK'S games this season. Hi'ya, Harry?

Legion Plans Tenth Anniversary Event

That the Tenth Anniversary Jubilee of Camp Chase post of the American Legion will be a party every individual on the Hilltop will want to take part in was indicated this week with the announcement of several numbers that will appear on the program. The affair will take place in the West high auditorium on April 22.

One of the outstanding acts selected will be a ballroom dance number presented by Maryln Melick and Frazier Reese. This team was popularly received at the Hilltop minstrel in March.

Comedy and song in an unusual fashion will be presented by Leo Phillips and son, Junior. The singing copper has been a popular favorite of the Hilltop minstrel for many years.

Music for the show will be furnished by Hal Brown's orchestra.

Another act that is certain to register is a dance routine by Edmund Montgomery.

Dance numbers by the Riepenhoffs, Anna Lou and Virginia, will be featured.

An accordion band, a quartet, and numerous other fine acts have been scheduled. Complete program for the affair will be announced in later issues of The RECORD.

This entire program of fine entertainment will be open to the public at no charge. It will be necessary to secure a ticket from local business places, however, and those firms having them for distribution with the compliments of Camp Chase post will be listed in next week's issue of The RECORD.

West Gym Exhibition Draws Large Crowd

An interesting and entertaining program of West high school physical education activities was presented at the school Tuesday evening and was met with a hearty approval from the large crowd which attended. The gym exhibition, sponsored jointly by the West high PTA and the athletic department included every school student who participates in the intramural program of the local institution.

The boys section of the program, under the direction of Coaches George Williams and George Collins, was a fast-moving spectacle pyramid building, relay races and a number of individual events. Archie Stokes and Lewis Rice were the leaders in the tumbling parade and put on a two-man exhibition which was performed in a pleasing manner.

The girls presented a trio of dances and relay races. Miss Helen McCormick, in charge of the girls exhibitions, also conducted a girls all-star basketball game with teams selected from the class tourney. Outstanding for the opposing teams in this contest was the Miller sisters, Jayne of the senior squad and Mary for the juniors. The juniors won the limited affair by an 8-4 count.

West Staff To Edit Paper

The editorial staff of the West High Occident school paper will take over the publication of the Hilltop RECORD during the week of Apr. 28, it was announced this week. Arrangements have been made with Myron Seifert, journalism instructor, and Dr. H. H. Reighley, principal, by C. C. Hartley, publisher.

Classroom sessions will take place to instruct the students of their assignments. Those on the staff are Aileen Browne, Betty Jean Price, Mary Waite, Marge Platt, Reah Thompson, Mary Louise Miller, Don Metzger, Bob Dickson, Mary Groves, Frankie Newlon and Ada Davidson.

RADIO GONE CASE UNSOLVED

Police haven't decided yet whether the person who stole an $89.50 radio from Coffman's, 2388 W. Broad-st, Sunday night was an out and out burglar or just an over-enthusiastic baseball fan who couldn't afford tickets to the game and so wanted to listen to the opening game of the season next Thursday.

At any rate the radio was the only thing that seemed to interest him. Entering by a rear door the nocturnal visitor carted away the radio receiving set without apparently molesting anything else in the store.

Building Report Is Unconfirmed

Considerable interest is current on the Hilltop this week as a result publication of an invitation to contractors to bid on a proposed bowling alley on the Hilltop. The announcement appeared in the real estate section of one of the Sunday papers.

Persons supposedly interested in the deal would not issue any statements to the RECORD this week; R. E. Kirk, owner of the Hilltop Recreation alleys, said, "We expect to have a statement to make in a few days but as yet there is nothing to say."

It was understood that negotiations for a location had not yet been completed.

ACCIDENT VICTIM

W. J. Cronin, 14, of 273 Wrexham-av, was treated in Mt. Carmel hospital this week after he was shot in the forehead with an air rifle while playing with other boys in a field near his home.

Materials Display To Be At Bank

An interesting display of building materials will be on exhibition in the Hilltop office of the Ohio National bank starting next Monday. The display is made up and presented by the United States Gypsum Co. in cooperation with the Jones Lumber and Coal Co., 57 N. Sylvan-av, retailers of the building material.

Interesting points of building construction are highlighted in this illustrated and lighted exhibition which has been shown in several cities throughout the country. It will continue through Apr. 20.

West High School Observes Holy Week

Beginning Monday, West High held Holy Week services in the club room. The services took place from 8 o'clock to 8:30 and continued through Wednesday.

The Girl Reserve and Hi-Y clubs are in charge of the programs of which music and talks are a part. Miss Blanche M. Kern, vice-principal, spoke on "Better Christian Living" at Monday's meeting. Dr. H. H. Reighley, principal, spoke Tuesday morning on education, in general, and its role in developing character.

At the Wednesday service Rev. Oxley, of the First Baptist church at Granville, spoke. The guest speaker for the Thursday morning student assembly was Mr. Jackson, principal of Arlington high school.

Magicians To Be On Program

Albert Thatcher, 682 Chestershire-rd, and Oscar H. Gutheil, 118 W. Mound-st, will be two of the performers at the fourth show of the Columbus Magic Circle, semi-professional group of magicians, Friday, Apr. 14, at Central high school. The performance is sponsored by the evening high school.

Thatcher is an adept sleight-of-hand performer and has appeared on several programs in Columbus. He is a graduate of West high school.

Hoge Elects New Officers

The Hoge Memorial Presbyterian church held a congregational meeting last Monday evening and elected the following officers: elders, Henry Jones, D. H. Latham, L. E. Saunders and Dr. T. E. Nichols; deacons, A. J. Corcoran, H. R. Sayre, H. V. Mielke, Norman Line and R. L. Gilliam. Trustees, K. B. Neff, W. W. Wylie and C. J. Kahn.

Hilltop League Planned

8-Team Circuit To Be Organized Next Week

First step in the formation of the Hilltop Independent league of softball teams will be taken when prospective sponsors, managers and other persons interested meets at the Hilltop RECORD office, 14 S. Oakley-av, next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Frank J. Colburn, 370 S. Burgess-av, well known Hilltopper and ardent softball fan, has been asked by those interested in the movement to take the initiative in organizing the league.

At least three more sponsors of teams are needed to round out an eight-team league that is expected to get under way the latter part of April or the first week in May. A 14-game schedule would be played.

That interest in such a league is in abundance was well demonstrated last summer when large crowds turned out to see the Sullivant-av league organized last year. The Hilltop circuit would be a broader outgrowth of last year's activities. Games would be played on the Westgate diamonds as a twilight attraction.

All persons interested in the sport are asked to attend the organization meeting Tuesday night.

Franchises have already been asked for by Kent's Modern market, Painter's market No. 2, Corner cafe, McDonald Lumber Co. and Westwood K. of P. lodge.

Some expression was voiced this week favoring the formation of a six or eight team league to play at Westgate diamonds on Sunday afternoons. Charles Seddon of the recreation department has promised full cooperation in the event such a league could be organized. Any person who would be interested in sponsoring a team is asked to get in touch with Seddon or H. W. Shaffer, 92 N. Roys-av.

Bucks To Open Season

Jeffersonville Is First Opponent Of Baseballers

West High baseballers will test the results of three weeks of practice this afternoon when they trek to Jeffersonville to open their 1939 baseball campaign with the high school stars of that city. Coach George Williams received his first coaching experience at the Fayette county institution and nothing would please him better than to return Friday evening with a victory.

The Bucks will continue their pre-league warm-up encounters Wednesday when they travel to Springfield to oppose the powerful Tigers of that city.

Coach Williams has yet to cut the squad to the final playing group but has chosen a tentative starting line-up for the Jeffersonville fray. Link will hold down third, Bell will cavort at short, Carter will play second and Paul Rogers will take care of the first-base duties. Rogers received the call over Mack and Maxwell because of his potential hitting power. Distlehorst will lead the batting order and play in left with Banker stationed in center. The right-field position will be shared by the veteran Colburn, a left-handed hitter, and Dick Smith, a right side swinger.

Blackstone or Albert

Behind the plate will be either Blackstone or Bill Albert. Albert is another portside hitter. Outstanding among the pitchers are the Neal brothers, Jack and Howard, Jake Richards, up from the Junior High squad, and Barret, who saw a little service with last year's nine. Coach Williams has not named the starting pitcher for today's game at press time. Each of the quartet has looked good in brief appearances in scrimmages but it is hard to say whether the pitchers, the main problem of the squad this year, are hard to hit or the team isn't hitting. This will be answered today.

It is interesting to note that of the starting line-up today only three, at the most, will be seniors. Banker in center and Link at third are sure starters while Colburn will probably see service in right. The second team is composed almost entirely of sophomores. The only fellows who haven't seen service with the varsity in the past are Albert, Dick Smith and the pitchers, ex-

Coyle Petitions Being Circulated

Approximately 175 petitions were known to have been in circulation this week for Avard R. Coyle, 251 Nashoba-av, who announced his candidacy for city auditor through the Hilltop RECORD two weeks ago.

An unusual display of enthusiasm greeted the announcement on every hand. The Record was the recipient of many phone calls and communications complimentary to the announcement. Persons never previously active in political circles were known to be carrying petitions in Coyle's behalf.

Coyle has occupied a position in the auditor's office for the past 16 years.

Record Ads Do The Job

Al Trabue, 2844 Elliot-av, has discovered in no uncertain way that RECORD want ads do have a following. A two line ad inserted by him in the "miscellaneous for sale" column listed fly and casting rods, slightly used.

Said Mr. Trabue, "More than 150 persons called at my home to see the fishing tackle from the time the paper came out until Sunday evening."

Attempting not to disappoint his would-be purchasers Trabue sold all of the fishing equipment and then began looking around the house for other items that might satisfy his callers until his wife put a stop to the selling idea, fearing a shortage of actual household necessities.

The topic of the speaker will be "Reclaiming Maimed Minds." During his lecture Mr. Jackson will discuss case histories of social diseases, and their causes, treatments and results. He is well versed on these points inasmuch as he has made surveys of asylums, prisons and corrective institutions and will illustrate the work being done in these public institutions with handwork showing the mental growth of specific mental cases.

Both expressed a belief that it would be possible to have such protection

PURSE GRABBED

Hal Brown and his orchestra, who furnished music for the recent minstrel show, will provide music for dancing from 9 to 1. Members and friends of the association can obtain tickets at $1.50 per couple which includes a buffet luncheon in addition to the dance.

Invitation were sent out this week to all persons appearing in the minstrel show to come as guests of the organization. Last year 136 couples attended the affair and this year's dance promises to be even better attended. A long list of door and booster prizes will be drawn during the evening.

Hunter Injured In Bike Crash

Robert Hunter, 535 Columbian-av, suffered a possible fracture of his skull last Monday when his bicycle ran into the open door of a parked auto in front of 2261 Sullivant-av.

Robert, who is 13, was thrown to the street when his wheel hit the left door of the auto as the owner, Park D. Kiner, 708 Eureka-av, was getting out. He was taken to Mt. Carmel hospital where physicians reported his condition as "fair."

Alligator To Be Displayed Here

A live alligator will be on display at the Florida Orange store, 2845 W. Broad-st, all next week, according to the manager George Andrew. The animal is being brought direct from the swamps of Florida and will be shown in the three fruit stores in Columbus.

The firm ships fruit direct from the orange groves in Florida to the Columbus stores so that shipments are seldom more than a few days old until they are retailed to the public. All fruit is tree ripened and unprocessed.

The Hilltop, long a favorite spot for Welsh speaking residents, will show its true Welsh colors on Friday, May 26, when it becomes the scene of the community's first Eisteddfod. Sponsor of this unusual musical competition is the Hilltop male chorus, winner of several similar events as a group and whose membership boasts of Welsh ancestry, including the director, W. The Resurrection

I love to think of that early morn
So very long ago
When Christ our Lord from out the tomb
Came forth in the morning glow.

Three days in the tomb, then He arose,
The stone was rolled away that morn,
For He had conquered death.

Looking backward today to Calvary,
Once again, we count the cost,
Thankful today as we live and pray
On the resurrection side of the cross.

hiding genius under a coal bucket, so I'll make it public: Title: Quatrain To The Moon —An astronomical interrogation

Oh, how do we know that the silvery moon,
That shines on the fields and trees,
Is not concocted of apple-sauce,
Or constructed of aged cheese?

Here, as the poet makes his inquiry into the constituents of stellar bodies, we see in his mystic manner, much of the mooniness and madness of midnight meditation. He has combined skepticism with a mighty perception that leaves the reader assured that the moon is the greatest puzzle of the starry universe. Takeawaysther.

EISTEDDFOD RECITATIONS

(Children 6 to 8)
THE MOO-COW-MOO

My pa held me up to the moo-cow-moo
So clost I could almost touch,
En I fed him a couple of times, or two,
En I wasn't a 'fraid-cat much.

But ef my papa goes into the house,
En Mama, she goes in, too,
I just keep still, like a little mouse,
Fer the moo-cow-moo might moo!

The moo-cow-moo's got a tail like a rope
En it's raveled down where it grows,
En it's just like feeling a piece of soap
All over the moo-cow's nose.

En the moo-cow-moo has lots of fun
Just swinging his tail about;
En, he opens his mouth and then I run—
Cause that's where the moo comes out.

En the moo-cow-moo's got deers on his head
En his eyes stick out o' their place,
En the nose o' the moo-cow-moo is spread
All over the end of his face.
—Edward Vanee Cooke

THE SCHOLAR

Why, only just the other day,
The day before our school began,
I didn't know a b from a,
I only played and jumped and ran.

But now I know an awful lot:
The cow says "m" the dog say "r";
And then the dog and cat, they fought,
And she said "f" and raised her fur.

The watch says "t, t," all the time;
The lambs say "a", when out at play;
And I can say all of the rhyme
About the boy under the hay.

I know the little Gingerbread man,
And all the funny way he talks,
About, "Run, run as fast as you can,"
Till he gets eat up by the fox.

I can say about going up in a swing,
And looking over the garden wall;
Last week I didn't know a thing,
And now I almost—know it all.
—Angie Marshall

(Children 8 to 12)
AMERICA FOR ME

'Tis fine to see the Old World, and travel up and down
Among the famous palaces and cities of renown,
To admire the crumbly castles and the statues of the kings—
But now I think I've had enough of antiquated things.

So it's home again, and home again, America for me!
My heart is turning home again, and there I long to be,
In the land of youth and freedom beyond the ocean bars,
Where the air is full of sunlight and the flag is full of stars.

Oh, London is a man's town, there's power in the air;
And Paris is a woman's town, with flowers in her hair;
And it's sweet to dream in Venice, and it's great to study Rome
But when it comes to living there is no place like home.

I like the German fir-woods, in green battalions drilled;
I like the gardens of Versailles with flashing fountains filled;
But, oh, to take your hand, my dear, and ramble for a day
In the friendly western woodland where Nature has her way!

I know that Europe's wonderful, yet something seems to lack:
The Past is too much for her, and the people looking back.
But the glory of the Present is to make the Future free—
We love our land for what she is and what she is to be.

Oh, it's home again, and home again, America for me!
I want a ship that's westward bound to plough the rolling sea,
To the blessed Land of Room Enough beyond the ocean bars,
Where the air is full of sunlight and the flag is full of stars.

Sunday School Lesson

I Corinthians 15; 20

Easter is something about God. It is the evidence of His supreme love for men and the foundation of the Christian religion. If we would make this simple statement of a profound truth have meaning we must approach it through human experience.

For example, each of our children is an end in himself. In our eyes he is of supreme value and worthy of the greatest sacrifice if necessary. This love we have for our children is a universal experience and one of life's supreme values. But a still more profound fact of life may be observed. Through and above the quality of love is the personality that loves. Love cannot exist as an abstraction, it must be associated with a personality. All this is well understood since it is a matter of human experience.

If our children are of supreme value to us is it not true that much more each presonality has an eternal place in the mind and heart of the Father. The resurrection of Jesus is the evidence of this fact. Would we strengthen our faith in eternal life? Then let us endeavor to develop in our lives those qualities and values of life which are eternal. We become a part of that which we profoundly believe and practice. The resurrection is an easnest from God that our faith in the eternal values of life—shall not be in vain.

Wheat First Choice of Grain

Wheat is the world's first choice of grain for bread. Some nations of Europe make use of rye to a great extent, but mainly because it is more difficult to grow wheat or to get it in those countries. The top place among the bread grains is taken by wheat. It has been so for centuries.

Goat's Hair Used for Dye

A now obsolete pigment of red-dish orange color that was very impermanent and of poor quality was made by immersing goats' hair in madder dye for a period of three days, then removing the hair and dissolving it in a potash solution which, after further preparation became the finished product.

A pound of tea averages from 150 to 200 cups, depending on whether it is made strong or weak. Experts say that two-thirds of an ounce of tea to a quart of water is the correct proportion.

Rimless eyewear that gives pleasure and saves time and money. Mountings cushioned against strain. No metal touches glass. Breakage and adjustment troubles are ended. A new idea, patented and protected.

The Store For All The Family

One For All and All For One

Everywhere people are coming to realize more and more how interdependent we are upon each other. The only individual who is self sufficient is a hermit.

The keynote—the foundation of civilization—is the family. We all concede that. And we're rapidly coming to realize that our community is a community family—simply the family unit a little bit extended through cordiality, friendship and pleasant social intercourse.

Common good will and recognition of our human obligation is a deeper currency than any money system ever invented. But it is also to our advantage on the material side of life—it redounds in better practices, living conditions, more generous impulses. It makes the Hilltop a better place in which to live.

Let's make our community unit closer knit. Let's be generous with our good will—realizing that the prosperity of the individual is directly reflected in an added prosperity to our community. Your home industries and merchants have adopted this creed. Will you co-operate?

Beulah Park Prepares For Spring Running Races

Columbus, O.—Indications that Beulah Park's spring meeting of running races is fast approaching are becoming more numerous at the Grove City course every day. The meeting will open Saturday, Apr. 22, and will continue for 26 days.

Stables are arriving daily from the winter tracks and soon the stalling capacity of the plant will be taxed. The 640 stalls available at the track were allotted several weeks ago. Additional stalls have been obtained at the state fair grounds, where about 200 horses will be housed.

Among the early arrivals were T. B. Miller, J. T. Simmons, Mrs. S. N. Stafford and R. E. Spicer.

Miller's string, which raced at Oriental Park in Cuba during the winter, includes Musical Jack, Towson, Bomount and Pansy Ann. Simmons, who generally has much success at Beulah, brought Capt. Nadi, Mr. Quick, Ann Star and Palm Island from the New Orleans fair grounds.

Mrs. Stafford's stable contains Black Anna and the veteran Game. Black Anna won six races last year and was out of the money in only three of 15 starts.

Frymans Return From Florida Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Fryman of 32 N. Chase-av, have returned from a two months trip through Florida. They visited various places of interest but spent most of their time in Fort Myers. They especially enjoyed Orlando and believe it truly to be "The City Beautiful."

Some people don't think father time does any real work. Just think of all the mental sweat he puts in as he sits in the office and put his feet up on the desk.

Westgate Park Prepares For Summer Activities

Westgate park, long a favorite with Hilltoppers during the summer months, is the center of a large landscaping program these days as the city park division, with the help of the WPA, is preparing the recreational center for use during the coming summer.

Robert V. Hesscnauer, superintendent of parks, claims that "Westgate park will be one of the most beautiful spots in Columbus" when the entire program which he has planned is completed. Included in the improvements he contemplates are landscaping with shrubs and flower-beds three-corner benches around trees and a wiener roasting oven. Of course these improvements will not all take place at once but will be placed in the park as time and money allow.

Work on the lake, another park improvement, is progressing rapidly under the direction of Lester Walker, foreman of the WPA project. This project was started in early February and will be completed, according to present plans, during the month of June. Weather conditions, especially rain and snow, have slowed down the work during the winter months, but with favorable spring weather work on the lake will be speeded up considerably.

Lake Under Way

The lake proper will be approximately 700 feet in length and the width will vary from 100 to 125 feet. The maximum depth of the water will be three feet. No fishing or boating will be allowed. A stone bottom will be laid and stepping stones will be built from the water level to the top of the terraced slope.

A stone dam is being constructed to hold the water back and the stream will be let through the dam rather than flow over it. The outlet of the stream on the other side of the dam will run into a manhole, such as is to be found in Holton park.

According to present plans a spray fountain will be erected in the west end of the lake. The slopes of the lake are to be resodded and no ditches are to be left in the east end of the park. Dirt from the excavation proper will be replaced in the park for grading and improving the general appearance.

At present the WPA project, strictly a city affair, employs 150 men, all of whom reside within the city limits.

As in the past, baseball and tennis will occupy the featured spots on the recreational program of the park. No dates have been announced as yet concerning the park's opening.

Bowling Tourney To Close Sunday; Lead Is Changed

Pins at the Hilltop Bowling alleys will be knocked right and left tomorrow and Sunday evenings as proud Columbus bowlers, trying desperately to dislodge the crack Merrick-Miller Dodge five from the city bowling tourney lead, twirl the balls at the sticks in their final efforts of the tournament which will close Sunday evening. The last tourney shift will be at 9 o'clock on Easter evening.

The Merrick-Miller outfit took over first position in the city affair Saturday night when the quintet tallied a 3051 mark. Dr. Robert Merrill hit 638 to lead the team which had a 117-pin handicap. The Dodge five displaced Henkel Meats, who retained second place with their 2986 in the five-man event, the winner of which will be presented a trophy.

Outstanding among the teams rolling tonight are the Hilltop Tavernette, the Westerville Masonic Home and the Dale Concrete Products. Feature attraction of the bowling Sunday evening will be the Athletic club five which has been burning up the alleys in the All-Star league which bowls at High-Chestnut.

2973 Series

Hemphill Real Estate took over fifth place in the tourney last Sabbath evening with a 2973 series. The team had games of 944, 811 and 972 plus the handicap of 246. Frank Daugherty was high man with a 598. In third place with 2975 is the Glick Furniture team with Thatchers Auditors holding the fourth spot, one point behind.

Bill Keller and George Koetz continue to lead in the two-man event with a 1284 followed by Jesse Herd and Dixie Davis with a 1274. Harry Brady still leads the individual event with a 678 and Fritz Schuman is second with a 669.

How To Care For Your Mattress

Giving your mattress the care it deserves and must have to assure you of restful sleep and long service is a little like successful dieting, for it must be done with conscientious regularity or not at all.

The necessary care is neither arduous nor complicated and need not be burdensome to any housekeeping schedule. The position of the mattress on the bed should be changed every week. One week the top should be shifted to the bottom, and the second week the mattress should be turned over, so that it has a complete turning every 14 days.

Every two weeks your list of household tasks should include a thorough airing of the mattress in the room. This can be done by opening the window.

Sales of mattresses in the United States increased by $13,000,000 at wholesale between 1936 and 1937.

Come To Church!

Easter

Easter Hope

We are celebrating one of the greatest Christian holidays. We do not worship at the tomb of a dead leader, but at the open grave of a living Saviour. "He is not here, he is risen." This was the glad tidings at Christ's sepulchre. This is at the heart of the message of the church ever after. In this we go forward. Easter brings to us two great truths of the Gospel—He died, He lives.

It is significant that Easter comes at the time of year when nature is breaking forth into new life. The trees, the flowers, the grass—everything seems to tell us there is assurance of new life and fruitage. So Easter comes again calling our attention to the assurances of the Gospel of Christ. What is our hope in Christ? "He was delivered for our sins, and was raised again for our justification," The death and resurrection of our Lord are the assurance to us that our sins may be forgiven and we may be new creatures, justified before God. The fact is, this is our only ground for such hope. "For if Christ be not raised, then is our hope vain, ye are still in your sins."

The Christian churches call all people to the privileges of her sanctuaries on this Easter day and also on every Sabbath, for every "first day of the week" should be observed as a Holy Day because of His resurrection.

The church of Christ not only invites men to a formal attendance of her services, but she calls them to a surrender of heart and life to Christ. Thus only can we worship Him in spirit and in truth. The Resurrected Christ is the only hope of a bewildered world. "He has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel."

Rev. Chas. E. Haworth, Pres. Hilltop Ministerial Ass'n

They Crucified My Lord

THEY crucified my Lord, in the barren tomb they laid Him;
They pierced His side, a crown of thorns they made Him;
They sought to limit Him—thought that narrow tomb would hold Him;
Did not see in Him eternity, nor in His power behold Him.
They thought His Kingdom was of things that they might touch and feel

Which moth might eat and thieves break through and steal;
They could not scan the years or get the vision when God's Kingdom would

Be growing in the hearts of men.
"Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" they cried; "Do not let Him live!"
But there upon the cross He prayed; "Father, they know not what they do—forgive!"

He heard their cries, their jests, their jeers;
He saw their weakness, felt their need,
And strove in death their hungry hearts to feed.

He hangs today upon that cross—a Saviour crucified;
And for our sins as well as theirs, He suffered, bled, and died;
We cannot hold Him in that tomb, nor by our acts defy Him,
But with our sins we daily crucify Him.
We cannot hold Him in that tomb, nor yet His soul imprison;
O'er death He is triumphant—"He is not dead but risen!"

VOTERS WAITING FOR "JUDGEMENT DAY"

Anything might happen in this political race coming up. This is the impression one gets as local newspapers continue to center their municipal political conversation around rumors of candidates that might be.

As it stacks up right now Mayor Gessaman is a sure candidate. Reports of his strength are varied and while he may have a strong organization it is generally conceded that the man on the street and the housewife that talks little about politics and does a whole lot with his or her ballot "when the time comes" can see but very little that Mr. Gessaman has done to justify his return to office.

This would indicate that they are not necessarily against Mr. Gessaman but are merely waiting . . . waiting to see if a stronger piece of timber is to be provided . . . and too, knowing that their vote won't amount to a whoop until the actual day of the election.

GREEN CIRCULATING HIS PETITIONS

Mike Desmond of the Citizen must be running short of "art" for his Sunday sheet. Twice within a period of a very few weeks he has run the same photos of Floyd Green and Ray Haun[illegible] identically the same position and had about the same to say concerning their political activity. Just the same, Mike, we like your selection of art. Two very fine looking gentlemen, we'd say.

Mike quotes the Hilltop Record as having said Green would probably be a candidate for mayor. What the Record said was that Green WOULD BE a candidate for mayor.

This week Green has his petitions in circulation and on Thursday we saw No. 1 petition completely filled and notarized. He says most emphatically that NOTHING could keep him out of the race.

HAUNTZ BEING CONSIDERED

Some months ago we suggested that Ray Hauntz would stand an excellent chance of being elected mayor of Columbus. Since that time he has been talked of by many as a logical candidate.

We have since maintained that Ray can be elected if he is the sole candidate from the Hilltop. It does not make sense for both Green and Hauntz to enter the race against each other. This community and neither of the men have a single thing to gain by such a move. It would merely make an entering wedge for Mr. Gessaman to return to office.

In the meantime Hauntz has assumed a sensible attitude and says he will abide by the wishes of his friends and those people who are interested in the welfare of the community and the city at large and abide by their decision in the matter. To date he is not a candidate. That he will not be one is not definitely known.

Bucks To Meet Aquinas

Bulked by the actions of 'Ol Man' weather during the earlier part of their pre-league campaign, West high's stalwarts were looking forward to the City league season which opens next Tuesday with their fingers crossed. The Buckaroos will open their league campaign when they oppose the Aquinas Terriers on the Mt. Vernon-av diamond.

Inclement weather had forced the cancelling of two scheduled warm-up contests for the Cowboys' Wednesday, but George Williams, Buck coach, was still seeking a means for the best by scheduling games with Jeffersonville for Thursday afternoon and the alumni squad Saturday.

George Hardy, in charge of the alumni baseball team which will meet the current West high varsity Saturday afternoon at 2:30, would like to have any former Buck players who would like to play to call him either Friday evening or Saturday morning at FA. 7077.

Coach Williams had previously scheduled games with Jeffersonville and Springfield, but in each instance cold weather and rain had made playing conditions of the fields impossible. The Cowboy mentor, however, was pleased with the way the boys practised Wednesday evening, although the weather remained one of football rather than baseball. All of the players were on hand for the work-out and showed considerable spirit as they went through their practice chores.

The West nine will open their City league campaign with the least playing experience of any city diamond team, it appeared this week. All have a line on their squads. Coach Williams has yet to see any of his players under pressure. However, his fears are not centered on either the infield or outfield. Four green recruits comprise the pitching staff and those new players will carry the Buck hopes in the city competition.

Independent League To Play On Thursday Night

The Hilltop independent league, newly formed softball circuit, will play on Thursday nights this season, it was decided by representatives of a majority of the teams at a meeting held at the Hilltop RECORD office Monday night. Regular city recreation rules will be in effect.

Another meeting to complete organization of the league as either a six or eight team circuit was called for the RECORD office on next Monday evening at 9 o'clock. All managers, sponsors or representatives of teams or prospective teams are asked to be present.

Additional franchise holders to complete the schedule are being sought. Representatives of five teams were present at last Monday's meeting. The adoption of city recreation rules will eliminate the possibility of Franklin independent league players signing with teams in the Hilltop league since the rules forbid a player from playing in more than one league of similar classification.

Representatives of West church league teams attended a meeting of church league managers at the city recreation department last Monday night. A final organization meeting for this circuit is to be called soon to complete plans for its opening around the first of May.

Any softball team desiring games is asked to get in touch with Homer Grimm, manager of McDonald Lumber Co.'s team. This outfit will be in the Hilltop independent league. Grimm may be reached by calling RA. 5735.

Fire Causes Damage To Hilltop Kroger Store

Fire reported by a downtown paper to have been the work of an arsonist caused considerable damage to the Kroger store, 2526 Sullivant-av, early Sunday. Contacted by the Hilltop RECORD this week company officials and Joseph K. Griffin, 460 Hiltonia-av, manager of the store, refused to comment on the incident in any way.

Amount of the damage reported as $375 was neither confirmed nor denied by the store manager. He would not admit having referred to the cause of the blaze as "spite work," as at first reported.

A spokesman at the downtown office said, "We know nothing about the fire."

Firemen and police reported that fires were started in four different places in the store with paper, including part of the store records and wooden boxes.

SCANLON RECEIVES HONOR FOR PUBLIC SERVICE ACTION

Edward B. Scanlon, 552 S. Richardson-av, a repair man for the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., was given an honorable mention in connection with the Theodore N. Vail awards for noteworthy acts of public service last week.

Scanlon was given the honor for his brave actions at a picnic along Big Darby last August. Upon hearing cries for help he noticed a boat had capsized and three persons were struggling in the water. Two were able to swim but the third, a girl, was not. Scanlon jumped into the water after the 13-year-old girl, assisting her to the shore.

The award to Scanlon was the highest in the Ohio Bell territory for 1938.

A new piece of equipment known as the Allen Synchrograph has been added to the ignition equipment of Kimball Brothers garage, corner Chase and Broad-st, this week. The instrument is used to synchronize the entire ignition system of the modern car.

Cycle Club To Ride On Sunday

The Hilltop Cycle club, sponsored by Ray Cycle store, will ride to the storage dam Sunday, starting at 11 a. m. Riders will meet at Ray's, 2516 W. Broad-st. Each one is requested to bring their own lunch.

Syphilis Is Topic Of Talk

A sharp warning against the ravages of syphilis and the alarming spread of the disease was sounded before members of the Hilltop Business Men's association in their monthly meeting Tuesday night by Damon Jackson, nationally known physicist, author and lecturer.

Basing his statements on statistics of medical surveys and numerous case histories of insane persons he labeled syphilis "the most dangerous disease to society today." More than 5,000,000 persons contract it every year by other than congenital means, thus discrediting the common belief that it is only acquired illicitly, the speaker said.

"It is a threat to every one of us," Jackson said.

The program for the meeting was arranged by the florist members of the association and was in charge of Walter Stephens. The tables were decorated with beautiful floral pieces and boutenirs of sweet peas were given each person in attendance. The table pieces were then given as booster prizes at the close of the meeting.

[illegible]

Accordion music was furnished by Elaine Planck and Metta Ogdin. Ray Moore and Lieut Ralph Waugh explained the purpose and progress of the VFW's Bicycle Safety club now in process of forming. The association voted its approval of the project.

Favorable vote was taken on the application for membership of Biltmore restaurant, William E. Jones, Westmore Beauty salon, West Side motor, Schwan Brothers garage, Morgan Murphy service station and Frank Morgan barber shop.

Junior Hi Play Is April 20

Final plans are being made by the glee clubs of West junior high for the production of the musical "In Grand Old Switzerland" on Thursday, Apr. 20, at 8 p. m. at the school auditorium. This operetta will have its initial showing at the Hilltop school. Miss Ola Trump has charge of the production.

With the picturesque setting of old Switzerland, the gay dances of the villagers and the lilting tunes sung by a large chorus, this promises to be an unusually fine operatic vehicle for junior high students.

During the coming week the junior high students will have charge of the ticket sale. Tickets will also be put on sale at the school on the night of the production. General admission price is 25 cents, reserved seats 35 cents.

West Club Plans Reunion

The first alumni reunion of the West High Triangle club (Alpha Omicron Delta) will be held Saturday, May 6, from 4 to 10 p. m. The club has been functioning 13 years and lists among its alumni many well known Hilltop and Columbus residents. This is the first reunion ever attempted by the group.

The annual spring initiation will be held at Galloway tonight with an unusually large number of candidates for membership being subjected to the usual ceremony. Members and neophytes will go to Hell Branch creek at 4 o'clock with an ample food supply.

Officers of the club are Robert Tong, president; Verl Stout, secretary; Jim Smith, vice president, and Leroy Shady, treasurer. C. S. Kennedy is faculty advisor.

Candidates for membership are Bob Zimmer, Ronald Wells, Harold Steele, Milton Sebring, Albert Goodwin, George Greenway, Jack Taylor, Tom Weiland and Bill Hayes.

Our 23rd Year
An Editorial

Today's issue of the Hilltop RECORD, the eleven hundred forty-sixth, marks the anniversary of 22 consecutive years of publication.

On this occasion we reflect with pride the growth from a small beginning to our present paper read by more than 40,000 persons every week. We are proud to have the distinction of Central Ohio's oldest community newspaper, having served the Hilltop since 1917.

It is with a feeling of thanksgiving that we acknowledge the support of business firms and individuals who have made this publication possible. But it is to the readers of this paper that we wish to express our gratitude, whose interest has made this medium of news dissemination one of interest to every group and class on the Hilltop.

Believing that readers of the RECORD desire more than a mere news chronicle this paper has taken up a definite editorial policy on questions that have meant most to the community from the standpoint of growth and development. Needless to say the assertion of a stand on any controversial topic occasions some conflicting field of thought. It has not been the aim or purpose of this paper to encourage differences of opinion but on the contrary the object has been to bind together the potential strength of all groups in accomplishing worthwhile objectives.

With a determination to be of greater community service in the future we launch out on a new year uncertain of its possibilities but availing ourselves with the experience 22 years have brought to do a better job in providing the Hilltop with a better community newspaper; the continued interest and support of every reader being our most cherished possession.

Bicycle Club Membership Shows Rapid Growth

The Bicycle Safety club, sponsored by the Westway Post No. 3441, is rapidly expanding, according to the reports received from J. Cecil Suver, chairman of the safety committee.

Says Suver, "The enrollment during the first week was far above expectations. We believe that the community will be well served in the lessons of safe riding taught by this new organization."

A quota of 25 is the goal of every member of the club, although some have doubled that amount. The Hilltop Business Men's association has given the safety club its endorsement.

Sons of Veterans of the Westway Post No. 3441 held their annual election Tuesday evening at 2393½ W. Broad-st, and elected and installed the following youths as officers for the ensuing year: Robert Chambers, 103 S. Warren-av, commander; Delbert Smith, 870 S. Wayne-av, senior vice commander; Ray Boord jr., 1691 Sullivant-av, junior vice commander; Grover Melvin, 1529 Walsh-av, chaplain; Ralph Martin, 337 S. Burgess-av, office of the day; Richard Martin, 337 S. Burgess-av, quartermaster; Dick Melvin, 1529 Walsh-av, and William Cannon, 151 N. Chase-av, color bearers.

A family in dire need of household furniture and food is reported to the Hilltop RECORD this week by a prominent social worker of the Hilltop. A man, unemployed, his wife, six months old baby and children, age two, three and four years, are being assisted with food and clothing by a local service organization and the worker reporting the case.

Any person having pieces of household furniture, rugs, a stove, non perishable food items or anything that could be donated to this destitute family is asked to call 458 W. Hague-av, or the RECORD office, RA. 1125, for information.

Entries in any of the competing events are welcomed by any persons living on or off the Hilltop, according to E. H. Gildersleeve, 238 N. Ogden-av, chairman of the affair. Complete information as to the type of competition, prizes and rules will be found on page 4 of today's Hilltop RECORD.

Numerous committees have been set up and are now at work on various phases of promoting the eisteddfod.

Rotarians Honor Local Scouts

Recognition of all Columbus Eagle scouts who had received that award last December was made by the Rotarians of this city Monday noon at the Deshler-Wallick hotel during the regular meeting of that organization. Eagle scouts from the Hilltop who attended the luncheon were Dave Riggs and Richard Jantzen, latest Hilltop scouts to attain the award, recognized as the highest obtainable.

During the course of the program presented to the Rotarians Carl Glade, Phil Dunson, Troop 45 of West junior high school, presented demonstrations in signaling with the semaphore code, fire by friction and fire with flint and steel. Tom Morrison, scoutmaster of Troop 45, assisted in the Tenderfoot investiture service during which a new scout was inducted into the scouting movement.

Merrick-Miller Wins Tournament

Following seven week-ends of bowling activity at the Hilltop bowling alleys during which time the city bowling tournament was in progress, the Merrick Miller Dodge five, only entry in the record-breaking field to top the 3,000 mark, was crowned winner of the five-man event after all the entries had finished bowling Sunday evening. The Dodge outfit won the title with a nifty 3,051 score.

The tourney winning group rolled their winning mark on Apr. 1 and the score was never seriously threatened in the final three days of the meet. In second place was the Henkel Meats with a tally of 2,986, far behind the leaders. Trans-American Freight Lines garnered the show position when they bounced the pins for a 2,983 score Sunday night.

The doubles title in the tournament went to Bill Keller and George Koets with their 1,284 total with Jess Herd and Dixie Davis second with 1,274 and Carl Claus and Fred Wedemeyer third, five points behind.

Harry Brady took the lead in the singles division early in the tourney and won the event with his 676 mark. Fritz Schuman took second honors with a 669 and Louie Manetta's 653 was good enough for third.

A record entry of 377 teams competed in the tournament but it is expected that the new ABC rules will serve to lessen the field in next year's play.

STOP IT WITH Alka-Seltzer
Does Headache "slow you down?" You are a rare exception if it does not.
One or two tablets of ALKA-SELTZER in a glass of water makes a pleasant alkalizing solution that usually brings relief in just a few minutes.
ALKA-SELTZER is also recommended for Gas on Stomach, "Morning After", Acid Indigestion, Colds, and Muscular Pains.
You will like the tangy flavor and the results when you take Alka-Seltzer. Alka-Seltzer, when dissolved in water, contains an analgesic, (Sodium Acetyl-Salicylate). In addition, the alkalizing agents in Alka-Seltzer help to relieve those everyday disorders associated with hyperacidity.

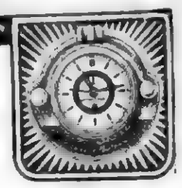
Camp Fire News

Camp Fire Girls of the Hilltop carried away a goodly portion of national honors awarded at the Grand Council fire at the Columbus auditorium Saturday evening, Apr. 1. One of the rarest honors is for "Written Thought." Jacqueline Pfeifer received a Keda in "Written Thought" for her poetry. There were two who received "Keda National Service" honors on their Torch Berare's contribution to national headquarters, namely Dorothy Hingst and Jacqueline Pfeifer. "Uta" honors for design and craftsmanship on their beaded head-bands were awarded to Dorothy Hingst, Jane Roush and Lillie Ann Sharkey, and a "Keda" honor was awarded Jane Hawthorne. Jane Roush was the only Hilltop girl thrifty enough during the past year to receive the national thrift honor.

During the past year a Wakan honor for leadership was awarded, on her report, to Mrs. Irma Hayhurst, guardian of the Wichaka group. Sixteen girls and an assistant guardian were awarded their three-year membership honors, namely Doris Alvey, Margery Benton, Helen Boggs, Betty Conniff, Patty Corder, Mary Ellen Crabbe; Dorthy Hingst, Doris Kaparoff, Pauline Kaufman, Vivian Lewis, Marilyn Myers, Eleanor Noble, Ernestine Noble, Jane Roush, Lillie Ann Sharkey, Anna Ruth Thomas and Mrs. Helen Duncan.

Mrs. Frances Emrich, Wakanya group, Mrs. Irma Hayhurst, Wichaka group, and Mrs. N. Frances Myers, Wacintiwasi group, were awarded their full group honors. The Wakanya and Tewahna groups were awarded needle work guild honors. The Tewahna group, Mrs. Ardis Hawthorne, guardian, was awarded the Five Fagot honor for their contribution to national headquarters which is used to promote Camp Fire in smaller cities.



Passed Rank

Besides the national honors earned a large number of girls passed rank. Those passing the first rank, Trailseeker, were Marilyn Beard, Helen Durenburger, Jane Anne Handenschild, Jean Hilton, Joan Hyatt Ruth Lawless, Dorothy Miller, Charlotte Notchaker and Joan Stokes. Second rank, Woodgathers, Jean Blankner Patty Bohanan, Colleen Chevront, Betty Conniff, Patty Cooper, Betty Crego, Libby Lee Czatt, Elizabeth Dean, Jean Eccles, Kathryn Erf, Jane Gibbon, Flossie Good, Barbara Granville, Betty Ham, Agnes Jane Hart, Iris Kaufman, Callie Kerr, La Donna Marlow, Marilyn Patton, Anita Simmers, Patty Smith, Peggy Taylor, Janelle Walker, Jo Ann Walker, Jane Wheeler, Georgia Wilkes and Jean Wyker. The third rank, Firemaker, Dorothy Harper, Joan Lee Myers, Marilyn Myers, Lois Ray, Shirley Springer and Mrs. N. Frances Myers. There were three girls and one guardian awarded their Torch Bearer Craftsman rank, Mrs. Irma Hayhurst and Patti Pfeifer in citizenship. Mary Elizabeth Herbert in home making and Dorothy Hingst in gardening. The highest rank a Camp Fire Girl can attain is Torch Bearer in social leadership. One of the two Columbus girls to pass this rank, Jacqueline Pfeifer, is a Hilltop girl.

Patti Pfeifer is the youngest girl to pass Torch Bearer Craftsman in Columbus, Aliamarie McConnell, Jane Hawthorne, Barbara Granvill and Charlotte Notchaker had prominent individual parts in the Grand Council Fire.

EARMARKS OF A POLITICAL MOVE

Neighborhood sales tax agents were discontinued in Columbus this week.

Such a move was without notice to the agents and already there have been numerous complaints registered.

A contact with the sales tax department of the state treasurer's office reveals that this was done in an economy move but in view of the fact that each agent paid his or her own expenses we have been unable to figure where the state is going to realize much in the way of a saving.

Then, too, we were told that the county treasurer would deliver the stamps if such a request were to be made. That the county can go into the tax stamp delivery business at a profit is hardly possible as we see it.

Ralph Siniff, chief deputy in the county treasurer's office, reported Thursday morning that the county commissioners had refused to grant permission for the office to make deliveries on tax stamps.

Said Siniff, "Right at this time we are unable to deliver stamps on the Hilltop but will give a definite answer on it next week."

Therefore we have had our beliefs strengthened as the hours have passed today, to wit, that this is nothing but a political move.

For instance: Mr. W. A. Daubenmire, who conducted the local agency, was a Democrat. His agency was eliminated. Economy they said. Now the merchants of the community are kicking because of the inconvenience. This was to be expected. So the next move is to re-establish an agency and put a Republican in the job. Nice move. The state tried to cut expenses but local people demanded the services renewed and so it flops back on the shoulders of the people.

It has appeared that Mr. Daubenmire did a good job of handling the stamps. If the agency is to be established again we think he should have it.

Despite the report that neighborhood agencies were supposed to have been discontinued it was learned that Garnett M. Rhodes, sister of Jim Rhodes, Republican candidate for city auditor, was selling stamps at an agency at 1280 N. High-st.

Congratulations To Camp Chase Post

"Congratulations!"

These are the words that are expressed over and over many times in the special souvenir edition of the Record today on the tenth anniversary of Camp Chase Post of the American Legion.

And these greetings are enthusiastically given and rightfully so. The local post is one of the finest in the state and is made up of a group of men who are above average by far.

For the very low price of $5.00 membership we can see no reason for any West Side or Hilltop ex-service man not becoming a member of the local post. They are carrying on a bit of worthy work.

We join in wishing them well and hope to be able to have their continued cooperation.

What To Do About Investing

A gentleman of our acquaintance has $50,000 and a problem.

His problem is what to do with the $50,000. He has intended to build an office building in his home town. And the town needs the building and he is being urged on all sides to start construction.

But then he has been doing a little figuring. He believes if he lives an average span of life he has about 12 years to go. Then the government would step in and take its cut in inheritance taxes of about $10,000 or more. Then if his wife might be more fortunate and live a few extra years her estate would make another big contribution to the government upon her death.

Figuring all other taxes at the time of construction of the building, this gentleman has determined that he would have a profit of $3,000 on his $50,000 investment over a period of more than 12 years.

Not much incentive here for a man to invest in those things that might profit the community most. And a positive conclusion that the government is your No. 1 br

West Trackmen, Baseballers Active

Having opened their city league campaign in an auspicious manner Wednesday afternoon with a 3-2 win over the Aquinas Terriers on the Mt. Vernon-av diamond, West high's baseballers were to continue play in the league this afternoon, weather permitting, when the North Polar Bears visit the local stronghold. The North-West fracas had previously been scheduled for the former's diamond, but was changed early this week with the Cowboys visiting the Arcadia-av ball park in the second round of play.

The Buckaroos played excellent baseball in edging the Terriers. Richards twirled a masterpiece after the opening inning when he was nicked for two hits and two runs. The diminutive sophomore weathered the initial inning storm and returned to shut out the Irish with two hits and no runs in the final six cantos. His fine mound effort was backed by superb fielding on the part of his teammates. The one error charged against the Bucks was made on an attempted double play which failed as Ned Bell hustled a little too much on his throw.

Double Play

The Cowhands did complete one double killing, however, Rogers to Mack. Both pitchers, J. Walsh for Aquinas and Richards for West gave up four hits. The Irish were charged with two miscues. The Irish combination was made up of two brothers, F. Walsh behind the plate and J. Walsh on the mound.

Following the opening two-run splurge of the Terriers, J. Walsh held the Cowboys in check for two innings but in the third West tallied a run as Bill Mack singled, stole second and crossed the plate as Banker singled to center. The winning explosion occurred in the sixth when Ralph Link took hold of one of Walsh's pitches and knocked it far and wide over the fence, scoring Colburn before him. Link led the Buck hitters with two blows in three trips to the plate and played errorless ball in the field.

Coach Williams had been alternating the infield considerably in the past week and came up in the Aquinas-West game with a fine working infield. Rogers, playing his first game at short handled four chances without a flaw while Bell at second and Mack at first performed steadily if not sensationally. Link covered the hot corner with his usual fine play.

The Polar Bears had been scheduled with South both Tuesday and Wednesday, but rain forced postponement in both cases. The contest was to have been played Thursday, with the weather permitting.

Saturday afternoon the local aggregation will trek to Washington C. H. to meet the Blue Lions. Coach Williams will take along about 16 players, including his four starting twirler, the Neal brothers, Barnet and Richards.

West Track

Hampered considerably by the rainy weather prevalent all this week, West High's track team was to have met South yesterday in a dual meet on the Bulldogs' track. The Buckaroo thinly clads opened their season last Thursday when the strong Central squad gained a 68-50 decision.

The Cowboy trackmen are participating for the first time in dual meets with other schools in the city and will compete in the city meet May 10-11, the Wesleyan relays at Delaware on Apr. 29 and the district track meet at Delaware on May 20. A soggy track and cold weather have cut down the performances of the locals in regard to times thus far but Coach George Collins, Buck track mentor, foresees better times as the season progresses.

Zulauf Stars

Outstanding for the Cowhands in the Central meet were Bob Zulauf and Howard Gentry. Zulauf captured the 120 yard high hurdles and took second place in the quarter-mile and broad jump. Gentry tied for first in the 220 yard low hurdles and won runner-up spots in the shot put and discus. The Pirates counted heavily in the track events while West gained most of its total in the field events, scoring one-two in the broad jump, high hurdles and pole vault.

The current Cowboy track team was chosen from the intra-class meet held earlier in the year, with the outstanding performers now composing the local cinder squad. According to Coach Collins the inter-class meet will be an annual affair in the future.

Following is the remainder of the track sked:

Apr. 29—Ohio Wesleyan relays at Delaware.
May 3—West at Aquinas (tentative).
May 10-11—City meet.
May 16—East at West.
May 20—District track meet at Delaware.

Beacon Club Ready For Play

Everything is in readiness at the Beacon Light Golf course for early season play contingent of course on the uncertain weatherman. Continued rains through the week had greens and fairways soggy but only a little sun and wind are needed to put the course in playing condition.

The Beacon Light nine-hole course is located one quarter mile south of Rome and is under the management of Jack Kidwell, who is beginning his second year in that capacity. Memberships are being signed up for the regular playing season. An innovation in this season's policy will be a special reduced membership fee for groups using the greens on week days only.

Kidwell says a meeting of all members will be called in the near future for the purpose of electing a handicap and rules committee and a club treasurer to work out details of tournament play at various times throughout the season.

All greens and fairways mowing equipment has been purchased new for the course permitting two complete mowings of the course each week. A special five-gang mower will greatly speed up the mowing task.

The course, said to be one of the sportiest nine-hole layouts in or near the city, has become an increasingly popular one with Hilltop golfers due to its location. It can be reached by Sullivant-av or W. Broad-st.

Death Takes Veteran Hilltop Fireman Sun.

The death of Captain Noah Dukeman last Sunday, commanding officer for the No. 16 Engine company at Chestnut and Fourth-sts, marked a record of 52 years service in the fire department.

Known for his numerous citations of bravery and heroism throughout the city, he has been a veteran of every major fire after 1890.

He left his post in January on a three-month sick leave from his work. Being a large man of strong physique, Captain Dukeman was not known to have been off duty because of illness during his entire career.

He resided at 421 Larcomb-av and was a native of Columbus. As a boy he began the tinner's trade in a north side shop as a fellow worker of former Fire Chief Allen E. Nice.

On Mar. 1, 1887, Captain Dukeman entered the fire department and 30 days later was joined by Nice. In November, 1892, he was promoted to lieutenant, and in 1897 to captain.

Because of his knowledge of tinning, he had charge of roofing repairs of all the fire engine houses in the city.

Two years ago Captain Dukeman was the guest of honor at a dinner at No. 16 engine house held in recognition of his 50 years of service.

He is survived by his wife, Ida; a daughter, Miss Ida Frances Dukeman; a son, George E. Dukeman, and two sisters, Mrs. James Kelley and Mrs. James Fahner. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 9 o'clock in the St. Joseph's cathedral.

Names Confuse Chorus Director-Judge Found

A case of mistaken identity was just one of the problems being ironed out by the committee at work on the Hilltop's first eisteddfod to be held at Hillcrest Baptist church on May 26.

Last week W. Hayden Jones, director of the Hilltop chorus, sponsors of the affair, was looking for some one to adjudicate the singing competition. Six years ago he had heard a certain Prof. Reeder (he thought) adjudicate a similar event and was much impressed by his work.

"He's our man," said Jones and immediately set out to contact him.

He [illegible] at the Ohio State [illegible], friend told him. [illegible] the seat of learning [illegible] to speak to Prof. Reeder.

"Could I see you for a few minutes this [illegible]," he asked the professor.

"Surest thing," was the reply. "Be in my office at 2."

Vendercook [illegible] Hilltop music was at [illegible] office beforehand. [illegible] for 45 minutes and was [illegible] Reeder would see him.

"We want [illegible] adjudicate our competitive singing," Jones explained after introductions were made and his business made known.

"But there must be a mistake," his host replied. "I have adjudicated recitation competition but I don't know "do" from "fa" in music.

His visitor was plainly stumped. "Isn't there anybody around here that does adjudicate music?"

Prof. Reader thought, Jones thought. Finally the faculty directory made a startling revelation. There was a Prof. Leeder in the school of music.

"Sure, he's your man," Prof. Reeder exclaimed. "He adjudicates music."

Jones dashed over to the school of music.

"Prof. Leeder left here five minutes ago," he was told.

Later contact revealed that Prof. Leeder would adjudicate the Hilltop eisteddfod so Jones' work was not in vain.

"Goo, but was my face red when I remembered I was looking for a music adjudicator in the (of all places) college of commerce," Hayden sighed.

Clothes, Hats, Haircuts; Gracebelle Likes Them All

By Wanda Percy

Talking to Gracebelle Day is certainly a pleasurable occupation and when two of the weaker sex get together need I say what the topic of conversation is? Clothes of course. At last I have found someone who will admit that she likes this season's hats. Miss Day loves them and the more different they are the better she likes them.

Gracebelle has just left Chicago and, upon being questioned as to the fads and fancies of Chicago styles, she states that there is very little difference in the clothes of Columbus and those of the Windy City. Skirts are shorter, dresses are reminiscent of little girl days and there is no more to a pair of shoes there than there is here. Doll haircuts are in style and Gracebelle wears hers rather short and very becomingly so.

She thinks Chicago is just Columbus on a larger scale and says that she isn't the only one who thinks so. The Chez Paree makes working a pleasure and according to Miss Day it's the kind of show business she likes to be in. On May 19 Miss Day will open at the Palace theatre with Benny Goodman and his band. The same month the motion picture short she made will be released. In short, she worked with Leota Lane, the fourth sister of the famous Lane sisters of Hollywood. She will probably work at one of the fairs this summer.

VACATIONERS

Easter vacationing on the Hilltop: ED HUGHES and CHUCK WYGANT from Ohio Wesleyan, HOWDY HARRISON and DICK BOYER from Ohio University and FRANK RICHEY from Hun Prep. And GRACE-BELLE DAY did get home for Easter, and will be here for a short vacation.

We enjoyed the return of "The Lookout" by author Doc Wolfe—and wish we could have more of it.

CHIVALRY

A sight that we thoroughly enjoyed seeing only recently on West Broad St. was a street car conductor courteous enough to leave his post and help an elderly passenger to the pavement.

NEW ARRIVAL

Spotted proudly coming into Grant Hospital t'other day was Doc Bates, the ex-prexy of H. B. M. A. Later we learned there was reason enough for the chesty entry—a new son—congratulations!

UPSIDE DOWN

Couldn't help being amused at the lovely candlewick bed-spread put on a bed upside down in the Hilltop Furniture Co.

Hal Brown's orchestra will swing it out for the jitterbugs, and just the plain old waltzers at the Hilltop Business Men's Dance next Wednesday evening.

PATRIOTISM

Only recently we've noted a patriotic fervor demonstrated in the average theatre audience. We think, and sincerely hope, the fervor is the expression of the thankfulness of the American people that they ARE Americans, and not any wish to HAVE to fight for the colors.

INFANTICIPATING

The North Hague Ave. Jack Kights are listening for the flapping of that CERTAIN big bird's wings very soon now.

WILD VACATION DREAMS

In spite of, or maybe because of, the two fairs offered to the American people this summer, we can think of no nicer way to spend our vacation than to charter one of the biggest lake steamers on the Great Lakes—for our own exclusive use, mind you—and spend the whole summer going where and how we darn well pleased.

CHILDHOOD ROMANCE

The Doris Clark-John Parker knot was tied Saturday last, climaxes a romance that began several years ago.

If you ever get bored, and think nothing EVER happens to you just get the old joy-wagon out some nice spring evening, and ride up and down a busy street. You'll swear they're all out gunning for you, or at least that's the feeling we had one night this past week. On ONE innocent trip from the Hilltop to down town we saw a car run smack-dab into the curbing, then we nearly ran down a five ton truck and came very close to locking horns with a fire engine—all within the space of about 10 minutes.

BOWLING STAR

Busy bowler, Jack Shank, made inquiry about his picture which is kept on hand in this office at all times a short time ago. Cleveland and Cincinnati have played hosts to the famous Shank in recent weeks, who with his wife and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Percy, showed his stuff in these two cities.

ALL IN FUN

Frank Holycross says he knew J. W. was back at the post of columnist two weeks ago by the way things were messed up. It so happens that F. H. will ONLY manage the Hoge Memorial team this season. Tsk, tsk, Doc!

Frank Richey, one of West High's athletic immortals, is now a member of Hun Prep's track squad. Just finishing his athletic chores with the basketball group he was also outstanding on the gridiron for the Prepsters.

CARDINAL MATERIAL?

Bob Whetstone, another former Buck star, has departed for Springfield, Mo., where he did a little pitching for the Grand Island ball club last season. Whetstone will play with Worthington, Minn., of the Nebraska State league, a Cardinal chain club, this coming campaign.

MORE BASEBALL

Named to the Hilltop Merchant league all-star team this season were F. Link, Whetstone, R. Brannigan, Mitchell and Weigand. The basketball circuit played most of its games on Saturday afternoons with the Campbell's Drugs quintet the winner.

THIS-N-THAT

The bright early morning smile of Herb Deems is an incentive to start the day right. What we want to know is where HE gets the incentive.

We hope that case of laryngitis that kept Art Bellar so silent a week or two ago has gone by now!

The Ridge Avenue Bakers have moved to 150 N. Roys.

Harry Briggs and his newly acquired spouse are making their home temporarily with the elder Briggs.

Among the Hilltoppers at the Jorg Fasting ballet Sunday evening were the C. C. Hartleys.

Haunts May Run For Mayor

That Ray Hauntz may be a candidate for mayor of Columbus was indicated by his friends this week despite rumors to the effect that he had given up the idea and was to be a candidate for city council.

Hauntz, when interviewed this week, would make no statement. It is believed that should he not enter the mayoralty campaign he will be a candidate for city council.

West Bucks Lead City High League

South Is Next Opponent In City Baseball Circuit

Out in front in the City league baseball tussle by virtue of successive wins over East and North this week, West high's Buckaroos will trek to South this afternoon and down to Central Tuesday with the intention of strengthening their hold on the top position.

The Cowboys now possess a record of four straight wins, three of which were City league frays. They have beaten Aquinas, East and North within the circuit and Washington C. H. in a non-league contest.

The Bengals from East were represented on the mound by Bill Novak, a sophomore pitching find, and the Bucks had their hands tied until the fourth when they scored a single run. This was followed by a three run splurge in the fifth while Paul Rogers banged out a home run in the sixth to finish the West scoring.

East also found the range in its half of the fourth as two hits, an error and a passed ball gave up two runs. The Bengals made their final marker in the sixth when three singles were responsible for one run. The final score was 5-3.

Jake Richards twirled his second straight league win although touched for eight hits by the Tigers. He retired the first 11 men in order, faltered a little in the fourth with two out and finished the contest by fanning two of the three batters to face him in the seventh. West could only gain five blows off Novak's deliveries but four of these were extra base knocks, a homer, triple and two doubles.

The Cowhands walloped North 12-6 at North Wednesday afternoon in a postponed game from last week for their third successive league win. Each team garnered nine hits but the Bucks managed to outscore the Polar Bears in the slug-fest.

'Strib" Neal started for West on the mound with Barret twirling the final two cantos, Neal being credited with the win. Dinle and Blackstone led the homforces at the plate with two hits each in three trips while Carter pounded out a home run.

The West golf team lost a 12-0 decision to Worthington's top flight golfers last Tuesday and will meet Aquinas Saturday at Groveport.

Eleanor Seiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Seiller, 29 Eldonav, has been elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary fraternity. Miss Seiller is a senior at Ohio Wesleyan university and will graduate in June. Her major is education.

Senior Circuit Doubtful

Class B Softball League Ready For Opener

Indications that the Senior Church league, for 10 years the Hilltop's toughest softball circuit, would cease to function this season became more apparent this week as final plans were being made by executives of the Hilltop Independent league and the Class B church league for opening games.

At a special meeting held at the Glenwood shelter house Tuesday evening only two of the eight teams which had composed the senior league last season were present, Hoge Memorial and St. Aloysius, both title contenders in the past. Among those teams which failed to send representatives were Glenwood M. E., Calvary Presbyterian, Burgess U. B., Memorial Baptist, St. John's, Westgate Evangelical and Holy Family. Frank Colburn, 370 S. Burgess-av, long a Hilltop softball enthusiast, said that if any signs of interest would be forthcoming toward the construction of the league he would be more than glad to have representatives contact him at his home or that teams could secure franchises from the city recreation department.

Attempts to organize the league to date have resulted in bitter disappointments. In view of the fact that large crowds were in attendance at all games last year no satisfactory reason can be given as yet for the circuit not organizing.

While the discussions concerning the senior loop were still under consideration the Class B league has organized with six teams being represented and will begin play Monday, May 8, at McKinley field. The six outfits composing the junior group are Hilltop C. of C., Highland Avenue Friends, Hillcrest Baptist, West Park M. E., Avondale U. B. and Hoge Memorial No. 2. No opening schedule has been announced as yet and possibilities for the addition of one or two more organizations were still in the offing.

Assurance of a sixth team in the Hilltop Independent league was virtually certain this week following the announcement that Jack Stewart would manage an entry in the loop. A sponsor has

Stab Is Fatal To Salesman

An argument over a $6 magazine was responsible this week for the death of Virgil Frasure, 33, a beauty shop supply salesman. Frasure had just sold a magazine subscription to Mr. and Mrs. Tony Casa, 2215 W. Broad-st, owners and operators of the beauty and barber shop located there, when Edwin M. Collins, Chicago, entered and tried to make the same sale.

The two men left the shop discussing which had the right to the commission. Not long afterward Frasure staggered into the shop, a knife wound in his stomach from which he died Tuesday morning in Mt. Carmel hospital. Shortly before his death Frasure signed a warrant for Collins' arrest.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lutie Lorena Marshall; one son, Harold Marshall, 43 W. North Broadway; a sister, Mrs. Lydia A. Wilcox, 43 S. Ogden-av, and three grandchildren. Funeral services were held at 1:30 p. m., Wednesday by Jay Spears. Burial was in Green Lawn cemetery.

CAMP CHASE POST

The Hilltop Record

SOUVENIR EDITION

Vol 23, No. 1 — Columbus, O., Friday, April 21, 1939 — Legion Edition

Camp Chase Legion Post No. 98 Celebrates Tenth Anniversary

Post Was Organized In 1929

Camp Chase post No. 98 of the American Legion was established in 1929, when 26 men met at 12 S. Wayne-av, for the purpose of organization. Its name, Camp Chase post, was taken from the confederate prison camp located where West high school now stands; the camp in turn named in honor of Salmon P. Chase, once a United States senator who was later elected governor of the state of Ohio in 1855.

The number 98 which is associated with the post is in honor of Veterans of the Spanish American war.

Of the 26 members of the original organization 10 were legionnaires at the time and after the remaining 16 had signed the pledge, a charter was granted to the post.

The peak membership was reached in 1932-33 when 527 members were enrolled. Claude V. Hasson was first commander of the local post succeeding himself in 1930. Edgar Planck served as commander in 1931, with Mose Williams, George M. Ward, Dr. A. C. Myers, James F. Hurd, William H. Rogers, D. C. Finneran, Ray McVay succeeding him in the following years. Arthur J. Bellar is present commander.

The first club rooms were located on the second floor of the Rivoli theatre building and were recognized as the first legion club rooms in Franklin county. Due to growing membership larger quarters were needed and club rooms were moved to 2392½ W. Broad-st, and thence to 2393½ W. Broad the following year. In November, 1933, this location was enlarged and in 1938 post headquarters were moved to 3184 W. Broad-st, the former location of the Matsonia restaurant.

Camp Chase post was officially presented with its colors by Theodore J. Arnold, GAR veteran, on Memorial Day, May 26, 1928, with Commander Claude V. Hasson receiving. Myers Y. Cooper, then governor of Ohio delivered the presentation address. The meeting was held on the West high athletic field.

Many organizations participated in this ceremony. The United Spanish War Veterans Drum and Bugle corps, the Dokkies Drill team, the Franklin post and many other posts in the city as well as a number of prominent business men. Judge Edward S. Mathias was M. C. at the ceremonies which was attended by 3,500.

One of the annual events sponsored by the Camp Chase post is the Memorial Day services at Galloway, Memorial Burial park, Alton and Wesley Chapel cemeteries. Officers of the group have also participated in the annual services of the Daughters of the Confederacy at Camp Chase cemetery.

Committee In Charge of Jubilee

Jubilee Open To Public

Ten years of service to this community are being celebrated this week by Camp Chase Post No. 98 of the American Legion.

Outstanding features of the celebration will be a big Tenth Anniversary Jubilee at West high school auditorium Saturday evening of this week, at which time the post will present a wide array of talent in an outstanding show which will be open to the public and no admission charged. The curtain will go up at 8:15 promptly. Seats in the auditorium will be available beginning at 7 p. m.

This event is being sponsored by the local legion post in appreciation of the cooperation of the community in their many endeavors over the past 10 years.

Camp Chase post occupies one of the finest club rooms in central Ohio. Ralph Schmelzer, who has worked as a member of the finance committee for the post for five years, has been of much assistance in making such headquarters possible. He is owner of the new Schmelzer's restaurant next door to the post and leased the post headquarters after it was remodeled to their specifications.

They have occupied the new quarters since last Labor Day.

Financial condition of Camp Chase post is among the best in the state. They have accumulated a substantial savings account in addition to carrying on a steady program of activities in various fields.

Auxiliary Is Tops In Ohio

Less than two months after Camp Chase post was organized the wives, sisters and mothers of Camp Chase post members began making plans for their own organization. From this idea on June 6, 1929, the post auxiliary was formed. Its tentative charter contained 12 names.

Four months after its inception colors were presented to the ladies by Geo. Pekras.

From this humble beginning in 1929, the auxiliary rose to the lofty peak of being first in size in Ohio, and ninth in the country in 1933, with 247 members.

As an adjunct to the post it has been most helpful. It fosters the organization of Daughters of Legionnaires in its junior auxiliary.

Its poppy sale each year for which it expends the entire proceeds in soldier relief work is just one of its major activities for which every legionnaire is both proud and grateful.

The presidents of the auxiliary to date have been:

Helen Hoar, '29-'30.
Mildred Williams, '31.
Lillian Richardson, '32.
Delia Wagner, '33.
Mabel Rogers, '34.
Mildred Myers, '35.
Edna Bellar, '36.
Bertha Planck, '37.
Martha Finneran, '38-'39.

Objectives, Aims Of Legion Child Aid Explained

Purposes and objectives:

Q. What is the primary purpose of the child welfare program of the American Legion and its affiliate organizations, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Forty and Eight, and the Eight and Forty?

A. To insure care, protection, and service for children of World War veterans who are in need, because of death, disability or neglect, or because of ecobomic conditions.

Q. What other purpose is accomplished in successful operation of the child welfare program?

A. Improvement of conditions for all dependent, handicapped and crippled American children.

Q. How is this accomplished?

A. Our child welfare program works for improved legislation to provide better laws for the care and protection of all children.

Q. What are the main objectives of the American Legion child welfare program?

A. To organize the strength of the American Legion and its affiliates so that they may be a factor in:

(1) Improvement of conditions affecting children in every community;

(2) Furnishing information to members and the public about existing child welfare conditions and facilities;

(3) Inviting public attention to needs in the field of child welfare;

(4) Assisting in coordinating the efforts and resources of all agencies in the community;

(5) Providing for needy, dependent and handicapped children of World War veterans when community facilities are lacking, not available, or insdequate.

Q. What is the policy of the American Legion in utilizing local, community county and state existing services?

A. The American Legion does not relieve local agencies, either private or public, of their responsibilities. It believes that where local services exist they should be used. Its members are those who are charged with administration of existing agencies. Conditions vary in separate localities and the answer must be discovered in the community affected.

Haunts May Run For Mayor

That Ray Haunts may be a candidate for mayor of Columbus was indicated by his friends this week despite rumors to the effect that he had given up the idea and was to be a candidate for city council.

Hauntz, when interviewed this week, would make no statement. It is believed that should he not enter the mayoralty campaign he will be a candidate for city council.

West Bucks Lead City High League

South Is Next Opponent In City Baseball Circuit

Out in front in the City league baseball tussle by virtue of successive wins over East and North this week, West high's Buckaroos will trek to South this afternoon and down to Central Tuesday with the intention of strengthening their hold on the top position.

The Cowboys now possess a record of four straight wins, three of which were City league frays. They have beaten Aquinas, East and North within the circuit and Washington C. H. in a non-league contest.

The Bengals from East were represented on the mound by Bill Novak, a sophomore pitching find, and the Bucks had their hands tied until the fourth when they scored a single run. This was followed by a three run splurge in the fifth while Paul Rogers banged out a home run in the sixth to finish the West scoring.

East also found the range in its half of the fourth as two hits, an error and a passed ball gave up two runs. The Bengals made their final marker in the sixth when three singles were responsible for one run. The final score was 5-3.

Jake Richards twirled his second straight league win although touched for eight hits by the Tigers. He retired the first 11 men in order, faltered a little in the fourth with two out and finished the contest by fanning two of the three batters to face him in the seventh. West could only gain five blows off Novak's deliveries but four of these were extra base knocks, a homer, triple and two doubles.

The Cowhands walloped North 12-8 at North Wednesday afternoon in a postponed game from last week for their third successive league win. Each team garnered nine hits but the Bucks managed to outscore the Polar Bears in the slug-fest.

'Strib" Neal started for West on the mound with Barret twirling the final two cantos, Neal being credited with the win. Link and Blackstone led the home forces at the plate with two hits each in three trips while Carter pounded out a home run.

The West golf team lost a 13-0 decision to Worthington's top flight golfers last Tuesday and will meet Aquinas Saturday at Groveport.

HONORED

Miss Seiller

Eleanor Seiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Seiller, 29 Eldonav, has been elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary fraternity. Miss Seiller is a senior at Ohio Wesleyan university and will graduate in June. Her major is education.

Her sister, Dorothy, a graduate of the same school, was likewise honored with this recognition.

Senior Circuit Doubtful

Class B Softball League Ready For Opener

Indications that the Senior Church league, for 10 years the Hilltop's toughest softball circuit, would cease to function this season became more apparent this week as final plans were being made by executives of the Hilltop Independent league and the Class B church league for opening games.

At a special meeting held at the Glenwood shelter house Tuesday evening only two of the eight teams which had composed the senior league last season were present, Hoge Memorial and St. Aloysius, both title contenders in the past. Among those teams which failed to send representatives were Glenwood M. E., Calvary Presbyterian, Burgess U. B., Memorial Baptist, St. John's, Westgate Evangelical and Holy Family. Frank Colburn, 370 S. Burgess-av, long a Hilltop softball enthusiast, said that if any signs of interest would be forthcoming toward the construction of the league he would be more than glad to have representatives contact him at his home or that teams could secure franchises from the city recreation department.

Attempts to organize the league to date have resulted in bitter disappointments. In view of the fact that large crowds were in attendance at all games last year no satisfactory reason can be given as yet for the circuit not organizing.

While the discussions concerning the senior loop were still under consideration the Class B league has organized with six teams being represented and will begin play Monday, May 8, at McKinley field. The six outfits composing the junior group are Hilltop C. of C., Highland Avenue Friends, Hillcrest Baptist, West Park M. E., Avondale U. B. and Hoge Memorial No. 2. No opening schedule has been announced as yet and possibilities for the addition of one or two more organizations were still in the offing.

Assurance of a sixth team in the Hilltop Independent league was virtually certain this week following the announcement that Jack Stewart would manage an entry in the loop. A sponsor has

Stab Is Fatal To Salesman

An argument over a $6 magazine was responsible, this week, for the death of Virgil Frasure, 33, a beauty shop supply salesman. Frasure had just sold a magazine subscription to Mr. and Mrs. Tony Casa, 2215 W. Broad st, owners and operators of the beauty and barber shop located there, when Edwin M. Collins, Chicago, entered and tried to make the same sale.

The two men left the shop discussing which had the right to the commission. Not long afterward Frasure staggered into the shop, a knife wound in his stomach from which he died Tuesday morning in Mt. Carmel hospital. Shortly before his death Frasure signed a warrant for Collins' arrest.

Elmer Marshall Buried Wednesday

Elmer Ellsworth Marshall, retired express messenger for the American Railway Express Co., died last Sunday night at his home, 79 N. Oakley-av, at the age of 76. He was stricken with paralysis two weeks ago.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lutie Lorena Marshall; one son, Harold Marshall, 68 W. North Broadway; a sister, Mrs. Lydia A. Wilcox, 43 S. Ogden-av, and three grandchildren. Funeral services were held at 1:30 p. m., Wednesday by Jerry Spears. Burial was in Green Lawn cemetery.

"Now, since I have the honor to have been appointed chaplain for the penitentiary, this will be my last Sunday among you, and I will ask the choir to stand and sing, 'Meet Me There'."

Care of Mothers Stressed By American Legion

The United States Children's bureau and the Maternity Center association agree that each year 15,000 mothers or prospective mothers die from the cause of child birth. It is stated that each mother's death has direct effect on the lives of two and one-half children, and that means that 38,000 boys and girls must start life each year under a most serious handicap. Two-thirds of these mothers' deaths are preventable, which means that 25,000 children are unnecessarily left motherless each year. This happens in the United States.

The American Legion has undertaken a program of bringing information to both men and women regarding the necessity of examinations, care and treatment for mothers and prospective mothers during the pre-natal and post-natal periods; the duty and responsibility of the father in aiding the mother to secure this care, and such other information as will very materially reduce the number of needless deaths, thus giving more and more children their chance of a fair start toward citizenship through the loving care and training of a fine mother. It is another valuable service the legion is rendering.

Rules Listed For Citizen And Sportsman

Analogies between sportsmar and citizenship as taken fron an article in connection with the baseball rules for the 1939 junior baseball tournament for the American legion, which will be held in Springfield are as follows:

1. The good sportsman ha learned respect for rules. The good citizen has also learned respect for rules, though the rules which he respects are more properly known as laws.

2. The good sportsman has learned fair play. The good citizen has also learned fair play in that he is always tolerant of the political, economic and religious views of others.

3. The good sportsman has learned loyalty. The good citizen has also learned loyalty, the basis of all sound organization.

4. The good sportsman has learned teamwork. The good citizen has also learned teamwork, which is merely another name for cooperation. A nation of individualists would pass swiftly into anarchy.

5. The good sportsman has learned gameness. A good citizen has also learned gameness in that he does not capitulate or whine when the tide sets against him. The grumbler lacks sportsmanship.

6. The good sportsman has learned democracy. The good citizen has also learned democracy in that he recognizes no standard of human excellence save merit.

Haunts May Run For Mayor

That Ray Haunts may be a candidate for mayor of Columbus was indicated by his friends this week despite rumors to the effect that he had given up the idea and was to be a candidate for city council.

Hauntz, when interviewed this week, would make no statement. It is believed that should he not enter the mayoralty campaign he will be a candidate for city council.

HONORED

Miss Seiller

Eleanor Seiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Seiller, 29 Eldon-av, has been elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary fraternity. Miss Seiller is a senior at Ohio Wesleyan university and will graduate in June. Her major is education.

Her sister, Dorothy, a graduate of the same school, was likewise honored with this recognition.

Out in front in the City league baseball tussle by virtue of successive wins over East and North this week, West high's Buckaroos will trek to South this afternoon and down to Central Tuesday with the intention of strengthening their hold on the top position.

The Cowboys now possess a record of four straight wins, three of which were City league frays. They have beaten Aquinas, East and North within the circuit and Washington C. H. in a non-league contest.

The Bengals from East were represented on the mound by Bill Novak, a sophomore pitching find, and the Bucks had their hands tied until the fourth when they scored a single run. This was followed by a three run splurge in the fifth while Paul Rogers banged out a home run in the sixth to finish the West scoring.

East also found the range in the half of the fourth as two hits, an error and a passed ball gave up two runs. The Bengals made their final marker in the sixth when three singles were responsible for one run. The final score was 5-3.

Jake Richards twirled his second straight league win although touched for eight hits by the Tigers. He retired the first 11 men in order, faltered a little in the fourth with two out and finished the contest by fanning two of the three batters to face him in the seventh. West could only gain five blows off Novak's deliveries but four of these were extra base knocks, a homer, triple and two doubles.

The Cowhands walloped North 13-6 at North Wednesday afternoon in a postponed game from last week for their third successive league win. Each team garnered nine hits but the Bucks managed to outscore the Polar Bears in the slug-fest.

'Strib" Neal started for West on the mound with Barret twirling the final two cantos, Neal being credited with the win. Link and Blackstone led the home forces at the plate with two hits each in three trips while Carter pounded out a home run.

The West golf team lost a 13-0 decision to Worthington's top flight golfers last Tuesday and will meet Aquinas Saturday at Groveport.

Senior Circuit Doubtful

Class B Softball League Ready For Opener

Indications that the Senior Church league, for 10 years the Hilltop's toughest softball circuit, would cease to function this season became more apparent this week as final plans were being made by executives of the Hilltop Independent league and the Class B church league for opening

At a special meeting held at the Glenwood shelter house Tuesday evening only two of the eight teams which had composed the senior league last season were present, Hoge Memorial and St. Aloysius, both title contenders in the past. Among those teams which failed to send representatives were Glenwood M. E., Calvary Presbyterian, Burgess U. B., Memorial Baptist, St. John's, Westgate Evangelical and Holy Family. Frank Colburn, 370 S. Burgess-av, long a Hilltop softball enthusiast, said that if any signs of interest would be forthcoming toward the construction of the league he would be more than glad to have representatives contact him at his home or that teams could secure franchises from the city recreation department.

Attempts to organize the league to date have resulted in bitter disappointments. In view of the fact that large crowds were in attendance at all games last year no satisfactory reason can be given as yet for the circuit not organizing.

While the discussions concerning the senior loop were still under consideration the Class B league has organized with six teams being represented and will begin play Monday, May 8, at McKinley field. The six outfits composing the junior group are Hilltop C. of C., Highland Avenue Friends, Hillcrest Baptist, West Park M. E., Avondale U. B. and Hoge Memorial No. 2. No opening schedule has been announced as yet and possibilities for the addition of one or two more organizations were still in the offing.

Assurance of a sixth team in the Hilltop Independent league was virtually certain this week following the announcement that Jack Stewart would manage an entry in the loop. A sponsor has

Stab Is Fatal To Salesman

An argument over a $6 magazine was responsible, this week, for the death of Virgil Frasure, 33, a beauty shop supply salesman. Frasure had just sold a magazine subscription to Mr. and Mrs. Tony Cass, 2215 W. Broad st, owners and operators of the beauty and barber shop located there, when Edwin M. Collins, Chicago, entered and tried to make the same sale.

The two men left the shop discussing which had the right to the commission. Not long afterward Frasure staggered into the shop, a knife wound in his stomach from which he died Tuesday morning in Mt. Carmel hospital. Shortly before his death Frasure signed a warrant for Collins' arrest.

Elmer Marshall Buried Wednesday

Elmer Ellsworth Marshall, retired express messenger for the American Railway Express Co. died last Sunday night at his home, 79 N. Oakley-av, at the age of 76. He was stricken with paralysis two weeks ago.

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Lutie Lorena Marshall; one son, Harold Marshall, 68 W. North Broadway; a sister, Mrs. Lydia A. Wilcox, 43 S. Ogden av, and three grandchildren. Funeral services were held at 1:30 p. m., Wednesday by Jos. Spears. Burial was in Green Lawn cemetery.
